- 1 11. "Peace officer" means a participating member who is a peace officer as defined in 2 section 12-63-01 and is employed as a peace officer by a political subdivision and, 3 notwithstanding subsection 12, for persons employed after August 1, 2005, is 4 employed thirty-two hours or more per week and at least twenty weeks each year 5 of employment. Participating members of the law enforcement retirement plan 6 created by this chapter who begin employment after August 1, 2005, are ineligible 7 to participate concurrently in any other retirement plan administered by the public 8 employees retirement system.
 - SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 54-52-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
 - The board shall authorize the creation of whatever staff it deems necessary for sound and economical administration of the system. The executive director shall hire the staff, subject to the approval of the board. For an individual first employed by the public employees retirement system after July 31, 2005, the executive director shall secure a complete set of fingerprints of that employee if that employee has unescorted physical access to the office or any security-sensitive area of the office as designated by the executive director. The executive director shall ensure that the fingerprints are submitted to the bureau of criminal investigation for verification of the identity of the employee and to obtain criminal history record information and to the federal bureau of investigation for a nationwide background check. The bureau of criminal investigation shall provide any criminal history record information that may lawfully be made available under chapter 12-60 and the response of the federal bureau of investigation to the public employees retirement system.
 - SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Subsections 9 and 10 of section 54-52-17 of the North Dakota Century Code are amended and reenacted as follows:
- The board shall adopt rules providing for the receipt of retirement benefits in the 28 following optional forms:
 - a. Single life.
 - b. An actuarially equivalent joint and survivor option, with fifty percent or one hundred percent options.

1 An actuarially equivalent level social security option, which is available only to C. 2 members who retire prior to attaining the age at which they may begin to 3 receive unreduced social security benefits. 4 Life Actuarially equivalent life with five year or ten-year or twenty-year certain d. 5 options. 6 e. An actuarially equivalent joint and survivor level social security option, with 7 fifty percent or one hundred percent options, which is available only to 8 members who retire before attaining the age at which they may begin to 9 receive unreduced social security benefits. 10 An actuarially equivalent partial lump sum distribution option with a f. 11 twelve-month maximum lump sum distribution. 12 Except for supreme and district court judges, unless a member specifically 13 requests that the member receive benefits according to one of these options at the 14 time of applying for retirement, all retirement benefits must be in the form of a 15 single life benefit. For supreme and district court judges, unless a member 16 specifically requests that the member receive benefits according to one of these 17 options at the time of applying for retirement, all retirement benefits must be in the 18 form of a lifetime monthly pension with fifty percent of the benefit continuing for the 19 life of the surviving spouse, if any. 20 10. The fund may accept rollovers from other qualified eligible plans under rules 21 adopted by the board for the purchase of additional service credit, but only to the 22 extent the transfer is a rollover contribution that meets the requirement of 23 section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code. 24 SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 54-52-17.4 of the North Dakota 25 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows: 26 A participating member, or a member not presently under covered employment, 27 may request credit for qualified military service pursuant to the Uniformed Services 28 Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 [Pub. In addition, the governmental unit, or, in the case of a member not under covered employment, the last employing governmental unit, shall pay to the retiree health benefits fund established under section 54-52.1-03.2 the percentage required by section 54-52.1-03.2 times the salary the member would have received but for the period of service or, if that amount is not reasonably certain, the member's average rate of compensation during the twelve-month period immediately preceding the member's period of service or, if shorter, the period of employment immediately preceding that period, times the member's months of credit being purchased. For credit before July 1, 1966, no contribution is required.

SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52-28 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-52-28. Internal Revenue Code compliance. The board shall administer the plant of	an ir compliance with section 415, section 401(a)(9), section 401(a)(17), and section 401(a)(31)	of the Internal Revenue Code in effect on August 1, 2005, as it applies for governmental plans	3.

SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 54-52.6-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. "Eligible employee" means a permanent state employee, except an employee of the judicial branch or an employee of the board of higher education and state institutions under the jurisdiction of the board, who is eighteen years or more of age and who is in a position not classified by North Dakota human resource management services. If a participating member loses permanent employee status and becomes a temporary employee, the member may still participate in the defined contribution retirement plan.

SECTION 12. A new subsection to section 54-52.6-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

A participating member who becomes a temporary employee may still participate in the defined contribution retirement plan upon filing an election with the board within one hundred eighty days of transferring to temporary employee status. The participating member may not become a member of the defined benefit plan as a temporary employee. The temporary employee electing to participate in the defined contribution retirement plan shall pay monthly to the fund an amount equal to eight and twelve-hundredths percent times the temporary employee's present monthly salary. The temporary employee shall also pay the required monthly contribution to the retiree health benefit fund established under section 54-52.1-03.2. This contribution must be recorded as a member contribution pursuant to section 54-52.1-03.2. An employer may not pay the temporary employee's contributions. A temporary employee may continue to participate as a temporary employee until termination of employment or reclassification of the temporary employee as a permanent employee.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-09.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-52.6-09.3. Contributions for military service. A participating member, or a 2 member not presently under covered employment, may request credit and contributions for 3 qualified military service pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment 4 Rights Act of 1994 [Pub. L. 103-353; 108 Stat. 3150; 38 U.S.C. 4301-4307]. SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-52.6-13. Distributions.

- A participating member is eligible to receive distribution of that person's accumulated balance in the plan upon becoming a former participating member.
- 2. Upon the death of a participating member or former participating member, the accumulated balance of that deceased participant is considered to belong to the refund beneficiary, if any, of that deceased participant. If a valid nomination of refund beneficiary is not on file with the board, the board, in a lump sum distribution, shall distribute the accumulated balance to a legal representative, if any, of the deceased participant or, if there is no legal representative, to the deceased participant's estate.
- 3. A former participating member or refund beneficiary may elect one or a combination of several of the following methods of distribution of the accumulated balance:
 - a. A lump sum distribution to the recipient.
 - A lump sum direct rollover to another qualified plan, to the extent allowed by federal law.
 - c. Periodic distributions, as authorized by the board.
 - d. No current distribution, in which case the accumulated balance must remain in the plan until the former participating member or refund beneficiary elects a method or methods of distribution under this section, to the extent allowed by federal law.

A surviving spouse beneficiary may elect one or a combination of several of the methods of distribution provided in subdivisions a, b, or c. A beneficiary who is not the surviving spouse may only choose a lump sum distribution of the accumulated balance.

4. If the former participating member's vested account balance is less than five thousand dollars, the board shall automatically refund the member's vested
