AUTHORIZATION FOR SEPARATE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

A concurrent resolution for amendment of sections 82, 83, and 84 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota, relating to the term of office, powers and duties, and salaries of elected state officers in order to allow the legislative assembly to establish a separate department of labor.

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of North Dakota, the House of Representatives Concurring Therein:

That the following proposed amendments to sections 82, 83, and 84 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota are agreed to and shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state of North Dakota for approval or rejection at the primary election to be held in June, 1960, in accordance with the provisions of section 202 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota, as amended:

§ 1. Amendment.) Section 82 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

SECTION 82. There shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the state at the times and places of choosing members of the legislative assembly, a secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of insurance, three public service commissioners, an attorney general, a commissioner of agriculture and labor, and a tax commissioner, who shall have attained the age of twenty-five years and shall have the qualifications of state electors. They shall severally hold their offices at the seat of government for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and duly qualified; but no person shall be eligible for the office of treasurer for more than two consecutive terms; provided, however, the tax commissioner shall hold his office for the term of four years and until his successor is elected and duly qualified; and provided further, that the public service commissioners shall severally hold their offices for the term of six years and until their successors are elected and duly qualified.

The legislative assembly may by law provide for a department of labor which, if provided for, shall be separate and distinct from the department of agriculture, and shall be administered by a public official who may be either elected or appointed, whichever the legislative assembly shall declare; and if such a department is established, the commissioner of agriculture and labor provided for above shall become the commissioner of agriculture.

The tax commissioner shall be elected on a no-party ballot and he shall be nominated and elected in the manner now provided for the nomination and election of the superintendent of public instruction. The first election of a tax commissioner shall not occur until the year 1940.

At the general election in 1940 there shall be chosen two public service commissioners to fill the two terms expiring on the first Monday in January, 1941. The candidate at said election receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of six years, and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of four years. Thereafter there shall be chosen one such public service commissioner every two years.

The board of railroad commissioners shall hereafter be known as the public service commission and the members of the board of railroad commissioners as public service commissioners and the powers and duties now or hereafter granted to and conferred upon the board of railroad commissioners are hereby transferred to the public service commission.

§ 2. Amendment.) Section 83 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

SECTION 83. The powers and duties of the secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of insurance, commissioners of railroads, attorney general and commissioner of agriculture and labor shall be prescribed by law. In the event that the legislative assembly shall establish a separate and distinct department of labor, the powers and duties of the officer administering such department of labor shall be prescribed by law.

§ 3. Amendment.) Section 84 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

SECTION 84. Salaries of public officers shall be as prescribed by law, but the salaries of any of the said officers shall not be increased or diminished during the period for which they shall have been elected, and all fees and profits arising from any of the said offices shall be covered into the state treasury.

LEGISLATIVE REAPPORTIONMENT

A concurrent resolution for amendment of sections 26, 29 and 35 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota relating to the establishment of senatorial districts, representation from such senatorial districts in the House of Representatives, and the manner of reapportioning members elected to the House of Representatives after each federal decennial census.

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of North Dakota, the House of Representatives Concurring Therein:

That the following proposed amendments to sections 26, 29 and 35 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota are agreed to and shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the state of North Dakota for approval or rejection at the primary election to be held in June, 1960, in accordance with the provisions of section 202 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota, as amended:

§ 1. Amendment.) Section 26 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

SECTION 26. The senate shall be composed of forty-nine members.

§ 2. Amendment.) Section 29 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

SECTION 29. Each existing senatorial district as provided by law at the effective date of this amendment shall permanently constitute a senatorial district. Each senatorial district shall be represented by one senator and no more.

§ 3. Amendment.) Section 35 of the Constitution of the state of North Dakota is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

SECTION 35. Each senatorial district shall be represented in the House of Representatives by at least one representative except that any senatorial district comprised of more than one county shall be represented in the House of Representatives by at least as many representatives as there are counties in such senatorial district. In addition the Legislative Assembly shall, at the first regular session after each federal decennial census, proceed to apportion the balance of the members of the House of Representatives to be elected from the several senatorial districts, within the limits prescribed by this Constitution, according to the population of the several senatorial districts. If any legislative assembly whose duty it is to make an apportionment shall fail to make the same as herein provided it shall be the duty of the chief justice of the supreme court, attorney general, secretary of state, and the majority and minority leaders of the House of Representatives within ninety days after the adjournment of the legislature to make such apportionment and when so made a proclamation shall be issued by the chief justice announcing such apportionment which shall have the same force and effect as though made by the Legislative Assembly.
