67-17-01-01. Purpose. The purpose of Adult education is to provide academic instruction and education services below the post-secondary level that increases an individual's ability to (1) read, write and speak English and perform mathematics necessary to attain secondary school diploma or its equivalent; and (2) transition to postsecondary education and training; and (3) obtain employment.

67-17-01-02. Plan. The program is conducted under a detailed plan prepared and administered by the department of public instruction, job service north dakota and vocational rehabilitation. The plan is identified as the North Dakota state plan for adult education and literacy, April 1999, and it is incorporated by reference into these rules. The state plan is developed by the department of public instruction, job service north dakota and vocational rehabilitation under guidance provided by the United States department of education and approved by the United States department of education. The state plan outlines how state partners will administer the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (P.L. 105-220) Title II, Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act HR 803; Pub.L. 113-128. Copies of the state plan are available from the department of public instruction. The local programs will also submit student data and other required reports by the state and the United States department of education.

67-17-01-03. Federal approval and funding. Unless otherwise specified in these rules, the eligibility to participate in the adult education and literacy program is governed by the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (P.L. 105-220) Title II (section 231) Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act and other procedures embodied in relevant federal notices and policy memos. The local programs must conform to other federal lawfully issued regulations and policies relating to the federal program. Terms used in this chapter have the same meaning as the same terms when used in federal adult education regulations and policies. The department of public instruction will announce annually its intent to provide funding for adult education and literacy programs. The announcement will be made through newspapers, the internet, direct mailings to existing programs, and other means that may be available.
