21-02-02. CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS - BY WHOM ISSUED - TERM - INTEREST - TAX WHEN DEEMED LEVIED - REPAYMENT OF LOANS.

1. Counties, cities, townships, school districts, park districts, irrigation districts, water conservation and flood control districts, Garrison Diversion Conservancy District, county park districts, or joint park districts shall have power to borrow in anticipation of revenues to be derived from proceeds to be received under currently existing contracts with the bureau of Indian affairs and from taxes already levied. The aggregate amount of such borrowings at any time shall not exceed the amount of uncollected taxes which have been levied during the year in which the borrowing is made, plus uncollected taxes remaining upon the tax lists of the four preceding years, exclusive of levies for the purpose of retiring bond issues and the interest thereon, plus funds to be received under currently existing bureau of Indian affairs contracts. For the purpose of borrowing, all such taxing districts may issue certificates of indebtedness. A certificate of indebtedness shall consist of an agreement on the part of the taxing district to pay a stated sum on a specified date, or on or before a specified date not more than twenty-four months in the future, together with interest thereon at a rate or rates resulting in an average annual net interest cost not exceeding eight percent per annum if they are sold privately, which may be made payable semiannually. Such certificate shall be signed on behalf of the district by its president or chairman and also by its auditor or secretary, and shall be payable out of funds derived from uncollected taxes levied for the current tax year and four previous years which have not been set aside for the payment of other certificates of indebtedness pursuant to sections 21-02-07, 21-02-08, and 21-02-09 and from funds received under bureau of Indian affairs contracts currently existing. However, a certificate of indebtedness shall be the general obligation of the issuing taxing district.

2. Notwithstanding the borrowing limitations in subsection 1 of this section, a school district may issue certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of repaying a loan to the lands and minerals trust fund which has been made for converting the heating plant to coal. The maximum term for these certificates shall be seven years. If a school district no longer exists, the county auditor shall levy a direct tax against the taxable property in the original borrowing district that will be sufficient to provide for the redemption of the certificates as specified on the certificates."

House Concurrent Resolution No. 3077.

Introduced by

Representative Solberg

(Approved by the Committee on Delayed Bills)

A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to monitor the University of North Dakota's planning for the establishment of a four-year medical education program in North Dakota.

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Legislative Assembly encourages the Board of Higher Education to establish a University of North Dakota four-year medical education program in North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, this will be a change from the current 2-1-1 medical education program; and

WHEREAS, a Legislative Council review during the 1981-83 interim will provide a basis for the Forty-eighth Legislative Assembly providing for the establishment of the third year in North Dakota during the 1983-85 biennium;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN:

That the Legislative Council is directed to monitor the University of North Dakota Medical School's preparation during the 1981-83 interim to establish the third year of its program in North Dakota in the fall of 1983; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the University of North Dakota Medical School provide such assistance to the Legislative Council as the Council may determine necessary in conducting that study; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Council report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement its recommendations, to the Forty-eighth Legislative Assembly.
