MOTIONS

SEN. ROBINSON MOVED that Engrossed HB 1046 be amended as follows:

In lieu of the amendments adopted by the Senate as printed on pages 246-247 of the Senate Journal, Engrossed House Bill No. 1046 is amended as follows:

Page 1, line 1, after the first "to" insert "the establishment of a North Dakota rural area development corporation to administer a rural development revolving loan fund and to provide for"

Page 1, line 3, remove "and" and after "penalty" insert "; and to provide a contingent appropriation"

"SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in sections 1 through 3 of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Board of directors" means the board of directors of the equity development corporation as established under chapter 10-30.3.
2. "Corporation" means the equity development corporation established under chapter 10-30.3.
3. "Primary sector business" means an individual, corporation, partnership, or association which through a process employing knowledge and labor adds value to a product or service produced for resale.
4. "Region" means the area delineated by executive order of the governor under section 54-40.1-02.
5. "Rural area" means any area in the state that is not within five miles [8.05 kilometers] of any city with a population of more than eight thousand.

SECTION 2. Economic development commission to act in advisory capacity. The economic development commission shall act in an advisory capacity to the board of directors of the equity development corporation for purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this Act, and shall:

1. Advise the board of directors regarding the regional rural revolving loan fund established by section 3 of this Act;
2. Establish guidelines for fund matching requirements, eligibility criteria, financing terms and conditions, solicitation and review of applications for assistance, and determination of projects to be funded under section 3 of this Act;
3. Develop priorities for projects and activities relating to the development of rural areas; and
4. Coordinate the rural area development plans and programs of the various regions of the state and encourage the collocation of assistance programs for rural areas in each region.

SECTION 3. Regional rural development revolving loan fund - Appropriation. There is established in the Bank of North Dakota a regional rural development revolving loan fund to be administered by the board of directors. All moneys transferred to the regional rural development revolving loan fund, interest on moneys in the fund, and payments to the fund of principal and interest on loans made by the fund are hereby appropriated to the corporation for the purpose of providing technical assistance, research and development assistance, and loans or equity or debt financing on a matching basis to new or expanding primary sector businesses in rural areas. The funds available under this section must be allocated equally for the benefit of each region."

"SECTION 6. APPROPRIATION. There is hereby appropriated, subject to the availability of state general fund revenues as provided in section 7 of this Act, out of any moneys in the general fund in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $9,500,000 which shall be transferred by the state treasurer to the regional rural development revolving loan fund to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this Act, for the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993.

SECTION 7. CONTINGENT APPROPRIATION. The amount appropriated in section 6 of this Act is available only upon determination by the director of the office of management and budget that estimated general fund revenues for the biennium ending June 30, 1993, are greater than the estimates that were made at the close of the fifty-second legislative assembly. The director of the office of management and budget shall make estimates every six months during the biennium on or before June thirtieth and December thirty-first of each year. The amount that is appropriated under section 6 of this Act is limited to the amount in excess of $11,000,000 over the amount estimated by the fifty-second legislative assembly, up to a total of $9,500,000. If the balance in the general fund at the end of the biennium ending June 30, 1993, is $11,000,000 or more above the estimate made by the fifty-second legislative assembly, the amount in excess of $11,000,000, up to a total of $9,500,000, is appropriated for the purposes of section 6 of this Act. The provisions of section 54-44.1-11 do not apply to any appropriation that is based upon the actual ending balance. For purposes of this section, the estimate at the close of the fifty-second legislative assembly may not include the tax revenues generated as a result of this Act. The director of the office of management and budget shall inform the equity development corporation of the appropriation available to it under this Act."

Renumber accordingly
