TWENTY-SECOND DAY

Bismarck, February 4, 1987

The Senate convened at 1:00 p.m., with President Pro Tem Redlin presiding.

The prayer was offered by Reverend Charlie Neill, First United Methodist Church, Bismarck.

Creator God, as those who have been granted the privilege of life with all its opportunities and freedoms, we truly rejoice before You. I pray for each person here today chosen to be a leader in our state government. I pray for wisdom in the decisions made. I pray for a sensitivity to human need that everyone of us might be open to the hurts of others. We all pray for people who are troubled by memories of better days gone by and who cannot understand the problems confronting us this very day. O Lord, be present to us in smiles and in embraces and warm hand shakes, and most of all in the still, small voice of Your Word which speaks assurance to troubled lives. Amen.
