SCR4022

A concurrent resolution to create and enact two new sections to article X of the Constitution of North Dakota, relating to deposit of certain oil and gas gross production tax revenues in the common schools trust fund and in a constitutional trust fund with interest income of the constitutional trust fund to be available for appropriations for economic development projects and higher education capital construction costs; to provide an effective date; and to provide an expiration date.

STATEMENT OF INTENT
This measure requires a portion of oil and gas gross production tax revenues to be deposited in the common schools trust fund and another portion to be deposited in a constitutional trust fund, with income of the constitutional trust fund to be available for economic development grants and higher education capital construction costs. During the period from July 1, 1991, through June 30, 1993, the amount of production tax revenue deposited would be one-half of the first one percent of the gross value at the well of oil and gas produced and after June 30, 1993, the first full one percent of the gross value at the well of oil and gas produced which is collected as production taxes must be allocated as provided in this measure.
