(SEAL)

ROBERT BYRNE,
Secretary of State.

So the roll was called and there were 112 members present, Representative Godwin being absent, so a quorum was declared present.

Representative Lillehaugen moved that the Chief Clerk appoint a committee of three to escort Justice Nuessle of the State Supreme Court to the rostrum, which motion prevailed.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Lillehaugen, Savre and Traynor to escort Justice Nuessle to the rostrum.

Justice Nuessle, upon being escorted to the rostrum, addressed the members as follows:

"This is an impressive moment, ladies and gentlemen. The duties you are about to assume are extremely important and burdensome. I know of no greater responsibility cast upon any body of men and women than the task of framing the laws, and this is especially the case in moments of emergency such as now confront the state and nation. In view of this fact I must ask every one to stand while this oath is administered."

The oath of office was then administered to the 112 members present.

Reverend Father Slag of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Bismarck offered prayer.

The Chief Clerk announced that the first order of business would be the election of a Speaker to preside over the House during the session, and that nominations were now in order.

Representative Swett, in presenting the name of Mrs. Minnie D. Craig, Representative from Benson County, spoke as follows:

Mr. Swett:

"At this time I wish to place in nomination a candidate for Speaker of the House. Mr. Chief Clerk, two years ago about this time I placed in nomination the name of a candidate for Speaker. That candidate was not selected. I am confident that the candidate I am about to place before you for your consideration today will receive the approval of this House.

"We are making history today. I am highly pleased to have the privilege and the honor that has been accorded me of making this nomination. The candidate that I am about to mention is a woman. I believe, Mr. Chief Clerk, that never before in the history of this state, or so far as I know in the history of the United States—and very likely in the history of the world—never before has a woman been accorded the honor of presiding over a legislative session. So I say again that we are making history here today, not only state but national, and possibly international. Now, in selecting a candidate for Speaker, of course there are many things that must be taken into consideration. There must have been a period of servitude as representative of the people, that one may be familiar with legislative problems. There must also be the support of the predominating faction which offers that candidate as their choice of Speaker. No Speaker can succeed without the support of a majority, and a hearty, free-will support. I am sure the lady I am about to mention has that support. I am further mindful of the fact that through her legislative experience and her happy, sunny disposition, through her voice, and her calm, mature judgment—all the attributes that go toward the making of a successful Speaker—that my candidate is blessed with all of these qualifications, Mr. Chief Clerk and Ladies and Gentlemen of this House, I am very pleased to place before you for your consideration the name of Minnie D. Craig.

“She is a member of some six sessions experience as representative from Benson County and I am sure she will meet with your approval and at the end of this session we can all say we are just as good friends of Mrs. Craig as we are today, and that under her able leadership we may have accomplished many GOOD THINGS for the taxpayers of the State of North Dakota and especially am I pleased to present her name for consideration because I realize that it will be a new arrangement in political thought for women—not only in North Dakota and the United States, but for women all over the world. As a matter of fact, in politics, it is my belief we need more women. I think it will be an encouragement to women all over the world to step out and achieve political honors and take their place in the world’s realm of activities to which they are entitled. Too often we think of women as cooks and help meets but under the new order of things women are beginning to play a larger part in the world of politics—so again I am glad to have the honor and privilege of placing this woman before you for your consideration—MINNIE D. CRAIG.”

Representative Holthusen, of Richland County, presented the name of Rep. J. M. Thompson of Burleigh County as the candidate of the Democratic party for the position of Speaker, speaking as follows:

“On behalf of the Democrats of this State I wish to say that I think at this time we should elect a man who is in line with the National Administration. The man I am presenting is an old pioneer and farmer of this state. He is honest, able and always ready to give the best there is in him, and it gives me great pleasure at this time to present the name of J. M. Thompson of Burleigh County for the office of Speaker.”

Representative Flannigan:

"The pleasure I have in seconding the nomination of Minnie D. Craig for Speaker has not been exceeded by any other act in my experience. She has been a tireless and faithful worker for the people of North Dakota. Stutsman County is proud and honored to have the pleasure of seconding her nomination."

Representative Stoa of Ward County:

"I deem it a great pleasure to have the opportunity of seconding the nomination of Mrs. Minnie D. Craig as our next Speaker."

Representative Johnston of Wash County:

"I take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of J. M. Thompson for Speaker."

Representative Crockett of Cavalier:

"I take pleasure in seconding the nomination of Minnie D. Craig. The people of the northeastern part of the state will be pleased and satisfied at the selection of Mrs. Craig for Speaker."

Representative Hill of Cavalier:

"I am very glad indeed to second the nomination of Mrs. Minnie D. Craig for Speaker. Fifty percent of the votes in the state are cast by the ladies and I think we are giving them real recognition in having our Speaker chosen from among them."

Representative Nelson of Dickey:

"The Democrats today are few in numbers in the House but there were many in the state at the last election, and this is the first time the Democrats have ever presented the name of a Democrat for Speaker of the House. I take pleasure in seconding the nomination of Mr. J. M. Thompson."

The following representatives seconded the nomination of Minnie D. Craig for Speaker: Rep. Niewoehner of McHenry County; Rep. Henrickson of McHenry County, Rep. Treffry of Eddy County.

Representative Scholl (of McLean):

"I have a motion to offer to this assembly. As spokesman for McLean County I would like to add our second to the nomination of Mrs. Minnie D. Craig. Since the first moment, my friends, that I opened my eyes to the light of day I have been very, very closely associated with women. Years ago when in our judgment we saw fit to give the women the right of suffrage, I supported that movement with pleasure. I have always felt interest in the uplifting benefit of women in our lives. As Mr. Swett has said, in offering the name of Minnie D. Craig for Speaker we are making history. We are recognizing the rights of women in our governmental affairs. Minnie D. Craig has been associated with this legislature for several terms. A good many of us realize her ability. Those of us who have worked with her before know something about her ability, her integrity and her willingness to work. So it gives me a great deal of pleasure, my friends, to offer a second from the delegation from McLean County to the nomination of Minnie D. Craig, and I move that the nominations for Speaker be closed."

Which motion prevailed.

The Chief Clerk called the roll on the election of Speaker.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Swett, Stoa and Jones as such committee. The committee escorted Speaker-elect Craig to the rostrum where Judge Nuessle administered the oath of office.

Speaker Craig addressed the assembly as follows:

"Honorable Judge, Fellow Members of the 23rd Legislative Assembly: I am moved beyond words with the honor which you have placed on me. I realize I have a tremendous responsibility to fulfil. It is only with your help that this legislative assembly can be a success. I depend upon you entirely. I wish that you would feel free to call me when you think I am wrong and that you will not talk about things behind my back but will come straight to my face. I promise you I will be Speaker of this whole House and will govern you as fairly and impartially as my ability will allow me to do. I thank you for the great honor you have bestowed upon me and I hope we will have a session which will go down in the history of the State of North Dakota as the most momentous during its entire life as a state. I thank you."

Representative Godwin being now present, the oath of office was administered by Justice Nuessle.

I assure you that I retire with the feeling that I have been especially well treated. I want to say that in the past every member of the House and Senate has given to me his absolute cooperation in the handling of the office of Chief Clerk. I ask at this time that you give to my successor, my old friend James Curran, the same undivided cooperation that you have given to me. As I retire I thank you again for your many courtesies extended to me."

Representative Swett:

"I believe it is not customary to give seconding speeches for the person nominated for Desk Reporter, but this time we are nominating a person of such outstanding ability and outstanding merit that I deem it a pleasure and a privilege. I realize the many letters she has written home to square me with my wife—and that is mostly true of all the other members of this House. Your personal and private correspondence is in safekeeping when you give it to her, and your secrets will not be revealed on any subject. It is only fair that we give her this little boost, and I am happy to second the nomination of Margaret O. Sheehan for Desk Reporter."

"It is with deep regret that I have to report to this assembly that, by doctor's advice, Governor-elect Wm. Langer will not be able to be present, and that he requests that E. H. Brant of Linton be permitted to read his message. Furthermore, I have here a certificate of appointment of the New Rockford Band as the Governor's private band, and I have been requested to ask you, Mr. President, to present it to the leader of the band. Further, I move that a committee of three be appointed to escort Ex-senator E. H. Brant to the rostrum."

"This is one of the proudest moments of my life, to stand up here and receive this certificate from the Governor and hand it to the band of my own town. (applause) I am happy because we have this band, and I am happy that they came down here today. It shows the spirit of true friendship and cooperation. It shows that we are big enough to forget and big enough to go together in a cooperative way. (applause) Only a few years ago we, at New Rockford, wanted the Capitol. Today I was told by one of them 'We are bringing the Capitol back to Bismarck', and we are here to celebrate with Bismarck. It shows the right kind of spirit and brotherhood. We are all proud of this State of North Dakota, and it is a great pleasure to me today to present this certificate to our band."

He, on retiring, is about now to become a private citizen again, and you may rest assured that he will be a good one. He now has a message which he wishes to impart to you people on this, his retiring from the governor's chair, and so ladies and gentlemen, I wish to present to you, our retiring governor, Mr. George F. Shafer."

President Olson introduced U. S. Senator Gerald P. Nye to the audience.

Senator Nye:

"Mr. President, Madam Speaker, Governor Shafer, Friends: I specifically asked only an hour before this assembly gathered here if it was expected of me to speak upon this occasion, this afternoon. I was most emphatically assured that it was not. Now look at me. (applause)

"I am not going to infringe on the occasion this afternoon. Clearly the event is one of a local, a state nature. There are many things which I would like to sit down and discuss with you but they have no relation particularly to this situation this afternoon in North Dakota and I want to say but one thing—to repeat a thing I have said previously. An officialdom has never had laid at its door graver responsibilities, a more difficult two years, than lies at the door of Governor Wm. Langer and of the officials of the state, who were sworn in here this afternoon, and of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of North Dakota, and we are going to have to meet that situation which faces North Dakota. It may be rather cheering to know that that condition is not any more serious, or any more severe than is confronting every other state in our Union. We are going to meet that thing in that courageous straight-forward manner in which North Dakota has always met her gravest problems—by keeping our feet on the ground, keeping our chins up and never for a moment admitting we are defeated, knowing full well that if we do but carry forward—do the best that we know how—as men and women, trying to serve the interests of the people of North Dakota, there can not be known in North Dakota such a thing as defeat. And in concluding these brief remarks may I ask to join with you who are here this afternoon, in the only tribute that we are able to give this afternoon to one who has looked forward to this day when he might launch upon a program and lead the people of North Dakota. And now we have reached that hour which that man has been looking forward to, and he can not be with us. There is but one thing we can do. Were he here we would give him extended applause. We would praise his message which he has just had read. Is it too much to expect that we might voluntarily rise up in our places and give a ringing round of applause to that man who lies in bed up here in the hospital, impatiently awaiting the time when he can assume those duties which he feels are duties he is going to carry forward in the interest and welfare of, not any class of people of North Dakota, but all of the people of North Dakota.”

(Audience arose. Extended applause.)

“America” by audience.

Benediction by Bishop Vincent Wehrle.

MESSAGE OF GEORGE F. SHAFER

(Outgoing Governor)

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

As the last official act of the outgoing administration, it is my privilege to present to you a message containing a brief summary of the progress and condition of state affairs during the past four years, together with such recommendations as appeal to my judgment as being necessary and appropriate at this time. I deem it expedient to confine my recommendations as to new legislation mainly to emergency matters.

STATE FINANCES

First, I shall discuss the financial affairs of the state government. You will be interested to know that, notwithstanding the drastic reduction in tax receipts during the past two years, the state government has continued to conduct all of its business on a cash basis, and has successfully avoided both deficits in the treasury and the necessity for making loans for current operating expenses.

On December 31, 1932, the state auditor reports that all bills on file in his office for the state expenses had been paid in full, leaving a balance in the general fund of $14,549.36; and that all distributions of state funds have been made, except about $300,000.00 of state aid to local schools. The balance in the general fund does not include tax payments made to county treasurers during the month of December, which is estimated to be about $125,000.00, which payments will be reported to the state in the month of January.

As we anticipated, there have been sharp reductions in property tax collections during the past two years. The tax receipts received by the state treasury during the last quarter of 1932, were $161,000.00 less than those of the last quarter of 1931, $365,000.00 less than the last quarter of 1930, and about $500,000.00 less than the last quarter of 1929. Tax receipts received by the state treasury from the 1930 levy, payable in 1931 and 1932, were 13.04 per cent below normal. Tax receipts received by the state treasury from the 1931 levy, payable in 1932, were 25.25 per cent below normal.

The aggregate of all tax receipts received by the state treasury from the levies of 1929, 1930 and 1931, payable in 1930, 1931 and 1932, respectively, were $1,360,000.00 below normal, of which amount more than $1,185,000.00 is due the general fund. To state it another way, if tax receipts during the past three years had been normal and expenditures had remained the same, there would now be in the state treasury the sum of $1,360,000.00 in excess of the present balances, of which sum $1,185,000.00 would be in the general fund. It is, therefore, apparent that the state has carried on its operations during the past year on a cash basis with more than $1,185,000.00 of property taxes outstanding due the general fund of the state, which in normal times would have been collected. In addition to the severe reduction in property tax receipts, there has also been a falling off of revenues derived from special taxes accruing to the general fund, including income taxes, cigarette taxes, inheritance taxes, corporation taxes, et cetera. These miscellaneous revenues dropped from the sum of $1,871,000.00 for the year ending June 30, 1929 to $1,163,000.00 in the year ending June 30, 1932.

Under these extraordinary conditions, it has only been possible to avoid heavy deficits in the state treasury, with resultant borrowings to meet state expenditures, because of the following facts: First, because of the accumulation in previous years since 1925 of a substantial surplus in the general fund of the state; second, because the state has kept its current expenditures, not only within the budget allowance, but within available revenues; and, third, because of a reduction in current maintenance expenses of the state penal, charitable and educational institutions of approximately $500,000.00 annually, inaugurated by the board of administration on July 1, 1932. The total expenditures from the general fund in 1932 were $4,014,326.20 as compared with $5,463,146.05 in 1931, including $307,125.55 from the appropriation for Capitol building purposes included in the general fund (being a part of the sum of $430,000.00 derived from fire insurance on the old Capitol building which was turned into the general fund).

It has, of course, been a comparatively easy matter to carry along on a cash basis the business of those certain departments, such as the state highway department, the state game and fish department and others, which operate on special incomes, because such special incomes, not being dependent on property taxes, have not greatly diminished in amounts, and, accordingly, it has not been so difficult to estimate probable revenues available from those sources, or to keep current expenditures within such estimates. The officials in charge of those departments whose sources of operating revenue are not derived from the general fund, have, however, scrupulously guarded their budgets and have carefully avoided incurring expenses, or creating obligations in excess of their diminishing incomes.

The greatest financial problem confronting the incoming administration will be that of carrying on the usual functions of the government during the next year without a substantial deficit resulting in the treasury, and without borrowing for current expenses, in view of the large amount of taxes which are now outstanding and the poor prospects of an improvement in the ratio of tax payments for the next several months. Either an overdraft in the general fund, or temporary loans will likely be necessary to meet state payrolls during the months of January and February, but on March 1st, the first delinquency date on the 1932 taxes, there will occur a heavy payment of the 1932 tax levy, which will include taxes paid by railroads and other public utilities. The revenues from this source should enable the state treasury to carry on without serious difficulty until the prospects for next season are known, provided the legislature refrains from making any emergency appropriations payable prior to July 1st.

Prior to 1925, the state institutions frequently borrowed funds from the Bank of North Dakota in order to meet monthly payrolls during low tax payment periods of the year, and subsequently repaid such loans when tax receipts increased. In 1924, these institutional loans amounted to over $1,000,000.00. The necessity for such loans was not due in any way to adverse economic conditions, but to the fact that at that time there was not an adequate surplus in the state treasury to carry the payrolls of these state institutions during the low tax paying seasons, which occur every year even though the tax levies were sufficient to meet the appropriations when such tax levies were paid by the taxpayers. This unsatisfactory method of doing business could only be overcome by accumulating a surplus of $1,000,000.00, or more, over and above the liabilities of the treasury, to tide over the monthly demands of the state during slack tax paying seasons. Had it not been for the vision of those officials who created this surplus, the state treasury would have been seriously embarrassed many months ago. When tax payments again become normal, a large part of this surplus will again be available in the treasury to facilitate the operation of the government on a cash basis, provided, of course, we do not, in the meantime, increase the liabilities of the treasury over available revenues.

It is a matter of genuine satisfaction to the retiring officials to be able to relinquish the affairs of the state government to their successors in times, such as these, free of large deficits, large borrowings to meet treasury requirements, or unbalanced budgets, that trinity of complications which has not only greatly disorganized the financial affairs of the federal government during the past two years, but has disarranged the finances and impaired the credit of many of our sister states. I trust that this fortunate condition may be continued as long as it is humanly possible to maintain it.

ELIMINATION OF PENALTY AND REDUCTION OF INTEREST ON DELINQUENT TAXES

While on the subject of reduced tax payments, I desire to recommend the passage of an emergency measure providing that where real estate has been sold to the county for delinquent taxes, the tax debtor be given the privilege of r deeming his property from such tax sale by paying the principal of the taxes with the penalty eliminated and the interest reduced to 5 per cent. A similar measure was passed in 1925, which served to relieve thousands of delinquent taxpayers and encouraged them to make a special effort to pay up their back taxes. Present conditions in the state amply warrant an emergency measure of this kind. If it is adopted, and financial conditions in the state improve only slightly within the next year, there will be many hundreds of redemptions from tax sales that would not otherwise be made.

I would also advise liberalizing the law providing for the redemption of property that has passed to the counties on tax deeds as a relief measure to aid those taxpayers who have suffered the loss of their property for taxes, to reclaim such property.

REPORT OF BUDGET BOARD

The report of the state budget board, containing its recommendations for appropriations for the ensuing biennial period, has been prepared, and is ready to be submitted to you. It is the duty of this board to formulate a state budget, which is within the estimated revenues of the state for two years beginning on July 1st; in other words, to present a balanced budget, and this, you will note, the budget board has done.

In performing its task this year the budget board was confronted with a condition that has never before faced a similar board in this state, namely, a reduction in the assessed valuation of property for taxation purposes of nearly 50 per cent in two years, and the necessity of framing a state budget sufficient to carry on the essential functions of the government and yet keep its totals within the drastically reduced revenues available from property taxes under such reduced valuations. The assessed valuation of real and personal property for taxation purposes in North Dakota in 1930 was $1,000,642,000.00. After subtracting the reductions in the valuations of real and personal property, resulting from the assessments of 1931 and 1932, and applying the change in the valuation basis from 75 per cent to 50 per cent, as provided in the initiated measure adopted at the last primary election, the assessed valuation of the state for 1932 tax purposes was brought down to the sum of $567,526,000.00. Thus, you will observe that the maximum available tax revenues for the state treasury under the four mill levy authorization contained in the State Constitution, has been reduced from about $4,000,000.00 per annum in 1930 to slightly over $2,000,000.00 per annum in 1932.

Taking into consideration these new factors in the revenue situation, as well as the financial condition of the people, the budget board has prepared a budget calling for a total appropriation from the general fund for the next biennium in an amount of $2,804,527.39 less than the budget passed by the last legislative assembly. There is also a reduction of nearly $100,000.00 in the operating budgets of the motor vehicle registration department, highway department, workmen's compensation bureau and state game and fish department, no one of which departments receives any monies from the general fund. The budget presented, which totals the sum of $5,763,906.53, to be appropriated from the general fund, is about $300,000.00 less than the total estimated revenues which will accrue to the general fund from property taxes and miscellaneous incomes during the biennial period.

In order to bring about such a drastic reduction in the state budget, the board has eliminated all requests for new buildings and new improvements at the several state institutions; it applied a uniform 20 per cent reduction in all salaries and compensation for state officers and employees paid from the general fund; and it also eliminated the item of $640,000.00 for state aid to local schools. This last named elimination was made, not as a matter of choice, but as a matter of necessity. Present available revenues for the next biennium is not sufficient to provide for the proper maintenance of the state government and also provide state aid to local schools on the basis heretofore given. Should the legislature restore the appropriation for state aid to schools, it will be necessary for it to provide new sources of revenue to meet the appropriation.

In my judgment, the essential functions of the state government, including the maintenance of its penal, charitable and educational institutions, can be carried on efficiently during this emergency without any increase in the appropriations recommended by the budget board, and without the necessity of providing any new taxes, or any new sources of revenue. I believe that the condition of the times and the necessities of the people demand that no new tax burdens be created at this time.

STATE BONDED INDEBTEDNESS

May I now give you a summary of the situation in respect to the present bonded indebtedness of the state and the condition of the sinking funds provided for their retirement.

On January 1, 1933, the bonded indebtedness of the State of North Dakota was as follows:

Bank of North Dakota Capitol Bonds	$ 1,000,400.00
Mill and Elevator Construction Bonds	3,000,000.00
Mill and Elevator Milling Bonds	750,000.00
(for operating capital)
Real Estate Bonds (for farm loan purposes)....	38,347,800.00
Total	$43,098,200.00

The purposes of these bond issues are indicated by the titles of each series described. There are no outstanding bonds against the state for any strictly governmental purpose.

BANK OF NORTH DAKOTA BONDS

On July 1, 1919, the state issued $2,000,000.00 of unsecured bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent, to provide the capital for the Bank of North Dakota, which was organized in August of that year. $1,000,000.00 of these bonds matured on July 1, 1929, ten years after issuance, and were paid when due entirely by taxation. The second installment of $1,000,000.00 of such bonds will mature on July 1, 1934.

There is now in the bank bond sinking fund in the hands of the state treasurer, the sum of $1,000,000.00, the full amount required to retire this issue when due. $300,000.00 of this amount has been provided from taxation and $700,000.00 has been paid over to the state treasurer by the Bank of North Dakota from earnings. The annual interest on this installment of bank bonds, amounting to $50,000.00, has been paid by the Bank of North Dakota from earnings since 1929. Prior to that date, the annual interest on the total of $2,000,000.00, amounting to $100,000.00, was paid by taxation. It will, therefore, appear that full provision has been made for the retirement of all outstanding Bank of North Dakota capital bonds.

MILL AND ELEVATOR BONDS

In 1923, there was outstanding the amount of $4,500,000.00 in state bonds for the construction and operation of the State Mill and Elevator, consisting of $3,000,000.00 of bonds, bearing interest at rates from 5½ to 6 per cent, issued for construction purposes, and $1,500,000.00 in bonds bearing interest at 5¼ per cent, issued for operating capital.

There have been retired, entirely from taxation, $750,000.00 of these operating bonds. A further instalment of $250,000.00 of such operating bonds will mature on July 1, 1933, and the remaining $500,000.00 of operating bonds will mature on July 1, 1938. No construction bonds have matured, and the first instalment thereof, amounting to $500,000.00, will mature on July 1, 1937.

On December 1, 1932, there was $230,000.00 in the sinking fund for the Mill operating bonds, which amount, together with proceeds from tax levies heretofore made for that purpose, will provide sufficient money to retire the $250,000.00 instalment falling due this year. $100,000.00 of this sum was paid over to the state treasurer by the State Mill and Elevator in 1932 from current earnings.

On December 1, 1932, there was $125,000.00 in the sinking fund for the Mill construction bonds and $223,195.00 in the construction bond interest fund. So far, there have been no tax levies made for retiring Mill construction bonds. The above amount was paid to the state treasurer by the State Mill and Elevator in 1932 from the Mill depreciation reserve account. In view of the fact that there is a depreciation reserve of about $700,000.00 carried on the books of the Mill and Elevator, from which transfers to the state treasurer may be made from time to time for construction bond retirement purposes, it is not likely it will be necessary to levy any taxes for the payment of the $500,000.00 instalment of construction bonds which will come due in 1937.

Since 1930, the State Mill and Elevator has paid over to the state treasurer the sum of $454,000.00 from current earnings, for the payment of interest on construction bonds which item amounts to approximately $172,000.00 annually.

From the foregoing information, it will appear clear that adequate provision has been made up to this time for the retirement of all bonds issued by the State for the Mill and Elevator which will mature in the next five years.

REAL ESTATE LOAN BONDS

There were outstanding on December 1, 1932, state bonds issued for farm loan purposes in the sum of $38,347,800.00. Of these bonds the following will mature within the next five years:

Series	Interest Rate	Date Due	Amount
Real Estate Series D	5 %	January 1, 1934....	$1,000,000.00
Real Estate Series E	5¼ %	January 1, 1934....	650,000.00
Real Estate Series F	5 %	January 1, 1935....	200,000.00
Real Estate Series G	4½ %	January 1, 1935....	800,000.00
Real Estate Series A	5¾ %	January 1, 1936....	39,700.00
Real Estate Series A	5¾ %	January 1, 1936....	80,000.00
Real Estate Series H	4½ %	July 1, 1936	800,000.00
Real Estate Series B	6 %	January 1, 1937....	500,000.00
Total			$4,069,700.00

On December 1, 1932, there was the sum of $3,176,668.57 in the real estate bond sinking fund, of which $614,443.82 is invested in North Dakota real estate bonds of early maturities. If all past due instalments on farm mortgages held by the state had been paid, there would be about $3,944,000.00 in this sinking fund, but the normal accruals to this sinking fund have suffered on account of the heavy delinquencies now existing on such farm mortgage instalments, further reference to which I shall make later in this communication.

However, you will note that there is now sufficient money on hand in this sinking fund to retire all the real estate bonds that will mature in 1934 and 1935, leaving $526,000.00 to apply on the instalment of bonds maturing in 1936. It is also apparent that unless payments on farm mortgages held by the state substantially improve by 1935 the state will be obliged to begin making large tax levies to maintain the solvency of the real estate bond sinking fund. I shall discuss the matter of interest on real estate bond issues in connection with the subject of the farm loan business considered later under that title.

BANK OF NORTH DAKOTA

The most important financial institution of this state is the Bank of North Dakota. It is the custodian of over $18,000,000.00 of funds, consisting of all of the public funds of the state and its several institutions, and many millions belonging to the political subdivisions of the state. We shall turn the management of the bank over to our successors, not only in a solvent condition, but in a sound financial condition as tested by the most severe test known to the banking world. Everyone knows that the most risky investment for public funds during the past three years has been in inadequately secured private securities, and that, on the other hand, the safest, as well as the most liquid of investments, have been those made in government securities. For many years, the bank management, of which I have had the honor of being a member for ten years continuously, has invested most of the funds of the Bank of North Dakota in government securities, consisting of securities of the United States government, bonds of the State of North Dakota, and bonds, warrants and certificates of indebtedness of public subdivisions in good financial condition. Only a small percentage of the bank funds have been invested in other forms of collateral. I give herewith a statement of the resources and liabilities of the Bank of North Dakota at the close of business on December 31, 1932, which illustrates this bank policy:

During the first two years of the bank's existence, it suffered losses, for which charge offs have been made, out of earnings, of $1,607,486.99. These severe losses resulted largely from a policy of advancing the funds of the bank to private banks, either in the form of inadequately secured loans, or in the form of redeposits entirely unsecured. Since the private banks that received these loans were generally the weaker rather than the stronger banks in the state, their subsequent closing brought inescapable losses to the Bank of North Dakota, and through it, to the state.

Since 1923, the Bank of North Dakota, exclusive of the farm loan department, has been on a profit making basis, and shows earnings above operating expenses of approximately $3,052,000.00. During the past four years these gains have been as follows:

1929	$418,025.89
1930	473,526.21
1931	386,266.12
1932	393,348.13

These profits have been used, first, to charge off losses suffered under the first administration; second, to pay interest and principal on the bank capital bonds since 1929; and, third, for surplus reserve for the future.

This favorable condition exists only because, for ten years, the Industrial Commission has elected to take no chances with the millions of public funds on deposit in this bank; because, during this period the bank has uniformly obtained most of its income in the form of interest maturing on its investment in government securities, and because no losses have been suffered to absorb the income.

I sincerely hope that this conservative and safe policy of operating the Bank of North Dakota will not be changed. There are times when we may be tempted, in the distress of the people, to authorize the use of these tax monies and sinking funds, or the credit of the Bank of North Dakota, to serve the needs of private citizens and private business. Let me warn you that there is great danger in such a banking policy should the Bank of North Dakota ever again embark in it, because the capital of this bank consists largely of those public monies raised by taxation to operate the government, both state and local. The Bank of North Dakota, because it is the custodian of so many millions of public funds, is the key to the public credit structure of the state, and any impairment of that credit will bring untold injury to the state. Let the public funds and the public credit of the state remain a sacred trust, never to be violated, no matter what the temptations of the hour may be.

LOAN FROM RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION FOR SCHOOL DISTRICTS

For many years, the Bank of North Dakota has conducted its operations without borrowing any funds for any purpose. Even in the critical period through which we have been passing during the past three years, the Bank has not found it necessary to borrow money for any state requirement. During the last few weeks, however, many school districts in North Dakota found themselves in critical circumstances, even in many cases where they show excellent financial statements as to their condition of resources and liabilities. The drastic reduction in tax receipts this year and inability to sell certificates of indebtedness through private credit sources, has brought a crisis of such character to many of these districts, that, unless relief is afforded them, they will be obliged to close their schools for many months.

School districts, as such, are not eligible to borrow money from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, but the Bank of North Dakota eligible to do so. Therefore, in view of this crisis, the management of the bank decided in December to make a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the sole purpose of reloaning the funds so borrowed to school districts on certificates of indebtedness, as a temporary relief measure. A loan of $475,000.00 was accordingly negotiated, which loan is secured by a pledge of North Dakota real estate bonds, and the proceeds thereof are now being advanced to these distressed school districts. If care is exercised in making these loans, we believe there is no risk of loss in them.

The Bank of North Dakota has heretofore loaned funds in the amount of $2,613,040.98 to various public subdivisions, including counties, school districts and cities. Following the drought disaster of 1931, many counties, as well as school districts, in Western North Dakota, found themselves in financial difficulty and many of them borrowed from the Bank of North Dakota. Under the conditions which have prevailed this fall, however, the management of the bank has deemed it wise to preserve all of the liquid resources of the bank, except real estate bonds, of which there is a large supply on hand, to insure its continued ability to meet the demands of its public depositors during the coming year, as well as such emergency credit demands as the state may need during the coming months.

FARM LOAN DEPARTMENT

The Bank of North Dakota operates a farm loan department as agent of the state. The procedure is for the bank to advance its funds to the borrowers on first mortgages, assign such mortgages to the state treasurer, who holds them as trustee for the state, and the state then issues and sell its bonds to reimburse the bank, retaining the mortgages as security to the bonds. As a rule, the bank buys the bonds, thereby investing its funds in them, and thereafter resells such bonds to private investors as circumstances require. Following this plan the bank has made a total of $40,464,272.95 to 16,429 farmers since the organization of the department. $9,622,200.00 of such farm loans were made during my administration.

For several years the bond market for North Dakota real estate bonds had continued to improve, and in the early part of 1931 the Industrial Commission sold real estate bonds bearing interest as low as 4 per cent, at par. Later, in 1931, and in the early part of 1932, the market for North Dakota State bonds, as well as bonds of the United States Government, declined in value. In 1932, two events occurred which severely shook the confidence of investors in North Dakota bonds; one was the sale of an issue of rural credit refunding bonds by the State of South Dakota, at a rate as high as 6½ per cent; and the other, the organized agitation for, and the submission to the voters of our state of two measures purporting to declare a moratorium on contract debts and taxes. The first of the last named measures was submitted to the people at the June Primaries. The public knowledge of this action, which was advertised throughout the country, resulted in completely closing the market for North Dakota bonds of any character at any price within the terms authorized by law (the law provides that state bonds may not be sold below par). Realizing the uncertainty of selling any further real estate bonds in the immediate future, at least, the Industrial Commission suspended all farm loan operations on July 1, 1932. In September, the Industrial Commission authorized the Manager of the Bank of North Dakota to make an application to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for a loan of $3,000,000.00, and to pledge real estate bonds as security therefor, for the purpose of enabling the farm loan department to continue farm loan operations during this economic emergency, but, owing to the pendency of the second moratorium measure, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation declined to act upon the application until the moratorium threat was definitely out of the way. Following the defeat of this measure, the officers of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation indicated their willingness to proceed with the application, but in view of the forthcoming change in the administration of the Bank of North Dakota, soon to take place, the Industrial Commission concluded that it would be unwise to commit the future management of the Bank to the obligation of such an undertaking, and, accordingly, the application was withdrawn.

The theory of the farm loan policy of the state, under which the state has been operating since 1919, is that, while the credit of the state is directly pledged by the issuance of real estate bonds, the income from interest and principal payments on the mortgages taken, will pay the interest and principal of the bonds issued therefor, and thus avoid any burden on the taxpayers. Unfortunately, this theory has not worked out as well as hoped for. In practice, delinquencies in mortgage instalment payments began immediately in 1919 and continued each year thereafter, so that between 1921 and 1924, inclusive, the state was obliged to, and did make property levies amounting to $960,000.00 in order to obtain the additional funds necessary to pay the interest on the real estate bonds. Between 1924 and 1930, this department, with the aid of the tax levies referred to, was self-supporting; that is to say, the mortgage interest payments received were sufficient to discharge the full amount of the bond interest falling due each year. In 1930, there was a deficit in the interest collections, and the state treasurer borrowed funds from the Bank of North Dakota to make bond interest payments, and thereafter, in 1931, the deficit, not having been overcome in the meantime, the Board of Equalization made a tax levy of $211,305.66, in accordance with the provisions of the law in such cases. In the period between July 1, 1931 and July 1, 1932, the shortage in the mortgage interest collections became so large that the state treasurer was compelled to increase her borrowings for bond interest payment purposes to $1,630,000.00. This condition obliged the Board of Equalization to include in its 1932 tax levy the further sum of $1,509,620.00 for the real estate bond interest fund. This brings the total of tax levies made to date for real estate bond interest up to $2,681,380.90. During 1931 and 1932, delinquencies in mortgage interest payments amounted to approximately 66 per cent of the total amount due, thus throwing about two-thirds of the burden of bond interest payments on the taxpayers of the state. In view of present conditions, it seems probable that this ratio of delinquencies in mortgage interest payments will continue at least until another crop has been harvested; and, hence, another levy of $1,500,000.00 will undoubtedly be required in 1933 in order to keep the bond interest payment fund in condition to meet interest coupons upon maturity.

As a result of these delinquencies, many of which have extended over a period of years, there have been many foreclosures necessary and much land has been taken over by the state. The report of the board of auditors discloses that on September 1, 1932, the state had taken title to 361,771 acres of land, consisting of 1,344 tracts, and involving a total investment of $4,480,955.00, including principal, interest, taxes and foreclosure costs, and there was at that time in the process of foreclosure further mortgages involving an investment of $1,879,276.62. The farm loan department has been lenient in its foreclosure policy, giving the delinquent borrowers as a rule from two to three years in which to pay back interest instalments, and only resorting to foreclosure where there appeared to be no prospects of the borrower ever paying up. Last year, foreclosures in the so-called drought area were practically suspended altogether.

This condition of the farm loan department of the Bank of North Dakota, which has been made acute by the general economic emergency of the times, offers a most serious problem for the state. My personal judgment is that no further farm loans ought to be made beyond the present legal authorization, which amount would cover all uncompleted applications on file; and that thereafter, no new extension of state credit be authorized for this purpose. Should we continue this state farm loan policy indefinitely, it might easily result in tax levies for bond obligations in an annual amount exceeding the total yearly operating expense of the entire state government.

STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

I am pleased to be able to give you a very satisfactory report on the progress of the State Highway Department.

During the past four years, we have increased the mileage of graded highways constructed under Federal specifications and with Federal aid, from 3912 miles to 5590 miles, a gain of 1678 miles. The mileage of graveled roads has been increased from 2231 to 4336, a gain of 2185 miles. In addition, there have been 133 miles of highway surfaced with subgrade oil, 141 miles surfaced with oil mix and 21 miles paved. On January 1, there was under contract for construction next year, 390 miles of new grading work, 385 miles of new gravel, 147 miles of new oil mix and 8 miles of new paving. As you know, our Federal Highway System, which has been under construction for several years, consists of 7456 miles. When the new projects carried under contract, are completed, we will have a total of nearly 6000 miles of graded highways, of which 4721 miles will be graveled, 133 miles surfaced with subgrade oil, 288 miles with oil mix and 29 miles paved.

COST OF STATE HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

The total cost of this highway construction work from January 1, 1929 to December 31, 1932, was $16,026,986.27, consisting of $3,402,079.37 contributed by the counties, $4,831,596.83 of state funds (derived entirely from motor vehicle registration fees and gasoline taxes) and $7,036,529.83 provided by the Federal Government.

I am particularly glad to be able to inform you that all of this highway construction work has been completed, together with current maintenance, without the issuance of any bonds or the creation of any form of debt against the credit of the state. We have built our state highway system to this point on a pay-as-we-go basis from revenues obtained from the Federal Government, state revenues received from gasoline taxes and a share of motor vehicle registration fees, and from county contributions equal to 25 per cent of the cost of construction. Furthermore, all claims for highway construction work, and otherwise, have been paid in full to date, leaving a cash balance in the state highway construction fund on January 1st of $24,040.81, besides $570,001.02 advanced to the Federal Government in anticipation of Federal aid, which amount will be reimbursed to the state as a matter of course. Funds for the new projects under contract to be completed this year will be available from the sources above described, provided these sources of highway revenues are not diverted.

The state highway department has conducted all of its operations, for both construction and maintenance, on a cash basis, and strictly within its budget, which is set up annually, and with a degree of economy and efficiency which reflects real credit upon the officials in charge.

HIGHWAY REVENUES

Highway revenues have not fallen off as sharply as property taxes or income taxes. In 1931, the highway construction fund received $709,021.15 as its share of the motor vehicle registration fees, the counties received a like amount; while in 1932, it received $721,915.31 from the same source. In 1931, the highway department received $1,310,000.00 from gasoline tax collections, and in 1932 it received $1,240,000.00. In view of the comparative stability in these sources of income, it is not probable that the highway department will be embarrassed for lack of having state revenues during the coming season, although the possibility of securing a further large allotment of Federal aid now seems very remote.

The state received the benefit of two special Federal aid appropriations for highway construction purposes during the past two years, which enabled the department to keep new construction work going on a large scale during both 1931 and 1932, the season of 1932 being the largest construction year in the history of the state. In addition to the regular Federal aid allotments, we received about $1,200,000.00 from the Federal emergency appropriation made by Congress on December 20, 1930 (to be expended in 1931), and a further sum of $1,933,000.00 in July, 1932, only about $600,000.00 of which has been expended to date.

HIGHWAY MAINTENANCE EXPENDITURES

The annual maintenance expenses for the state highway system has diminished during the past two years, notwithstanding the increase in the total mileage requiring maintenance. In 1930, maintenance expenditures for 4,787 miles was $1,253,388.95 (including snow removal), an average of $261.83 per mile, while in 1932, 5700 miles of highway was maintained at an aggregate cost of $1,165,260.08, or an average of $204.43 per mile.

PAVING

You will observe the small amount of highway paving that has been done. In the judgment of the department, the only highways in the state where paving has really been needed is limited to the highway between Bismarck and Mandan and the highway leading west from Fargo to Buffalo, where, owing to the dense traffic and peculiar soil conditions, no other form of surfacing will stand the strain, although other methods of surfacing was tried out. The experiment in the use of oil mix surfacing, of which we now have 141 miles completed, has proven to be a very satisfactory substitute for paving in all upland sections of the state. In my judgment, the use of this comparatively cheap form of surfacing will meet all of the traffic needs of the state for many years to come, except, perhaps, a very few heavy traffic roads in the Red River Valley, where the soil conditions are not favorable to this type of highway construction. This type of highway surfacing is being laid down at a cost of considerably less than $5,000.00 per mile as against paving, which has cost from $27,000.00 to $29,000.00 per mile.

As a result of our highway department policy, we now have what I believe, can justly be said to be one of the best, if not the best, graveled highway system in the United States; a system well planned, well constructed and efficiently and economically maintained. I believe, too, that we have one of the best highway departments in the country. It is so regarded by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and by those who are familiar with modern highway development. The personnel of the department has steadily improved in ability and efficiency and well merits the continued confidence of the people of the state.

STATE MILL AND ELEVATOR

The progress of the business of the State Mill and Elevator during the past four years reflect two good years and two comparatively bad years. The results of the operations of that institution for the years 1929 and 1930, during the time the governor was ex-officio manager, were reported in full to the last legislative assembly, and the official reports covering details are on file.

Agreeable to the provisions of Chapter 268 of the Session Laws of 1931, the governor was succeeded on August 31, 1931 in the managership of the State Mill and Elevator by a Mill Commission of three members appointed by the governor, and consisting of Hon. Andrew Robbie of Cavalier, Hon. A. I. Hunter, of Grand Forks, and Hon. A. G. Starstad of Horace, which commission has supervised the business of the institution since that date. Although not specifically required by the new law, there has been filed, nevertheless, a report covering the operations of the State Mill and Elevator compiled by the manager for the calendar year of 1931, and a preliminary report covering the first eleven months of 1932, to which reports you are respectfully referred for further information. A complete report for 1932, including a detailed statement of finances, will be filed as soon as the regular audits for the year's business are furnished.

The year 1931 was a disaster year for this business from every angle. The almost total loss of crop in the northern half of the state, in the territory tributary to the State Mill and Elevator, largely destroyed its source of supply of new wheat for milling purposes and eliminated any chance of the elevator department doing any considerable storage business. The invasion of the North Dakota flour market by large quantities of cheap flour made from low priced wheat by Kansas and Nebraska mills (where prices even in 1931 were down to 25 cents per bushel), greatly diminished our flour sales in North Dakota and surrounding territory, which territory has heretofore been our most profitable market. The depressed conditions in the industrial sections in the East greatly reduced sales in the eastern states, so that taking everything into consideration, it was exceedingly difficult to keep the State Mill in continuous operation during the fall of 1931 and in the spring and early summer of 1932.

The fixed charges against the Mill and Elevator amount to $308,367.48 annually, consisting of $229,499.90 for bond interest and $78,867.50 for depreciation. After charging these items, the operating gain in 1931 was only $35,829.57, leaving a net loss to the state of $272,537.91 for that year.

The adverse conditions above referred to continued throughout most of the year of 1932. While the new crop solved the wheat supply problem this fall, the bad market conditions have continued. The sales in North Dakota for 1932 fell below those of 1931, due, in part, to a greater tendency on the part of the people to buy cheaper grades of flour imported from the South, and, also to the large distribution of free Red Cross flour, which, of course, has diminished all sales in this state. Then, too, during the past year, many local mills resumed the old practice of grinding flour in exchange for wheat, and this, also, has reduced the sales of the State Mill, as well as those of large private mills.

The financial results for the first eleven months' operation of 1932 were slightly better than 1931, the operating gain being $70,409.11, which, when applied against the fixed charges for bond interest and depreciation, leaves a net loss to the state of $204,924.08 for that period.

The elevator department, as you know, is a federal licensed grain warehouse. The management is of the opinion that it would be more desirable to have this terminal elevator operated under state supervision rather than under federal supervision, but our state laws do not provide for state supervision of terminal warehouses. An appropriate amendment to our state law granting the railroad commission such authority is, therefore, recommended.

HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION AND DRAKE MILL

Pursuant to the provisions of the law, the industrial commission has fully liquidated both the defunct Home Building Association and the Drake Mill. After selling all of the residence properties of the Home Building Association and transferring all mortgages and notes taken on such sales, to the Bank of North Dakota, the commission has turned all funds into the Home Building deficit fund in the state treasury, leaving a balance therein of $21,039.00. The industrial commission has transferred all such mortgages to the Bank of North Dakota under a guaranty against loss resulting from possible defaults in payments by the borrowers. This guaranty was given, because, in most cases, the mortgages taken on the settlements were for amounts considerably above a safe margin of security. The Bank of North Dakota holds mortgages and contracts assigned to it by the commission in these liquidation proceedings amounting to $78,590.50. In order to protect the guaranty held by the bank, the balance in the treasury to the credit of the deficit fund, should remain intact until the sums due on these mortgages and contracts are paid down to a figure that will make the bank absolutely safe from possible losses.

The remnants of the Drake Mill were sold for $2,550.00, and the receipts turned into the bond payment fund for the Mill and Elevator bonds as provided by law.

NEW CAPITOL BUILDING

We are able to report excellent progress on the new Capitol building project. Our old Capitol building was destroyed by fire on December 28, 1930, slightly over two years ago. The legislative assembly passed a comprehensive emergency act providing for the building of a new Capitol and authorizing the appointment of a board of capitol commissioners to carry out the provisions of the act. In compliance with the authority so granted, I appointed the Hon. Geo. A. Bangs, Hon. G. Angus Fraser, and Hon. Fred L. Conklin, as members of the Board of capitol commissioners on March 24, 1931, which board immediately organized and proceeded with its arduous and important labors. After several months of most careful and painstaking investigation, the board selected as architects two leading North Dakota firms, Hon. W. F. Kurke of Fargo and Hon. Joseph Bell DeRemer and Samuel T. DeRemer of Grand Forks, and as associate architects, the firm of Holabird and Root of Chicago, nationally known firm of architects of the highest repute. These architects immediately began the important work of preparing a design for a new Capitol, a work which consumed many weeks of most careful study and many conferences with the members of the board and other state officials. About December, 1931, the design, with which you are now familiar, was accepted by the board and the detailed work of preparing plans and specifications therefor began. This task consumed nearly five months. Notices for bids from contractors were published in June, 1932, the contracts were let in July, the ground was broken for the commencement of actual construction on August 13, 1932. The work has proceeded rapidly since. On October 8th, the cornerstone was laid with elaborate and appropriate ceremonies in the presence of the Honorable Chas. Curtis, Vice President of the United States, many government officials from neighboring states and Provinces of Canada, and an audience of many thousands of North Dakota citizens.

As you, no doubt, have noticed, the steel structural work is now nearly erected on the administrative unit of the building and concrete floors are being constructed as rapidly as weather conditions will permit. Material is on the ground to enable this work to go steadily forward this coming year. If there are no interruptions, the administrative unit of the new building will be ready for occupancy within a year from now.

The board of capitol commissioners has prepared and will have available for you, a very comprehensive, clear and detailed report of the work of the commissioners, and I wish to recommend that every member of the legislative assembly study this report with care. It is unnecessary for me to discuss in detail any further phase of this subject, except the problem of finances.

CAPITOL BUILDING FINANCES

The Capitol building law appropriated the sum of $2,000,000.00 for Capitol building purposes to be derived from three sources as follows: First, an appropriation of $430,000.00 from the general fund, being the amount of the fire insurance collected on the old building, which was turned over to the general fund; second, the monies in the Capitol building fund, derived from the liquidation of assets in that fund which have accumulated over a period of many years, consisting of mortgage securities, bonds and cash on hand, which, when liquidated on December 1, 1932, amounted to $737,314.09; and, third, the proceeds of a capitol building tax levy of 1/10th of one mill, first authorized in 1929 to run until 1936 (Chapter 236, Laws, 1929), and extended in 1931 (Chapter 278, Laws, 1931) to 1940. From the latter source, approximately $1,000,000.00 was originally expected to be realized, thus supplying the full $2,000,000.00 appropriation, including interest on tax anticipation certificates authorized by the law to be issued by the board against the fractional mill tax levy and subsequent income from the Capitol Land Grant.

The appropriation of the fire insurance fund and the monies in the capitol building fund has been made available as planned, but the anticipated revenues from the one-tenth of one mill tax levy has been diminished nearly 50 per cent, due to the reduction in the assessed valuation of the state brought about by the conditions heretofore referred to. On the basis of the assessed valuation of 1930, this special tax would have brought the capitol building fund about $100,000.00 per year, whereas, in fact, due to the reduced valuations, the levy when applied on the valuation for 1931, amounted to $88,052.00, and when applied to the valuation in 1932, amounted to only $56,753.00. This circumstance has reduced, not only the available funds from this special tax levy, but, also the borrowing power of the board against such tax levy, from nearly $1,000,000.00 to about $400,000.00.

The construction contracts which have been entered into call for the completion of the building at a total cost of slightly less than $1,800,000.00, and the shortage in the funds necessary to complete the building, due to the causes above stated, is estimated to be about $350,000.00. In order to avoid the embarrassment that might follow, if unconditional contractual obligations had been entered into beyond the probable revenues of the fund, the board protected the interests of the state by subdividing the contract into three sections, two of which gave the state the option of deferring certain portions of the work. The first section, known as "Budget A", is an absolute contract calling for the expenditure of $1,042,000.00, being an amount less than the actual funds known to be available in cash; the section, known as "Budget B", is a provision under which the board had the option to require the contractor to proceed with the work to the extent of the expenditure of an additional sum of $390,000.00, which option was exercised, when it was known that funds of that amount could be realized from the sale of anticipation certificates; and, the third section, known as "Budget C", gave the board the option of deferring the completion of the unfinished work until the balance of the funds required to pay for it, estimated at about $350,000.00, is available.

The board has arranged for the sale of $400,000.00 of anticipation certificates to the Bank of North Dakota. It is the judgment of the contractors that, with the funds which have now been made available, it will be possible to complete the administrative unit of the building and provide for the enclosure of the legislative unit, leaving the completion of the legislative unit necessary to be provided for.

So far, there has been expended toward the construction of the new Capitol building the sum of $307,000.00, and the work is proceeding at a very satisfactory rate. Believing that it is good policy for the state to furnish this structure as soon as possible, consistent with good workmanship, I recommend that this legislature make provision for the further revenues or credit necessary to accomplish that result by extending, or increasing the fractional mill tax levy, now authorized, sufficiently to produce at least $350,000.00 of additional funds.

In this connection, may I say, that if the legislature follows this recommendation, I believe that it will be possible for the state to make a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation of an amount sufficient to complete the project. I have already held a preliminary conference on that subject with the Chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation with encouraging results.

I would further suggest that the common school funds of the state and other trust funds in the control of state departments be made eligible for investment in the anticipation certificates issued against the assets of the Capitol building fund.

Looking forward to the time when the new Capitol building will be finished, it is desirable to begin making provisions for its equipment and for the landscaping of the grounds. An appropriate amendment to the present law should be adopted vesting the board of capitol commissioners with such authority.

I trust that the members of the assembly will avail themselves of the opportunity to carefully study, not only the architectural design, but the plans and arrangements of the new Capitol building. In the design and building plan, the architects have combined to a remarkable degree, the efficiency of a modern office building with the artistic and monumental beauty of the most attractive type of public structure. The design has attracted the favorable attention of the country, and I believe that the completion of this unique structure will, for generations, stand as a fitting monument to the genius of architects who conceived it, to the skill of the contractors, engineers and artisans who built it, to the splendid vision and judgment of the officials under whose supervision it was built and to the civic ideals of the people of North Dakota.

DROUGHT EMERGENCY

In 1931, North Dakota and the entire Northwest was visited by the most disastrous drought in the history of this region, with the result that heavy burdens were placed upon all relief agencies, both public and private. During the winter of 1931-1932, approximately 50,000 rural citizens, located largely in the western part of North Dakota, received assistance from the American Red Cross for human sustenance and livestock preservation. In the early fall and winter, the United States Government, through the Department of Agriculture, loaned over $3,000,000.00 to more than 10,000 farmers in North Dakota on chattel mortgage security, for emergency feed purposes. In the spring of 1932, the United States Government loaned about $8,500,000.00 for crop production purposes to nearly 40,000 farmers on crop security only. Of course, most of these loans, of both classes, remain unpaid, and the government is planning liberal extension terms for the debtors. During the fall, the President issued an order directing the Department of Agriculture to grant an extension of all crop production loans upon the payment of 25 per cent of the principal sums due thereon, such renewals, or extensions, to be on such terms as Congress shall authorize. Legislation to authorize the Secretary of Agriculture to negotiate such renewals and extensions is now pending and will likely be passed in the near future, together with other legislation providing for further crop production loans for 1933.

EFFECT OF ANTI-CROP MORTGAGE LAW

Since the passage of the anti-crop mortgage law last June, the farmers of North Dakota, who borrowed money from the government for crop production purposes, have been unable to give the government crop security for renewals and extensions; and, unless this law is amended, or repealed, such farmers will be unable to qualify for additional crop production loans for 1933 and future years, except loans made for seed only, for which seed liens may be given.

Under these circumstances, I recommend that the anti-crop mortgage law be modified to permit the owners of growing crops to give crop mortgages as security for crop production loans, including the renewal and extension of loans made in 1932 and prior years. I am fearful that unless this is done, many thousands of our distressed farmers will find themselves unable to secure necessary credit from the United States Government, or from any other source, for crop production purposes this year, and that much unnecessary hardship will result.

STATE AID FOR DROUGHT RELIEF

Although the demands for relief for both human sustenance and livestock feed were very great last year, and are still pressing in some sections of the state, the state government has met all emergencies without any direct expenditure of state funds, except about $10,000.00 appropriated by the Emergency Commission to the use of the Extension Division of the Agricultural College, which served as a central feed purchasing agency for the western counties during the feed shortage period. Accordingly, the state has not been obliged to increase expenditures up to this time, for either drought relief or unemployment relief purposes, and in this respect, North Dakota is unique among the states of the Union, for many of them have appropriated or borrowed millions of dollars in order to take care of emergencies resulting from the depression and drought.

RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION LOANS TO COUNTIES

The extraordinary demands for poor relief expenditures necessitated by the drought calamity, and made acute by the depression, had exhausted the funds and credit of several of the western counties by July 1st, last year. In August, the County of Ward and the City of Minot made application to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for loans to supplement their diminished poor relief funds. These applications were made pursuant to the provisions of the Emergency Relief and Construction Act passed by Congress in July, under which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized to loan money to states, or to municipalities, for relief purposes, where it appears that the funds of the state, or municipalities are insufficient to take care of the situation. Under the law, these applications were submitted by the Governor in behalf of the municipalities. Loans were granted to Ward County for $40,000.00 and to the City of Minot for $10,000.00 to take care of their needs until December 31, 1932. Later in the fall, applications were made in behalf of the Counties of Mountrail, Williams, Divide, Burke, Mercer, Bowman and Burleigh, which applications were allowed for various amounts totaling $50,680.00. The funds for these loans, except for Williams and Mountrail Counties, have been received within the past week. Supplementary applications have recently been filed on behalf of several of these same counties for additional amounts totaling $57,000. All these loans were made direct to the counties and to the City of Minot, and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation accepted certificates of indebtedness, issued by the municipalities, bearing interest at the rate of 3 per cent, and payable next fall. No loans have been made or applied for on behalf of the state. The total amount of the loans so far applied for by counties and cities in North Dakota is very small, indeed, as compared with those received by our neighboring states, which, in each instance, runs into several hundred thousand dollars. In applying for these loans, I have uniformly advised borrowing municipalities to keep their loans down as low as possible in order not to over mortgage their future tax receipts. In order, however, to facilitate the making of this class of loans for future needs this winter, I would advise the legislature to remove the limitation contained in the county budget law against expending more than the sums specifically appropriated for poor relief, which limitation also limits the borrowing power of the counties for that purpose. This limitation, which is a salutary one in normal times, should be modified during this emergency. Many counties and cities have already disregarded the limitation by force of necessity.

GOVERNMENTAL SURVEY COMMISSION

The last legislature, upon my recommendation, created a governmental survey commission, to be appointed by the governor, and charged with the duty of making a comprehensive survey and study of the entire structure of our government, both state and local, except the judicial and legislative branches, with the view of discovering methods by which substantial economies could be effected in the conduct of the government and the functions thereof made more efficient as instrumentalities of the public welfare. The commission was appointed. It spent many months of painstaking labor on its task, and has filed a report which is available to you. Considering the limitation of time and facilities at the command of the commission, it has prepared a most excellent report, and I commend it as worthy of the careful review and analysis of each member of the Assembly. I trust, in view of the overwhelming need and popular demand for improvements in our machinery of government from the standpoint of both efficiency and economy, that you will give to the subject matter of this report the consideration which it merits. The recommendations contained in this report may well serve as a chart for your guidance in inaugurating some fundamental reforms in our system of government.

INDUSTRIAL SURVEY COMMISSION

The last Assembly created a special commission, known as the industrial survey commission, consisting of the governor, attorney general and secretary of state, for the purpose of making a general study of the industrial progress and the industrial resources of the state. This survey has been completed, a comprehensive report made and filed for the information of the legislature and the public.

WORLDS FAIR COMMISSION

The legislature also authorized the state to participate in the Worlds Fair at Chicago, known as the Chicago International Exposition, which is scheduled to begin on June 1, 1933. It created a special worlds fair commission to have charge of the preparation of the exhibits and to supervise the state's participation in the exposition. $18,000.00 was appropriated to carry out this project. The commission has arranged for the necessary space in the Court of States Building on the fair grounds for our exhibit at a total rental cost of $9,000.00 for the duration of the exposition. This rental price covers all charges for the use and maintenance of the facilities provided. The Hon. J. M. Devine, Commissioner of Immigration, who, under the law, is the manager of the exhibit activities, has arranged for the preparation of an elaborate agricultural and industrial exhibit to be taken to Chicago next spring. An additional appropriation, however, will be necessary to provide for the proper care of the exhibits during the period of the exposition, which will extend from June until October.

DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS

Neither time nor space will permit a discussion or review of the work of other departments of the state government, although most of them relate to matters of much importance to the people of the state. Official reports, giving the progress and status of the work of these several departments have been prepared and are available to the legislative assembly. They merit your careful review and consideration. I believe that you will find the affairs of most, if not all, of the state departments in good order.

ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY

The only matter of national, as well as state importance, that I desire to refer to at this time, is the so-called St. Lawrence Seaway treaty, which was negotiated by the United States and Canada last July, and is now pending before the United States Senate for ratification. This treaty, if approved, will culminate fourteen years of effort on the part of the middle western and northwestern states to secure the benefits of ocean commerce in the Great Lakes region, and thus, in a measure, place the interior of the continent on an equal basis of transportation costs with seaboard sections of the United States. For four years, I have served as a member of the executive committee of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association, a voluntary organization comprising twenty-three states, which has carried on an aggressive movement to secure the St. Lawrence Seaway. By reason of this intimate contact with the project, I have developed an enthusiastic interest in favor of it, and believe that its realization will bring about a fundamentally beneficial change in the economic condition of the people living in the central portions of this country. The ratification of the treaty is being bitterly opposed by many powerful organizations representing eastern seaport interests, eastern railroads and their affiliated interests, and others, who, for various reasons, are opposed to the extension of ocean commerce into the interior of the United States.

Several previous legislative assemblies have passed concurrent resolutions supporting this seaway project, and have made small appropriations to aid in the promotion of the cause. We have now reached the critical stage in the progress of this movement, and the final achievement may be defeated, or indefinitely delayed, unless the supporters of the project throughout the nation make their will known in such emphatic terms that the concentrated force of the minority opposition will be overcome. I suggest that this Assembly may aid in the cause by adopting a strong concurrent resolution urging the United States Senate to promptly ratify the treaty.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE GARDEN

There is a matter of international significance that I wish to direct your attention to. There has recently been organized an International Peace Garden Association by citizens of the United States and Canada to establish a Peace Garden on the International boundary between North Dakota and Manitoba in the Turtle Mountains, to commemorate the long reign of peace that has prevailed between these two great North American countries. The proposed Peace Garden was dedicated last July in the presence of an audience of more than 50,000 American and Canadian citizens.

The site for the Peace Garden on the American side is located partly on a school section owned by the state and partly on adjacent privately owned lands. In order to vest in the Peace Garden Association the permanent possession and use of this site, I recommend that the legislature authorize the donation by the state of the school lands included in this location to the Peace Garden Association for international Peace Garden purposes, and that it make other necessary provision for the early realization of this shrine dedicated to the perpetual bonds of peace which bind these nations together in an indissolvable union of friendship.

CONCLUSION

The outgoing administration will turn over all affairs of the government under its control, in good order and functioning on a normal basis. There is no emergency immediately confronting the new administration, except that of keeping the expenditures of the state within the diminished and diminishing revenues. Undoubtedly methods of government, and, perhaps, administrative policies may be improved, for there is always room for improvement in any public business as well as in any private business. But all important changes in the machinery of the government, or in the policy of administration may well abide the time necessary for careful study and analysis. You will do well to scrutinize with great care and circumspection all proposals offered calling for drastic changes in our state system of government, no matter what the source of such proposals may be. It is extremely easy to make costly mistakes in matters of legislation, as well as in matters of administration. Speaking from considerable experience in state affairs, I would counsel against too hasty action on any important subject. The welfare of all the people of the state is involved in these matters, and the great legislative need of the day, is not hasty and ill-considered action, but wise and intelligent action. Wise and beneficial legislation only follows from calm deliberation and thorough analysis.

Upon the occasion of retiring from the office of governor, I desire to acknowledge my genuine appreciation to all of my associates in the state government, regardless of political affiliation, for their cordial and sympathetic cooperation during four strenuous years of joint executive responsibilities. Ours has been an administration that has been singularly free from those elements of controversy and discord, which all too often retards progress and defeats good government. A high degree of cooperation has, at all times, prevailed between the several branches of government, including the legislative branch, to the membership of which I also wish to express my sincere appreciation for their helpfulness as shown in the two previous legislative sessions.

For ten busy years, it has been my high privilege to serve the people of North Dakota in two important executive positions, that of attorney general and that of governor. While fully conscious of my errors and shortcomings as a public officer, I have striven unceasingly to serve the best interests of the state as a whole, and to do my duty as Chief Executive as it has been given me to see it. It can only come to a very few citizens to be entrusted with the great responsibilities and opportunities of the governorship. For the confidence expressed in reposing this high trust in me, as well as for the great honor that has been bestowed upon me in linking my name forever with those who have been summoned to leadership in the executive branch of the state government, I must acknowledge my profound gratitude to the people of North Dakota, whose welfare has ever been my first concern. I shall retire to the ranks of the citizenship with a genuine sense of personal relief, but with the firm conviction and in the unshaken belief, that North Dakota and its institutions, are worthy of the continued loyalty and faith of its people, and that our state will grow in greatness only in proportion, as we, as citizens, build wisely, labor constructively and formulate our public policies in accordance with the ideals and patriotism of the founders of this Republic.

MESSAGE OF WILLIAM LANGER
(Incoming Governor)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF THE TWENTY-THIRD
LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

Allow me to thank the people of this State for electing me to the high position of Governor. I am here this afternoon to assume in a formal manner the sacred obligations of that office. I say sacred obligations, for I am reverently conscious that these obligations entail a tremendous responsibility. I am to be the chief custodian of your civic welfare. I am to be the chief servant of the State. I am to be the servant not of any particular party nor of any particular group. Irrespective of any party, of any creed, or of any group, I will be the servant of all the people of this State.

It is said that a public job is a private graft, that honesty is a mere name, and expediency is the law of political life. I am aware of the element of truth in this statement and I know only too well that it is a common thought in the public mind, and it is for that reason that I wish to assure you that, as I am entering the office of Governor, I am determined to make honesty not only the slogan of my administration, but that I shall do my utmost to see that its principles shall be reduced to practice in the conduct of State affairs.

I am not unmindful of the temptations that are placed before public servants, and I am not unmindful of the weakness of human nature, and I am utterly conscious of my personal limitations, but I have an abiding faith in God and my fellow men, and it is upon this faith that I base my confidence to be able to carry out my pledge of honesty to the people of North Dakota.

Our State constitution prescribes that the Governor at the commencement of each session communicate to the Legislative Assembly, by message, information as to the condition of the State and shall recommend such measures as he deems expedient.

The thought that is uppermost in every man's mind is of the devastating effect of this depressed condition. Statesmen and scholars are earnestly striving to find a solution. Is it reasonable for us to think that we cannot in some measure aid in that solution? We must face the problem as it confronts us in North Dakota. There can be no return to prosperity in North Dakota that does not begin with the farmer. To my mind, next to the price of wheat, the greatest problem confronting us is the problem of taxation and the expenditure of moneys obtained from taxation; and it is to this subject that the greater part of my message shall be devoted.

THE TAX BURDEN

The problem of governmental finance grows increasingly difficult. Our own state goes into the coming year with unpaid borrowings of approximately two million dollars, to say nothing of the four hundred thousand dollars borrowed to make the payment on the new Capitol. To balance the budget and go forward in a sane financial stride, new sources of revenue must be disclosed.

During the past ten years tax levies have changed but little, while land values and income have greatly decreased. We have arrived at the point where the requirements of tax expenditures consume approximately fifty per cent of farm income. In 1924 tax expenditures amounted to 6.7 per cent of the gross cash farm income, while in 1931 tax expenditures totaled the appalling amount of 49.8 per cent of such cash farm income. The situation is drifting to utter bankruptcy. Farm values are wiped out. Unless some immediate, drastic remedy is adopted to equalize taxation with income, complete ruin is facing the farmers of North Dakota.

To relieve the taxpayer from this destructive burden, heroic measures must be applied. It must be our purpose immediately to eliminate all waste in public administration, superfluous officials, unnecessary bureaus, and inefficient occupants of public office. I shall during my administration cooperate in every endeavor to wipe out waste in every department of State, and I shall appoint without fear or favor only those who are competent and who will serve honestly the best interests of the State.

I request the Legislators to search for relief to our citizens from the mounting burden of delinquent taxation and that specific action be taken in respect to penalty, interest, and period of redemption.

Prosperity in North Dakota is dependent upon wheat. The price of wheat is the foremost problem before us. My study of the question since my election has convinced me more and more that the problem is a national one and must be worked out through the cooperation of the wheat-growing States in conjunction with the federal government. The President-Elect has recognized this fact and has pledged himself to make this matter the first concern of his administration, and in keeping with my pre-election pledges, I assure you he will have no rest until his promises will have been fulfilled. The problem of raising the price of wheat will receive my first consideration. It is my purpose to effect a meeting of Governors of the States in the wheat area and work out a joint plan of cooperation with the government at Washington, and again in conformity with my pre-election promises, I shall not quit until the fight is won.

I favor the reposit of stationary reserves of the Bank of North Dakota in State and National banks within North Dakota rather than in out-of-state institutions, with the provision that as security for such reposit, such banks shall purchase and pledge bonds of the State of North Dakota of an equal amount, thus giving to North Dakota banks profits accruing on such reposit which heretofore have gone to large banks in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago.

The purpose of issuing bank charters by the State is not primarily for the profit of individual or stockholder, but rather that idle funds of communities may be assembled and may be made available to meet the needs of the community in which the bank is located.

During the past ten years North Dakota, in the same proportion as in all agricultural States, witnessed the closing of its State banks, causing an incalculable loss and suffering by depositors.

It is my earnest hope that the confidence so essential to successful banking may quickly be restored and that again the savings of the people will find their way into the banks of the State with every assurance that they may be withdrawn when needed.

LIGNITE

The Legislature should throw every safeguard about the State's lignite industry. This greatest natural resource of the State should be exploited to the greatest benefit of its people.

I desire to call your attention to one phase of the lignite industry which affects the future taxes of this State. In the case of the mines, commonly known as underground mines, the surface of the ground over extended areas is not destroyed for use by future generations and therefor would remain under private ownership and continue to pay taxes. In the case of the open or strip mines, the properties are entirely destroyed for any future use when the lignite is exhausted, and would therefor be automatically removed from taxation. For the purpose of overcoming this condition of the future, I recommend that a tonnage tax be placed on all mines of the latter class, which taxes should be placed in trust funds for the use of future generations.

LEGISLATIVE OBLIGATIONS TO EDUCATION

At this point it might be proper to call your attention to the reduction of $450,000 for State aid made by the Budget Board. To follow that recommendation would be unjust. In very many cases it is impossible for small rural schools to get aid. I hereby recommend that the Legislature devise some method whereby those country children now being deprived of a primary education may again come into their American birthright.

TUITION FUNDS—COUNTY AND STATE

Amendment of school laws might profitably be made in the following particulars. Turn the proceeds of fines, penalties and forfeiture from the State Tuition Fund to county tuition funds. This requires an amendment to Section 154 of the State Constitution and legislative enactment to carry into effect the provisions of the proposed constitutional amendment.

The reason for recommending the foregoing is apparent when the operation of fines, penalties and forfeiture collections is considered.

BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION

Seventy per cent of all general state taxes are dispensed for the support of State penal, charitable and educational institutions and general supervision of public and common schools. The general supervision and administration of these public activities has been by law delegated to the Board of Administration. Thus, the Board of Administration is charged with the responsibility of administering about seventy per cent of our general state tax money.

We cannot hope for much reduction in state general taxes if efforts towards reducing taxes are confined to the remaining 30 per cent, which supports all the remaining departments of general government.

It is apparent, that for our proposed tax reduction, we must look in a large measure to the 70 per cent, which comes under the general supervision and control of the Board of Administration.

Much can be accomplished by the elimination of duplication of courses offered in the various educational institutions and by the withdrawal, until our tax stringency has passed, of such courses as are elected by only a small number of students, where the proportionate cost per student is too high.

The educational offerings must be limited to such amount as can be paid for. The educational garment must be cut to the available cloth.

Apparently, any solution that can be arrived at must in some degree be arbitrary until the cost is brought within the ability to pay. Thereafter, extension can be restored when it can be paid for.

With a limited tax-paying power, we are confronted with the question, not of how much we spend on education, but, of how much education can we pay for.

Our difficulty arises largely from the fact that there is not unanimity of opinion as to what courses may be dispensed with.

Modification of the curricula of the State educational institutions may be effected by the Board of Administration only to a limited extent, because of statutory laws.

I would recommend that the Legislative Assembly examine those laws and amend the same as far as is necessary to give to the Board of Administration power to eliminate the duplication of courses offered.

THE BUDGET

In its report, the Budget Board has recommended a reduction of $2,804,527.39 below the appropriations made in the budget of the last biennium for the General Fund. This reduction is entirely inadequate. The 1910 Legislature appropriated only $3,163,253.45. At that time we had approximately the same number of people. Certainly the people then could better afford to pay taxes.

It is my recommendation that in addition to the cuts suggested in various places by the State Budget Board, that we make additional savings of $1,071,434.78, making a total of approximately $3,875,962.17.

I do not believe that this will in any way materially harm the efficiency of any department.

In considering this budget I will first take up the educational institutions referred to above, which operate under the Board of Administration. I recommend that the request of the following institutions as shown below be reduced to the amount shown.

University,
 Agricultural College,
 Experimental Station Agricultural College,
 Extension Division Agricultural College,
 State Normal School, Minot,
 State Normal School, Valley City,
 State Normal School, Dickinson,
 State School of Science,
 State Normal and Industrial School,
 State Normal School, Mayville,
 State School of Forestry.

The total amount appropriated last biennium for the above educational institutions was $3,758,796.90. The total amount I recommend is $2,435,448.67.

I will next take up the other State institutions under the Board of Administration and give you below the same information in the same form.

State Penitentiary,
 State School for the Blind,
 State School for the Deaf,
 State Training School,
 Institution for the Feeble Minded,
 State Tubercular Sanitarium,
 State Hospital for the Insane.

The total amount appropriated last biennium for the above State institutions is $1,293,000.00. The total amount I recommend is $810,512.21.

I desire to recommend at this time that the Attorney General make a thorough investigation of certain patients in the hospital for the insane to ascertain whether or not they are properly charged to the State.

I desire to call your attention to the recommendation of the Budget Board concerning the crowded conditions of the insane patients and I heartily concur in their recommendations.

STATE OFFICERS

I recommend a reduction for the offices of Governor, Secretary of State, State Auditor, State Treasurer, Attorney General, Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, Board of Railroad Commissioners and Superintendent of Public Instruction.

This reduction can be made possible by curtailment of the number of employees through consolidation of work and length of office hours.

The total amount appropriated last biennium for the above department was $599,595.00. The total amount I recommend is $387,686.00.

SUPREME COURT

I recommend that the Budget of the Supreme Court Reporter and Law Librarian be reduced from the amount of $98,025.00 appropriated last biennium to $94,965.00.

STATE PRINTER

I find the State has spent $171,748.35 for State printing between January 1st, 1931 and November 1st, 1932. The amount spent is appalling. I ask the Legislature that they amend the State Publication and Printing Commission law so that the Governor, the State Auditor, and the State Treasurer shall compose the Publication and Printing Commission and that the law governing the appointment of the State Printer be amended so that the Governor has the power of appointing the State Printer with authority to remove the State Printer with or without cause. If the Legislature will make these two amendments I promise and will assume personal responsibility of saving the State of North Dakota during the coming biennium not less than fifty thousand dollars. My investigation discloses that there is a lack of direct responsibility on the part of the Publication and Printing Commission because of the fact that under the present law too much authority is delegated to the State Printer, who is but an employee of the State Printing Commission and I am convinced that a tremendous saving can be made by scrutinizing with the power of editing or striking out each item for State publication from each of the State departments and eliminating the printing of wasteful and useless printing under the authority of the State Publication and Printing Commission.

I find that the State owns three quite complete printing outfits located in State institutions at Wahpeton, Devils Lake, and Jamestown. These printing plants were originally installed for educational purposes and a casual examination of the law seems to prevent them from printing for other institutions, even though they have sufficient equipment and personnel to do so. The Legislative Assembly should investigate this situation and it might find it advisable to permit a certain amount of other State printing to be done at least for a while during the present emergency.

OTHER DEPARTMENTS AND ACTIVITIES

Under this heading is included all State appropriations not specifically mentioned above. I will not at this time attempt to itemize the individual departments or appropriations, but in the very near future in another message, will give you more detailed information.

I do, however, recommend in these departments and appropriations a reduction of $304,671.00.

SUMMARY

The total amount of reductions which have been recommended above in the appropriations for the State officials, the Supreme Court, the educational and other institutions, together with the last item covering "Other Departments and Activities" shows recommended reductions from the amounts recommended by the Budget Board of $839,434.78. In considering savings to the taxpayers of this State, we should add to this amount $232,000.00, covering changes recommended in other parts of this message such as change of election date, reduction of school land leases, state printing, abolishment of inspectional and renewal fees. In other words, the total amount of savings to the taxpayers of this State, if my recommendations are followed, over the cost to taxpayers two years ago will amount to approximately $3,875,962.00.

SPECIAL RECOMMENDATIONS

1. I recommend that a tax be placed upon chain stores. In my opinion, this tax should conform in general to the law now in force in the State of Indiana. This law has been tested in the Supreme Court of the United States and has been found constitutional.

2. I recommend that the maximum interest rate allowed to be charged in the State of North Dakota be eight per cent instead of the present rate of nine per cent.

3. I recommend that the duties of the investigators now attached to the Insurance Department, be transferred to the Fire Marshal's office, along lines previously suggested by Commissioner Olsness.

4. I recommend that the presidential primary election held in March be delayed until approximately June 1st and that the State primary election be advanced and consolidated with the said presidential election. By this consolidation of the two elections, a saving will be made of approximately one hundred thousand dollars per biennium.

5. I recommend that the laboratory for testing the protein content in wheat be re-opened at the earliest possible time.

6. I recommend that the mileage paid to State employees for the use of their own automobiles be reduced to five cents a mile for one person, six cents for two, and seven cents for three or more. This minimum amount is the same as now paid by the Federal Government.

7. I recommend the abolishment of the Capitol Commission together with its clerks, secretary and attorneys, and that all the work of that commission be delegated to the Board of Administration, which has ample offices and clerks to complete the work.

8. Two years ago a law was passed providing that a farmer pay five dollars for making out leases for school lands, the fee being raised from three to five dollars, an increase of fifteen thousand dollars, which was used to have five men traveling over the State of North Dakota. I recommend that the law be repealed and that the fee be reduced to three dollars at a saving of fifteen thousand dollars.

9. I recommend that the laws be changed so that in cases of settlement of any cause of action, the proof that the injured person was disabled at the time of the settlement rests upon the other party.

10. I recommend that this session provide the necessary machinery for a scrutiny of public utility rates and charges to determine whether such rates are fair and equitable at no cost to the State.

11. I recommend that the one cent gasoline tax, now going to the counties, be used for poor relief in the counties, and anything left thereafter be used for the purpose of road-building, as per existing statutes; and further that any board of county commissioners that permits any needy poor to remain in want as long as any money remains in this fund shall be removed.

12. I recommend that the law allowing more than eleven hundred special deputy game wardens, whose sole duty is to spy upon their neighbors, be abolished.

13. I recommend the abolishment of all inspectors as now assigned, no matter what department they may be located in, so that the State may rid themselves of the hoards of men, sometimes as many as five or six making inspections at the same business place in one day and travelling at the expense of the taxpayer. This shall include among others the hotel inspector, the inspector of lands for the Board of University and School Lands, the pool hall inspectors, the Regulatory Department inspectors, the bee inspectors, and the pure food inspectors. I recommend that all of the work now done by these inspectors be assigned to eight men to be attached to the office of the State Tax Commissioner, six of whom shall be assigned to regular territory, the remaining two to be assigned to general duties by the Tax Commissioner. I further recommend that in addition to the work last stated, they have full authority to collect income taxes and make any investigations the Tax Commissioner may desire in connection therewith. I further recommend that all the licenses connected with these inspections be abolished.

14. I recommend the consolidation of the following boards: Board of Abstractors' Examiners, Board of Accountancy, Board of Architects, Barbers' Examining Board, Board of Chiropody, Board of Chiropractic Examiners, Board of Dental Examiners, Board of Elections, Board of Embalmers, Board of Hairdressing and Cosmetologists, Board of Medical Examiners, Mine Foremen Examining Board, Board of Nurse Examiners, Board of Optometry, Board of Osteopathy, Board of Pharmacy and Board of Veterinary Examiners under the Industrial Commission, and that the Industrial Commission be given full authority to engage experts as they may be necessary to conduct examinations for these boards with authority to grant licenses and perform other duties now given to the boards.

15. The increasing volume of farm foreclosures is a matter of grave concern to both debtor and creditor. A continuation of this means irreparable injury to the debtor and financial loss to the creditor. I recommend a careful survey by this Assembly of the whole problem and that a study of the Canadian adjustment system, which has proven of value in Canada, be made.

16. I recommend that all of the duties of the State Board of Health and the State Health Officer be transferred to the Medical Department at the State University.

17. I recommend that a law be passed limiting the rates of interest that may be charged by finance and re-finance corporations who are now by their contracts greatly exceeding the rates which should be charged.

18. It became apparent to me in my two campaigns in this State that the present method of handling the receivership of closed banks in this State has cost the depositors therein great losses, and this method is far from satisfactory. I recommend to the Legislature that proper laws be passed consolidating the present office of receiver of closed banks and that of state examiner in accordance with economy and efficiency. My recommendation on this legislation is that each closed bank be turned over for liquidation purposes to a committee representing the depositors and the stockholders, with full authority to such committee to proceed to the right liquidation of the receivership under proper safeguards.

19. With the change in farming methods, the State Twine Plant is now employing fewer men than formerly. I recommend to your consideration the advisability of establishing at the penitentiary proper facilities for the manufacture of all auto license plates now costing the taxpayers $28,000.00 per biennium.

20. Legislation has been introduced in past sessions through the efforts of Senator Martin and Representative Crockett providing for the manufacture of coffins for burial of paupers. Such a law would have my approval.

21. The printing of all bills introduced into both houses involves far greater expense than benefit. The State of Minnesota prints only those bills which receive the affirmative action of the committee having the same under consideration, unless otherwise ordered by the body. A great saving in the printing cost of this session can be accomplished by the adoption of the Minnesota system.

CONCLUSION

The pride that one feels on an occasion like this might easily lead to deceit. Let me say with deliberate emphasis that we must not allow this perfectly legitimate pride to breed any illusions. We have been too long in public life not to know that the applause of today may be the scorn of tomorrow. Too many Palm Sundays have ended in Good Fridays.

I have no illusions as to the magnitude of the task you have before you. If through your labor some measure of relief is brought to our prairie families, particularly if the burdens of women and children are lightened; if through your efforts in the coming days the heavy burdens laid on our people are in a measure eased, your labors here will have been well worth while.

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE PRINTING AND DISTRIBUTION OF BILLS AND JOURNALS

Madam Speaker:

Your committee appointed to confer with a like committee from the Senate beg leave to report as follows:

“Madam Speaker: I move that the resolutions of the Farmers’ National Relief Conference held at Washington,

REPORT OF FARMERS NATIONAL RELIEF CONFERENCE

Washington, D. C.—December 7-10th, 1932
Statement to Congress

We farmers, 286 strong, represent the struggling majority of the farm population in 29 states and represent 36 different farm organizations, various political and religious creeds, races and colors. For the first time in history, we come ourselves face to face with Congress without high salaried "Farm Leaders or Lobbyists" standing between to becloud and divert our purpose. And our purpose is to demand immediate action. We are determined to stop a ruthless pressure from creditors who threaten to sweep us from our land and home.

For the last three years, a world economic crisis has sharpened the effect of ten years of post war farm depression. Our last reserves have been taken from us. We are not responsible for the universal breakdown that forced seventy millions of Americans into economic distress, uncertainty and want in the richest country in the world.

We know that the relief funds are largely squeezed from the worried balance of the population who are themselves slipping toward the brink of joblessness. We know that fantastic costs of local, State and Federal governments are also squeezed from them by Sales Taxes while the big incomes and corporations escape. We know that actual starvation is more and more frequently admitted in spite of bulging banks and storehouses of food. We have seen food destroyed and everywhere our crops rot on the ground in a marketless country because hungry millions have lost their purchasing power.

In the face of this social calamity "Farm Leaders" and politicians dare to talk of "Surplus:" Dare to base legislation on a theory of reduction of acreage that will fit the present starvation markets. Finally this bankrupt leadership dares to advocate the abandonment of our scientific and technical advances in farming and recommends that we return to a primitive, self-sufficing form of peasant farming.

We declare that this country is in the throes of a permanent farm crisis which threatens us with degradation and poverty unless we enforce abrupt changes in our economic set-ups. We declare that such an emergency can be met only by putting into effect the following demands which must be considered as a whole. We ask Congress to suspend its rules and to permit the delegation from the Farmers' National Relief Conference to read these demands on the floor of Congress and that Congress shall immediately proceed to the enactment of emergency legislation on the basis of these demands.

WE DEMAND:

I. FEDERAL CASH RELIEF:

(a) To raise all rural families to a minimum health and decent standard of living, a minimum fund of $500,000,000 must immediately be appropriated for the relief of that section of the distressed farm population in need of immediate relief, regardless of race, creed or color.

II. FEDERAL RELIEF IN KIND:

(a) Food products and supplies needed for relief of city unemployed should be purchased by the Federal Government directly from the farmers at a price which will insure the cost of production plus a decent standard of living.

(b) The processing and transportation of these food products and other relief supplies shall be regulated by the Federal Government so as to prevent profits to the food monopolies and transportation companies during this period of economic crisis.

III. ADMINISTRATION OF RELIEF FOR FARMERS:

(a) Federal cash relief and relief in kind to be administered by local committees of farmers in each township, precinct or other local unit selected by a mass meeting of all farmers needing relief.

IV. GOVERNMENT PRICE FIXING:

(a) A price regulating body controlled by actual consumers and producers, must be immediately elected whose function shall be to reduce prices to consumers and raise prices for all farm products sold. This adjustment to be made by deduction from the swollen profits of the profiteers who stand between field and family.

V. THE DEFEAT OF ANY LEGISLATION BASED ON THE THEORY OF "SURPLUS" PRODUCTION:

While millions of our population are under-nourished through loss of purchasing power, the acceptance of the surplus theory is a crime against farmers and workers.

VI. CREDIT:

(a) The enactment of legislation which will provide production credit for all farm families so as to insure a basis for national consumption at normal levels. This credit is to be administered as in Section III (above).

(b) The defeat of all proposals and the repeal of all legislation now in force which provides credit only for well-to-do farmers and corporations with collateral.

VII. DEBT HOLIDAY:

(a) A moratorium on mortgages, interest and rents for all farmers whose volume of production has until recently sustained the farm family at a decent standard of living.

(b) Cancellation of mortgages, interest, food and seed loans and debts for supplies and furnishing for farmers whose volume of production and economic unit has always been too small to carry the debt load and support the family at a minimum health standard. (Marginal farmers, share croppers and others.)

(c) Cancellation of back farm taxes and moratorium on future farm taxes during the crisis.

VIII. NO EVICTIONS:

During this national crisis Congress must declare all foreclosures, seizure of property and evictions illegal. We farmers have no collateral, but we represent the majority of the farm population. We have at last been forced to organize and present to this Congress our final demands. If our duly elected national representatives and senators fail as did the local, county and state authorities, then we pledge ourselves to protect our fellow farmers from suffering and their families from social disintegration, by our united action.

Adopted by the Farmers' National Relief Conference, in Session, Washington, D. C., December 8, 1932.

Certified as correct copy. (Signed) Lem Harris, Executive Secretary.

MESSAGE TO THE SENATE

House of Representatives,
Bismarck, North Dakota,
January 17, 1933.

Mr. President: I have the honor to transmit herewith the following bill:

House Bill No. 7. A Bill for an Act Making an Appropriation to Provide Funds for the Maintenance of the North Dakota National Guard or State Militia, as Provided for under Chapter 35 of the Political Code of the Compiled Laws of North Dakota, for the Year 1913 and Amendments thereto, and to Meet Other Requirements Prescribed by the Federal Statutes.

Which the House has passed and your favorable consideration is respectfully requested.

Very respectfully,
JAMES P. CURRAN,
Chief Clerk.

Mr. Swett moved to recess at the call of the Chair.

Which motion prevailed.

The House was called to order at 3:30 p. m., Speaker Craig presiding.

The Senate body and a delegation representing the Fort Berthold Reservation on business matters affecting the Mandan, Gros Ventre and Arikara Indians assembled in the House.

Lieutenant Governor O. H. Olson named Senator E. C. Stucke as presiding officer.

Senator Stucke referred to these three tribes representing Indians who have always been friendly to the white man and at peace with the United State Government—loyal citizens and Christian indians.

Mr. A. W. Bowers, anthropologist, working on early Indian History for the University of Chicago, presented the following petition:

"We, the undersigned members of the three tribes, Mandan, Gros Ventres, and Arikaras of the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation, do petition the Governor, Legislature and State Highway Commission of the State of North Dakota that the Missouri River bridge now in the process of construction at Elbowoods be named "The Four Bears (Naxpitsi To-pac) Memorial Bridge" in honor of one of our most distinguished chiefs. Four Bears' name is highly respected among our people for the services he rendered us; he asked that his people live in peace with the whites; he lead the Head Men to Fort Laramie where a successful treaty was entered into with the United States Government; at all times his judgment was wise. No more fitting memorial could be raised in his honor than the dedication of the bridge "The Four Bears (Naxpitsi To-pac) Memorial Bridge."

The Assembly was addressed by the following:

Chief Drags Wolf, representing Gros Ventre tribe, Arthur Mandan, interpreter. A former Scout of the U. S. Army, one of a group who assisted the soldiers in repelling invaders and recovering Army mules and other stolen government property and assisted in the capture of Chief Black Moon, a hostile Indian.

Chief Wolf Lies Down, representing Mandan tribe, Arthur Mandan, interpreter. Another former Scout and member of the band assisting the soldiers with Drags Wolf. Also a former member of the reservation police force, and honored as a delegate at the inauguration of President Hoover and Vice President Curtis. Now serving as an advisor and wise counselor to the Mandan tribe and a member of the reservation Business Committee.

Chief White Shield, representing Arikara tribe, Peter Beauchamp, interpreter. An hereditary Chief—members of his family having for many generations been Chiefs of the Arikaras. One of the first pupils to attend the government school at Fort Stevenson. Served a number of years as agency apprentice carpenter. Now an outstanding and successful stock raiser.

Chief Bears Arm, of Elbowoods, Arthur Mandan, interpreter. An advisor and wise counselor of his people, the Gros Ventres.

Mr. Peter Beauchamp, twice honored as a delegate to Washington representing Fort Berthold Reservation—first in 1916 on tribal financial matters before the Indian Office, and again in 1930 before the Court of Claims.

Senator Stucke introduced the following:

Mr. Two Bull, a headsman of the Gros Ventres.

Mr. Medicine Crow, a member of the reservation police force.

Mr. James Baker, a headsman of the Mandan tribe and delegate to Washington at the Inaugural in 1929.

Mr. Fred Wheeler, a member of the American Expeditionary Forces and a leading farmer of the Gros Ventres tribe.

Chief Arthur Mandan, an advisor and official interpreter for the Gros Ventres and Mandans.

Mr. Jefferson B. Smith, Chairman of the Reservation Business Committee—a delegate to Washington on many occasions—and elected County Official of McLean County.

Simpson, President of the Farmers Educational & Co-operative Union of America, a national organization, and as such has for many years fought the battles of agriculture, and is intimately acquainted with the farmers needs and demands, and is in truth a real dirt farmer; and consequently will be a great aid to the executive officers of this government in bringing back our lost prosperity and returning this nation and its people to peace and contentment, faith in the principles of our republic, and foster confidence in thirty millions of farmers in the wisdom of the leaders of this nation.

THEREFORE: The Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota respectfully pray that you appoint Honorable John A. Simpson Secretary of Agriculture of the United States and take him into your family of advisors.

Which motion prevailed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

Mr. Brunsdale: I would like to explain my vote on the resolution upon which we are now taking a roll call. I am not opposed to the investigation of the affairs of the Capitol Commission, but I do feel that this House is not giving this matter proper consideration and I feel further that this House is not, if it passes this resolution, giving proper consideration to the people out over the state who have the greatest difficulty to maintain themselves in food and shelter, by voting, without considering this matter before a committee, for the appropriation of as large an amount as $7,500.00—therefore I vote 'No'."

Mr. Flaten: "I would like to second the remarks made by Mr. Brunsdale and vote 'No'."

Mr. Piper: "The chances that the taxpayers of this state may be saved thousands of dollars outweigh the objections I heretofore had to this resolution. Therefore I vote 'Aye'."

Mr. Rue: "I am a contractor and builder and I know something of what it is all about. Whatever you do in any contract of any size there are a lot of rumors. They don't mean anything. I attended the investigation hearing of the Capitol Commission. They gave all the information asked of them and were willing to show any records or go over any of the proceedings and I can't see how this body can appropriate $7,500 on rumors. I vote 'No'."

Mr. Smith: "I at this time welcome the investigation, which seems to be the wish of the majority of this House. But I believe it can be carried through without the appropriation of a single additional dollar. I think the expenditure of $7,500 or any part thereof is useless and it is absolutely opposed to the mandate of the people by whom the members of this body were elected. I vote 'No'."

Mr. Strutz: "There are several millions of dollars to be spent in this Capitol Building. The sum of $7,500 in comparison with $2,000,000.00 is not very large. Some of the members have explained their vote. They said they voted 'No' because they have had no information at all about it. I think all the information as to why this investigation should be held has been given. We have had it in the Senate Journal for almost a week. You will also remember two years ago I opposed the appointment of the Capitol Commission for various reasons. Since this Capitol Commission has been appointed, I think we owe it, not only to the people of the State of North Dakota that this matter should be thoroughly investigated, but also that we owe it to the Capitol Commission. If I was one of these men I would want my name cleared. For these reasons I vote 'Aye'."

Mr. Swett: "I don't want all the life insurance taken out today to be on the other side. I am going to vote 'Aye'. I am going to vote 'aye' on the resolution because the Capitol Commission have announced that they welcome it. By their printed and public remarks they welcome this investigation. I am going to vote 'aye' further because the people of North Dakota are entitled to know what has happened here at Bismarck since this Capitol Commission was created. I am going to vote 'aye' for the further reason that we have had this resolution in our Journals since January 10th and have had plenty of opportunity to know what it is all about. Their claim that they do not know what it is all about is certainly no reflection on the majority faction. I vote 'Aye'."

Mr. Thompson: "I have been here through a good many investigations and I never heard of an investigation, no matter which side it came from, that when they got through knew any more than they did to begin with. When you come spending $7,500 for an investigation at this time when we have got a state affairs committee on both sides with attorneys and have an attorney general—I welcome an investigation but I think it is rumored and believed some attorneys will get a good salary out of it and I am not in favor of voting to spend that sum of money. I vote 'No'."

Mr. Traynor: "I am not opposed to this investigation but I am opposed to what it seems to me is an extravagant appropriation. If it carried a small appropriation I would vote 'aye.' As long as there have been some comments made as to the activities of the Commission—if there is anything wrong with them I don't want to cover it up. However, as we are here working in the interests of economy—I am a member of the Appropriations Committee. In the sittings of that Committee we are striving in every way to save every dollar of the taxpayers money, regardless of whether we belong to the one faction or the other. Every member of that Committee is sincerely trying to be economical. Therefore, to be consistent, with an appropriation like this, I must vote 'no'."

Mr. Twichell: "I want to explain my vote and have it recorded in the Journal. I think it is more seldom in my case than that of anyone else. This matter came up in the Senate. It is true, Mr. Bangs sent us a telegram. He welcomed an investigation. The investigation he welcomed was an investigation that at that time was arranged for to be made in a public meeting and in that meeting the Members of the House and Senate State Affairs Committee would have been seated next the witnesses, and the people examined and these rumors were all to be gone into. The purpose of that meeting was whether there would be any reason to make an investigation or whether it could be investigated by two or three meetings of the State Affairs Committee.

"The Committee——"

Mr. Flannigan: "Are we debating this question? Or are you voting?"

Mr. Twichell: "These are my reasons for——"

Mr. Flannigan: "We are now on the question of voting, and the roll is being called. Are you debating the question——"

Mr. Twichell: "I submit that I am explaining my vote. That meeting was held. Instead of being held in this House as agreed by the State Affairs Committee, Mr. Aljets and myself appearing before them, it was taken over to a small room in the Patterson Hotel. The architects, contractors, and members of the board all came here in good faith, expecting to deny these rumors and insofar as the rumors are concerned, I think I know what they are and they have been answered satisfactorily to me. I don't believe anybody in this House is more critical of any attempt to take from North Dakota or her citizens one dollar unfairly or unreasonably and in view of the fact, and also in view of the fact that this investigation could have been held without expense, and for the further reason that it appears much more important that we hire some lawyer than that we save $7,500, I vote 'no'."

Mr. Wright: "I would welcome an investigation and I would like to vote for it, but I can't vote for it with that $7,500 appropriation. Therefore, I vote 'no'."

Mr. Swett moved that the remarks of Mr. Flannigan and Mr. Twichell, who spoke on a point of personal privilege, be stricken from the record.

Which motion prevailed.

Which motion prevailed.

TO THE TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

I feel it is my duty to call your attention to the fact that the credit of the State of North Dakota is at stake in the matter of providing funds for the payment of interest upon the bonds issued by the state when the next interest payment becomes due on July 1st. Already the State Treasurer has borrowed $2,255,000.00 from the Bank of North Dakota on Certificates of Indebtedness to pay the interest due. Approximately $400,000 additional must be borrowed to complete the payment of interest due last January 1, 1933. A million dollars must be available next July 1st, and very likely another million dollars will be required for the January 1, 1934, interest payment. There are sufficient funds in the Real Estate Bond Principal Fund to pay all real estate bonds falling due in the next two years.

I also wish to call your attention to the fact that the running expenses for the state for its institutional, departmental and other purposes is a little less than half a million dollars a month, or roughly $5,000,000.00 per annum, not including highway construction or maintenance, funds for the latter being obtained from the gas tax and the license tags.

The total collections for the past six months to the General Fund have been $1,326,755.08, but indications are that the tax payments will fall off considerably. Perhaps $1,000,000 may be collected during the next few months, after which collections will fall off very materially.

TAX DEMANDS GREAT

The financial requirement for the year 1933, conservatively estimated, to be raised by taxation, will be:

Interest on North Dakota Bonds	$4,000,000.00
State Expenditures	4,000,000.00

The total available collections to meet this huge requirement will not exceed $3,000,000.00, it is estimated. This figure may appear high, but even if it is discounted 20%, should tax collections be better than I anticipate, it will still leave some $4,000,000.00 to raise. This does not include those revenues from the gasoline tax and the license tax sales, which amounted to $2,424,690.90 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932.

While this sum is being required by the state, the other taxing units throughout the state will be demanding not less than $20,000,000.00 and if present plans and programs continue the taxpayers will be called upon for some $25,000,000.00 to $20,000,000.00 for all tax purposes, at the lowest estimate.

A large portion of these expenditures are fixed charges such as interest and principal payments upon bonds due by the state and counties and other political subdivisions. Moreover, the principal payments which should be made to the State Treasurer by the farmers having Farm Loans (there are 16,000 such loans) will not be made. This will curtail the Principal Real Estate (Sinking) Fund, which deficiency must be made up in future years if left out of the tax assessments at this time. Thus we will be storing up a tax burden for future years, which rightly belong to the present time.

Realizing that further delay will leave our state finances in a chaotic condition, as the Fiscal Officer of your State, I humbly present the following suggestions for your immediate consideration:

First, that a Bill be immediately introduced transferring one cent of the gas tax to the General Fund for the next two years to furnish funds to pay off the legislative members' salaries and expenses, and to conduct the other necessary governmental functions of the State of North Dakota.

Second, that a Bill be introduced and passed transferring the State Bridge Fund, and any other funds not essential for immediate needs, approximating $400,000 to the General Fund, or to the Real Estate Interest Fund. The present emergency demands the transfers.

Third, that provision be made for the continued liquidity of the Bank of North Dakota, in addition to insuring sufficient funds to make interest payments. This may be done by a direct property tax, by diverting 1c of the gasoline tax, or by payment of the installments due upon farm loans by the farm owners.

A tax upon real estate, or a special tax upon some commodity, or some form of a sales tax may bring in sufficient funds. The income must be certain. A direct additional tax levy upon real estate at this time will not meet with favor from the taxpayers, even though it be for the laudable purpose of preserving the state's credit. I do not favor a tax levy upon real estate. The sales tax will be resented.

PROPOSES NEGOTIABLE CERTIFICATES

I do, however, wish to offer a painless, self-liquidating relief plan which I think will enable the farmers to meet their debts to the state, both on their farm loans and for their taxes.

A SELF-LIQUIDATING FARM RELIEF PLAN

By Alfred S. Dale, State Treasurer

This Farm Relief Plan is offered as an Emergency Measure in this financial crisis facing North Dakota, until such time as the Federal Government takes the necessary steps to improve the farmers' lot. It is designed to assist the Bank of North Dakota, facing a $4,000,000.00 deficiency for its interest payments during 1933. It will relieve the already overburdened taxpayers on our farms and in our villages and cities who must make up this deficiency.

THIS PLAN PROPOSES TO DOUBLE THE PRESENT FARM INCOME, thus giving every farmer more purchasing power, and an opportunity to liquidate his debts. It will bring speedy relief. It is simple. It requires no costly machinery for its operation.

Many suggestions have been made to help the farmer. It is generally agreed that if he received a fair price for his wheat, his pork, his beef, his poultry, he would have no difficulty in paying taxes and mortgage installments. It is also quite universally conceded and acknowledged that some form of currency inflation is necessary to bring this about. Otherwise the farmer can never hope to pay taxes or to lift the mortgage burden now resting upon Agriculture.

Germany got rid of its domestic debts by inflating its currency and not redeeming it. Russia did the same. France and Italy used inflationary methods to obtain debt relief. Even the Revolutionary War debt was not all paid, history books notwithstanding. Millions and millions of currency issued by the colonies and by the central government were never redeemed. Hamilton could not and did not finance the Revolutionary War. Civil War finance methods were based on currency inflation, and had it not been for the great untouched natural resources of our country which were then to be opened for exploitation and the sale of vast tracts of government lands which brought in huge sums of money to the national treasury, the finances of the Civil War and after, might have been a sorry mess.

The fallacy of no redemption feature in most currency inflation proposals is avoided in this plan. The negotiable certificate issued by the Bank of North Dakota, the State Treasurer, or the treasurer of any political unit will be REDEEMED under this plan. It will inject relief at the bottom where it is needed, instead of furnishing aid to railroads, insurance companies and huge banking corporations at the top.

HOW IT WORKS

An illustration will make the plan clear.

Mr. Farmer, for example, has one thousand bushels of wheat. (The same principle applies for any other farm produce—beef, pork, etc.). Today, if he sold that wheat he could get only $350. What taxes can be pay with that? What debt can he settle? How can he pay a farm loan installment?

Under this proposed plan, Mr. Farmer, who we will say has a loan from the Bank of North Dakota upon his farm, under this plan will take his wheat to market, and turn the $350 draft he received for it over to the Bank of North Dakota. It in turn credits him with $350 on his loan, and reissues to him a series of $1, $5, and $10 negotiable certificates to the extent of $350. This and his $350 credit make $700 in all. (The Bank of North Dakota cannot issue currency because the United States Constitution prohibits that.) In other words, it pays him 70c per bushel for his wheat. Under this plan he thus gets twice the current market price. He pays his installment due the state, and receives an equivalent amount in negotiable bonds which are self-liquidating, as explained below.

If he wishes to pay taxes he turns his wheat money over to the County Treasurer, who issues him $350 in negotiable certificates.

At present there are 2,000 towns and cities in the United States which are issuing scrip money in connection with their unemployed.

HOW REDEEMED

The scrip plan in operation in St. Paul and other cities involves the acceptance of these notes by merchants and dealers. Naturally, it is essential that any bonds or certificates issued by the Bank of North Dakota or the State Treasurer must be accepted. Communities all over the United States using scrip are finding them readily negotiable. Merchants, dealers and others in the state have indicated their willingness to accept such certificates at a small discount for each transaction. This plan proposes a 3% discount on each transaction. So when Mr. Farmer takes his $1 certificate to his merchant, that merchant gladly buys the 3c Revenue Stamp which must be attached to the certificate, gets his money, and is happy.

These revenue stamps are to be purchased from the State Treasurer, each transaction involving the placing of a 3c revenue stamp on each $1 certificate. The merchant transacts business with a garage man who places a 3c stamp thereon. He goes to the grocer, and so on.

It requires 35 transactions to redeem and automatically liquidate any given amount. The state obtains the money beforehand by selling the stamps to be attached to the certificate. When the certificate has the required 35 stamps it may be returned to the state and the holder receives the full value thereof. In the meantime the note has performed the true functions of money—it has served as a means of exchange, with a small service charge. Uncle Sam charges 2c on each check today, yet checks are written and used.

With payments due the state for taxes, interest or principal amounting to over $10,000,000 annually, and with over thirty millions for taxes alone due to all political units, it is readily seen that an immense amount of farm products can be purchased and certificates issued. The parties handling the currency, or certificate rather, absorb the extra 35c bounty per bushel paid to the farmer for his wheat. These state certificates will readily pass inasmuch as they are redeemable at par. The experience everywhere indicates their ready acceptance.

Before this plan, which may be called revolutionary and radical by some, is put into operation, the business men, the commercial clubs, the banks, the larger business institutions of the state should all be invited to assist in furthering the proposal. That they will quickly take it up is almost a foregone conclusion. The expressed sentiment of many legislators indicates that scrip money for paying school teachers, county and state employees is already seriously considered. But that does not take care of the farmer. To give a school teacher scrip merely transfers the burden to the merchants, and does not help the farmer. It is desirable, no doubt, but leaves the farmer holding his wheat, yet compelled to pay taxes to redeem the scrip, under other plans. This plan automatically doubles the price of grain, and it is self-liquidating.

There is one additional feature. When Mr. Farmer receives this double price for his grain he must sign up an agreement, in consideration for this special price, to reduce his acreage in accordance with a specified agreement, when he receives these certificates. The argument for this is that he has received his pay by getting double price for that reduction.

The plan is feasible. It is timely. North Dakota is Progressive. Two thousand cities have already adopted scrip money. It is not an experiment. Let it extend to the farmer, and serve the purpose of inflating the currency as well as doubling the price of farm produce.

If adopted by the present Progressive Legislature, and I have every confidence that it will be, this plan will no doubt be adopted by the Federal Government in connection with its vast system of farm loans and seed loans, as well as its taxes. It is far superior to the complicated Roosevelt Allotment Plan, because it is simple, self-liquidating and speedy.

This plan, let me repeat, will accomplish the following purposes:

1. It will DOUBLE the price of wheat (or any commodity to which its principles may be applied).
2. It will induce payment of farm loans to the Bank of North Dakota, and render unnecessary a $4,000,000 tax levy for 1933 to pay interest on State of North Dakota Real Estate Bonds.
3. It will bring about payment of taxes, and consequent payment of county, school and state employees and all other public expenses.
4. It will NOT create a surplus of wheat because each bushel is sold at the time of the transaction and not held in storage.
5. It will inflate the currency by doubling the prices paid to the farmer.
6. It will bring relief to the farmer first and financial relief to the railroads, the big insurance companies and other corporations second.
7. It is simple, workable, and self-liquidating.

These are the aims and hopes of the state and nation. This Self-Liquidating Farm Relief Plan, which I propose will accomplish every one of these desirable results.

I recommend this Plan to you, and trust that you will speedily pass the necessary legislation to place it into operation.

I thank you.

ALFRED S. DALE,
State Treasurer.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 6

Introduced by Representative Lillehaugen

Memorializing Herbert Hoover, President, and the Congress of the United States pertaining to future wars.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA CONCURRING:

That we, the members of the state legislature in regular session assembled, representing the people of the commonwealth of North Dakota, hereby renew our pledge of loyalty to our God, our Nation and our flag, and to the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy to whom we pledge our lives and property, and the lives and property of our posterity UPON INSTANT CALL to defend them against any nation which shall attempt to attack our shores or invade our land.

And we further pledge that should such attack or invasion provoke a declaration of war against such nation, that this commonwealth will furnish her full quota of the man-power to do the fighting and the dying to make the defense of this nation adequate though the filling of such quota may require submission to conscription or selective draft.

Realizing that "war is hell," that human life is sacred and that bonds mean bondage, we demand in the name of this commonwealth that the power to declare war other than to resist attack or invasion of our own shores, be vested in the voice by referendum vote of the people governed, and in the event of conscription, draft or other compulsory service of the man-power in future wars, we demand that you provide for the conscription of all productive resources and accumulated fortunes in excess of $500,000.00 before further bonds against the nation in defense of which our volunteer and conscripted men and boys offered their lives to the end that our returned soldiers, their posterity and those who furnish the food and clothing to sustain them may not be placed in perpetual bondage to pay interest on those bonds and further swell such fortunes.

AND your memorialists will ever pray.

BOARD OF
STATE CAPITOL COMMISSIONERS
NORTH DAKOTA

January 26, 1933.

SUBJECT: ANNUAL REPORT

The Chief House of Representatives
23rd Legislative Session,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to paragraph (d) of Section Two of Chapter 205 S. L. 1931, I herewith transmit to you, the Annual Report of the Board of State Capitol Commissioners, for the period of its existence up to and including December 31, 1932.

This report is as of January 1st, 1933. I am adding to this transmittal a receipt for your signature or that of your authorized representative.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF STATE CAPITOL COMMISSIONERS,

By F. L. ANDERS, Secretary.

January 24, 1933.

SUBJECT: ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of State Capitol Commissioners,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Gentlemen:

I herewith transmit to you the annual financial report provided for in Paragraph (d) of Section 2, of Chapter 205, S. L. 1931, entitled "An Act providing for the Construction of a Capitol building for the State of North Dakota * * * *."

The report contains a summary of expenditures, an itemized statement of expenditures, an exhibit of contracts awarded, and an exhibit of the contractors' bonds that have been heretofore filed with the State Auditor in connection with the filing of their contract.

CONSTRUCTION, SUPERVISION AND INSPECTION

The Building will be completed on or before February 8th, 1934; the total cost, including Architects' commissions and Board expenses, will be substantially less than the appropriation and will approximate $1,940,000.00 with a probability that savings, of which the State receives 80% under the contract, may reduce this amount.

The construction of the new State Capitol Building is well under way; the steel erection of the administrative section being practically completed and the concrete floors completed up to and including the fourteenth floor. Steel erection on the legislative section is under way. The Architects' services that have been contracted for include all the usual and customary architectural and professional services required in the design, erection, construction and completion of the new Capitol Building. This specifically includes the inspection of material and work, the employment at the expense of the Architects, of an inspector on the job until the work is completed, and includes the prompt rejection of any or all improper work and/or materials. The Architects shall inspect all materials and supervise the construction of the Building. Such superintendence and inspection so required means daily and continuous superintendence and inspection, either by the Architects themselves, or by a representative in their employ.

The North Dakota Architects give particular attention to the inspection and superintendence of the work and material and, in addition, three members of the architectural staff are permanently located on the job, engaged solely in the work of inspection and superintendence of material and work. Final inspection and determination of the completion of the building in accordance with the plans and specifications, is also included.

In addition to this the Architects have employed the Robert W. Hunt Company, who specialize in the inspection of materials and in the construction of all classes of engineering and architectural work. The Robert W. Hunt Company maintain offices all over the world and more especially at centers where materials of construction are manufactured, such as steel plants, cement manufacturing establishments, and so on. Daily reports are received by this office on the progress of construction and on the inspection and shipment of steel, cement, brick, woodwork and all other materials that enter into this building. These reports are in great detail and become a part of the permanent record of this office. The Robert W. Hunt Company maintain permanently during the period of construction an inspection engineer on this work, whose duty it is to inspect the materials entering into the building and to supervise and inspect the construction thereof.

In addition thereto the State has delegated to the Secretary the additional duty of general supervision of materials and character of construction, and he is the technical adviser to the Board. The Secretary has had many years of experience on the design, construction and operation of large engineering works and therefore is qualified to fully represent the State in this capacity.

MEETINGS

The Commission has held a total of 110 meetings in Bismarck, Grand Forks, Fargo, Minneapolis and Chicago. These meetings have ranged from one to ten days in length. The cost of these meetings have been $5,409.37, or a little less than $50.00 per meeting. They have been held for the purpose of selecting architects, analyzing and entering into contracts, investigation for the determination of type of building, investigation to determine character, durability and desirability of materials of construction, investigation for the determination of quality and quantity of mechanical equipment, and investigation for the determination of the economies of office planning and location.

OFFICE ORGANIZATION

The importance of carrying on the creation, design and construction of this building cannot be overestimated. It was early found that if the President of the Commission was to function properly or at all, that it was necessary to organize an office in the City of Grand Forks. The office of the Secretary in Bismarck has at all times been in close touch with the President of the Board and has filed with the President for his information and study, copies of all important documents. The amount of legal work done by the President of the Board without compensation is beyond calculation.

OFFICE RENTAL, HEAT AND LIGHT

To date no office rent has been a charge against either the Grand Forks office or the Bismarck office, nor has there been any charge for light and heat. The office space for all purposes, including filing equipment, typewriters, and so on, have been furnished free to the Board by President Bangs. Office space for meetings of the Board in Bismarck has been furnished by Vice President Conklin at no expense to the State. The Secretary's office has been located in a balcony in the Adjutant General's office at 316 Thayer Street, Bismarck, North Dakota, at no expense to the State.

REPORT DATED DECEMBER 1, 1932

Your attention is called to the Report of the Board of State Capitol Commissioners to the Governor, dated December 1, 1932, which report goes into detail showing that due to causes operating since Chapter 205 became a law, and since the design of the building was accepted, that there are not funds available for the completion of the building. Funds should be provided during this session of the Legislature so that Option "C" of the contract can be taken advantage of before the time of its expiration, which is March 1st, 1933.

BONDS FOR CONTRACTORS

Your especial attention is called to the enumeration of the contractors' bonds and the value thereof, which is the last tabulation in this report.

VOUCHERS PAYABLE AND WARRANTS

The original of all vouchers are filed in the office of the State Auditor and upon the basis of these vouchers the Auditor issues his warrant upon the State Treasurer. The duplicate of each voucher is filed in the office of the Secretary of the Board and becomes a part of the permanent records. All vouchers in the State Auditor's office are open to inspection of the public at any time, as likewise the vouchers and records of the office of the Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

F. L. ANDERS, Secretary.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 8

Introduced by Representative C. H. Morgan

MEMORIAL TO OUR NEXT PRESIDENT AND THE NEXT CONGRESS:

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE SENATE CONCURRING THAT

WHEREAS there are a number of so-called farm relief bills pending in the present congress, most of which bills are just make-believe farm relief, and mere gestures, and intended to deceive and mislead the farmers of this nation and

WHEREAS there is now pending and has been pending, before the present Congress a real farm relief bill known as the Frazier bill, which provides that the United States government shall refinance the existing farm indebtedness at 1½% interest and 1½% principal on the amortization plan, not by issuing bonds, but by issuing Federal Reserve notes, secured by first mortgages on farms—the best security on earth—better than foreign bonds, and far better than the security put up for Federal Reserve notes by the Federal Reserve Board, and

WHEREAS, two to three billion dollars used as a revolving fund will be sufficient to refinance the nine and one-half billion dollars of farm indebtedness and the government will make six billion, three hundred forty-five million dollars, gross profit at $1\frac{1}{2}\%$ interest, in forty-seven years and

WHEREAS if this bill is passed, it will put from two to three billion dollars, new money, in circulation among the people—it will loosen the frozen assets of the nation—the unemployed will again be able to get work and eat—the price of agricultural products will go up—the starving of millions will end and business will again be general and

WHEREAS there is also pending before the present congress a real Cost of Production bill, agreed to a year ago by three great farm organizations: The Farmers Union, the Farm Bureau and the Grange, which bill is known as the McNary bill, in the Senate, and which provides for the cost of production of that part of American agriculture consumed or used within the United States and

WHEREAS this bill is far superior to the so-called Jones bill in that it is not loaded down with cumbersome and expensive machinery and limited to only part of the agricultural products

NOW THEREFORE the legislature of North Dakota respectfully petitions the Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt, our next president, in whose ability and wisdom we have unbounded faith to carefully consider the Frazier bill and the McNary bill above referred to, which we believe are far superior to any measures so far introduced in congress or discussed in public and which we believe will put an end to this depression that has all but wrecked this nation and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we respectfully request the next congress to give careful consideration to these two bills and to pass them without further delay. This, we believe, was the mandate of the people of this nation in the last election.

The Frazier bill has the endorsement of seven state legislatures, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Nevada and if passed, together with the McNary bill, will give sure and certain relief immediately to agriculture and the wheels of industry will start again, the depression will end and the confidence of the people in this nation will again be restored.

Referred to Committee on Agriculture.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 3

Introduced by Representative Fedje

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

WHEREAS, the farmer is now placed in a condition which is prohibited by that part of our national constitution which guarantees us freedom from slavery, and

WHEREAS, this condition is the result of a despicable conspiracy carefully planned by the money barons, aided and promoted by the national administration so that it is now obvious to all that if permitted to continue the entire government will be finally placed in the hands of a few International Bankers, and

WHEREAS, during the World War International Bankers and their associates capitalized the patriotic war effort and engineered unwarranted profits for themselves through treasonous manipulation of our monetary system, and

WHEREAS, the ending of the war caused a cessation of industrial activity for war materials, and

WHEREAS, orders by the Federal Reserve Board on May 20, 1920, caused a contraction of the currency of the United States and precipitated a post war deflation, and

WHEREAS, this deflation required that industrial and financial leaders find a supplemental means for additional exploitation and development in order to relieve industry so that the bankers could realize the fullest profit from investments made in industrial plants for war material production, and

WHEREAS, the only exploitation that could be inaugurated with success must be directed to the multitude of farmers and their associates who controlled the production from the soils of the country and who alone could be depended upon to produce saleable items to redeem future obligations, and

WHEREAS, International Bankers, financial interests and industrialists at that time (1920) rather than make their accounting, take their depreciation and adjust their prices to the proper basis warranted by normal economics, they conspired with the Federal Reserve Board and the Republican administration to promote a boom period of inflation by development of loose credit and delayed payments at usurious rates of interest. This exploitation caused a shifting of the burden from the inventories of the industrial plants to the backs of the workers and farmers, allowed industries and utilities to sell their stocks on the same basis and caused the transfer of all money into the hands of the bankers, and

WHEREAS, National authorities permitted and encouraged the transfer of funds to Wall Street to loan for stock purchase and promotion thereby intensifying the money boom in stocks and bonds and withdrawing all funds that had been available for the development of agriculture, and

WHEREAS, the result has been that for the past three years the farmers have paid everything and received nothing and he is now brought to the condition that makes it mathematically and physically impossible for him to in any way pay his debts or save his home and family, and

WHEREAS, the farmer is now so bound and burdened with mortgages and other charges accrued at high money values and rates that he has no means whatever of deflation or contraction but to turn over his all including his soul, and

WHEREAS, the development of all of these conditions has been so obvious and the conspiracy of the officials of the Republican administration has been so far reaching as to cause loss of all respect for government, and

WHEREAS, these International Bankers exploited the national patriotism, during the war, exploited industry following the war and when confronted with deflation and depreciation postponed their accounting nine years by industrial boom and agricultural exploitation and then when finally confronted by a seeming necessity for deflation of their money turned their abortive efforts to the government itself in order to devaluate everything but the almighty dollar held in their vaults.

WHEREAS, this development of slavery has and will continue to cause our farmers to band together to protect their homes and families and to call upon federal forces for security and protection and failing to receive which will inevitably result in grave disorders.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this body does hereby petition Congress to take cognizance of the situation that has developed and that immediate steps for relief be taken by the enactment of the following legislation; as a partial step in the vitalization of the farm industry.

1. The Frazier Bill and a farm debt commission.
2. Distribution of government activities through other agency than bankers and their affiliates.
3. The Patman Bill for the soldiers bonus.
4. The Wheeler Bill for the monetization of silver to stop the hoarding of gold.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT CONGRESS take this timely warning that it has now become the duty of all public officials to rise above personal and political interests and develop patriotism enough to rescue this greatest country on earth from that end which continued exploitation by International Bankers will bring forth on the devastating rocks of ruin.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this Resolution be promptly forwarded to our National Representatives and to the Speaker of the House and to the Vice-President.

Referred to the Committee on Banks and Banking.

Senator Bangert offered the following Resolution:

R E S O L U T I O N

RESOLVED THAT WHEREAS, there was introduced in evidence during the public hearing of this Committee, held on February 1st, 1933, three separate Vouchers. Voucher Number (144) drawn on the Board of State Capitol Commissioners for the sum of $198.73, payable to G. A. Fraser for railroad fare and sustenance claimed to have been expended by him on a trip for the Capitol Commissioners between November 19th and December 1st, 1931. Voucher drawn upon the Maintenance of National Guard Fund, payable to G. A. Fraser for traveling expenses and sustenance claimed to have been expended by him between November 28th and December 6, 1931, on a trip for the National Guard, totaling $263.12. And Voucher drawn upon the Missouri River Commission, payable to G. A. Fraser for traveling expenses and sustenance claimed to have been expended by said Fraser between December 5th and 12th in the sum of $194.93, and

WHEREAS, the said G. A. Fraser was at the time of the alleged incurring of said expenses, a member of the Capitol Building Commission and it appearing from the face of said Exhibits and the evidence introduced in the Hearings, that there are many duplications of items involved in said claims against the various Departments of the State and it appears to this Committee that the matter should be brought to the attention of the proper officials of this State without delay and

WHEREAS, the Resolution creating this Committee has limited the Committee to making Findings and return to the Legislative body of the State of North Dakota;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that said matter be brought to the attention of the Legislature now in session by filing copies of the several Vouchers, together with a copy of this Resolution, with the Honorable O. H. Olson, Lieutenant-Governor, and Minnie D. Craig, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and that we urge them to place the matter before His Excellency, Honorable William Langer, Governor, A. J. Gronna, Attorney General, Mrs. Berta Baker, State Auditor, and such other State officials as in their opinion may be necessary or desirable for such action as they may determine upon.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that it is the sense of this Committee that by reason of the irregularities appearing upon the face of these several Vouchers, it appears to the Members of the Committee that the State officials will be justified, if not under obligation, to have the various accounts upon which the said Fraser has drawn funds during his tenure in office, properly audited.

I move the adoption of the Resolution.

Representative Peterson: I second the motion.

Chairman Matthaei: All in favor of this motion as made and re-read, manifest by saying "aye."

This is the Adjutant General's Voucher (4221), made in favor of the Standard Oil Company, for $100.00, for coupon books Nos. 13419, 13531, 13532 and 13533, for the amount of $25.00 each, bought from the Standard Oil Company at Minot, North Dakota, by G. A. Fraser, Adjutant General, on November 7th, 1931.

Q. And you may say whether or not that voucher has been paid, the amount of it?

A. The voucher was paid on December 9th, 1931.

Q. The amount was drawn from what funds?

A. Military funds of the State of North Dakota.

Q. You may state whether or not you have made any effort to trace the use of these coupon books?

A. I have.

Q. What effort did you make?

A. I called up the Standard Oil Company at Minot to find out when these books were cleared, when they were fixed out, and all I could about them. I have that letter in reply.

Q. Having correspondence from them in the nature of a letter?

A. A letter.

Q. I now show you a paper marked for the purpose of identification, Exhibit (50), and ask if that is the letter you received?

A. It is.

Q. How did you receive it?

A. By mail.

Q. Will you read the contents of that letter?

(The following is the letter which was written on stationery of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, dated Jan. 31st, 1933).

Mr. Herman A. Brocopp,
Adjutant General,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with your telephone conversation request of this morning with reference to the following coupon books.

According to our records, we list date sold, first number and last number used in these respective books:

Book No.	Date Sold	First Number	Last Number
13419	11-7-31	1-27-32	12-30-31
13531	11-7-31	11-19-31	11-30-31
13532	11-7-31	2-29-32	1- 9-32
13533	11-7-31	12-10-31	2-29-32

You will note that for Book No. 13419 it is shown that the first number was used January 27, 1932, and the last number is reported December 30, 1931. Book No. 13532 shows the first number February 29, 1932 and the last number as January 9, 1932.

Our explanation of this is that these books were evidently started somewhere out of our territory and we did not receive the information from the field in which these books were started until the entire amount had been used from the books and cleared through our records. This happens quite frequently when coupon books are used for cross country travel out of our North Dakota territory.

We hope that this is the desired information.

Yours truly,

WJB:SMM

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 11

Introduced by Olson of Bowman

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, THE SENATE CONCURRING:

Whereas the financial debacle which has swept down farm prices to a point now where the price received will barely pay the freight and where every sale is a complete surrender of the resources of our entire people and therefore the State, and whereas

We believe that the financial interests of the country are unwilling even now to recede from their position and be patriotic enough to absorb their equal share of the losses incident to the depression, and that as a result of said attitude, farm prices will be further lowered to a point of no value whatever, and

Whereas this State is rich in resources of all that goes to support in food production not only our own people but millions in other states, and still find themselves bankrupt because of no medium of exchange and because of the unwarranted premium on hoarded money deliberately accumulated in the hands of the financial interests, and

Whereas, the present Government is now under the power and subservient to those interests, and no relief can be expected from the Government agencies distributing Government funds and that such agencies are not committed to the direction of the people but lodged with the bankers, and

Whereas, we believe we are about to the end of human endurance, that the people of this state, through its legislature, questioning the ability of the democratic party, when in power, to remedy the abuses that have grown up under twelve years of Republican misrule, must assume that the people of this state will be compelled to suffer further losses of property, opportunity and credit, uncertainty of security, of their homes and food, and that the unfed will constantly increase, therefore

Be It Resolved that we recommend the immediate passage by this legislature of the following drastic measure for the protection of the people of this state:

First: Passage of a one year moratorium that will prevent foreclosures and collections, that will drive our people from their homes, and force more into a position of abject want.

Second: The passage of the Peterson bond currency bill, which will provide of medium of exchange for the use of our own people, and enable them to exchange commodities upon a basis that will set a fair exchange value, regardless of market prices, and will enable our schools and institutions to function, and supply employment for those who cannot now obtain employment because of a shortage of money.

Third: The passage of a bill that shall authorize the Governor to declare an Embargo on the shipment of farm products out of this state, except for the purposes of exchange, with such other states as will be willing to exchange commodities on a cost of production basis, and thus prevent the entire resources of our state from being sacrificed upon a market created and manipulated by the financial interests of the country, and empowering the Governor to use the Military forces of the state to enforce such an Embargo, and for the purpose of inviting other states to join us in like purposes and like Embargoes.

Fourth: A bill to authorize the Industrial Commission to use our Mill and Elevator for the purpose of grinding wheat and rye and distributing the same to our people on an exchange value that shall disregard the present market price and the present financial mediums.

Fifth: A bill empowering the Industrial Commission to install manufacturing plants for the purpose of manufacturing our own wool and such cotton products, as we shall be able to secure from other states by exchanging commodities and thus furnish clothing for the use of our people.

Sixth: A bill authorizing the Industrial Commission to establish a plant for the manufacture of leather and shoes utilizing the enormous supply of raw hides that is being given away on the present markets.

Seventh: Said Commission shall be authorized to exchange such products, or any products named herein, with other states upon an exchange value that will insure cost of production from both parties.

Eighth: The Industrial Commission shall be empowered to negotiate with producers of other states for the exchange of commodities not produced here.

Ninth: The Industrial Commission shall be authorized in emergency cases to take over and operate coal mines within the state for the benefit of the people.

Tenth: That in carrying out any of the additional projects by the Industrial Commission, as set forth herein, no further bonds of the state shall be issued therefor, but the same shall be financed by the use of bond currency, as described in the Peterson bill.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, during the World War the United States Government greatly expanded the currency in order to finance the War as is reflected by the fact that the amount of Treasury and Bank Note Circulation increased from 715,000,000 Dollars in 1914 to 3,340,000,000 Dollars in 1919, resulting in even more than 100% rise in prices, and

WHEREAS, the national debt increased from 1 Billion 188 MILLION to 25 BILLION 482 MILLION in the same period, and is now more than 20 BILLIONS of Dollars, and the indebtedness of other states, as well as corporate, private and individuals, has increased in even a greater percentage, and,

WHEREAS, public, private, corporate and individual business has accumulated and contracted vast amounts of indebtedness during this period of inflated currency and over-expansion of credit, and

WHEREAS, under the present condition of low prices for labor, commodities and deflated currency, these public and private debts contracted when dollars were cheap, must now and cannot be repaid with dollars that are dear, creating an unjust hardship and forcing into bankruptcy great numbers of debtors and giving undue and unjust advantage, as well as jeopardizing the rights of creditors, and

WHEREAS, the depression has resulted in deflation of prices of commodities, salaries and wages, but not in interest and dividends, as is reflected by the fact that the average of wages and salaries in the United States has decreased 57 per cent since the year 1926, not counting the totally unemployed, while on the other hand the average of interest and dividend payments have increased 68 per cent, thus making the present deflation extremely unjust and one-sided in its effect, and,

WHEREAS, money, gold and currency are the measure by which exchange of real values is made and the value whereof can easily and arbitrarily be fixed, the power of so doing having been placed in the hands of the Congress by the Constitution of the United States,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives of the forty-ninth General Assembly, the Senate concurring therein that we do hereby memorialize the Congress of the United States to reevaluate our money system of gold and currency or to enact such legislation as will restore same to the value of 1919 as a means of bringing wages, salaries and commodity prices on a par with the payment of debts, both public and private, and thereby avoiding wholesale bankruptcy and protecting creditors and holders of securities against impending loss, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we send a copy of this Resolution to our Senators and Representatives in the United States Congress, thereby asking them to sponsor and support such legislation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we send a copy of this Resolution to the presiding officers of the House and Senate of each State Legislature now in session, thereby requesting that each of those bodies pass a similar resolution.

Referred to Committee on Banks and Banking.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

Mr. Peters: Madam Speaker, I would like to explain my vote and have it recorded in the Journal. I would like to vote for a measure of this kind if it were not unconstitutional but as I see it, this measure is absolutely unconstitutional, therefore, I vote "no."

Mr. Stoa: Madam Speaker, I am not a constitutional lawyer and I know very little about law, but so far as passing any legislation here to help the farmer I am as heartily in favor of it as anyone can be because I am a farmer too. There is to my mind quite a little inconsistency between the sections of this Act and I don't know if it will be workable, but nevertheless, I vote "aye."

Mr. Swendseid: Madam Speaker, There have been questions raised as to the constitutionality of Senate Bill No. 2. As to whether or not Senate Bill No. 2 is constitutional I must leave it to the courts. I vote "aye."

Senate Bill No. 87. A Bill for an Act to permit examina-

WHEREAS, the building now being constructed at Bismarck to serve as the Capitol of the state will soon have reached the stage of construction where the facing will be placed; and

WHEREAS, at some date already past there has been a purported laying of the cornerstone for this building and at a cost of several thousand dollars to the taxpayers, and which laying was only a deceiving show in that a cement block was built up outside of the actual area to be occupied by the building and great display was made thereof and this block and stone have now been removed to the chagrin and disgust of the general public; and

WHEREAS, there is due to the people of the state a more fitting ceremony in the proper laying of a cornerstone in a place where it will forever rest;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that it is the sense of this Legislature, and it is hereby directed, that the Governor and the Capitol Commission or other body responsible to the people for the erection of this building, shall cause to be arranged a fitting ceremony, for the placing of the cornerstone of the Capitol building, at the proper

House Concurrent Resolution No. 16. A Bill for a Concurrent Resolution declaring that the Panama Canal is being utilized by foreign and local shipping interests to transport freight at low rates that do not pay for the maintenance of said Canal with a fair return to the taxpayers of the Nation, and memorializing the Congress of the United States to take immediate steps to compel both local and foreign shipping interests to pay sufficient toll for their use of the Panama Canal to provide for the maintenance thereof and a fair return of the taxpayers' money invested therein.

WHEREAS, the Panama Canal was built by the United States government, at the expense of the taxpayers, for naval and such related purposes then considered necessary in the proper operation of our national government; and

WHEREAS, the said canal is now being utilized by foreign and local shipping interests, to transport freight that formerly was moved across the continent by the railroads operating in North Dakota and in the other midwestern States; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the diversion of this freight, having both foreign and local origin, from the said rail carriers to the said Panama Canal, the said canal has become so congested that there is agitation for its enlargement at the expense of the taxpayers, or for the construction of another unit at the expense of the taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, the said foreign and local shipping interests now utilizing the said canal are not required to pay sufficient tolls to pay maintenance costs plus a fair return on the taxpayers' money expended in its construction, which results in a subsidy to both foreign and local shipping interests; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the diversion of said freight from the rail carriers to the foreign and local shipping interests operating through said canal, the major portion of the revenue of the rail carriers operating in this territory has been diverted and lost without saving to the consuming public; and

WHEREAS, the law, the rate structures, and the practicalities of the situation do not permit the rail carriers to establish rates sufficiently low to meet the competition of said foreign and local carriers by water operating through the Panama Canal; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the resulting loss of revenue to the rail carriers operating in this territory, on account of the diversion to the canal of the transcontinental haul, it has been necessary to maintain a much higher level of rates on grain and other commodities moving locally than would otherwise be the case; and

WHEREAS, due to the low prices obtainable for farm products, and due to the transportation conditions hereinbefore described, both the farmer and the rail carriers operating in the midwest are in financial distress;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein, that in the interests of the farmer, the rail carrier, and all other taxpayers of this State, that the Congress of the United States be urged to take immediate steps to compel both local and foreign shipping interests to pay sufficient tolls for their use of the Panama Canal, to provide for the maintenance thereof and a fair return on the taxpayers' money invested therein, to the end that the situation above described may be corrected.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the North Dakota Senators and Representatives in Congress and to the Legislative Assemblies of all neighboring States.

Referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

Hon. James McManus

House of Representatives
Bismarck, North Dakota

Dear Sir:

As one of the legislative members from Rolette County and Chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the House, and as one having at least the best interests of the people of North Dakota, formal appeal is hereby made for the construction and equipment of a new infirmary unit at the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium at San Haven.

The cost of construction of said unit would approximate $75,000.00; new equipment necessary at power plant to cost, for generator, $10,960; switchboard extension and cable, $1500; new boiler with fittings, installation and labor, $12,000; infirmary equipment, beds, bedding, bedside tables, dishes, tableware and lockers, $7,000; additional maintenance, $20,000.

Reasons for this formal appeal:—A waiting list of patients that has been steadily increasing for over two years, notwithstanding the fact that meantime two of the farm cottages for exercise patients have been converted into infirmaries to care for bedridden patients on the waiting list; while today we have fifty patients from scattered points over the state now on the waiting list whom we cannot admit, and are therefore a menace to the future health of their families and communities; while the present accommodation at San Haven will not permit of their admittance.

This appeal is made in the interests of these patients, their families and of the public health of North Dakota.

Signed,

CHARLES MacLACHLAN

Which motion prevailed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

Mr. Aljets: Madam Speaker, I wish to explain my vote and have it recorded in the Journal. I wish to vote "aye" on this bill because I am down here in the interests of economy, and I want to save the state $500,000 a year and let the Federal Government spend that money in the State of North Dakota. I am down here to vote "aye" on this bill for the further reason that the people of my county sent me down expecting me to vote that way. I vote "aye."

Mr. Falconer: Madam Speaker, I would like to explain my vote. I am voting "aye" on House Bill 76 for the reason that I believe the people have been paying for something for years past that they have never received. I vote "aye" on House Bill 76 for the further reason that I believe in government of the people, by the people and for the people, rather than government of the law, by the law and for the law. I vote "aye" for this bill for the further reason that I believe we are leaving the State of North Dakota a sufficient number of laws to enforce the prohibition question if the people want it enforced. If the people don't want it enforced with the number of laws we are leaving, I believe it to be unenforceable. I think that every one of those laws we are discarding means the saving of the useless expenditure of a large amount of money by the taxpayer. I vote "aye."

Mr. Fedje: Madam Speaker, I wish to explain my vote and would like my remarks printed in the Journal. The people of my county voted in favor of the repeal of the 18th amendment. As their representative I don't feel that I should go against their wishes. And I vote "aye" for the further reason that I believe prohibition is a joke.

Mr. Fitch: Madam Speaker, I would like to explain my vote and have it recorded. I vote "aye" on this bill for the reason that the people sent me down here to express an opinion. They expressed an opinion in November that they wanted to eliminate, and did eliminate, the prohibition act from our constitution, and therefore I believe that we should repeal the laws on the statute books at this time. I vote "aye."

Mr. Gilbertson: Madam Speaker, I think the people of my county voted with a big majority for the repeal of this law, and I think that they sent me here to carry out the wishes of the county and so I am voting "aye" on this bill.

Mr. Hagen: Madam Speaker, this bill is a matter of law, and every attorney in this assembly has said that if you take these laws off of our statute books, every pool hall in North Dakota will be selling hard liquor, and every man that wants to can sell it on our street corners. We voted for the present administration and I am certainly not going to vote to embarrass this administration by having such a thing happen in North Dakota during that administration, and I vote "no."

Mr. Henrickson: Madam Speaker, I vote "aye" on this measure for the reason, first, that I believe in being consistent with the will of the majority of the voters as expressed by them at the polls; second, I believe it will eliminate a part of our tax burden, and, third, I resent anyone being classed as a criminal because he drinks a glass of beer. I vote "aye".

Mr. Morgan: Madam Speaker, I vote "no" on House Bill 76 because I do not believe in tearing down our protecting laws.

Mr. Nelson of Dickey: Madam Speaker, I vote "no", with this explanation. They claim that all Democrats are wet, but I want to show you now a "dry" Democrat. I vote "no".

Mr. Peters: Madam Speaker, I am opposed to the repeal of all our prohibition laws at the present time. As long as the 18th Amendment is in force we cannot pass laws legalizing and regulating the sale of liquor, which is necessary if prohibition is repealed. If conditions are bad under our present laws, they must necessarily be worse if there were no regulation at all. If we could pass laws to regulate the traffic in liquor, it might be preferable to our present situation, but since we cannot at this time enact any such regulations, I vote "no".

Mr. Sandlie: Madam Speaker, I am voting "aye" on House Bill No. 76, not because I am necessarily a "wet" or a "dry" but I believe the paramount issue is not necessarily an issue of prohibition. The issue, as I see it, is whether the wishes of the people of North Dakota are greater than the wishes of the people of this 23rd legislative assembly, or if this 23rd legislative assembly is going to set itself up as sort of a demagogue regardless of the wishes of the majority of the people. My district voted for the repeal of the state prohibition law, and therefore I am voting "aye".

Mr. Solberg: Madam Speaker, two things the people of my county wanted as expressed by their vote last fall—one was the repeal of the 18th amendment. If I was voting on that question today I would vote "aye". Another thing they wanted to get rid of the bootlegger. The repeal of these laws will not rid us of the bootlegger and it will not repeal the 18th amendment. Therefore I vote "no".

Mr. Sticka: Madam Speaker, I observe the conditions through prohibition time and it gives me good reason to vote "aye".

Mr. Swendseid: Madam Speaker, I vote "no" on House Bill 76 because of my personal convictions. I vote "no" on House Bill 76 because of the mandate of our people as expressed in last fall's election, in that the people refused to repeal the enforcement laws.

Mr. Thompson: Madam Speaker, I vote "no" on this measure because I don't think it will get away with any of the bootleggers. There will be more bootlegging with these measures taken off the statute books than there has ever been before. While the people may have voted for the repeal of the 18th amendment, they did not vote for me to come down here and take away every vestige of protection that we have. Therefore I vote "no".

Mr. Traynor: Madam Speaker, in voting "no" on this bill I do not want it understood that I am voting as a "dry", because I am not a dry in the radical sense of the term. I believe that liquor should be sold in this state under regulation. This bill removes all restrictions and provides for no regulation. Therefore it is as radically wet as the present laws, both state and national, are radically dry. Radicalism in either direction is dangerous. Let them bring in a bill choosing a middle ground, then I can support it. I vote "no".

Mr. Twichell: Madam Speaker, like Traynor, I am not voting as a prohibitionist. I am voting because there would be no provision left in the law to enforce any control whatever of liquor in the State of North Dakota in the event that Congress shall provide for the sale of light wine and beer. Congress has in no way taken care of that matter in individual states and we would have nothing left on our statute books with which to regulate the situation except the bootlegging law. I was a little interested in knowing why that was left in, and I investigated and discovered that it was left in because it was an initiated law and it took a two-thirds majority to repeal it. I vote "no".

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Twichell: I am going to vote "no" on this bill and I'm going to tell you why. I came here in favor of taking care of these people who had not been able to pay their taxes. I have not been able to pay my own for the past two years. But I did figure that while leniency should be shown them, it should not be shown at the expense of the party who did pay. I figured a bill would be right that would take off all penalty and would charge 6 per cent on delinquent taxes. By taking off that 6 per cent you have thrown that burden on the man who did pay his taxes. The county had to borrow on certificates of indebtedness and pay approximately 6 per cent on that money, and in rebating that interest below 6 per cent you have thrown the burden on the man who did pay his taxes, and it should not be done. I was one of those fellows that did not pay their taxes and I don't believe the fellow that did pay should be made to pay for the fact that I could not. I vote "no".

Senate Bill No. 27. A Bill for an Act to appropriate the sum of $500.00 from any moneys in the State Highway Fund, for the purpose of aiding in the making of a preliminary survey and sounding of the Missouri River on the state line between North Dakota and Montana at a point where the said state line intersects the Missouri River, near Fort Union, to determine the advisability and feasibility of constructing a bridge across said river at said point, under the provisions of Subsection C of Section 2976t15 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of 1913.

Was read the third time.

STATE OF MAINE

In the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-three

JOINT MEMORIAL

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled:

We, your Memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Maine, in 86th legislative session assembled, most respectfully present and petition your honorable body as follows:

WHEREAS, the immediate and greatest need of this Nation is to establish a fully employed citizenship, and normally functioning private industry offers the most desirable employment opportunities and the primary and largest market for American produce and manufactures is found in meeting the wants of the American people, and the necessary employment in supplying these wants belongs first to American workmen; and

WHEREAS, without the free flow of gold, the common medium of international values, the exchange rates of many Nations' currencies have, by application of the law of supply and demand, become divorced from the actual values of those currencies as measured in buying power within the bounds of the Nation issuing the currency; and

WHEREAS, depreciated currency is seriously handicapping American industry, and our foreign markets are stifled, and our domestic industries face destruction by increased imports from depreciated currency Nations; and

WHEREAS, the economic life of the state of Maine is derived from basic industries, such as lumber, fish, pulp, wheat, fruits, coal, cement, and their allied industries, and the very existence of capital, industry, employment, wages and our standards of living are based on the profitable operation of these basic industries; and

WHEREAS, the Nation faces an emergency and the differences in money levels have existed for a long period and have not become adjusted; and

WHEREAS, Nations whose currencies are depreciated are able to ship merchandise into the United States, pay the existing tariffs, accept American currency in payment, and to make a greater profit on their merchandise than if sold in their own markets; and

WHEREAS, such importations from more than forty Nations of the world into the United States under the existing depreciated currency conditions has the effect of not only eliminating all tariff structures, but of enabling such merchandise to be sold at such a low price in the markets of the United States as to handicap and paralyze American industry and increase unemployment, and the industries of the United States are facing bankruptcy and destruction; and

WHEREAS, we believe, that unless this legislation is immediately passed, chaos and ruin threaten the financial and governmental structure of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Samuel B. Hill of the state of Washington has introduced in the present session of Congress a bill, the official title of which is:

A BILL "To prevent loss of revenue, to provide employment for American labor, and to maintain the industries and agriculture of the United States against the effects of depreciation in foreign currencies"; and

WHEREAS, the delay in enacting this bill into law at the present session of Congress is causing continued and alarming increase in unemployment in our industries, American industry and agriculture are being seriously harmed, and in many instances ruined, by this disastrous new form of competition, which is forcing hundreds of thousands of workmen to sacrifice their jobs; and

WHEREAS, the Government of the United States is being deprived of vast customs revenue under existing conditions; and

WHEREAS, equalization measures must be adopted to preserve American jobs for American workmen;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Senate and House of Representatives of the state of Maine respectfully urge the present Congress now in session, and the President of the United States, to promptly enact into law H. R. 13999; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Memorial be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of State to the proper officers and committees of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and a copy sent to each of the Representatives and Senators representing the state of Maine in the United States Congress; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Memorial be immediately forwarded by the Secretary of State to the legislatures of all the states of the United States requesting that they pass and present similar Memorials to Congress;

And your Memorialists will ever pray.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES

Mr. Twichell: I vote "no" on this bill. The people of the state asked for a cut in all salaries of 20 per cent. The law applying to the institutions was held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. The legislature in this appropriation has applied a cut of 20 per cent, and in many instances an additional like cut. I think such a cut is excessive. I don't think the people of the state demanded any such cut. I vote "no."

Mr. Flannigan: I vote "no" on this bill and I want to concur with the statement made by Mr. Twichell in regard to the appropriation and the cut in salaries.

Section 2079b1. CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.) Counties, cities, villages, townships, school districts, park districts, and irrigation districts shall have power to borrow in anticipation of revenues to be derived from taxes already levied. The aggregate amount of such borrowings shall not any time exceed the amount of delinquent taxes which have been levied during the year in which the borrowing is made, plus uncollected taxes remaining upon the tax lists of four preceding years, exclusive of levies for the purpose of retiring bond issues and the interest thereon. For the purpose of borrowing all such taxing districts may issue certificates of indebtedness. A certificate of indebtedness shall consist of an agreement on the part of the taxing district to pay a stated sum on a specified date or on or before a specified date not more than twenty-four months in the future, together with interest thereon at a specified rate not exceeding seven per cent per annum which may be made payable semi-annually, which certificate shall be signed on behalf of the district by its president or chairman and also by its auditor, clerk or secretary, and be payable out of funds derived from delinquent taxes levied for the current tax year and four previous years, and which have not been set aside for the payment of other certificates of indebtedness pursuant to Section 2079b5. However, a certificate of indebtedness shall be the general obligation of the issuing tax district.

Certificates of indebtedness shall bear the certificate of the county auditor to the effect that they, together with all other outstanding certificates, are within the amount of delinquent taxes which have been lawfully levied in the then present year plus uncollected taxes of four preceding years. Such certificates of indebtedness shall possess no validity unless they bear such certificates of the county auditor. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to make such certificate according to the facts. When so executed with the prescribed certificate signed by the county auditor, certificates of indebtedness shall be fully negotiable and shall be incontestable, except upon the ground of fraud on the part of the holder or original payee or connivance between the holder or the original payee and officer or officers of the taxing district concerned. In the hands of a holder in due course, the execution of a certificate of indebtedness by the proper officials shall be conclusive evidence that the issuance thereof was duly authorized by the governing board of the taxing district. A tax shall be deemed to have been levied when it has been voted by the tax levying board and certified to the county auditor.

Section 2079b2. CERTIFYING AMOUNT OF UNCOLLECTED TAXES.) The county auditor shall at any time upon request of the officers of any taxing district, certify to them the amount of uncollected taxes remaining upon the tax lists to the credit of such district on the last day of the preceding month, and shall annually certify such information to the clerk of each township and village on February fifteenth and to the auditor of each city on September tenth, and to the clerk of each school board on June tenth. The county auditor shall also certify to the clerk, auditor, or secretary of such taxing districts monthly, at the time of making the monthly apportionment of funds the amount of cash collections apportioned for that month to such taxing district, and the amount derived from levies of each tax year.

Section 2079b3. MAXIMUM AMOUNT OF WARRANTS; VIOLATION OF PROVISION; LIABILITY FOR.) No warrants, purporting to be drawn upon the funds in the hands of the treasurer of any taxing district, shall be issued in excess of the amount of cash in the hands of the treasurer, exclusive of sinking funds and funds for the payment of interest upon bond issues, and no indebtedness shall be incurred, and no undertakings or expenditures authorized in excess of unencumbered uncollected taxes which have been levied during the current year. Any warrant issued, contract entered into, or purported indebtedness incurred in contravention of this Section shall be utterly null and void, this provision not being intended to detract from the provisions of Section 2079b1 of this Act with reference to the incontestability of certificates of indebtedness. Any officer knowingly and wilfully executing or participating in the execution of any warrant or contract, or attempting to incur any indebtedness of any such taxing district in contravention of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Any officer executing or participating in the execution of any warrant in contravention of this Act, shall be personally liable for the payment thereof to the holder in due course thereof. Any county auditor wilfully signing a false certificate upon any certificate of indebtedness issued pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Any member of a governing board or any officer of such taxing district who shall wilfully issue or participate in the issuance of, or the purported authorization of any certificate of indebtedness contrary to the provisions of this Act, or in excess of the maximum amount permitted under this Act, shall be personally liable for the payment thereof to the holder in due course thereof.

Section 2079b4. REGISTRATION.) The county auditor shall at the time of attaching his certificate to such certificates of indebtedness, register such certificates of indebtedness in his bond register in space set aside for the registration of certificates of indebtedness. Such registration shall show the name and address of the purchaser. In the event such certificate is negotiated, the holder thereof shall present same to the county auditor who shall thereupon note in his register the name and address of the purchaser.

EXPLANATION OF VOTES

Mr. Born: Madam Speaker: Our neighboring states have moving picture shows on Sunday and our farmers in North Dakota living within 25 miles and further from the borders of the state go over there Sunday and take in those shows. Besides in our larger cities they have Sunday midnight shows. To remedy the situation I believe that we are justified in passing this bill, and I vote "aye."

Mr. Fitch: Madam Speaker: To my mind it is high time this legislature was thinking something about revenue. Morals, in my mind, in this case, are not involved. There are 212 theatres in North Dakota with an average seating capacity of 550 seats. The total income would be about $60,000. We need the money. I vote "aye."

Mr. Patterson: Madam Speaker: I vote "aye" on this bill because I believe that it is no more wrong, morally, to go to a movie on Sunday than it is to play golf, or bridge, or anything else of that kind. In Minot it will bring in approximately $900.00 a year in revenue, and I believe that $75.00 a month would buy a lot of food for the children they say are picking it out of garbage cans. I vote "aye."

Mr. Lynch: I vote "no" for the purpose of reconsideration.

House Bill No. 205. A Bill for an Act to Amend and Re-enact Section 3807 of the 1925 Supplement to the 1913 Compiled Laws of North Dakota and Sections 3615, 3869, 4161, 4165, 4166, 4167 and 4200 of the 1913 Compiled Laws of North Dakota Relating to the Official Oath and Official Bond of Township, City and Village Officers and Providing that the Official Bonds of Such Township, City and Village Officials Shall be With the North Dakota State Bonding Fund or Private Surety Company.

FOR AN ACT to raise revenue by issuing self-liquidating tax certificates prescribing limitations and providing method of redemption.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF
THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

(PREAMBLE)

Whereas, due to the financial condition of our people, the revenues of the state and political subdivisions have been seriously impaired, because of the inability of the people to pay their taxes, and a large amount of taxes are now delinquent with little or no ability on the part of the taxpayers to pay, and it being imperative that provisions be made for the liquidating of said delinquent taxes and obtaining temporary relief from the present situation, the Legislature of the State of North Dakota deems it advisable to ask the people of the State of North Dakota to accept and use in lieu of money self-liquidating tax certificates as provided herein.

Section 1. The State Auditor and each County Auditor is hereby authorized and empowered to issue self-liquidating tax certificates, subject to the limitations herein provided.

Section 2. Rules and regulations for the purpose of administering under, and carrying out the provisions of this act shall be prepared and published by a committee consisting of the State Auditor, the State Treasurer and the Manager of the Bank of North Dakota. It shall be the duty of this committee to have prepared and printed the necessary certificates, and stamps of the proper denominations as required by the state and the counties to carry out the intent of the provisions herein set forth. Said certificates and stamps to be so engraved as to prevent counterfeiting.

Section 3. The amount of certificates issued, shall at no time exceed the total amount of unpaid taxes and special assessments delinquent in the various counties and taxing subdivisions less the amount of other outstanding warrants and certificates of indebtedness, issued against such delinquent taxes.

Section 4. Twenty per cent of the salaries, compensation, or wages of all state, county, municipal, educational or other public employees, excepting elective officers, shall be paid by self-liquidating tax certificates. And it shall be the patriotic duty of all elective officers in the state to accept twenty per cent of their salaries, wages or compensation in self-liquidating tax certificates.

Section 5. Any county, or township, may give for poor relief self-liquidating tax certificates in lieu of cash.

Section 6. The certificates to be issued herein shall be issued in denominations of One Dollar and Five Dollars and the stamps to be placed thereon for two and ten cents respectively.

Section 10. Said certificates shall be negotiable without endorsement, but in order to make the same negotiable the holder, in the presence of the receiver, shall before transferring the same, place, on the back thereof one state Revenue Stamp of the proper amount in accordance with the face value of said certificate, and cancel the same and place his or her initials plainly in ink on the stamp so attached and shall also place his or her initial in the space adjoining such stamp so that there will always be on the back of said certificate the initial of the last person transferring the same, as well as on the stamp.

Section 11. Before said certificate shall be payable on demand it shall contain stamps on the back thereof equal in value to the face thereof, except as provided in Sections 12, 13 and 15, that is to say, there must be One Dollar in stamps on the back of the One Dollar certificate and Five Dollars in stamps on the back of a Five Dollar certificate.

Section 12. Self-liquidating tax certificates to be used for the payment of municipal, educational or other public employes, shall be secured from the county auditor in the case of jurisdiction within the county and from the State Auditor in the case of jurisdiction under the state. Money in the redemption fund shall be disbursed in accordance with regulations prescribed under the provisions of section two hereof.

Section 15. In addition to the redemption fund above required it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to establish a special redemption fund from receipts of delinquent taxes collected which are not covered by certificates or warrants for the purpose of paying off such self-liquidating tax certificates which shall be unpaid at the end of two years by reason of there not having been sufficient stamps attached thereto. All certificates issued by a county shall be an obligation of said county for the face thereof until paid or redeemed as herein provided.

Section 16. The cost of printing certificates and stamps shall be paid by the various counties for certificates and stamps required by them and for those required by the state, costs shall be paid from the redemption fund set up from the sale of stamps for state certificates.

Section 17. It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, or association of whatsoever nature to discount these self-liquidating tax certificates. Such certificates, if accepted in exchange of goods or services or in payment of indebtedness of any nature must be accepted at the face value.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Flannigan: "Madam Speaker: I want to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill. I want to reiterate my former statement, I am absolutely opposed to any cut in the salaries of state employees beyond that intimated to be the desire of the people by the initiated measure voted on by them at the last election. I vote 'no'."

Mr. Twichell: "Madam Speaker: I am going to vote 'no' on this bill, and in addition to the reason I gave the other day for voting against one of these appropriations, I want to make a further explanation. When this matter was up between the Taxpayers Association and the employees, the question of the initiated law, I was called in, and we made an agreement that if this law which has since been held unconstitutional as to certain employees, was knocked out, that I would do the best I could in the legislature to see that a bill was passed that carried a 20% reduction. I was a party to that agreement. There was nothing done with respect to getting out petitions for a new law. I am placed in the position of practically having agreed to vote for a bill with only a 20% cut, and that is sufficient in my mind. That is all the people of the state asked for. I therefore vote 'no' on the bill and not with any idea of defeating it."

Mr. McKellar: "Madam Speaker: I believe you can buy these plates cheaper than you can make them in the 'Pen' and I vote 'no'."

Mr. Piper: "Madam Speaker: I would be for this measure at this time if it wasn't for the fact that we have already voted to establish a coffin plant and tannery plant at the penitentiary and at this time I don't think it wise to go any further. Therefore, I vote 'no'."

Mr. Twichell: "Madam Speaker: I am going to vote 'no' on this bill for the reason that for the last two or three sessions this matter has been up here and we have had several estimates of the cost of the necessary equipment for making these plates. The costs heretofore have never exceeded $10,000.00. This is an economy measure, supposedly, but this appropriation has been increased to $18,000.00 and I know there has never been an appropriation made that they did not use it all, however much it was. I vote 'no'."
