Shares of a corporation in the name of or under the control of the corporation or a subsidiary in a fiduciary capacity are not entitled to be voted on any matter, except to the extent that the settlor or beneficial owner possesses and exercises a right to vote or gives the corporation or, with respect to shares in the name of or under control of a subsidiary, the subsidiary, binding instructions on how to vote the shares.
4. Shares under the control of a person in a capacity as a personal representative, an administrator, executor, guardian, conservator, or attorney in fact may be voted by the person, either in person or by proxy, without registration of those shares in the name of the person. Shares registered in the name of a trustee of a trust or in the name of a custodian may be voted by the person, either in person or by proxy, but a trustee of a trust or a custodian may not vote shares held by the person unless they are registered in the name of the person.
5. Shares registered in the name of a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver may be voted by the trustee or either in person or by proxy. Shares under the control of a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver may be voted by the trustee or receiver without registering the shares in the name of the trustee or receiver, if authority to do so is contained in an appropriate order of the court by which the trustee or receiver was appointed.
6. Shares registered in the name of an organization not described in subsections 1 through 5 may be voted either in person or by proxy by the legal representative of that organization.
7. A shareholder whose shares are pledged may vote those shares until the shares are registered in the name of the pledgee. If the corporation pledges its own shares under subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-93, the corporation may not vote the shares at a meeting or otherwise.

SECTION 43. Section 10-19.1-76.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

10-19.1-76.2. Proxies.

1. At or before the meeting the appointment is to be effective a shareholder may cast or authorize the casting of a vote by filing a written appointment of a proxy with an officer authorized to tabulate votes.

- a. A written appointment of a proxy may be signed by the shareholder or authorized by the shareholder by transmission of a telegraph, cablegram, or other means of electronic transmission, provided the corporation has no reason to believe the telegram, cablegram, or other electronic transmission was not authorized by the shareholder.
 - b. Any reproduction of the writing or transmission may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or transmission for any purpose for which the original transmission could be used, if the copy, facsimile, telecommunication, or other reproduction is a complete and legible reproduction of the entire original writing or transmission.
 - c. An appointment of a proxy for shares held jointly by two or more shareholders is valid if signed by any one of them, unless the corporation receives from any one of those shareholders written notice either denying the authority of that person to appoint a proxy or appointing a different proxy.
 2. The appointment of a proxy is valid for eleven months, unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment. No appointment is irrevocable unless the appointment is coupled with an interest, including a security interest, in the shares or in the corporation. A shareholder who revokes a proxy is not liable in any way for damages, restitution, or other claim.
 3. An appointment may be revoked at will, unless the appointment is coupled with an interest, in which case it may not be revoked except in accordance with the terms of an agreement, if any, between the parties to the appointment. Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy by:
 - a. Attending a meeting and voting in person; or
 - b. Signing and delivering to the officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either:
 - (1) A writing stating the appointment of the proxy is revoked; or
 - (2) A later appointment.
 4. Revocation in either manner provided in subsection 3 revokes all earlier proxy appointments and is effective when filed with an officer of the corporation.
 5. The death or incapacity of a person appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the authority of the proxy, unless written notice of the death or incapacity is received by an officer authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under that appointment.
 6. Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are appointed as proxies for a shareholder:

- a. Any one of them may vote the shares on each item of business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the appointment; and
 - b. If no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to voting the shares on a particular item of business, the shares must be voted as a majority of the proxies determine. If the proxies are equally divided, the shares may not be voted.
7. Subject to section 10-19.1-76.3 and an express restriction, limitation, or specific reservation of authority of the proxy appearing on the appointment, the corporation may accept a vote or action by the proxy as the action of the shareholder. The vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge, but the proxy is liable to the shareholder or beneficial owner for damages resulting from a failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the authority granted in the appointment.
8. If a proxy is given authority by a shareholder to vote on less than all items of business considered at a meeting of shareholders, the shareholder is considered to be present and entitled to vote by the proxy for purposes of subsection 1 of section 10-19.1-74, only with respect to those items of business for which the proxy has authority to vote. A proxy who is given authority by a shareholder who abstains with respect to an item of business is considered to have authority to vote on the item of business for purposes of this subsection.

SECTION 44. Section 10-19.1-76.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

10-19.1-76.3. Acceptance of shareholder act by the corporation.

2. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:
 - a. The shareholder is an organization and the name signed purports to be that of an officer, manager, or agent of the organization;
 - b. The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
 - c. The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder, and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been

- presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
- d. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney in fact of the shareholder, and if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or
- e. Two or more persons hold the shares as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders.
3. The corporation may reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.
4. The corporation or its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section is not liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.
5. Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

¹ SECTION 112. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-28 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-28. Nature of a membership interest and statement of interest owned.

1. A membership interest is personal property. A member has no interest in specific limited liability company property. All property of the limited liability company is property of the limited liability company itself.

¹ Section 10-32-28 was also amended by section 2 of Senate Bill No. 2099, chapter 362.

2. At the request of any member, the limited liability company shall state in writing the particular membership interest owned by that member as of the moment the limited liability company makes the statement.
 - a. The statement must describe the member's right to vote, to share in profits and losses, and to share in distributions, restrictions on assignments of financial rights under subsection 3 of section 10-32-31 or governance rights under subsection 6 of section 10-32-32, then in effect, as well as any assignment of the member's rights then in effect other than a security interest.
 - b. The statement is not a certificated security, is not a negotiable instrument, and may not serve as a vehicle by which a transfer of any membership interest may be effected.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of any law relating to security interests, a membership interest, governance rights, and financial rights are each a general intangible, as defined in section 41-09-06, and not a certificated security as defined in subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-08-02, an uncertificated security as defined in subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 41-08-02, chattel paper as defined in subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 41-09-05, an instrument as defined in subdivision i of subsection 1 of section 41-09-05, or an account as defined in section 41-09-06.

SECTION 113. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-31 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-31. Assignment of financial rights.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, a member's financial rights are transferable in whole or in part.
2. An assignment of a member's financial rights entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, only the share of profits and losses and the distributions to which the assignor would otherwise be entitled.
 - a. An assignment of a member's financial rights does not dissolve the limited liability company and does not entitle or empower the assignee to become a member, to exercise any governance rights, to receive any notices from the limited liability company, or to cause dissolution.
 - b. The assignment may not allow the assignee to control the member's exercise of governance rights.
3. A restriction on the assignment of financial rights may be imposed in the articles, in the operating agreement, by a resolution adopted by the members, or by an agreement among or other written action by members or among them and the limited liability company. A restriction is not binding with respect to financial rights reflected in the required records before the adoption of the restriction, unless the owners of those financial rights are parties to the agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

4. Subject to subsection 5, a written restriction on the assignment of financial rights that is not manifestly unreasonable under the circumstances and is noted conspicuously in the required records may be enforced against the owner of the restricted financial rights or a successor or transferee of the owner, including a pledgee or a legal representative. Unless noted conspicuously in the required records, a restriction, even though permitted by this section, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction.
5. With regard to restrictions on the assignment of financial rights, a would-be assignee of financial rights is entitled to rely on a statement of membership interest issued by the limited liability company under section 10-32-28. A restriction on the assignment of financial rights, which is otherwise valid and in effect at the time of the issuance of a statement of membership interest but which is not reflected in that statement, is ineffective against an assignee who takes an assignment in reliance on the statement.
6. Notwithstanding any provision of law, articles of organization, member-control agreement, operating agreement, other agreement, resolution, or action to the contrary, a security interest in a member's financial rights may be foreclosed and otherwise enforced, and a secured party may assign a member's financial rights in accordance with title 41 without the consent or approval of a member whose financial rights are subject to the security interest.

SECTION 114. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-32. Assignment of a complete membership interest and of governance rights coupled with an assignment of financial rights.

1. A member's governance rights are assignable, in whole or in part, only as provided in this section.
2. Subject to subsection 6, a member may, without the consent of any other member, assign governance rights, in whole or in part, to another person already a member at the time of the assignment. ~~Any~~
 - a. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization, any other assignment of any governance rights is effective only if all the members, other than the member seeking to make the assignment, approve the assignment by unanimous written consent; ~~unless the articles of organization provide for written consent by fewer than all members.~~
 - b. Subject to subsection 6, a member may grant a security interest in a complete membership interest or governance rights without obtaining the consent required by this subsection.
 - (1) However, a secured party may not take or assign ownership of governance rights without first obtaining the consent required by this subsection.
 - (2) If a secured party has a security interest in both a member's financial rights and governance rights, including a security interest in a complete membership interest, this subsection's requirement that the secured party obtain consent applies only to taking or assigning ownership of the governance rights and does not apply to taking or assigning ownership of the financial rights.

3. When an assignment of governance rights is effective under subsection 2:
 - a. If the assignment is not a security interest, the assignee becomes a member, if not already a member; and
 - b. If the assignor does not retain any governance rights, the assignor ceases to be a member, and the written consent required under subsection 2, also constitutes the dissolution avoidance consent necessary to avoid dissolution that would otherwise ensue under subdivision e of subsection 1 of section 10-32-109 on account of the assignor ceasing to be a member if the consent required to avoid dissolution is not greater than the consent required under subsection 2.
4. When an assignment other than a security interest is effective under subsection 2, unless the written consent under subsection 2 otherwise provides:
 - a. The assignee is liable in proportion to the interest assigned for the obligations of the assignor under section 10-32-56, including liability for unperformed promises that have been reflected as contributions in the required records, and section 10-32-65 existing at the time of transfer, except to the extent that, at the time the assignee became a member, the liability was unknown to the assignee, and could not be ascertained from the required records; and
 - b. The assignor is not released from liability to the limited liability company for obligations of the assignor existing at the time of transfer under sections 10-32-56 and 10-32-65.
5. If any purported or attempted assignment of governance rights is ineffective for failure to obtain the consent required in subsection 2:
 - a. The purported or attempted assignment is ineffective in its entirety; and
 - b. Any assignment of financial rights that accompanied the purported or attempted assignment of governance rights is void.
6. Restrictions on the transfer of governance rights may be imposed following the same procedures and under the same conditions as stated in subsections 3 and 4 of section 10-32-31 for restricting the transfer of financial rights.
7. Notwithstanding any provision of law, articles of organization, member-control agreement, operating agreement, other agreement, resolution, or action to the contrary, a security interest in a member's full membership interest or governance rights may be foreclosed and otherwise enforced, and a secured party may assign a member's complete membership interest or governance rights in accordance with title 41, all without the consent or approval of the member whose full membership interest or governance rights are the subject of the security interest.

SECTION 115. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-34 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-34. Rights of judgment creditor. On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a member, the court may charge a member's or an assignee's financial rights with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with interest.

1. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of a member's financial rights under section 10-32-31.
2. This chapter does not deprive any member or assignee of financial rights of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the membership interest.
3. This section is the sole and exclusive remedy of a judgment creditor with respect to the judgment debtor's membership interest.

SECTION 116. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-37 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-37. Preemptive rights.

1. To the extent allowed by section 9 of article XII of the Constitution of North Dakota, a member of a limited liability company has the preemptive rights provided in this section, unless denied or limited in the articles of organization or by the board of governors pursuant to subdivision b of subsection 5 of section 10-32-56.
2. A preemptive right is the right of a member to make contributions of a certain amount or to make a contribution allowance agreement specifying future contributions of a certain amount before the limited liability company may accept new contributions from other persons or to make contribution allowance agreements with other persons.
3. A member has a preemptive right whenever the limited liability company proposes to accept contributions from other persons, or to make contribution allowance agreements with other persons, pertaining to membership interests of the same series or class as the series or class owned by the member.
4. ~~No~~ Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, no preemptive rights pursuant to this section arise as to contributions to be accepted from others or as to contribution allowance agreements to be made with others when the contribution is:
 - a. To be made in a form other than money;
 - b. To be made or reflected pursuant to a plan of merger;
 - c. To be made or reflected pursuant to an employee or incentive benefit plan approved at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the - owners of a majority of the voting power of all membership interests entitled to vote;

- d. To be made pursuant to a previously made contribution allowance agreement; or
 - e. To be made or reflected pursuant to a plan of reorganization approved by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a statute of this state or of the United States.
5. The extent to which each member may make a new contribution, or obtain the right to make a new contribution under a contribution allowance agreement, by exercise of a preemptive right as to any class or series is the ratio that the value of that member's contributions, as reflected in the required records as pertaining to that class or series before the contribution, bears to the total value of all members' contributions reflected in the required records as pertaining to that class or series before the new contribution.
 6. A member may waive a preemptive right in writing. The waiver is binding upon the member whether or not consideration has been given for the waiver. Unless otherwise provided in the waiver, a waiver of preemptive rights is effective only for the proposed contribution or contribution allowance agreement described in the waiver.
 7. When proposing to accept new contributions, or to make contribution allowance agreements, with respect to which members have preemptive rights under this section, the board of governors shall cause notice to be given to each member entitled to preemptive rights. The notice must be given at least ten days before the date by which the member must exercise a preemptive right and must contain:
 - a. The extent of the member's preemptive right, being:
 - (1) In the case of a preemptive right to make a contribution, the amount of the contribution to be made; and
 - (2) In the case of a preemptive right to make a contribution allowance agreement, the amount of the contribution to be allowed under that contribution allowance agreement;
 - b. The method used to determine the extent of the member's preemptive right;
 - c. The terms and conditions upon which the member may make a contribution or make a contribution allowance agreement; and
 - d. The time within which and the method by which the member must exercise the right.
 8. If a member does not exercise preemptive rights to make a contribution or to make a contribution allowance agreement, then for a period not exceeding one year after the date fixed by the board of governors for the exercise of those preemptive rights and to the extent of the preemptive rights not exercised, the board of governors may accept contributions or make contribution allowance agreements on terms no less favorable to the limited liability company than those offered to the member.

9. ~~No~~ If the members of a limited liability company are entitled to cumulative voting in the election of governors, no amendment to the articles of organization that has the effect of denying, limiting, or modifying the preemptive rights provided in this section may be adopted if the votes of a proportion of the voting power sufficient to elect a governor at an election of the entire board of governors under cumulative voting are cast against the amendment.

SECTION 117. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-38 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. A regular meeting, if any, must be held on the ~~day of~~ date and at the time and place fixed by, or in a manner authorized by, the articles or operating agreement, except that a meeting called by or at the demand of a member pursuant to subsection 2 must be held in the county where the principal executive office of the limited liability company is located.
4. At each regular meeting of members ~~there:~~
 - a. There must be an election of qualified successors for governors who serve for an indefinite term or whose terms have expired or are due to expire within six months after the date of the meeting.

4. The business transacted at a special meeting is limited to the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting. SECTION 121. Section 10-32-40.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

10-32-40.1. Voting rights.

1. The board of governors may fix a date not more than fifty days, or a shorter time period provided in the articles of organization or operating agreement, before the date of a meeting of members as the date for the determination of the owners of membership interests entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting. When a date is so fixed, only members on that date are entitled to notice of and permitted to vote at that meeting of members.
2. A determination of the owners of membership interests entitled to notice and to vote at a meeting of members is effective for an adjournment of the meeting unless the board of governors fixes a new date for determining the right to notice and to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than fifty days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.
3. If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty days after the date fixed for the original meeting:
 - a. It must provide the original record date for notice and voting continues in effect; or
 - b. It may fix a new record date for notice and voting.
4. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the governors present may establish a procedure whereby a member may certify in writing to the limited liability company that all or a portion of the membership interest registered in the name of the member are held for the account of one or more beneficial owners. Upon receipt by the limited liability company of the writing, the persons specified as beneficial owners, rather than the actual member, are deemed the members for the purposes specified in the writing.

5. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or by the board of governors under subsections 5 and 6 of section 10-32-56, members have voting power in proportion to the value of the contributions of the members as reflected in the required records.
6. The articles of organization may give or prescribe the manner of giving a creditor, securityholder, or other person a right to vote under this section, but no prescription under this subsection may have the effect of transferring from an assignor of financial rights to the assignee the assignor's voting rights.
7. Membership interests owned by two or more members may be voted by any one of them unless the limited liability company receives written notice from any one of them denying the authority of that person to vote those membership interests.
8. Except as provided in subsection 7, an owner of a membership interest entitled to vote may vote any portion of the membership interest in any way the member chooses. If a member votes without designating the proportion voted in a particular way, the member is considered to have voted all of the membership interest in that way.

The members of a limited liability company who have a right under this section to obtain payment for their membership interests do not have a right at law or in equity to have a limited liability company action described in subsection 1 set aside or rescinded, except when the limited liability company action is fraudulent with regard to the complaining member or the limited liability company.

SECTION 137. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-55 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-55. Procedures for asserting dissenters' rights.

1. For purposes of this section:
 - a. "Limited liability company" means a limited liability company whose members have obtained rights to dissent under subsection 1 of section 10-32-54 and includes any successor by merger.
 - b. "Fair value of the membership interests" means the value of the membership interests of a limited liability company immediately before the effective date of the limited liability company action referred to in subsection 1 of section 10-32-54.
 - c. "Interest" means interest beginning five days after the effective date of the limited liability company action referred to in subsection 1 of section 10-32-54, up to and including the date of payment, calculated at the rate provided in section 28-20-34 for interest on verdicts and judgments.
 - d. "Member" includes a former member when dissenters' rights exist because:
 - (1) The membership of that former member has terminated causing dissolution; and
 - (2) The dissolved limited liability company has then either entered into a winding-up merger under subsection 3 of section 10-32-112 or has disposed of its assets pursuant to a business continuation agreement under subsection 2 of section 10-32-131.
2. If a limited liability company calls a member meeting at which any action described in subsection 1 of section 10-32-54 is to be voted upon, the notice of the meeting must inform each member of the right to dissent and must include a copy of section 10-32-54 and this section and, if applicable, subsections 2 and 3 of section 10-32-131. For members who have assigned some or all of their financial rights, the description must also include the procedures under subsection 8.
3. If the proposed action must be approved by the members, a member who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must file with the limited liability company before the vote on the proposed action a written notice of intent to demand the fair value of the membership interests owned by the member and must not vote the membership interests in favor of the proposed action.
4. After the proposed action has been approved by the board of governors and, if necessary, the members, the limited liability company shall send to all members who have complied with subsection 3 and to all members entitled to dissent if no member vote was required, a notice that contains:
 - a. The address to which a demand for payment must be sent in order to obtain payment and the date by which the demand must be received;
 - b. A form to be used to certify the date on which the member acquired the membership interests and to demand payment; and

- c. A copy of section 10-32-54, this section and, if applicable, subsections 2 and 3 of section 10-32-131.
5. In order to receive the fair value of the membership interests, a dissenting member must demand payment within thirty days after the notice required by subsection 4 was given, but the dissenter retains all other rights of a member until the proposed action takes effect.
6. After the limited liability company action takes effect, or after the limited liability company receives a valid demand for payment, whichever is later, the limited liability company shall remit to each dissenting member who has complied with subsections 3, 4, and 5, the amount the limited liability company estimates to be the fair value of the membership interests, plus interest, accompanied by:
 - a. The limited liability company's closing balance sheet and statement of income for a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the effective date of the limited liability company action, together with the latest available interim financial statements;
 - b. An estimate by the limited liability company of the fair value of the membership interests and a brief description of the method used to reach the estimate; and
 - c. A copy of section 10-32-54, this section; and, if applicable, subsections 2 and 3 of section 10-32-131.
7. The limited liability company may withhold the remittance described in subsection 6 from a person who was not a member on the date the action dissented from was first announced to the public. If the dissenter has complied with subsections 3, 4, and 5, the limited liability company shall forward to the dissenter the materials described in subsection 6, a statement of the reason for withholding the remittance, and an offer to pay to the dissenter the amount listed in the materials if the dissenter agrees to accept that amount in full satisfaction. The dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subsection 8. Failure to do so entitles the dissenter only to the amount offered. If the dissenter makes demand, subsections 9 and 10 apply.
8. If a dissenter believes that the amount remitted under subsections 5, 6, and 7 is less than the fair value of the membership interests plus interest, the dissenter may give written notice to the limited liability company of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the membership interests, plus interest, within thirty days after the limited liability company mails the remittance under subsections 5, 6, and 7, and demand payment of the difference. Otherwise, a dissenter is entitled only to the amount remitted by the limited liability company.
9. If the limited liability company receives a demand under subsection 8, it shall, within sixty days after receiving the demand, either pay to the dissenter the amount demanded or agreed to by the dissenter after discussion with the limited liability company or file in court a petition requesting that the court determine the fair value of the membership interests, plus interest. The petition must be filed in the county in which the registered office of the limited liability company is located, except that a surviving foreign corporation that receives a demand relating to the membership interests of a constituent limited liability company shall file the petition in the county in this state in which the last registered office of the constituent limited liability company was located. The petition must name as parties all dissenters who have demanded payment under subsection 8 and who have not reached agreement with the limited liability company. The limited liability company shall, after filing the petition, serve all parties with a summons and copy of the petition under the rules of civil procedure. Nonresidents of this state may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. Except as otherwise provided, the rules of civil procedure apply to this proceeding. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint appraisers, with powers and authorities the court considers proper, to receive evidence on and recommend the amount of the fair value of the membership interests. The court shall determine whether the member or members in question have fully complied with the requirements of this section and shall determine the fair value of the membership interests, taking into account any and all factors the court finds relevant, computed by any method or combination of methods that the court, in its discretion, sees fit to use, whether or not used by the limited liability company or by a dissenter. The fair value of the membership interests as determined by the court is binding on all members, wherever located. A dissenter is entitled to judgment for the amount by which the fair value of the membership interests as determined by the court, plus interest, exceeds the amount, if any, remitted under subsections 5, 6, and 7, but is not liable to the limited liability company for the amount, if any, by which the amount, if any, remitted to the dissenter under subsection 5 exceeds the fair value of the membership interests as determined by the court, plus interest.

10. The court shall determine the costs and expenses of a proceeding under subsection 9, including the reasonable expenses and compensation of any appraisers appointed by the court, and shall assess those costs and expenses against the limited liability company, except that the court may assess part or all of those costs and expenses against a dissenter whose action in demanding payment is found to be arbitrary, vexatious, or not in good faith.
11. If the court finds that the limited liability company has failed to comply substantially with this section, the court may assess all fees and expenses of any experts or attorneys as the court considers equitable. These fees and expenses may also be assessed against a person who has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in bringing the proceeding, and may be awarded to a party injured by those actions.
12. The court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses to an attorney for the dissenters out of the amount awarded to the dissenters, if any.
13. When an assignment of some or all of the financial rights of a membership interest is in effect, then as to that membership interest the provisions of subsections 1 through 12 must be followed subject to the following revisions:
 - a. All rights to be exercised and actions to be taken by a member under subsection 2 must be taken by the member and not by any assignee of the member's financial rights. As between the limited liability company and the assignees, the actions taken or omitted by the member bind the assignees.

- b. Instead of remitting a payment under subsection 6, the limited liability company shall forward to the dissenter member:
 - (1) An offer to pay the fair value of the membership interests with that amount to be allocated among and paid to the member and the assignees of financial rights according to the terms of the assignments reflected in the required records; and
 - (2) A statement of that allocation.
- c. If the dissenter member accepts the amount of the offer made under subdivision b but disputes the allocation, the dissenter shall promptly so notify the limited liability company and promptly after the notification bring an action to determine the proper allocation. The suit must be filed in the county in which the registered office of the limited liability company is located, or in the case of a surviving foreign corporation that is complying with this section following a merger or an exchange with a constituent limited liability company the suit must be filed in the county in this state in which the last registered office of the constituent limited liability company was located. The suit must name as parties the member, the limited liability company, and all assignees of the member's financial rights. Upon being served with the action, the limited liability company shall promptly pay into the court the amount offered under subdivision b and shall then be dismissed from the action.
- d. If the dissenter considers the amount offered under subdivision b inadequate, the dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subsection 8. If the dissenter makes demand, subsections 9 and 10 apply, with the court having jurisdiction also to determine the correctness of the allocation.
- e. If the member fails to take action under either subdivision c or d, then:
 - (1) As to the limited liability company, both the member and the assignees of the member's financial rights are limited to the amount and allocation offered under subdivision b; and
 - (2) The limited liability company discharges its obligation of payment by making payment according to the amount and allocation offered under subdivision b.

SECTION 138. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-56 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-56. Authorization, form, and acceptance of contributions.

1. Subject to any restrictions in the articles of organization and only when authorized by the board of governors, a limited liability company may accept contributions under subsections 2 and 3, make contribution agreements under section 10-32-58, and make contribution allowance agreements under section 10-32-59.

2. A person may make a contribution to a limited liability company by paying money or transferring the ownership of an interest in property to the limited liability company for rendering services to or for the benefit of the limited liability company.
3. No purported contribution is to be treated or considered as a contribution, unless:
 - a. The board of governors accepts the contribution on behalf of the limited liability company and in that acceptance describes the contribution and states the value being accorded to the contribution; and
 - b. The fact of contribution and the contribution's accorded value are both reflected in the required records of the limited liability company.
4. The determinations of the board of governors as to the amount or fair value or the fairness to the limited liability company of the contribution accepted or to be accepted by the limited liability company or the terms of payment or performance, including under a contribution agreement in section 10-32-58, and a contribution allowance agreement in section 10-32-59, are presumed to be proper if they are made in good faith and on the basis of accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other method, reasonable in the circumstances. Governors who are present and entitled to vote, and who, intentionally or without reasonable investigation, fail to vote against approving a consideration that is unfair to the limited liability company, or overvalue property or services received or to be received by the limited liability company as a contribution, are jointly and severally liable to the limited liability company for the benefit of the then members who did not consent to and are damaged by the action, to the extent of the damages of those members. A governor against whom a claim is asserted pursuant to this subsection, except in case of knowing participation in a deliberate fraud, is entitled to contribution on an equitable basis from other governors who are liable under this subsection.
5. All the membership interests of a limited liability company must:
 - a. Be of one class, without series, unless the articles of organization establish, or authorize the board of governors to establish, more than one class or series within classes;
 - b. Be ordinary membership interests entitled to vote as provided in section 10-32-45, and have equal rights and preferences in all matters not otherwise provided for by the board of governors unless and to the extent that the articles of organization have fixed the relative rights and preferences of different classes and series; and
 - c. Share profits and losses as provided in section 10-32-36 and be entitled to distributions as provided in sections 10-32-60 and 10-32-61 and subdivision c of subsection 1 of section 10-32-131.
6. Subject to any restrictions in the articles of organization, the power granted in subsection 5 may be exercised by a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present establishing a class or series, setting forth the designation of the class or series, and fixing the relative rights and preferences of the class or series established in the articles of organization or by resolution of the board of governors.

7. A statement executed by a manager setting forth the name of the limited liability company and the text of the resolution and certifying the adoption of the resolution and the date of adoption must be filed with the secretary of state together with the fees provided in section 10-32-150 before the acceptance of any contributions for which the resolution creates rights or preferences not set forth in the articles of organization. The resolution is effective when the statement has been filed with the secretary of state unless the statement specifies a later effective date within thirty days of filing the statement with the secretary of state.
8. Without limiting the authority granted in this section, a limited liability company may have membership interests of a class or series:
 - a. Subject to the right of the limited liability company to redeem any of those membership interests at the price fixed for their redemption by the articles of organization or by the board of governors;
 - b. Entitling the members to cumulative, partially cumulative, or noncumulative distributions;
 - c. Having preference over any class or series of membership interests for the payment of distributions of any or all kinds;
 - d. Convertible into membership interests of any other class or any series of the same or another class; or
 - e. Having full, partial, or no voting rights, except as provided in section 10-32-17.

SECTION 139. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-58 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-58. Contribution agreements.

1. A contribution agreement, whether made before or after the formation of the limited liability company, is not enforceable against the would-be contributor unless it is in writing and signed by the would-be contributor.
2. ~~A~~ Unless otherwise provided in the contribution agreement, or unless all of the would-be contributors and, if in existence, the limited liability company, consent to a shorter or longer period, a contribution agreement is irrevocable for a period of six months unless the contribution agreement provides for, or unless all other would-be contributors who are a party to a contribution consent to, an earlier revocation.
3. A contribution agreement, whether made before or after the formation of a limited liability company, must be paid or performed in full at the time or times, or in the installments, if any, specified in the contribution agreement. In the absence of a provision in the contribution agreement specifying the time at which the contribution is to be paid or performed, the contribution must be paid or performed at the time or times determined by the board of governors, but a call made by the board of governors for payment or performance on contributions must be uniform for all membership interests of the same class or for all membership interests of the same series.

4. Unless otherwise provided in the contribution agreement, in the event of default in the payment or performance of an installment or call when due, the limited liability company may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as a debt due the limited liability company ~~or, if the amount due remains unpaid for a period of twenty days after written notice of demand for payment has been given to the delinquent would-be contributor, the board of governors may declare a forfeiture of the contribution agreement or cancel it in accordance with this subsection.~~ If a would-be contributor does not make a required contribution of property or services, the limited liability company shall require the would-be contributor to contribute cash equal to that portion of the value, as stated in the limited liability company required records, of the contribution that has not been made.
5. ~~Upon forfeiture of a contribution agreement~~ If the amount due under a contribution agreement remains unpaid for a period of twenty days after the written notice of demand for payment has been given to the delinquent would-be contributor, the membership interests that were subject to the contribution agreement may be offered for sale by the limited liability company for a price in money equaling or exceeding the sum of the full balance owed by the delinquent would-be contributor plus the expenses incidental to the sale. ~~Any excess of net proceeds realized by the limited liability company over the sum of the amount owed by the delinquent would-be contributor plus the expenses incidental to the sale must be paid to the delinquent would-be contributor or to a legal representative. The payment must not exceed the amount of contribution actually made by the delinquent would-be contributor.~~
 - a. If the membership interests that were subject to the contribution agreement are sold pursuant to this subsection, the limited liability company shall pay to the delinquent would-be contributor or to the delinquent would-be contributor's representatives the lesser of:
 - (1) The excess of net proceeds realized by the limited liability company over the sum of the amount owed by the delinquent would-be contributor plus the expenses incidental to the sales; or
 - (2) The amount actually paid by the delinquent would-be contributor.
 - b. If the membership interests that were subject to the contribution agreement are not sold pursuant to this subsection, the limited liability company may collect the amount due in the same manner as a debt due to the limited liability company or cancel the contribution agreement pursuant to subsection 6.
6. ~~If, within twenty days after the limited liability company offers to sell the membership interests that were subject to the defaulted contribution agreement, no prospective purchaser offers to purchase the membership~~ interests for a money price sufficient to pay the sum of the full balance owed by the delinquent would-be contributor plus the expenses incidental to the sale, or if the limited liability company has refunded to the would-be contributor or a legal representative a portion of the contribution agreement price actually paid, the contribution agreement may be canceled and the limited liability company may retain the portion of the contribution agreement price actually paid that does not exceed ten percent of the contribution agreement price. If the amount due under a contribution agreement remains unpaid for a period of twenty days after written notice of demand for payment has been given to the delinquent would-be contributor and the membership interests that were subject to the contribution agreement have not been sold pursuant to subsection 5, the limited liability company:

- a. May cancel the contribution agreement;
 - b. May retain the portion of the contribution agreement price actually paid that does not exceed ten percent of the contribution agreement; and
 - c. Shall refund to the delinquent would-be contributor or the delinquent would-be contributor's legal representatives that portion of the contribution agreement price actually paid that exceeds ten percent of the contribution price.
7. A would-be contributor's rights under a contribution agreement may not be assigned, in whole or in part, to a person who was not a member at the time of the assignment, unless all the members approve the assignment by unanimous written consent.

SECTION 140. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-64 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-64. Limitations on distribution.

1. The board of governors may authorize and cause the limited liability company to make a distribution only if the board of governors determines, in accordance with subsection 2, that the limited liability company will be able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution and the board of governors does not know before the distribution is made that the determination was or has become erroneous; ~~and the~~
 - a. The limited liability company may make the distribution if it is able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution.
 - b. The effect of a distribution on the ability of the limited liability company to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after making the distribution must be measured in accordance with subsection 3.
 - c. The right of the board of governors to authorize, and the limited liability company to make, distributions may be prohibited, limited, or restricted by the articles of organization or operating agreement or an agreement.

2. A determination that the limited liability company will be able to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business after the distribution is presumed to be proper if the determination is made in compliance with the standard of conduct provided in section 10-32-86 on the basis of financial information prepared in accordance with accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other method, reasonable in the circumstances. No liability under section 10-32-66 or 10-32-86 will accrue if the requirements of this subsection have been met.
3. In the case of a distribution made by a limited liability company in connection with a redemption of its membership interests, the effect of the distribution must be measured as of the date on which money or other property is transferred, or indebtedness payable in installments or otherwise is incurred, by the limited liability company, or as of the date on which the member ceases to be a member of the limited liability company, whichever is the earliest. The effect of any other distribution must be measured as of the date of its authorization if payment occurs one hundred twenty days or less following the date of authorization, or as of the date of payment if payment occurs more than one hundred twenty days following the date of authorization. The provisions of chapter 13-02.1 do not apply to distributions made by a limited liability company governed by this chapter.
4. Indebtedness of a limited liability company incurred or issued in a distribution in accordance with this section to a member who as a result of the transaction is no longer a member is on a parity with the indebtedness of the limited liability company to its general unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated, agreed to, or secured by a pledge of any assets of the limited liability company or a related organization, or subject to any other agreement between the limited liability company and the member.
5. A distribution may be made to the owners of a class or series of membership interests only if:
 - a. All amounts payable to the owners of membership interests having a preference for the payment of that kind of distribution, other than those owners who give notice to the limited liability company of their agreement to waive their rights to that payment, are paid; and
 - b. The payment of the distribution does not reduce the remaining net assets of the limited liability company below the aggregate preferential amount payable in the event of liquidation to the owners of membership interests having preferential rights, unless the distribution is made to those members in the order and to the extent of their respective priorities or the owners of membership interests who do not receive distributions in that order give notice to the limited liability company of their agreement to waive their rights to that distribution.
6. A determination that the payment of the distribution described in subsection 5 does not reduce the remaining net assets of the limited liability company below the aggregate preferential amount payable in the event of termination to the owners of membership interests having preferential rights is presumed to be proper if the determination is made in compliance with the standard of conduct provided in section 10-32-86 on the basis of financial information prepared in accordance with accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other method, reasonable in the circumstances. Liability under section 10-32-66 or 10-32-86 will not arise if the requirements of this subsection are met.

- 6: 7. If the money or property available for distribution is insufficient to satisfy all preferences, the distributions must be made pro rata according to the order of priority of preferences by classes and by series within those classes unless those owners who do not receive distributions in that order give notice to the limited liability company of their agreement to waive their rights to that distribution.

SECTION 141. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-66 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-66. Liability of governors for illegal distributions.

1. In addition to any other liabilities, a governor who is present at a meeting and fails to vote against, or who consents in writing to, a distribution made in violation of subsections 1 or 4 of section 10-32-64 or a restriction contained in the articles of organization or operating agreement or an agreement, and ~~who~~ fails to comply with the standard of conduct provided in section 10-32-86, is liable to the limited liability company, its receiver or any other person winding up its affairs, jointly and severally with all other governors so liable and to other governors under subsection 3, but only to the extent that the distribution exceeded the amount that properly could have been paid under section 10-32-64.
2. A governor against whom an action is brought under this section with respect to a distribution may implead in that action all members who received the distribution and may compel pro rata contribution from them in that action to the extent provided in subsection 1 of section 10-32-65.
3. A governor against whom an action is brought under this section with respect to a distribution may implead in that action all other governors who voted for or consented in writing to the distribution and may compel pro rata contribution from them in that action.
4. An action may not be commenced under this section more than two years from the date of the distribution.

SECTION 142. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-67 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-67. Organization.

1. If the first board of governors is not named in the articles of organization, the organizers may elect the first board of governors or may act as governors with all of the powers, rights, duties, and liabilities of governors, until governors are elected or until a contribution is accepted, whichever occurs first.
2. After the issuance of the certificate of organization, the organizers or the governors named in the articles of organization shall either hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the organizers or of the governors named in the articles, or take written action, for the purposes of transacting business and taking actions necessary or appropriate to complete the organization of the limited liability company, including, without limitation, amending the articles, electing governors, adopting an operating agreement, electing managers, adopting banking resolutions, authorizing or ratifying the purchase, lease, or other acquisition of suitable space, furniture, furnishings, supplies, and materials, approving a limited liability company seal, adopting a fiscal year for the limited liability company, contracting to receive and accept contributions, and making any appropriate tax elections.

- a. If a meeting is held, the person or persons calling the meeting shall give at least three days notice of the meeting to each organizer or governor named, stating the date, time, and place of the meeting.
- b. Organizers and governors may waive notice of an organizational meeting in the same manner that a governor may waive notice of meetings of the board of governors under subsection 5 of section 10-32-80.

SECTION 143. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-68 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-68. Operating agreement.

1. A limited liability company may, but need not, have an operating agreement. The operating agreement may contain any provision relating to the management of the business or the regulation of the affairs of the limited liability company not inconsistent with law or the articles of organization. An act of the board under subsection 2 and of the members under subsection 3 will be considered part of the operating agreement only if the act expressly states that it is intended to constitute or revise the operating agreement.
2. An initial operating agreement may be adopted pursuant to section 10-32-67 by the organizers or by the first board of governors. Unless reserved by the articles of organization to the members, the power to adopt, amend, or repeal the operating agreement is vested in the board of governors. The power of the board of governors is subject to the power of the members, exercisable in the manner provided in subsection 3, to adopt, amend, or repeal the operating agreement adopted, amended, or repealed by the board of governors. After the adoption of the initial operating agreement, the board of governors may not adopt, amend, or repeal an operating agreement provision fixing a quorum for meetings of members, prescribing procedures for removing governors or filling vacancies in the board of governors, or fixing the number of governors or their classifications, qualifications, or terms of office, but may adopt or amend an operating agreement provision to increase the number of governors.
3. ¶ Unless the articles or operating agreement provides otherwise, members owning five percent or more of the voting power of the members entitled to vote may propose a resolution for action by the members to adopt, amend, or repeal operating agreement provisions adopted, amended, or repealed by the board of governors and the resolution ~~sets~~ must set forth the provision or provisions proposed for adoption, amendment, or repeal, the limitations and procedures for submitting, considering, and adopting the resolution are the same as provided in subsections 2 through 4 of section 10-32-16, for amendment of the articles of organization. The articles or operating agreement may impose different or additional requirements for the members to adopt, amend, or repeal the operating agreement.

SECTION 144. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-72 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-72. Terms.

1. With respect to length of terms:
 - a. Unless fixed terms are provided for in the articles or operating agreement, a governor serves for an indefinite term that expires at the next regular meeting of the members.
 - (1) A fixed term of a governor, other than an ex officio governor, must not exceed five years. ~~A governor holds office for the term for which the governor was elected and until a successor is elected and has qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of the governor.~~
 - (2) An ex officio governor serves as long as the governor holds the office or position designated in the articles or operating agreement.
 - b. Unless the articles or operating agreement provides otherwise, a governor holds office until expiration of the term for which the governor was elected or appointed and until a successor is elected and has qualified or until the earlier death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of the governor.
 - c. A decrease in the number of governors or term of office does not shorten an incumbent director's term.
 - d. Except as provided in the articles or operating agreement, the term of a governor filling a vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that the director is filling.
2. The articles or operating agreement may provide for staggering the terms of governors by dividing the total number of governors into groups.

SECTION 145. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-77 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-77. Resignation.

1. A governor may resign at any time by giving written notice to the limited liability company. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the limited liability company, unless a later effective time is specified in the notice.

2. If a resignation is made effective at a later time, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective time if the board of governors provides that the successor does not take office until the effective time.

SECTION 146. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-78 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-78. ~~Removal~~ Nonjudicial removal of governors.

1. The provisions of this section apply unless modified by the articles of organization or the operating agreement.
2. A governor may be removed at any time, with or without cause, if:
 - a. The governor was named by the board of governors to fill a vacancy;
 - b. The members have not elected governors in the interval between the time of the appointment to fill a vacancy and the time of the removal; and
 - c. A majority of the remaining governors present affirmatively votes to remove the governor.
3. Any one or all of the governors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the owners of the proportion of the voting power of the membership interests of the classes or series the governor represents sufficient to elect them. If less than the entire board of governors is to be removed, no one of the governors may be removed if the votes cast against the governor's removal which, if then cumulatively voted at the election of the entire board of governors, or if there be classes of governors at an election of the class of governors of which the governor is a part, would be sufficient to elect the governor. Whenever the members of any class are entitled to elect one or more governors by the provisions of the articles of the organization, the provisions of this section apply, in respect to the removal of a governor or governors so elected, to the vote of the members of that class and not to the vote of the members as a whole.
4. New governors may be elected at a meeting at which governors are removed.

SECTION 147. Section 10-32-78.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

10-32-78.1. Removal of governors by judicial proceeding.

1. The district court of the county where the principal executive office of a limited liability company is located may remove any governor of the limited liability company from office in a proceeding commenced either by the limited liability company, its members holding at least ten percent of the voting power of any class of membership interests, or the attorney general, if the court finds that:
 - a. The governor engaged in fraudulent, dishonest conduct, or gross abuse of authority or discretion with respect to the limited liability

If the articles, operating agreement, or board of governors fails to select a place for a meeting, the meeting must be held at the principal executive office, unless the articles or operating agreement provide otherwise.
2. A board of governors meeting may be conducted by:
 - a. A conference among governors using any means of communication through which the governors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a board of governors meeting, if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required by

4. If the ~~day or~~ date, time, and place of a board of governors meeting have been provided in the articles or operating agreement, or announced at a previous meeting of the board of governors, no notice is required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is taken.
5. A governor may waive notice of a meeting of the board of governors. SECTION 150. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-81 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-81. Absent governors. If the articles of organization or operating agreement so provide, a governor may give advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a board of governors meeting. If the governor is not present at the meeting, consent or opposition to a proposal does not constitute presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition must be counted as a the vote of a governor present at the meeting in favor of or against the proposal and must be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting, if the proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect as the proposal to which the governor has consented or objected.

SECTION 152. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-84 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-84. Action without a meeting.

1. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board of governors meeting may be taken by written action signed by all of the governors. 2. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of governors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.
3. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all governors, all governors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. 6. 7. All indemnification determinations must be made:
 - a. By the board of governors by a majority of a quorum. Governors who are, at the time, parties to the proceeding are not counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum;

The person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to this clause has the burden of establishing that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses.

8. With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or omissions complained of in the proceedings, a governor, manager, or person possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of the limited liability company, the determination whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria set forth in subsections 2 and 3 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subsection 4 may be made by an annually appointed committee of the board of governors, having at least one member who is a governor. The committee shall report at least annually to the board of governors concerning its actions.
9. SECTION 178. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-114 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-114. Winding-up procedure for limited liability companies that give notice to creditors and claimants.

4. 1. If notice to creditors and claimants is given, it must be given by publishing the notice once each week for four successive weeks in an official newspaper as defined in chapter 46-06 in the county or counties where the registered office and the principal executive office of the limited liability company are located and by giving written notice to known creditors and claimants pursuant to subsection 32 of section 10-32-02.
2. The notice to creditors and claimants must contain:
 - a. A statement that the limited liability company has dissolved and is in the process of winding up its affairs;
 - b. A statement that the limited liability company has filed with the secretary of state a notice of dissolution;
 - c. The date of filing the notice of dissolution;
 - d. The address of the office to which written claims against the limited liability company must be presented; and
 - e. The date by which all claims must be received, which must be the later of ninety days after published notice or, with respect to a particular known creditor or claimant, ninety days after the date on which written notice was given to that creditor or claimant.

Published notice is considered given on the date of first publication for the purpose of determining this date.

3. If the business of the limited liability company is being continued under a business continuation agreement, the notice to creditors may also contain all of the following:
 - a. A statement that the business of the dissolved limited liability company is being continued by a successor organization;
 - b. The name and address of the successor organization;
 - c. An undertaking by the successor organization to assume all the liabilities of the dissolved limited liability company; and
 - d. A statement that creditors of the dissolved limited liability company do not need to file claims against the limited liability company in order to preserve their rights to enforce those claims against the successor organization.

4. With respect to a limited liability company that gives notice to creditors and claimants:
 - a. ~~A~~ The limited liability company ~~that gives notice to creditors and claimants~~ has thirty days from the receipt of each claim filed according to the procedures set forth by the limited liability company on or before the date set forth in the notice to accept or reject the claim by giving written notice to the person submitting it. If the dissolved limited liability company gave the additional information referred to in subsection 3, nothing in this section bars the creditor or claimant from seeking to enforce its rights against the successor organization.
 - d. A creditor or claimant whose claim is rejected by the limited liability company under subdivision b is barred from suing on that claim or otherwise realizing upon or enforcing it whether against the dissolved limited liability company or any successor organization, if the creditor or claimant does not initiate legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings with respect to the claim within the time provided in subdivision b.

5. Articles of termination for a limited liability company dissolving under this section that has given notice to creditors and claimants under this section must be filed with the secretary of state along with the fees provided in section 10-32-150 after:
 - a. The ninety-day period in subdivision e of subsection 2 has expired and the payment of claims of all creditors and claimants filing a claim within that period has been made or provided for; or
 - b. The longest of the periods described in subdivision b of subsection 4 has expired and there are no pending legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings by or against the limited liability company commenced within the time provided in subdivision b of subsection 4.
6. The articles of termination for a limited liability company that has given notice to creditors and claimants under this section must state:

 - b. That the remaining property, assets, and claims of the limited liability company have been distributed in accordance with section 10-32-131, or that adequate provision has been made for that distribution; and
 - c. - ~~5.~~ 6. In deciding whether to order winding up through liquidation, the court shall consider whether lesser relief suggested by one or more parties, or provided in a business continuation agreement, such as any form of equitable relief, or a buyout or partial liquidation coupled with the continuation of the business of the dissolved limited liability company through a successor organization, would be adequate to permanently relieve the circumstances established under subdivision b or c of subsection 1. Lesser relief may be ordered in any case where it would be appropriate under all the facts and circumstances of the case.
- ~~6.~~ 7. If the court finds that a party to a proceeding brought under this section has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may in its discretion award reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, to any of the other parties.

6. The use of a name by a corporation in violation of this section does not affect or vitiate its corporate existence, but a court in this state may, upon application of the state or of an interested or affected person, enjoin the corporation from doing business under a name assumed in violation of this section, although its articles may have been filed with the secretary of state and a certificate of incorporation issued.
7. If a corporation's period of existence has expired or is involuntarily dissolved by the secretary of state pursuant to section 10-33-139, the corporation may reacquire the right to use that name by refiling articles of incorporation pursuant to section 10-33-08; amending pursuant to section 10-33-118; or reinstating pursuant to section 10-33-139. If the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another person, the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written consent or judgment pursuant to subsection 2. A corporation that cannot reacquire the use of its corporate name must adopt a new corporate name that complies with the provisions of this section.

10-33-11. Reserved name.

1. The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name otherwise permitted by section 10-33-10 may be reserved by any person.

6. The secretary of state may destroy all reserved name requests and index thereof one year after expiration.

10-33-12. Registered office - Registered agent.

1. A corporation shall continuously maintain a registered office in this state. A registered office need not be the same as the principal place of business or the principal executive office of the corporation.
2. A corporation shall appoint and continuously maintain a registered agent. The registered agent may be an individual residing in this state, a domestic corporation whether incorporated under this chapter or under another provision of this code, a limited liability company, a foreign corporation whether authorized to do business or conduct activities in the state under this chapter or under another provision of this code, or foreign limited liability company authorized to conduct activities in this state. The registered agent shall maintain a business office that is identical with the registered office. Proof of the registered agent's consent to serve in that capacity must be filed with the secretary of state, together with the fees provided in section 10-33-140.

10-33-13. Establishment or change of registered office - Appointment or change of registered agent - Change of name of registered agent.

1. A corporation may establish or change its registered office, designate or change its registered agent, or state a change in the name of its registered agent by filing with the secretary of state, along with the fees provided in section 10-33-140, a statement containing:
 - a. The name of the corporation.
 - b. The new address of its registered office if the address of its registered office is to be established or changed.
 - c. The name of its new registered agent if its registered agent is to be designated or changed.
 - d. The name of its registered agent as changed if the name of its registered agent is to be changed.
 - e. A statement that the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent, as established or changed, will be identical.
 - f. A statement that the establishment or change of registered office or designation or change of registered agent is authorized by resolution approved by the board.
2. A registered agent of a corporation may resign by filing with the secretary of state a signed written notice of resignation, including a statement that a signed copy of the notice has been given to the corporation at its principal executive office or to a legal representative of the corporation. The appointment of the agent terminates thirty days after the notice is filed with the secretary of state.
3. If the business address or the name of a registered agent changes, the agent shall change the address of the registered office or the name of the registered agent of each corporation represented by that agent by filing with the secretary of state a statement for each corporation as required in subsection 1, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent, need not be responsive to subdivision f, and must state that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each of those corporations or to the legal representative of each of those corporations.
4. The fee prescribed in section 10-33-140 for change of registered office must be refunded when in the secretary of state's opinion a change of address of registered office results from rezoning or postal reassignment. The fee prescribed in section 10-33-140 does not apply when the registered agent or registered office is established or changed in the annual report.

10-33-14. Amendment of articles. The articles of a corporation may be amended at any time to include or modify any provision that is required or permitted to appear in the articles or to omit any provision not required to be included in the articles, except that when articles are amended to restate them, the name and address of each incorporator and each initial director may be omitted. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, the articles may be amended or modified only in accordance with section 10-33-15.

10-33-15. Procedure for amendment of articles.

1. A majority of incorporators may amend the articles by written action if no directors are named in the original articles, if no directors have been elected, and if there are no members with voting rights. A majority of directors may amend the articles if there are no members with voting rights, if members with voting rights have authorized the board to amend the articles under subsection 3, or if the amendment merely restates the existing articles, as amended. Notice of the meeting and of the proposed amendment must be given to the board. An amendment restating the existing articles may, but need not, be submitted to and approved by the members as provided in subsection 2.
2. Amendments to the articles must be approved by a majority of the directors and by the members with voting rights. If an amendment is initiated by the directors, proper notice of the proposed amendment must precede a member meeting at which the amendment will be considered and must include the substance of the proposed amendment. If an amendment is proposed and approved by the members, the members may demand a special board meeting within fifty days for consideration of the proposed amendment if a regular board meeting would not occur within fifty days.
3. a. The members with voting rights may authorize the board of directors, subject to subdivision c, to exercise from time to time the power of amendment of the articles without member approval.
b. When the members have authorized the board of directors to amend the articles, the board of directors, by a majority vote, unless the articles, bylaws, or the members' resolution authorizing the board action requires a greater vote, may amend the articles at a meeting of the board. Notice of the meeting and of the proposed amendment must be given to the board.
c. The members with voting rights voting at a meeting duly called for the purpose may prospectively revoke the authority of the board to exercise the power of the members to amend the articles.
4. Articles or bylaws may require greater than majority approval by the board or approval by greater than a majority of a quorum of the voting members for an action under this section and may limit or prohibit the use of mail ballots by voting members.
5. The articles or bylaws may provide that an amendment also must be approved by the members of a class.

10-33-16. Articles of amendment. When an amendment has been adopted, articles of amendment must be prepared that contain:

1. The name of the corporation.

2. The amendment adopted.
3. The date of the adoption of the amendment pursuant to this chapter.
4. If the amendment restates the articles in their entirety, a statement that the restated articles supersede the original articles and all amendments to them.
5. A statement that the amendment has been adopted pursuant to this chapter.

10-33-17. Effect of amendment.

1. An amendment does not affect an existing cause of action in favor of or against the corporation, nor a pending suit to which the corporation is a party, nor the existing rights of persons other than members.
2. If the corporate name is changed by the amendment, a suit brought by or against the corporation under its former name does not abate for that reason.
3. When effective under section 10-33-19, an amendment restating the articles in their entirety supersedes the original articles and all amendments to the original articles.

10-33-18. Filing articles of amendment. An original of the articles of amendment must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to the filing requirements of this chapter and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-33-140, then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

10-33-19. Effective date of articles of amendment. The articles of amendment are effective upon acceptance by the secretary of state or at another time within thirty days after acceptance if the articles of amendment so provide.

10-33-20. Amendment of articles in court-supervised reorganization.

1. Whenever a plan of reorganization of a corporation has been confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganization of corporations, the articles may be amended, in the manner provided in this section, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan, so long as the articles as amended contain only provisions which might be lawfully contained in original articles at the time of making the amendment. In particular, and without limitation upon any general power of amendment, the articles may be amended to:
 - a. Change the corporate name, period of duration, or corporate purposes of the corporation.
 - b. Repeal, alter, or amend the bylaws of the corporation.
 - c. Change the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has the authority to issue.

- d. Change the preferences, limitations, relative rights in respect of all or any part of the shares of the corporation, and classify, reclassify, or cancel all or any part thereof, whether issued or unissued.
 - e. Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the corporation, whether convertible into shares of any class or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof.
 - f. Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board and appoint directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors or officers then in office.
2. Amendments to the articles pursuant to subsection 1 must be made in the following manner:
 - a. Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of the court must be executed and verified by the person or persons designated or appointed by the court for that purpose and must set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments of the articles approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, and the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation under the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.
 - b. An original of the articles of amendment must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to the filing requirements of this chapter and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-33-140, the original must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.
 3. The articles of amendment become effective upon their acceptance by the secretary of state or at another time within thirty days after acceptance if the articles of amendment so provide.
 4. The articles are amended accordingly with the same effect as if the amendment had been adopted by unanimous action of the directors and members.

30. A corporation may have and exercise all other powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is incorporated.

10-33-22. Corporate seal. A corporation may, but need not, have a corporate seal. The use or nonuse of a corporate seal does not affect the validity, recordability, or enforceability of a document or act. If a corporation has a corporate seal, the use of the seal by the corporation on a document is not necessary.

10-33-23. Defense of ultra vires. No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation is invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:

1. In a proceeding by a member against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or acts or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfers sought to be enjoined are being, or are to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the proceeding and if it deems the same to be equitable, may set aside and enjoin the performance of the contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of the contract. However, anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract may not be awarded by the court as a loss or damage sustained.
2. In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee or other legal representative, or through members in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation.
3. In a proceeding by the attorney general, as provided in this chapter, to dissolve the corporation or to enjoin the corporation from the transaction of unauthorized business.

10-33-24. Unauthorized assumption of corporate powers - Liability. All persons who assume to act as a corporation without authority are jointly and severally liable for all debts and liabilities incurred or arising as a result.

10-33-25. Organization.

1. If the first board is not named in the articles, the incorporators may elect the first board or may act as directors with all of the powers, rights, duties, and liabilities of directors, until directors are elected.
2. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the incorporators or the directors named in the articles shall, within a reasonable time, either hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators or of the directors named in the articles, or take written action, for the purposes of transacting business and taking actions necessary or appropriate to complete the organization of the corporation. If a meeting is held, the person or persons calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice of the meeting to each incorporator or director named, stating the date, time, and place of the meeting. Incorporators and directors may waive notice of an organizational meeting in the same manner that a director may waive notice of meetings of the board pursuant to subsection 5 of section 10-33-39.

10-33-26. Bylaws.

1. A corporation may, but need not, have bylaws. Bylaws may contain any provision relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of the corporation consistent with law or the articles, including:
 - a. The number of directors, and the qualifications, manner of election, powers, duties, and compensation, if any, of directors;
 - b. The qualifications of members;

 - d. The manner of admission, withdrawal, suspension, and expulsion of members;
 - e. Property, voting, and other rights and privileges of members;
 - f. The appointment and authority of committees;
 - g. The appointment or election, duties, compensation, and tenure of officers;
 - h. The time, place, and manner of calling, conducting, and giving notice of member, board, and committee meetings, or of conducting mail ballots;
 - i. The making of reports and financial statements to members; or
 - j. The number establishing a quorum for meetings of members and the board.

2. Initial bylaws may be adopted by the incorporators or by the first board pursuant to section 10-33-25. Unless reserved by the articles to the members, the power to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws is vested in the board. The power of the board is subject to the power of the members with voting rights exercisable in the manner provided in subsection 3 to adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws adopted, amended, or repealed by the board. After the adoption of the initial bylaws and if there are members with voting rights, the board may not adopt, amend, or repeal a bylaw fixing a quorum for meetings of members, prescribing procedures for removing directors or filling vacancies in the board, or fixing the number of directors or their classifications, qualifications, or terms of office, but may adopt or amend a bylaw to increase the number of directors. A bylaw amendment to increase or decrease the vote required for a member action must be approved by the members.

3. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may propose a resolution for action by the members to adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws adopted, amended, or repealed by the board.
 - a. The resolution must contain the provisions proposed for adoption, amendment, or repeal.
 - b. The limitations and procedures for submitting, considering, and adopting the resolution are the same as provided in section 10-33-15, for amendment of the articles, except that board approval is not required.
 - c. The articles or bylaws may impose different or additional requirements for the members to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws.

10-33-27. Board.

1. The business and affairs of a corporation must be managed by or under the direction of a board.
 - a. All directors are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws.
 - b. The members of the first board may be named in the articles, designated or appointed pursuant to the articles, or elected by the incorporators under section 10-33-25.
2. No more than forty-nine percent of the individuals serving on the board of any corporation may be financially interested individuals.
3. For the purposes of this section "financially interested individuals" means:
 - a. Individuals who have received or are entitled to receive compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve months, whether as full-time or part-time employees, independent contractors, consultants, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable payments made to directors for serving as directors;
 - b. Any parent, child, child of a spouse, brother, or sister, of that individual; or
 - c. The spouse of any individual described in subdivision a or b.
4. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section does not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the corporation.

10-33-28. Number. The board must consist of three or more directors, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. However, if the corporation has either one or two members with voting rights, the number of directors may be less than three but not less than the number of members with voting rights. The number of directors may be increased or, subject to sections 10-33-36 and 10-33-37, decreased at any time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws.

10-33-29. Qualifications - Election. Directors must be individuals. The method of election and any additional qualifications for directors may be imposed by or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws.

10-33-30. Terms.

1. With respect to length of terms:
 - a. Directors are elected or appointed and hold office for fixed terms provided for in the articles or bylaws. A fixed term of a director, other than an ex officio director, may not exceed ten years. If the articles or bylaws do not provide for a fixed term, the term is one year. An ex officio director serves as long as the director holds the office or position designated in the articles or bylaws.
 - b. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a director holds office until expiration of the term for which the director was elected or appointed and until a successor is elected and qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of the director.
 - c. A decrease in the number of directors or term of office does not shorten an incumbent director's term.
 - d. Except as provided in the articles or bylaws, the term of a director filling a vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that the director is filling.
2. The articles or bylaws may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into groups. The terms of office of the groups need not be uniform.

10-33-31. Acts not void or voidable. The expiration of a director's term with or without the election of a qualified successor does not make prior or subsequent acts of the officers or the board void or voidable.

10-33-32. Compensation. Subject to any limitations in the articles or bylaws, the board may fix the compensation of directors.

10-33-33. Classification of directors.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, directors may be divided into classes.
2. Directors of a corporation described in subsection 1 of section 10-33-122 may not vote by class except when the articles or bylaws provide that only one class of directors may vote on a particular matter.

10-33-34. Cumulative voting for directors. Unless the articles provide otherwise or except as provided in section 1 of article XII of the Constitution of North Dakota, there is no cumulative voting.

10-33-35. Resignation.

1. A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective time is specified in the notice.
2. If a resignation is made effective at a later date, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

10-33-36. Nonjudicial removal of directors.

1. This section applies unless a different method of removal is provided for in the articles or bylaws.
2. With respect to an elected director:
 - a. If there is a member with voting rights:
 - (1) A director may be removed by the board at any time, with or without cause, if:
 - (a) The director was named by the board to fill a vacancy;
 - (b) The members with voting rights have not elected directors in the interval between the time of the appointment to fill the vacancy and the time of the removal; and
 - (c) A majority of the remaining directors present affirmatively vote to remove the director.
 - (2) A director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by those members eligible to elect the director.
 - b. If there is no member with voting rights, a director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by those directors eligible to elect the director.
3. With respect to an appointed director:
 - a. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an appointed director may be removed without cause by the person appointing the director.
 - b. The person removing the director shall do so by giving written notice of the removal to the director and either the presiding officer of the board or the corporation's president or secretary.
 - c. A removal is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice states a future effective date.
4. A new director may be elected at a meeting at which a director is removed.

10-33-37. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding.

1. The district court of the county the principal executive office of a corporation is located in may remove any director of the corporation from office in a proceeding commenced either by the corporation, its members holding at least ten percent of the voting power of any class of shares, or the attorney general, if the court finds:
 - a. The director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct, or gross abuse of authority or discretion, with respect to the corporation;
 - b. That the provisions of subsection 2 of section 10-33-27 have been violated; or
 - c. Final judgment has been entered finding the director violated section 10-33-45.
2. The court that removes a director may bar the director from serving on the board for a period prescribed by the court.
3. If members or the attorney general commence a proceeding under subdivision a of subsection 1, then the corporation must be made a party defendant.
4. If a corporation or its members commence a proceeding under subsection 1, they must give the attorney general written notice of the proceeding.

10-33-38. Vacancies.

1. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, and except as provided in this section, if a vacancy occurs on the board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:
 - a. The members with voting rights, if any, may fill the vacancy; or
 - b. The remaining members of the board, though less than a quorum, may fill the vacancy.
2. If a vacant office was held by a director elected by a class, chapter, or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, only members of the class, chapter, unit, or grouping are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy.
3. If a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.
4. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10-33-39. Board meetings.

1. Meetings of the board may be held from time to time as provided in the articles or bylaws at any place within or without the state that the board may select or by any means described in subsection 2. If the articles, bylaws, or board fails to select a place for a meeting, the meeting must be held at the principal executive office, unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise.

2. A board meeting may be conducted by:
 - a. A conference among directors using any means of communication through which the directors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a board meeting, if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required by subsection 3 for a meeting, and if the number of directors participating in the conference is a quorum. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting; or
 - b. Any means of communication through which the director, other directors so participating, and all directors physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting.
3. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different time period, a director may call a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice or, in the case of organizational meetings pursuant to subsection 2 of section 10-33-25, at least three days' notice, to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles or bylaws require it.
4. If the date, time, and place of a board meeting have been provided in the articles or bylaws, or announced at a previous meeting of the board, no notice is required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is taken.
5. A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing or by attendance. Attendance by a director at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the objection.

10-33-40. Absent directors. If the articles or bylaws so provide, a director may give advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a board meeting. If the director is not present at the meeting, consent or opposition to a proposal does not constitute presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition must be counted as the vote of a director present at the meeting in favor of or against the proposal and must be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting, if the proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect as the proposal to which the director has consented or objected.

10-33-41. Quorum. A majority, or a larger or smaller proportion or number provided in the articles or bylaws, of the directors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn a meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, the directors present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of a number of directors originally present leaves less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum.

10-33-42. Act of the board. The board shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors with voting rights present and entitled to vote at a duly held meeting, unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require the affirmative vote of a larger proportion or number.

10-33-43. Action without meeting.

1. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by written action signed by all of the directors. If the articles so provide, any action, other than an action requiring member approval, may be taken by written action signed by the number of directors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the board at which all directors were present.
2. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of directors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.
3. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all directors, all directors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A director who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions.

10-33-44. Committees.

1. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board may establish committees having the authority of the board in the management of the business of the corporation to the extent provided in the resolution. Committees may include a special litigation committee consisting of one or more independent directors or other independent persons to consider legal rights or remedies of the corporation and whether those rights or remedies should be pursued. Committees other than special litigation committees are subject at all times to the direction and control of the board.
2. Committee members must be individuals. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different membership or manner of appointment, a committee must consist of one or more persons, who need not be directors, appointed by the board.
3. Sections 10-33-39 through 10-33-43 apply to committees and members of committees to the same extent as those sections apply to the board and directors.
4. Minutes, if any, of committee meetings must be made available upon request to members of the committee and to any director.
5. The establishment of, delegation of authority to, and action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standard of conduct set forth in section 10-33-45.

6. Committee members are deemed to be directors for purposes of sections 10-33-45, 10-33-46, and 10-33-84.

10-33-45. Standard of conduct for directors.

1. A director shall discharge the duties of the position of director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person who so performs those duties is not liable by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation.
2. A director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:
 - a. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
 - b. Counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
 - c. A committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, duly established in accordance with section 10-33-44 as to matters within its designated authority, if the director reasonably believes the committee to merit confidence.
3. Subsection 2 does not apply to a director who has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes the reliance otherwise permitted by subsection 2 unwarranted.
4. A director who is present at a meeting of the board when an action is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present is presumed to have assented to the action approved, unless the director:
 - a. Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting, in which case the director may not be considered to be present at the meeting for any purpose of this chapter;
 - b. Votes against the action at the meeting; or
 - c. Is prohibited from voting on the action:
 - (1) By the articles;
 - (2) By the bylaws;
 - (3) As the result of the decision to approve, ratify, or authorize a transaction pursuant to section 10-33-46; or
 - (4) By a conflict of interest policy adopted by the board.

5. A director, regardless of how identified, is not considered to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

10-33-46. Director conflicts of interest.

1. A contract or other transaction between a corporation and its director or a member of the family of its director; a director of a related organization, or a member of the family of a director of a related organization; or an organization in or of which the corporation's director, or a member of the family of its director, is a director, officer, or legal representative or has a material financial interest, is not void or voidable because the director or the other individual or organization are parties or because the director is present at the meeting of the members or the board or a committee at which the contract or transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified, if at least one of the requirements of subsection 2 is satisfied.
2. A contract or transaction described in subsection 1 is not void or voidable if:
 - a. The contract or transaction was, and the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction has the burden of establishing that the contract or transaction was, fair and reasonable as to the corporation when it was authorized, approved, or ratified;
 - b. The material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the members and the contract or transaction is approved in good faith by two-thirds of the members entitled to vote, not counting any vote that the interested director might otherwise have, or the unanimous affirmative vote of all members, whether or not entitled to vote;
 - c. The material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the board or a committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a majority of the board or committee, not counting any vote that the interested director might otherwise have, and not counting the director in determining the presence of a quorum; or
 - d. The contract or transaction is a merger or consolidation described in section 10-33-85.
3. For purposes of this section:
 - a. A director does not have a material financial interest in a resolution fixing the compensation of the director or fixing the compensation of another director as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, even though the first director is also receiving compensation from the corporation;

- b. A director has a material financial interest in an organization in which the director, or a member of the family of the director, has a material financial interest; and
 - c. A "member of the family" of a director is a spouse, parent, child, child of a spouse, brother, sister, or the spouse of any of them.
 4. The procedures described under subdivisions a, b, and c of subsection 2 are not required if the contract or other transaction is between related organizations.

10-33-47. Immunity of officers, directors, and trustees. Any person who serves as a director, officer, or trustee of a corporation that is, or would qualify as a nonprofit organization that is described in paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 19 of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended [26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (10), and (19)], is immune from civil liability for any act or omission resulting in damage or injury if at the time of the act or omission all of the following are met:

1. The officer, director, or trustee was acting in good faith and in the scope of that person's official duties as a director, officer, or trustee.
2. The act or omission did not constitute willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the officer, director, or trustee.
3. The officer, director, or trustee did not receive or expect to receive reimbursement for or payment of expenses in excess of two thousand dollars per year for expenses actually incurred as a result of providing services as a director, officer, or trustee, and did not receive or expect to receive compensation or anything in lieu of compensation as payment for services provided as a director, officer, or trustee.

10-33-48. Immunity of volunteers.

1. Any person who, on a volunteer basis, provides services or performs duties on behalf of a corporation is immune from civil liability for any act or omission resulting in damage or injury if at the time of the act or omission all of the following are met:
 - a. The person who caused the damage or injury was acting in good faith and in the scope of that person's duties as a volunteer for the corporation.
 - b. The act or omission did not constitute willful misconduct or gross negligence.
2. This section does not grant immunity to any person causing damage as the result of the negligent operation of a motor vehicle.

10-33-49. Officers. The officers of a corporation must be individuals who are eighteen years of age or more, and must include a president, secretary, and treasurer. The officers of the corporation may also include one or more vice presidents and any other officers or agents as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Each officer must be elected by the board at the time and in the manner as may be provided in the bylaws unless the articles or bylaws provide that the members may elect the officers.

10-33-50. Duties of officers and agents. Unless the articles, bylaws, or a resolution adopted by the board which is not inconsistent with the articles or bylaws, provides otherwise:

1. The president shall:
 - a. Have general active management for the business of the corporation;
 - b. When present, preside at all meetings of the board and of members;
 - c. See that all orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect;
 - d. Sign and deliver in the name of the corporation, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments pertaining to the business of the corporation, except in cases in which the authority to sign and deliver is required by law to be exercised by another person or is expressly delegated by the articles or bylaws or by the board to some officer or agent of the corporation;
 - e. Maintain records of and, whenever necessary, certify all proceedings of the board and the members; and
 - f. Perform other duties prescribed by the board.
2. The vice president, if any, or, if there is more than one, the vice presidents in the order determined by the board, shall:
 - a. In the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the president; and
 - b. Perform any other duties and shall have such other powers as the board may from time to time prescribe.
3. The treasurer shall:
 - a. Keep accurate financial records for the corporation;
 - b. Deposit all money, drafts, and checks in the name of and to the credit of the corporation in the banks and depositories designated by the board;
 - c. Endorse for deposit all notes, checks, and drafts received by the corporation as ordered by the board, making proper vouchers;
 - d. Disburse corporate funds and issue checks and drafts in the name of the corporation, as ordered by the board;
 - e. Give to the president and the board, whenever requested, an account of all transactions by the treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation; and
 - f. Perform other duties prescribed by the board or by the president.
4. The secretary shall:

- a. Attend all meetings of the board, all meetings of the members and, when required, all meetings of standing committees;
 - b. Record all proceedings of the meetings;
 - c. Give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members and meetings of the board; and
 - d. Perform other duties prescribed by the board.
5. All other officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, have the authority and shall perform the duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided in the articles or bylaws, or as may be determined by resolution of the board not inconsistent with the articles and bylaws.

10-33-51. Multiple offices. Any number of offices or functions of those offices may be held or exercised by the same individual. If a document must be signed by individuals holding different offices or functions and an individual holds or exercises more than one of those offices or functions, that individual may sign the document in more than one capacity, but only if the document indicates each capacity in which the individual signs.

10-33-52. Officers deemed elected. In the absence of an election or appointment of officers by the board, the individual or individuals exercising the functions of the principal officers of the corporation are deemed to have been elected to those offices.

10-33-53. Contract rights. The election or appointment of an individual as an officer or agent does not, of itself, create contract rights. However, a corporation may enter into a contract with an officer or agent. The resignation or removal of an officer or agent is without prejudice to any contractual rights or obligations. The fact that the contract may be for a term that is longer than the terms of the directors who authorized or approved the contract does not make the contract void or voidable.

10-33-54. Resignation - Removal - Vacancies.

1. An officer may resign by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective date is specified in the notice.
2. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an officer may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a resolution adopted by the board or by the members, whichever elected or appointed the officer. The removal is without prejudice to any contractual rights of the officer.
3. A vacancy in an office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or other cause may, or in the case of a vacancy in the office of president or treasurer must, be filled for the unexpired part of the term in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws, or as determined by the board or under section 10-33-52.

10-33-55. Delegation. Unless prohibited by the articles or bylaws or by a resolution adopted by the board, an officer elected or appointed by the board, without the approval of the board, may delegate some or all of the duties and powers of an office to other individuals. An officer who delegates the duties or powers of an office remains subject to the standard of conduct for an officer with respect to the discharge of all duties and powers so delegated.

10-33-56. Standard of conduct for officers.

1. An officer shall discharge the duties of an office in good faith, in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. An individual exercising the principal functions of an office or to whom some or all of the duties and powers of an office are delegated pursuant to section 10-33-55 is deemed an officer for purposes of this section and sections 10-33-81 and 10-33-84.
2. An officer is not considered to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

10-33-57. Members.

1. A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no members. In the absence of a provision in its articles or bylaws providing for members, a corporation has no members.
 - a. If a corporation has no members, an action for which there is no specific provision of this chapter applicable to a corporation without members and that would otherwise require approval of the members requires only the approval of the board.
 - b. A reference in this chapter to a corporation that has no members includes a corporation in which the directors are the only members.
2. A corporation may admit any person as a member.
 - a. The articles or bylaws may establish criteria or procedures for admission.
 - b. A person may not be admitted as a member without the person's express or implied consent.
 - (1) For purposes of this subdivision, consent includes acceptance of membership benefits knowing that the benefits are available only to members, or taking some other affirmative action that confers membership benefits.
 - (2) If the articles or bylaws provide that a person who contributes to the corporation is a member, a contribution is consent.
3. Except as provided in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may admit members for no consideration or for consideration as is determined by the board.
4. Members are of one class unless the articles establish, or authorize the bylaws to establish, more than one class. Members are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences except to the extent that the articles or bylaws have fixed or limited the rights and preferences of members or different classes of members or provide for nonvoting members. The articles or bylaws may fix the term of membership.

10-33-58. Membership certificates. A corporation may issue certificates showing membership in the corporation. In lieu of a membership certificate, a corporation may issue preferred or common shares. Shares may be issued upon the terms and conditions that the board considers appropriate.

10-33-59. Transfer of membership.

1. Except as provided in the articles or bylaws, a member of a corporation may not transfer a membership or a right arising from it.
2. Where transfer rights have been provided, a restriction on them is not binding with respect to a member holding a membership issued before the adoption of the restriction unless the restriction is approved by the members and the affected member.

10-33-60. Liability of members - Third parties - Dues, assessments, or fees.

1. A member of a corporation is not, as such, personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.
2. When authority to do so is conferred by the articles or bylaws and subject to any limitations, a corporation may levy dues, assessments, or fees upon its members.
 - a. The dues, assessments, or fees may be imposed upon all classes of members alike or differently upon different classes of members.
 - b. Members of one or more classes may be exempted.
3. Articles or bylaws may:
 - a. Fix the amount of the levy and the method of collection of dues, assessments, or fees;
 - b. Authorize the directors to fix the amount from time to time and determine the methods of collection;
 - c. Provide for enforcement or collection of dues, assessments, or fees;
 - d. Provide for cancellation of membership, on reasonable notice, for nonpayment of dues, assessments, or fees; or
 - e. Provide for reinstatement of membership.

10-33-61. Resignation. A member may resign at any time. The resignation of a member does not relieve the member from any obligations the member may have to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees or charges for goods or services.

10-33-62. Termination.

1. A member may not be expelled or suspended, and a membership may not be terminated or suspended except pursuant to a procedure that is fair and reasonable and is carried out in good faith. This section does not apply to the termination of a membership at the end of a fixed term.
2. A procedure is fair and reasonable when it is fair and reasonable taking into consideration all of the relevant facts and circumstances. In addition, a procedure is fair and reasonable if it provides:
 - a. Not less than fifteen days' prior written notice of the expulsion, suspension, or termination, and the reasons for it; and
 - b. An opportunity for the member to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than five days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination by a person authorized to decide that the proposed expulsion, termination, or suspension not take place.
3. A proceeding challenging an expulsion, suspension, or termination, including a proceeding in which defective notice is alleged, must be commenced within one year after the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.
4. The expulsion, suspension, or termination of a member does not relieve the member from obligations the member may have to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees or charges for goods or services.

10-33-63. Purchase of memberships. If authorized in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may buy the membership of a member who resigns or whose membership is terminated for the amount and pursuant to the conditions in the articles or bylaws.

10-33-64. Delegates. A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for delegates having some or all the authority of members. The articles or bylaws may set forth provisions relating to:

1. The characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of the delegates, including their selection and removal;
2. Calling, noticing, holding, and conducting meetings of delegates; and
3. Carrying on corporate activities during and between meetings of delegates.

10-33-65. Annual meetings of voting members.

1. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a corporation with voting members shall hold at least an annual meeting of voting members.
2. If an annual meeting of voting members has not been held during the preceding fifteen months, at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may demand an annual meeting of members by written notice of demand given to the president or the secretary of the corporation. Within thirty days after receipt of the demand, the board shall cause a meeting of members to be called and held at the expense of the corporation on notice no later than ninety days after receipt of the demand. If the board fails to cause a meeting to be called and held as required by this subsection, the members with voting rights making the demand may call the meeting at the expense of the corporation by giving notice as required by section 10-33-68.

3. An annual meeting of members must be held at the time and place stated in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. If a place is not stated or if a demand for a meeting is made under subsection 2, the meeting must be held in the county where the principal executive office of the corporation is located.
4. At an annual meeting of members:
 - a. There must be an election of successors for directors elected by members and whose terms have expired or whose terms expire at an annual meeting;
 - b. There must be a report on the activities and financial condition of the corporation; and
 - c. The members shall consider and act upon other matters as may be raised consistent with the notice of meeting requirements.
5. The failure to hold a meeting in accordance with the articles or bylaws does not affect the validity of a corporate action.

10-33-66. Special meetings of voting members.

1. A corporation with voting members shall hold a special meeting of members:
 - a. On call of its board or persons authorized to do so by the articles or bylaws; or
 - b. If at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, sign, date, and deliver to the president or the secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose for which it is to be held.
2. Within thirty days after receipt of a demand for a special meeting from voting members, the board shall cause a special meeting to be called and held on notice no later than ninety days after receipt of the demand. If the board fails to cause a special meeting to be called and held as required by this subsection, a voting member making the demand may call the meeting by giving notice pursuant to section 10-33-68. All necessary expenses of the notice and meeting shall be paid by the corporation.
3. Special meetings of members may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the articles, bylaws, or by the president or the board. If a special meeting is demanded by the members, the meeting must be held in the county where the principal executive office of the corporation is located.

4. The notice of a special meeting must contain a statement of the purposes of the meeting and may contain other information required by the articles or bylaws or considered necessary or desirable by the board or by another person calling the meeting.
 - a. The business transacted at a special meeting is limited to the purposes stated within the notice of the meeting.
 - b. Business transacted at a special meeting that is not included in those stated purposes is voidable by or on behalf of the corporation, unless all of the members with voting rights have waived notice of the meeting pursuant to section 10-33-68.

10-33-67. Court-ordered meeting of voting members.

1. The district court of the county where the principal executive office of a corporation is located may order a meeting to be held:
 - a. If a meeting was not held within the earlier of six months after the fiscal yearend of the corporation or fifteen months after its last meeting:
 - (1) On application of at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less; or
 - (2) On application of another person entitled to participate in the annual meeting; or
 - b. On application of a voting member who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under section 10-33-66 or a person entitled to call a special meeting if:
 - (1) Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty days after the date the demand was delivered to a corporate officer; or
 - (2) The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.
2. The court may:
 - a. Fix the time and place of the meeting;
 - b. Specify a record date for determining members entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting;
 - c. Prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice;
 - d. Fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting, or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters; and
 - e. Enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purposes of the meeting.

3. If the court orders a meeting, it may also order the corporation to pay the costs of the member, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred to obtain the order.

10-33-68. Notice.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, notice of meetings of members must be given to every voting member as of the record date determined under section 10-33-69 unless:
 - a. The meeting is an adjourned meeting and the date, time, and place of the meeting were announced at the time of adjournment, notice is not required unless a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 10-33-69; or
 - b. Two consecutive annual meeting notices and notices of any special meetings held during the period between the two annual meetings have been mailed to the member by first-class mail and returned undeliverable.
2. An action or meeting that is taken or held without notice under subdivision b of subsection 1 has the same force and effect as if notice was given. If the member delivers a written notice of the member's current address to the corporation, the notice requirement is reinstated.
3. If notice of an adjourned meeting is required under subdivision a of subsection 1, the date for determination of members entitled to notice and entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting must comply with subsection 1 of section 10-33-69, except that if the date of the meeting is set by court order, the court may provide the original date of determination will continue in effect or fix a new date.
4. The notice:
 - a. In all cases where a specific minimum notice period has not been fixed by law, must be given at least five days before the date of the meeting, or a shorter time provided in the articles or bylaws, and not more than fifty days before the date of the meeting;
 - b. Must contain the date, time, and place of the meeting;
 - c. Must inform members if proxies are permitted at the meeting and, if so, state the procedure for appointing proxies;
 - d. Must contain a statement of the purpose of the meeting, in the case of a special meeting;
 - e. Must contain any other information required by the articles or bylaws, this chapter, or considered necessary or desirable by the board; and
 - f. May contain any other information considered necessary or desirable by the person calling the meeting.
5. A member may waive notice of a meeting of members.

- a. A waiver of notice by a member entitled to notice is effective:
 - (1) Whether given before, at, or after the meeting; and
 - (2) Whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance.
- b. Attendance by a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, unless the member:
 - (1) Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened; or
 - (2) Objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at that meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

10-33-69. Record date - Determining members entitled to notice and vote.

1. The board may fix a date not more than fifty days, or a shorter time period provided in the articles or bylaws, before the date of a meeting of members as the date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting. When a date is fixed, only members with voting rights on that date are entitled to notice of and permitted to vote at that meeting of members.
2. A determination of members entitled to notice and to vote at a membership meeting is effective for an adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new date for determining the right to notice and to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than fifty days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.
3. If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty days after the date fixed for the original meeting, the court may provide that the original record date for notice and voting continues in effect or the court may fix a new record date for notice and voting.

10-33-70. Members' list for meeting.

1. After fixing a record date for notice of and voting at a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of its members who are entitled to notice and to vote. The list must show the address and number of votes each member is entitled to vote at the meeting.
2. The list of members must be available for inspection by a member with voting rights for the purpose of communication with other members concerning the meeting, beginning two business days after the meeting notice is given and continuing through the meeting, at the principal executive office of the corporation or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held.
 - a. The list also must be available at the meeting.

- b. A member, a member's agent, or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and to copy the list, at a reasonable time and at the member's expense, during the period it is available for inspection and at any time during the meeting or an adjournment.
3. If the corporation refuses to allow a member with voting rights, the member's agent, or attorney to inspect the list of members before or at the meeting, the district court of the county where the principal executive office of the corporation is located, on application of the member, may:
 - a. Order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense;
 - b. Postpone the meeting until the inspection or copying is complete; or
 - c. Order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred to obtain the order.
4. Unless a written demand to inspect and copy a membership list has been made under subsection 2 before the membership meeting and a corporation improperly refuses to comply with the demand, refusal or failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.
5. A member, agent, or attorney who gains access to a membership list under this section may not use or give to another for use the membership list for any purpose other than a proper purpose. Upon application of the corporation, the district court may issue a protective order or order other relief necessary to enforce this subsection.

10-33-71. Right to vote. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, each member with voting rights is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on by the members. If a membership stands of record in the names of two or more persons, their acts with respect to voting have the following effect:

1. If only one votes, the act binds all.
2. If more than one votes, the vote must be divided on a pro rata basis.

10-33-72. Act of the members.

1. Unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class, the members shall take action by the affirmative vote of the greater of:
 - a. A majority of the members with voting rights present and entitled to vote on that item of business; or
 - b. A majority of the voting power of the minimum number of members with voting rights that would constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting.

If the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion or number than is required by this chapter for a particular action, the articles or bylaws control.

2. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, members may take action at a meeting:
 - a. By voice or ballot.
 - b. By action without a meeting pursuant to section 10-33-73.
 - c. By written ballot pursuant to section 10-33-74.
 - d. By electronic communication pursuant to section 10-33-75.

10-33-73. Action without a meeting. An action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting by written action signed by all of the members entitled to vote on that action.

1. If the articles so provide, any action may be taken by written action signed by the members who hold voting power equal to the voting power that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the members at which all members were present.
2. The written action is effective when signed by the required members, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.
3. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all members, all members must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A member who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken by the written action.
4. When this chapter requires or permits a certificate concerning an action to be filed with the secretary of state, the certificate must indicate that the action was taken under this section.

10-33-74. Action by written ballot.

1. Except as provided in subsection 5 and unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, an action that may be taken at a regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation mails or delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter.
2. A written ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.
3. Approval by written ballot under this section is valid only if:
 - a. The number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and
 - b. The number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.
4. Solicitations for votes by written ballot must:

- a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;
 - b. State the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors; and
 - c. Specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.
5. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

10-33-75. Electronic communications.

1. A conference among the members by any means of communication through which the participants may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a regular or special meeting of the members:
 - a. If the same notice is given of the conference as would be required for a meeting; and
 - b. If the number of members participating in the conference would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting.

Participation in a conference by this means constitutes presence at the meeting in person or by proxy if all the other requirements of section 10-33-77 are met.

2. A member may participate in a regular or special meeting of members not described in subsection 1 by any means of communication through which the member, other participants, and all persons physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence at the meeting in person or by proxy if all the other requirements of section 10-33-77 are met.
3. Waiver of notice of a meeting by means of communication described in subsections 1 and 2 may be given in the manner provided in subsection 5 of section 10-33-68. Participation in a meeting by means of communications described in subsections 1 and 2 is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member:
 - a. Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened; or
 - b. Objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at the meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

10-33-76. Quorum.

1. Unless otherwise provided by the articles or bylaws, a quorum for a meeting of members is ten percent of the members entitled to vote at the meeting.

2. Except as provided in subdivision b, a quorum is necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of members.
 - a. If a quorum is not present, a meeting may be adjourned from time to time for that reason.
 - b. If a quorum has been present at a meeting and members have withdrawn from the meeting so that less than a quorum remains, the members still present may continue to transact business until adjournment.

10-33-77. Proxies.

1. If the articles or bylaws permit proxy voting, a member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointment form either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.
2. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment. However, a proxy is not valid for more than three years from its date of execution.
3. An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member. Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy by attending a meeting and voting in person, or signing and delivering to the officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked, or a later appointment. Revocation in either manner revokes all prior proxy appointments and is effective when filed with an officer of the corporation.
4. The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the authority of the proxy unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by an officer authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.
5. Subject to section 10-33-78 and an express limitation on the authority of the proxy appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the vote or other action of the proxy as that of the member making the appointment.
6. The vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge, but the proxy is liable to the member for damages resulting from a failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the authority granted in the appointment.
7. Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are appointed as proxies for a member, any one of them may vote on each item of business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the appointment, but if no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to voting on a particular item of business, a majority of the proxies have the authority conferred by the instrument. If the proxies are equally divided, they share the vote equally.

10-33-78. Corporation's acceptance of member's act.

1. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the record name of a member, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member.
2. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a member, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:
 - a. The member is an organization and the name signed purports to be that of an officer, manager, or agent of the organization;
 - b. The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or conservator representing the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
 - c. The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the member, and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
 - d. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the member and if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or
 - e. Two or more persons hold the membership as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders.
3. The corporation may reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the member.
4. The corporation or its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section is not liable in damages to the member for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.
5. Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

10-33-79. Voting agreements.

1. To the extent permitted in the articles or bylaws, two or more members may provide for how they will vote by signing an agreement for that purpose. An agreement may be valid for a period of up to ten years. The agreement must have a reasonable purpose consistent with the purposes of the corporation.
2. A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.
3. A voting agreement is not effective until it is filed with the corporation.

10-33-80. Books and records - Financial statement.

1. A corporation shall keep at its principal executive office correct and complete copies of its articles and bylaws, accounting records, voting agreements, and minutes of meetings of members, board of directors, and committees having any of the authority of the board of directors for the last six years.
2. A member or a director, or the agent or attorney of a member or a director, may inspect all documents referred to in subsection 1 or 3 for any proper purpose at any reasonable time. A proper purpose is one reasonably related to the interest of the person as a member or director of the corporation.
3. Upon request, a corporation shall give the member or the director a statement showing the financial result of all operations and transactions affecting income and surplus during its last annual accounting period and a balance sheet containing a summary of its assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the accounting period.
4. A member or director who has gained access under this section to any corporate record may not use or furnish to another for use the corporate record or a portion of the contents for any purpose other than a proper purpose. Upon application of the corporation, a court may issue a protective order or order other relief as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this subdivision.
5. The corporation may charge the requesting party a reasonable fee to cover the expenses of providing copies of documents under this section.
6. The records maintained by a corporation may use any information storage technique, even though the technique makes them illegible visually, if the records can be converted accurately and within a reasonable time into a form that is legible visually and whose contents are assembled by related subject matter to permit convenient use by people in the normal course of business. A corporation shall convert any of the records referred to in subsection 1 or 3 upon the request of a person entitled to inspect them with the expense of the conversion being borne by the person who bears the expense of copying under subsection 5. A copy of the conversion is admissible in evidence, and must be accepted for all other purposes, to the same extent as the existing or original records would be if they were legible visually.
7. A member or a director who is wrongfully denied access to or copies of documents under this section may bring an action for injunctive relief, damages, and costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

10-33-81. Equitable remedies. If a corporation or an officer or director of the corporation violates this chapter, a court in this state, in an action brought by at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, or by the attorney general, may grant equitable relief it considers just and reasonable in the circumstances and award expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, to the members.

 - b. Is with, or for the benefit of:
 - (1) A related organization;
 - (2) An organization in which the corporation has a financial interest;

 - (1) Two-thirds of the members with voting rights; or
 - (2) If there is no member with voting rights, by two-thirds of the board.
2. A corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director or officer of the corporation or a related organization, or of the spouse, parents, children and spouses of children, brothers and sisters or spouses of brothers and sisters of the director or officer.
 - a. If a loan or guarantee is made in violation of this section, the borrower's liability on the loan is not affected.
 - b. The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the making of a loan to a director or officer of the corporation, or who vote for or assent to the guarantee of the obligation of a director or officer of the corporation, and any officer participating in the making of such loan or guarantee shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of the loan until its repayment.
 - c. This subsection does not prohibit an advance of money for expenses authorized by section 10-33-83.

3. A loan, guaranty, surety contract, or other financial assistance under subsection 1 or 2 may be with or without interest and may be unsecured or secured.
4. This section does not grant authority to act as a bank or to carry on the business of banking.

10-33-83. Advances. A corporation, without a vote of the directors or its members, may advance money to its directors, officers, employees, or agents to cover expenses that can reasonably be anticipated to be incurred by them in the performance of their duties and for which they would be entitled to reimbursement in the absence of an advance.

employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding, the person:

- a. Has not been indemnified by another organization or employee benefit plan for the same judgments, penalties, fines including excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding with respect to the same acts or omissions;

If the person's acts or omissions complained of in the proceeding relate to conduct as a director, governor, officer, manager, trustee, employee, or agent of an employee benefit plan, the conduct is not considered to be opposed to the best interests of the corporation if the person reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.
3. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that the person did not meet the criteria set forth in subsection 2.
 4. Subject to subsection 5, if a person is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, the person is entitled, upon written request to the corporation, to payment or reimbursement by the corporation of reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding:

- b. After a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section.

The written undertaking required by subdivision a is an unlimited general obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

5. The articles or bylaws either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subsections 2, 3, and 4 including monetary limits on indemnification or advances for expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring prior to the effective date of a provision in the articles or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.
6. This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a corporation to reimburse expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by a person in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.

(2) A request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the proceeding involving the person's liability took place, upon application of the person and any notice the court requires.

8. With respect to a person who is not, and who was not at the time of the acts or omissions complained of in the proceedings, a director, officer, or person possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of the corporation, the determination whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria set forth in subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subsection 4 may be made by an annually appointed committee of the board, having at least one member who is a director. The committee shall report at least annually to the board concerning its actions.
9. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person in that person's official capacity against any liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the corporation would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability under this section.
10. A corporation with members with voting rights that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person in accordance with this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the corporation shall report to the members in writing the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid not later than the next meeting of members.

Notice of the meeting must be given to the members, accompanied by a copy or summary of the proposed plan. Unless the articles or bylaws require a greater vote, the plan of merger or consolidation is adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the members who vote upon the proposed plan.
3. When a constituent corporation does not have a member with voting rights and unless the articles or bylaws require a greater vote, a plan of merger or consolidation is adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of the corporation upon receiving the affirmative votes of a majority of all directors.  - (2) If the corporation does not have voting members, by a majority of all directors; or
 - b. If the plan itself provides for abandonment and the conditions for abandonment in the plan are met.
2. A plan of merger or consolidation may be abandoned after it has been approved by each constituent corporation and before the effective date of the plan, by a resolution approved by a majority of all directors of the constituent corporation abandoning the plan of merger or consolidation, subject to the contract rights of any other person under the plan.
3. If articles of merger or consolidation have been filed with the secretary of state, but have not yet become effective, articles of abandonment that comply with subsection 4 must be filed with the secretary of state by:

If neither the corporation's registered agent nor an officer of the corporation can be found at the registered office, or if a corporation fails to maintain a registered agent in this state and an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state is the agent of the corporation upon whom the process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of the sheriff, or the affidavit of a person who is not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be found at the registered office must be provided to the secretary of state. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal service upon the corporation and must be made by filing with the secretary of state an original and two copies of the process, notice, or demand, along with the fees provided in section 10-33-140. The secretary of state shall immediately forward, by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service on the secretary of state is returnable in not less than thirty days notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process, notice, or demand.
4. Process, notice, or demand may be served on a dissolved corporation as provided in this subsection. The court shall determine if service is proper. If a corporation has voluntarily dissolved or a court has entered a decree of dissolution, service may be made according to subsection 2 as long as claims are not finally barred under section 10-33-115. If a corporation has been involuntarily dissolved pursuant to section 10-33-139, service may be made according to subsection 2.
5. A record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon the secretary of state under this section, including the date of service and the action taken with reference to it, must be maintained in the office of the secretary of state.
6. Nothing in this section limits the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner permitted by law.

10-33-121. State interested - Proceedings. If it appears at any stage of a proceeding in a court in this state that the state is, or is likely to be, interested therein, or that it is a matter of general public interest, the court shall order that a copy of the complaint or petition be served upon the attorney general in the same manner prescribed for serving a summons in a civil action. The attorney general shall intervene in a proceeding when the attorney general determines that the public interest requires it, whether or not the attorney general has been served.

10-33-122. Attorney general - Notice to - Waiting period.

Subject to subsection 4, a corporation described in subsection 1 may not transfer or convey assets as part of a dissolution, merger, or consolidation, or transfer of assets under section 10-33-94 until forty-five days after it has given written notice to the attorney general, unless the attorney general waives all or part of the waiting period.
4. The attorney general may extend the waiting period under subsection 3 for one additional thirty-day period by notifying the corporation in writing of the extension. The attorney general shall notify the secretary of state if the waiting period is extended.
5. When all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation described in subsection 1 have been transferred or conveyed following expiration or waiver of the waiting period, the board shall deliver to the attorney general a list of persons to whom the assets were transferred or conveyed. The list must include the addresses of each person who received assets and show what assets the person received.
6. Failure of the attorney general to take an action with respect to a transaction under this section does not constitute approval of the transaction and does not prevent the attorney general from taking other action.

7. Subsections 1 through 5 do not apply to a merger with, consolidation into, or transfer of assets to an organization exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor section. A corporation that is exempt under this subsection shall send a copy of the certificate of merger or certificate of consolidation and incorporation to the attorney general.

10-33-125. Foreign corporation - Governing law.

1. Subject to the constitution of this state, the laws of the jurisdiction under which a foreign corporation is incorporated govern its incorporation and internal affairs. Nothing in this chapter authorizes this state to regulate the incorporation or internal affairs of a foreign corporation.
2. A foreign corporation may not be denied a certificate of authority to conduct activities in this state by reason of any difference between those laws and the laws of this state.
3. A foreign corporation holding a valid certificate of authority in this state has no greater rights and privileges than a corporation. The certificate of authority does not authorize the foreign corporation to exercise any of its powers or purposes that a corporation is forbidden by law to exercise in this state.

10-33-126. Foreign corporation - Name. A foreign corporation may apply for a certificate of authority under any name that would be available to a corporation, whether or not the name is the name under which it is authorized in its jurisdiction of incorporation. A trade name must be registered as provided in chapter 47-25 when applying for the certificate of authority under a name other than the name as authorized in the jurisdiction of incorporation.

10-33-127. Foreign corporation - Admission of foreign corporation conducting activities - Obtaining licenses and permits. A foreign corporation may not:

1. Conduct activities in this state or obtain any license or permit required by this state until it has procured a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.
2. Conduct in this state any activity that is prohibited to a corporation incorporated under this chapter.
3. Be denied a certificate of authority because the laws of the state or country where the corporation is incorporated differ from the laws of this state.

10-33-128. Foreign corporation application for certificate of authority.

1. An applicant for the certificate shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of status from the filing office in the jurisdiction in which the foreign corporation is incorporated and an application executed by an authorized person and setting forth:
 - a. The name of the foreign corporation and if different, the name under which it proposes to conduct activities in this state;
 - b. The jurisdiction of its incorporation;

- c. The date of incorporation in the jurisdiction of its incorporation and the period of duration of the foreign corporation;
 - d. The address of the principal executive office of the foreign corporation in the jurisdiction where it is incorporated;
 - e. The address of the proposed registered office of the foreign corporation in this state;

 - (1) An individual resident of this state;
 - (2) A corporation whether incorporated under this chapter or under another provision of this code; or
 - (3) A foreign corporation having a place of business in, and authorized to conduct activities in, this state whether authorized to conduct activities in this state under this chapter or under another provision of this code;
 - g. The purpose or purposes of the foreign corporation which it proposes to pursue in conducting its activities in this state;
 - h. The names and addresses of the directors and officers of the foreign corporation; and
 - i. Any additional information deemed necessary or appropriate by the secretary of state to enable the secretary of state to determine whether the foreign corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to conduct activities in this state.
2. The application must be accompanied by payment of the fees provided in section 10-33-140 together with a certificate of good standing or a certificate of existence duly authenticated by the incorporating officer of the state or country where the corporation is incorporated and the consent of the designated registered agent for service of process to serve in that capacity.

10-33-129. Foreign corporation - Issuance of certificate of authority. If the secretary of state finds that an application for a certificate of authority conforms to law and that all fees have been paid, the secretary shall:

1. Endorse on the application the word "filed" and the date of the filing;
2. File the application, the certificate of good standing or certificate of existence, and the consent of the registered agent; and
3. Issue to the corporation or its representative a certificate of authority to conduct activities in this state.

10-33-130. Foreign corporation - Amendments to the certificate of authority. If any statement in the application for a certificate of authority by a foreign corporation was false when made or any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the application inaccurate in any respect, the foreign corporation shall promptly file with the secretary of state an application for an amended certificate of authority executed by an authorized person correcting the statement and, in the case of a change in its name, a certificate to that effect authenticated by the proper officer of the jurisdiction under the laws of which the foreign corporation is incorporated. In the case of a dissolution or merger, a foreign corporation that is not the surviving organization need not file an application for an amended certificate of authority but shall promptly file with the secretary of state a certificate to that effect authenticated by the proper officer of the jurisdiction under the laws of which the foreign corporation is incorporated.

10-33-131. Foreign corporation - Registered agent - Registered office - Certain reports. A foreign corporation authorized to conduct activities in this state must:

Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to conduct activities in this state is a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the jurisdiction under which it is incorporated, and the corporation is not the surviving organization, the surviving organization shall, within thirty days after the merger becomes effective, file with the secretary of state a certified statement of merger duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country where the statutory merger was effected. It is not necessary for any foreign organization, which is the surviving organization in a merger, to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to conduct activities in this state unless the name of the organization is changed thereby or unless the organization desires to pursue in this state purposes other than those which it is authorized to transact in this state.

10-33-133. Foreign corporation - Certificate of withdrawal.

1. A foreign corporation authorized to conduct activities in this state may withdraw from this state upon procuring from the secretary of state a certificate of withdrawal.  - b. That the corporation is not conducting activities in this state;
 - c. That the corporation surrenders its authority to conduct activities in this state;
 - d. That the corporation revokes the authority of its registered agent in this state to accept service of process and consents to that service of process on the corporation by service upon the secretary of state in any action, suit, or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this state during the time the corporation was authorized to conduct activities in this state; and

- e. A post-office address to which a person may mail a copy of any process against the corporation.
2. The filing with the secretary of state of a certificate of dissolution, or a certificate of merger if the corporation is not the surviving organization, from the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the corporation is incorporated constitutes a valid application of withdrawal and the authority of the corporation to conduct activities in this state shall cease upon filing of the certificate.

10-33-134. Foreign corporation - Revocation of certificate of authority.

1. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct activities in this state may be revoked by the secretary of state if:

 - b. A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by the foreign corporation pursuant to this chapter.
2. No certificate of authority of a foreign corporation may be revoked by the secretary of state unless:
 - a. The secretary has given the foreign corporation not less than sixty days' notice by mail addressed to its registered office in this state or, if the foreign corporation fails to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state, addressed to its principal executive office; and
 - b. During the sixty-day period, the foreign corporation has failed to file the report of change regarding the registered office or the registered agent, to file any amendment, or to correct the misrepresentation.
3. Upon the expiration of sixty days after the mailing of the notice, the authority of the foreign corporation to conduct activities in this state ceases. The secretary of state shall issue a certificate of revocation and shall mail the certificate to the principal executive office of the foreign corporation.

10-33-135. Foreign corporation - Conduct of activity without certificate of authority - Civil penalty.

1. A foreign corporation conducting activities in this state may not maintain any action, suit, or proceeding in any court of this state until it possesses a certificate of authority.

3. A foreign corporation, by conducting activities in this state without a certificate of authority, appoints the secretary of state as its agent upon whom any notice, process, or demand may be served.
4. A foreign corporation that conducts activities in this state without a valid certificate of authority is liable to the state for the years or parts of years during which it conducted activities in this state without the certificate in an amount equal to all fees that would have been imposed by this chapter upon that corporation had it duly obtained the certificate, filed all reports required by this chapter, and paid all penalties imposed by this chapter. The attorney general shall bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under this section.
5. A foreign corporation that conducts activities in this state without a valid certificate of authority is subject to a civil penalty, payable to the state, not to exceed five thousand dollars. Each director and each officer or agent who authorizes, directs, or participates in the conduct of activity in this state on behalf of a foreign corporation that does not have a certificate is subject to a civil penalty, payable to the state, not to exceed one thousand dollars.
6. The civil penalties set forth in subsection 5 may be recovered in an action brought within the district court of Burleigh County by the attorney general. Upon a finding by the court that a foreign corporation or any of its members, directors, officers, or agents have conducted activities in this state in violation of this chapter, the court shall issue, in addition to the imposition of a civil penalty, an injunction restraining the further conduct of the activity of the foreign corporation and the further exercise of any rights and privileges by the corporation in this state. The foreign corporation must be enjoined from conducting activities in this state until all civil penalties plus any interest and court costs that the court may assess have been paid and until the foreign corporation has otherwise complied with this chapter.
7. A member of a foreign corporation is not liable for the debts and obligations of the corporation solely by reason of the corporation having conducted activity in this state without a valid certificate of authority.

10-33-136. Foreign corporation - Conduct not constituting conducting activities.

1. The following activities of a foreign corporation, among others, do not constitute conducting activity within the meaning of this chapter:

2. The term "conducting activity" as used in this section has no effect on personal jurisdiction under the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure.
3. For purposes of this section, any foreign corporation that owns income-producing real or tangible personal property in this state, other than property exempted under subsection 1, is considered conducting activity in this state.
4. The list of activities in subsection 1 is not exhaustive. This section does not apply in determining the contracts or activities that may subject a foreign corporation to service of process or taxation in this state or to regulation under any other law of this state.

10-33-137. Foreign corporation - Action by attorney general. The attorney general may bring an action to restrain a foreign corporation from conducting activity in this state in violation of this chapter.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1392 (Representatives Maragos, DeKrey) (Senator Krebsbach)

REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUSTS

AN ACT to create and enact a new chapter to title 10 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to real estate investment trusts.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new chapter to title 10 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Definitions. In this chapter, unless the content otherwise requires:

1. "Real estate investment trust" means an unincorporated trust or association formed under this chapter under which property is acquired, held, managed, administered, controlled, invested, or disposed of by trustees for the benefit and profit of any person who may become a shareholder.
2. "Share" means a transferable unit of beneficial interest in a real estate investment trust.

Real estate investment trust authorized. A real estate investment trust is a permitted form of an unincorporated trust or association and may conduct business in this state in accordance with this chapter.

Relationship to other laws.

1. This chapter does not limit any law as that law applies to the creation of or doing business in this state by a common-law trust, business trust, or Massachusetts trust.
2. A provision of this chapter is unenforceable if it makes a real estate investment trust unable to qualify as a real estate investment trust under sections 856 through 858 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or the regulations adopted under those sections.

Compliance with title - Registered office and agent.

1. A real estate investment trust may not do business in this state until it complies with this title.
2. Each real estate investment trust shall maintain in this state:
 - a. A registered office, which need not be the same as the principal place of business or the principal executive office of the real estate investment trust.

- c. If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its new registered agent.
 - d. If the name of its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its registered agent as changed.
 - e. A statement that the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.
 - f. A statement that the change of registered office or registered agent was authorized by resolution approved by the real estate investment trust.
6. A registered agent of a real estate investment trust may resign by filing with the secretary of state a signed written notice of resignation, including a statement that a signed copy of the notice has been given to the real estate investment trust at its principal executive office or to a legal representative of the real estate investment trust. The appointment of the agent terminates thirty days after the notice is filed with the secretary of state.
 7. If the business address or the name of a registered agent changes, the agent shall change the address of the registered office or the name of the registered agent, as the case may be, of each real estate investment trust represented by that agent by filing with the secretary of state a statement as required in subsection 5, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent, need not be responsive to subdivision f, and must state that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each of those real estate investment trusts or to the legal representative of each of those real estate investment trusts.
 8. The fee prescribed in this chapter for change of registered office must be refunded when in the secretary of state's opinion a change of address of registered office results from rezoning or postal reassignment.
 9. If any statement in the application was false when made or any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the application inaccurate in any respect, the real estate investment trust shall file promptly with the secretary of state an application for an amended application executed by an authorized person correcting the statement.
 10. The secretary of state may revoke the registration of a domestic or foreign real estate investment trust for failure to maintain a registered office and agent as required by this chapter. Before revoking the registration, the secretary of state shall give not less than sixty days' notice by mail addressed to the registered office and the principal office of record of a foreign real estate investment trust of the deficiency.

Renewal of registration. Any registration of a real estate investment trust filed under this chapter must be renewed every five years from the date of the initial filing. The statement of renewal must be executed by the real estate investment trust on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and sent to the address of the registered office at least sixty days before the deadline for filing. The statement must include the name of the real estate investment trust, the state or country of organization, the name and principal place of business of each trustee and officer, the address of the registered office and the name of the registered agent, and a statement that the real estate investment trust is still in existence and continues to transact business in this state. If the secretary of state finds that the statement conforms to the requirements of this section, and the proper filing fee has been paid, the secretary of state shall file the statement. If the secretary of state finds that the statement does not conform, the secretary of state promptly shall return the statement to the real estate investment trust for any necessary corrections, and the certificate of registration must be canceled if the statement is not returned corrected within thirty days after the statement was returned for corrections. If any real estate investment trust fails to file the statement of renewal when due, the secretary of state shall cancel the registration and shall mail notice of cancellation to the address of the registered office. Upon cancellation, the real estate investment trust shall cease to exist.

Service of process on real estate investment trust and nonresident trustees.

1. The registered agent must be an agent of the real estate investment trust and any nonresident trustee upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the real estate investment trust or trustee may be served. Acceptance of a trusteeship includes the appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for personal service of legal process, notice, or demand.
2. A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a real estate investment trust may be served either upon the registered agent, or upon a trustee of the real estate investment trust, or upon the secretary of state as provided in this section.
3. If neither the registered agent nor a trustee of the real estate investment trust can be found at the registered office, or if a real estate investment trust fails to maintain a registered agent in this state and a trustee cannot be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state is the agent upon whom the process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of the sheriff, or the affidavit of a person who is not a party, that no registered agent or trustee can be found at the registered office must be provided to the secretary of state. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal service upon the real estate investment trust and must be made by filing with the secretary of state an original and two copies of the process, notice, or demand. The secretary of state immediately shall forward, by registered mail, addressed to the real estate investment trust at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service on the secretary of state is returnable in not less than thirty days notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process, notice, or demand.
4. A record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon the secretary of state under this section, including the date of service and the action taken with reference to it, must be maintained in the office of the secretary of state.
5. Nothing in this section limits the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a real estate investment trust in any other manner permitted by law.
