Permits for Barber Schools and Colleges

Section
14-04-05-01	Permits for Barber Schools and Colleges

14-04-05-01. Permits for Barber Schools

The person, firm, corporation, or limited liability company operating a barber school or college shall mark on the application for permit whether the barber school or college is a secondary or postsecondary school.

1. If the person, firm, corporation, or limited liability company operating a barber school or college is marking that it is applying for a permit as a postsecondary school, the barber school or college shall require a high school diploma or equivalent certificate as a requirement for admission.
2. The person, firm, corporation, or limited liability company operating a barber school or college shall submit a copy of its application for admission or enrollment as a part of its application for a permit.
3. Each permit shall designate whether the barber school or college is permitted as a secondary or postsecondary barber school or college.
