§ 4. AMENDMENT.] That section 1298 of the Revised Codes of the state of North Dakota of 1905 be amended to read as follows:

§ 1298. EXPENSES, HOW PAID.] Upon the presentation of verified accounts by the clerk of the supreme court for the purchase and cost of transportation of any books, pamphlets or other volumes purchased for the law library, and for the care and custody of such library, and upon such account being approved by the supreme court, the state auditor shall draw his warrant on the state treasury for such amount or amounts.

§ 5. EMERGENCY.] Whereas, an emergency exists in that no adequate provisions of law exist for the care, custody and regulation of the state law library, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Approved March 3, 1911.

SUNDAY CLOSING

CHAPTER 285

[H. B. No. 328-Boyd]

PROHIBITING SUNDAY PERFORMANCES

AN ACT Prohibiting the Keeping Open, or the Running or Permitting of Running of Any Theatre, Show, Moving Picture Show, or Theatrical Performance, Upon the First Day of the Week, Commonly Called the Sabbath, and Providing a Penalty for Violation of the Same.

Be It Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

§ 1. THEATRES OPEN ON SUNDAY, UNLAWFUL.] It shall be unlawful to keep open or to run or permit the running of any theatre, show, moving picture show, or theatrical performance, upon the first day of the week, commonly called the Sabbath.

§ 2. PENALTY.] Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than fifty dollars.

§ 3. EMERGENCY.] Whereas, there is no express provision of law prohibiting the keeping open, or running or permitting the running of any theatre, show, moving picture show or theatrical performance, upon the first day of the week, commonly called the Sabbath, an emergency exists and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

Approved March 3, 1911.
