House Concurrent Resolution No. 3005. — A concurrent resolution to create and enact a new section to the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, relating to special sessions of the legislative assembly; and to amend and reenact sections 23 and 41 of article IV and section 5 of article V of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, relating to the maximum duration of legislative sessions, effective dates of legislative acts, and the powers of the governor.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

This amendment would allow the governor to limit the purpose and length of any special session of the legislature called by the governor. The legislative assembly would also be allowed to call itself into special session if requested in writing by two-thirds of the members of each house. Finally, the amendment specifies when a measure passed by the legislative assembly becomes law.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 3055. — A concurrent resolution to create a new article IV of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, relating to the legislative assembly; to repeal the present article IV of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, relating to the legislative assembly; and to provide an effective date.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

This amendment creates a new article to the constitution providing for a legislative assembly that consists of a senate and house of representatives and establishes terms of office and the number of allowable legislators in each house. Provides for qualifications of legislators, legislative district organization, and reorganization based on one-man one-vote principles, legislative procedures, and restrictions upon legislators serving in other state offices.

The amendment also repeals the present article IV of the Constitution of the State of North Dakota, and provides that these changes will take effect on December 1, 1984.
