HOURS OF LABOR OF FEMALES

An Act to Amend and Re-enact Section 10246a1 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of North Dakota for 1913, Regulating and Fixing the Hours of Labor of Females and Providing Penalties for Violation Thereof.

Be It Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of North Dakota:

§ 1. That Section 10246a1 of the Supplement to the Compiled Laws of North Dakota for 1913 be amended and re-enacted as follows:

§ 10246a1. No female shall be employed in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel or restaurant, or telephone or telegraph establishment or office, or in any express or transportation company, in the state of North Dakota more than eight and one-half (8 1-2) hours in any one day, or more than six (6) days or more than forty-eight (48) hours in any one week; provided, however, that this Act shall not apply to females working in rural telephone exchanges or in villages or towns of less than five hundred (500) population, nor to cases of employees in small telephone exchanges, and in telegraph offices where the Workmen's Compensation Bureau after a hearing has determined that the condition of work is so light that it does not justify the application of this Act. In such cases the Workmen's Compensation Bureau shall make reasonable rules and regulations under which females may be employed in such small exchanges. Provided, further, that the above law shall not apply in case of emergency, that at such time female help may be employed ten hours in one day and seven days in one week, but not to exceed forty-eight hours in any one week. An emergency, as herein referred to, is defined to exist in the case of sickness of more than one female employee, in which case a doctor's certificate must be furnished, for the protection of human life, in the case of the holding of banquets, conventions, celebrations, session of the legislature in any city wherein such session is held and during the time such body is in session, or where a female is employed as reporter in any of the courts of the state of North Dakota.

§ 2. Any person violating any provision of this Act, shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Approved March 5, 1927.
