THIRTY-THIRD DAY

Bismarck, February 19, 1981

The Senate convened at 1:00 p.m., with President Sands presiding. The prayer was offered by Rev. Jerry Miller, Pastor, First Lutheran Church, Rugby, N. D.

Gracious Father,

Thank You for the gift of managing our own affairs.

Thank You for the freedom and responsibility to care for our land, our water, our air, our people.

Bless us now with Your love and care.

Bless our beloved United States of America and this great state North Dakota, which we treasure and enjoy.

Bless President Reagan, Governor Olson and all others who serve in positions of power.

Keep them safe from the intoxicating danger of power by humbling them with the awesome responsibility they have.

Forgive us when we misuse Your gifts.

Forgive us when we make wrong decisions.

Help us to be rid of the weight of past mistakes by leaving them with You so we can start each day with a clean desk.

Keep us sensitive to those who are weak, in need, in the minority.

Give these law makers gathered here from all over our state a sensitive ear to listen, a keen eye to see beyond the surface and the present, a clear head for good thinking and common sense, a strong heart for courageous action.

Be especially with their families and loved ones.

Keep the bonds of husband and wife, parent and child, friend and neighbor alive and warm.

Grant that the people who work in this building for others have a desire to rely on Thee, O Lord, our wisdom and our salvation.

Keep them faithful representatives of Thee and the people they serve.

We pray in the name of Him who gave His life for all people to be free and to live life in all its fulness. Amen.

The roll was called and all members were present except Senator Berube.

A quorum was declared by the President.

The proposed amendments were adopted.

Senator Moore moved that the rules be suspended, that Senate Bill No. 2323 be deemed properly re-engrossed and placed on the calendar, as amended, for second reading and final passage, which motion prevailed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Senator Shablow: Mr. President, I rise to explain my vote. I voted "no" on the amendment because I like Senate Bill No. 2323. I think it was a good bill. It treated everyone fairly and I am afraid if we amend this bill in this manner, more amendments will be applied to it. I think when the people from these areas of large residential districts realize that the shift is going to go to them only, then we'll very possibly lose Senate Bill 2323, and I would like to save the bill. Thank you ladies and gentlemen.

SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

Senate Bill No. 2323. — A Bill for an Act relating to the taxation of property at true and full value, the assessment of agricultural land, limitations on increases or forced reductions in property taxes levied by taxing districts for certain years, and statements of full consideration; to amend and reenact sections 57-02-11, 57-02-27, and 57-02-28, subsection 1 of section 57-13-04, and section 57-55-04 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the annual assessment of property taxes, the powers and duties of the state board of equalization, and the taxation of mobile homes; to provide a penalty; to provide an effective date; and to declare an emergency.

Which has been read.

Senator Goodman moved that Senate Bill No. 2323 be amended as follows:

On page 1 of the reengrossed bill, line 4, after the semicolon insert the words "to create and enact a new section to chapter 57-02 of the North Dakota Century Code to provide a property protection clause;"

On page 1 of the reengrossed bill, after line 26, insert the following new section:

"SECTION 2. PROPERTY PROTECTION CLAUSE. Twelve percent of the assessed valuation of taxable fixtures, buildings, and improvements, and twelve percent of the assessed valuation of mobile homes taxed under chapter 57-55, shall be exempt from taxation; provided that to receive this exemption for any year, the taxes levied on the property for that year must be paid in full on or before February fifteenth prior to the date of delinquency. The exemption provided by this section shall not apply to any farm improvements which are exempt under subsection 15 of section 57-02-08."

And renumber the lines, sections, and pages accordingly.

Senator Goodman moved that the proposed amendments be adopted, which motion prevailed.

Senator Nething moved that the rules be suspended, that Senate Bill No. 2323 be deemed properly re-engrossed and placed on the calendar, as amended, for second reading and final passage, which motion prevailed.

SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

54-17-07.4. HOUSING REVENUE BONDS. In order to fund its housing finance programs, the commission is authorized to issue revenue bonds or evidences of debt and indebtedness of the state which shall be sold at not less than ninety-five percent of par plus any accrued interest. The principal of and interest on such bonds shall be payable only from revenues generated under the applicable housing finance programs. The bonds shall not constitute a debt of the state of North Dakota and shall contain a statement to that effect on their face. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale, shall mature not more than fifty years from their date or dates, and shall contain such terms and provisions as the commission shall determine. The commission may capitalize from bond proceeds all expenses incidental to the issuance of the bonds or to the applicable housing finance program, including, without limitation, any reserves for the payment of the bonds. All revenue bonds issued by the commission to fund a housing finance program shall be secured separately from revenue bonds issued to fund its other housing finance programs.

SECTION 6. Section 54-17-07.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby created and enacted to read as follows:

54-17-05.5. STATE REALLOCATION UNDER THE MORTGAGE SUBSIDY BOND TAX ACT OF 1980. Pursuant to sections 103A(g), 103A(g)(4) and 103A(g) (6)A of the internal Revenue Code of 1954, hereafter referred to as the "code", the limit for housing revenue bonds to be issued shall be allocated as follows:

- To the industrial commission to fund its housing home mortgage and mobile home and manufactured housing finance programs. seventy-five percent of the "state ceiling", as defined in section 103A(g)(4) of the gode.
- To home rule cities now or hereafter authorized to issue bonds subject to section 103A(g) of the code, twenty-five percent of the state ceiling".

The applicable limit for bonds of any home rule city shall be determined by multiplying twenty-five percent of the state ceiling by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the home rule city as shown in the 1980 federal decennial census and the denominator of which is the aggregate population of all home rule cities now or hereafter authorized to issue bonds as shown in the 1980 federal decennial census. The governing board of any home rule city referred to in this section may by appropriate resolution or legislative action transfer to any other such home rule city or cities or to the industrial commission its local portion of the state ceiling for any calendar year, such transfer to be irrevocable upon enactment in accordance with law.

SECTION 7. Section 54-17-07.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby created and enacted to read as follows:

54-17-07.6. ACCEPTANCE OF GRANTS, CONTRIBUTIONS, LOANS, OR OTHER AID. Acting in its capacity as a state housing finance agency, the industrial commission is authorized to contract for, accept and administer any grant, contribution or loan of funds, property, or other aid in any form from the federal government or from any other source, and to do all things necessary to qualify for any grant, contribution, or loan under any federal program, including those things necessary to qualify for assistance under the federal housing programs in effect from time to time.

SECTION 8. Section 54-17-07.7 of the North Dakota Century Code is hereby created and enacted to read as follows:

54-17-07.7. TERMS OF LOANS. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the industrial commission is authorized to require, as a condition to the origination and purchase of loans and mortgage loans to be purchased by it, prepayment penalties, restrictions upon assumability, default provisions, rights to accelerate, rights to increase the interest rate, and any other terms the commission may determine to be necessary or desirable to assure the repayment of its housing revenue bonds and the exemption from federal income taxes of the interest payable on its housing revenue bonds under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. All such terms shall be enforceable by the originator, the commission, or any successor holder of the loans or mortgage loans unless expressly waived in writing by or on behalf of the commission.

SECTION 9. EMERGENCY. This Act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall be in effect from and after its passage and approval.
