be placed on calendar without recommendation.

be amended as follows:

On page 1 of the engrossed bill, line 1, delete everything after the words "A BILL" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "for an Act to license home health agencies and to provide for administration of a grant program for home health agencies providing home health services to qualified individuals; and to provide an appropriation.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. In this Act, unless the context and subject matter otherwise requires:

1. "Certificate of need" means a certificate issued following the review process required pursuant to chapter 23-17.2 and rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.
2. "Clinical record" means a written account which covers the services the agency provides directly and those provided through arrangements with another agency which account contains pertinent past and current medical, nursing, social, and other therapeutic information, including the plan of treatment.
3. "Department" means the state department of health.
4. "Home health agency" means a public or private agency, organization, facility, or subdivision thereof which is engaged in providing home health services to individuals and families where they are presently residing for the purpose of preventing disease and promoting, maintaining, or restoring health or minimizing the effects of illness or disability.
5. "Home health aide" means an individual who renders personal related service under the supervision of a registered professional nurse.
6. "Home health services" means a broad range of health and social services furnished to individuals and families by a home health agency or by others under arrangements with the agency, in the places where the recipients are presently residing. Services must include the services of a currently licensed registered professional nurse and at least one other therapeutic service and may include additional support services. These services may only be provided with the approval of a licensed physician.
7. "Licensed practical nurse" means one who has met all legal requirements for licensure and holds a current license to practice in North Dakota pursuant to chapter 43-12.1.
8. "Nursing services" means those services pertaining to the preventive, curative, and restorative aspects of nursing care that are performed by or under the supervision of a registered professional nurse.
9. "Person" means an individual, firm,

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

partnership, association, corporation, or any other entity, whether organized for profit or not.

10. "Physician" means any person currently licensed pursuant to chapter 43-17.
11. "Registered professional nurse" means a registered nurse as defined under chapter 43-12.1.
12. "Skilled nursing" means professional nursing services rendered by nurses licensed under chapter 43-12.1.
13. "Supportive services" includes the use of medical appliances; medical supplies, other than drugs and biologicals prescribed by a physician; the collection of blood and other samples for laboratory analysis; and nutritional guidance, homemaker, or companion services.
14. "Therapeutic services" means services which include:
 - a. Skilled nursing care.
 - b. Medical social services.
 - c. Home health aide services.
 - d. Physical, occupational, or speech therapy.
 - e. Respiratory therapy.

SECTION 2. LICENSE REQUIRED - RULES. A person may not conduct, maintain, or operate a home health agency without a license issued by the department. The department shall adopt rules for the application, issuance, and renewal of a license.

SECTION 3. CERTIFICATE OF NEED REQUIRED. A new home health agency must first obtain a certificate of need from the department prior to applying for a license. An existing home health agency must first obtain a certificate of need from the department prior to an expansion of its geographic area of service.

SECTION 4. ISSUANCE AND RENEWAL OF LICENSES - EVALUATION. On receipt of an initial or renewal application, the department or its authorized agent shall evaluate the home health agency. If minimum standards described in section 5 of this Act are met, the department shall issue the license for renewal.

SECTION 5. STANDARDS OF LICENSURE.

1. Minimum standards which a home health agency must meet for licensure are:
 - a. The agency must provide skilled nursing and at least one other therapeutic service, such as, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, medical social services, or home health aide services, on a regular basis.
 - b. The agency must maintain personnel folders on all agency employees, which indicate that qualified personnel are available to render designated services. Where hospital or long-term care personnel are utilized by the hospital or long-term care facility to treat agency patients during the normal working hours, the hospital's or facility's personnel folder meets this requirement for that facility's employees. Home health agencies that contract for staff to provide services shall maintain a current written agreement with personnel serving under that contract in the personnel folders maintained under this subsection.

- c. The agency must maintain plans of treatment, clinical notes, and other means to verify that services are actually provided and not merely listed as being offered.
 - d. The agency must maintain full information in its files relating to ownership of the agency. In those instances where the agency is incorporated for profit, the files must contain names and addresses of the corporate officers and of each person having ten percent or greater interest in the ownership of the agency.
 - e. The agency must have a supervising physician or a supervising registered professional nurse who is responsible for the direction, coordination, and general supervision of the therapeutic services provided by the agency and who is employed on a full-time basis. There must be supervision from a physician or registered professional nurse during all hours of operation.
 - f. If services are to be provided by arrangement with other agencies or organizations, the home health agency must ensure that the other agencies or organizations furnish qualified and trained personnel.
 - g. If services are provided under written contracts between a home health agency and other agencies or other organizations, the home health agency must have documentation which verifies that communications between the contractor and the staff of the agency are frequent, and that the home health agency has all information necessary to assure that the administrative responsibility for the care of patients rests with the home health agency.
 - h. The agency must maintain clinical records on all patients to serve as documentation of the medical, nursing, and therapeutic care rendered to the patient and for communication between the physician and the agency.
 - i. The agency must ensure that home health aides are properly trained and function under adequate supervision.
2. All phases of an agency's operation shall be without discrimination against individuals or groups of individuals on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or age.

SECTION 6. ADVICE AND CONSULTATION. The department shall provide professional advice and consultation related to the quality of home health agency aspects of health care and services provided by the licensee.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECTION 7. DENIAL, SUSPENSION, OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE. The department may deny, suspend, or revoke a license for noncompliance with this Act in accordance with the administrative hearing provisions of chapter 28-32.

SECTION 8. RULES - DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH. The department shall adopt necessary rules relating to the home health agencies licensed pursuant to section 2 of this Act, including rules governing:

1. Qualifications of professional and ancillary personnel in order to furnish adequately home health services.
2. Standards for the organization and quality of patient care.
3. Procedures for maintaining records.
4. Provision for contractual arrangements for professional and ancillary health services.
5. Procedures for application, issuance, and renewal of license.
6. Procedures for denial, suspension, or revocation of license.
7. Inspections of licensed home health agencies.
8. Provision of grants to home health agencies licensed under section 2 of this Act, not inconsistent with the provisions of section 10 of this Act.

SECTION 9. INSPECTIONS - REQUIRED INFORMATION.

1. The department is authorized to conduct periodic inspections of the facilities of licensed home health agencies with respect to fitness and adequacy of equipment, personnel, rules and bylaws, standards of service and medical care, plans of treatment, records, and other standards of licensure.
2. Any home health agency which provides or makes available any home health services to the public in this state, in any organized program developed or rendered under its auspices or provided under contract with any other person shall submit annually to the department a complete description of that home health agency's operation, including name, address, location, or principal place of business, ownership, identification of administrative personnel responsible for home health services, and the nature and extent of the programs. The department shall determine the form and content of the information compiled and the annual date for submission of information. The department shall make the information available to the appropriate governmental agencies of the state so as to make known the availability of home health services to provide data for planning and for health needs of the people of the state. The information shall be available to the public and to the health systems agencies.

SECTION 10. PAYMENTS AND GRANTS FOR HOME HEALTH SERVICES.

1. No government agency may purchase, pay for or make reimbursement or grants-in-aid for services provided by a home health agency unless, at the time the services were provided, the home health agency possessed a valid license to provide home health services. However, contractual arrangements between a licensed home health agency and other health care providers are not prohibited, provided that the licensed home health agency maintains full responsibility for the plan of treatment and the care rendered.

- 2. Within the limits of legislative appropriations the department shall provide grants to home health agencies which agree to provide home health services for indigent individuals. The amount of the grants shall be based on the income, on a sliding income scale, of the individuals receiving services from the agency. For the purposes of this Act, an individual is indigent if the individual's income does not exceed community services administration income guidelines and the individual's resources do not exceed by two hundred percent state medicaid program property guidelines. Eligibility determinations shall be made by grantees in accordance with rules adopted by the department. Grants made by the department for home health services to licensed home health agencies shall be in amounts approved by the department.
- 3. The department shall adopt a form of application which a home health agency must complete and file in order to be eligible for grants from the department under this Act.

SECTION 11. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $600,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the state department of health for the purpose of providing grants to home health agencies which enter into agreements with the department to provide home health services for indigent individuals under section 10 of this Act, for the biennium beginning July 1, 1981, and ending June 30, 1983."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new subsection to section 39-01-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby created and enacted to read as follows:

No person may stop, stand, or park any vehicle in any designated parking space which is reserved for the physically handicapped on any state charitable or penal institution property or on the state capitol grounds unless the vehicle displays a physically handicapped identification certificate or insignia issued by the motor vehicle registrar to a physically handicapped person.

SECTION 2. STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT - PROVISION OF ENVELOPES FOR TRAFFIC AND PARKING VIOLATIONS ON STATE CHARITABLE OR PENAL INSTITUTION PROPERTY OR STATE CAPITOL GROUNDS. The state highway department shall provide preprinted envelopes for any person who elects to post bond by mail, pursuant to section 39-06.1-02, for a violation of section 1 of this Act or any state traffic parking regulations on any state charitable or penal institution property or on the state capitol grounds.

SECTION 3. A new subsection to section 39-06.1-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

For a violation of section 1 of this Act, any municipal ordinance equivalent to section 1 of this Act, or any traffic parking regulations on any state charitable or penal institution property or on the state capitol grounds, a fee in the amount of five dollars.

SECTION 4. A new subsection to section 39-10-48 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby created and enacted to read as follows:

Whenever any authorized law enforcement officer finds, on state charitable or penal institution property or on the state capitol grounds, a vehicle standing, stopped, or parked in a dangerous location or in violation of any official traffic control device prohibiting or restricting the stopping, standing, or parking of any vehicle, the officer shall place a written warning on the vehicle for the first offense and thereafter an authorized traffic citation may be issued. However, no traffic citation may be issued for any violation of this subsection occurring on the state capitol grounds during the legislative session.

SECTION 5. A new subsection to section 39-10-50 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby created and enacted to read as follows:

The state highway department, with respect to streets, roadways, and parking areas of any state charitable or penal institution and on the state capitol grounds, may authorize the purchase and placement by the director of institutions of official traffic control devices prohibiting or restricting the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles. The placement of signs pursuant to this section shall be done when, in the department's opinion, the stopping, standing, or parking is dangerous or would unduly interfere with the free movement of traffic, especially the free flow of traffic required for proper fire protection. No person may stop, stand, or park any vehicle in violation of the restriction indicated by any official traffic control device. Any registered owner shall be presumed to have been the operator of a vehicle that is parked in violation of any official traffic control device prohibiting or restricting the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles on any highway, state charitable or penal institution property, or on the state capitol grounds. This presumption may be rebutted by a showing of clear and convincing evidence to the contrary.

However, no traffic citation may be issued for any violation of this subsection occurring on the state capitol grounds during the legislative session."
