SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1 (Nelson)

LOIS J. SCHERR RECOVERY WISHES

A resolution wishing Lois J. Scherr a speedy recovery from her illness.

WHEREAS, Lois Scherr began serving the Fifty-second Legislative Assembly, prior to its convening, as Secretary to the Minority Leader, and performed her duties faithfully and well; and

WHEREAS, Lois also served as Secretary to the Majority Leader from 1975-1985; Chief Committee Clerk from 1967-1973, including the 1972 Constitutional Convention; Committee Clerk from 1959-1961 and in 1965; and Stenographer in 1955, 1963, and 1989; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Senate of the Fifty-second Legislative Assembly appreciated her services and miss them during the continuation of the Fifty-second Legislative Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Lois has been struggling with illness for a good part of the time since the opening session of the Fifty-second Legislative Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Lois is presently hospitalized at St. Alexius Medical Center in Bismarck;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF NORTH DAKOTA:

That all members of the Senate wish Lois Scherr a speedy and complete recovery and also wish to take this opportunity to say we miss her and our prayers are with her; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Chief Clerk of the Senate send an enrolled copy of this resolution to Lois J. Scherr.
