- 1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 54-27 of the North Dakota
- 2 Century Code, relating to state agency lease arrangements.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

- SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 54-27 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:
- State agency lease arrangements Approval. A state agency or institution, except an institution under the control of the board of higher education, may not acquire the use of real estate, equipment, or another asset with a total value of fifty thousand dollars or more through a lease arrangement that involves lease payments being made in more than one biennial period 10 unless the proposed lease has been separately identified in the agency's budget request and funds for lease payments have been appropriated by the legislative assembly, the legislative 12 assembly has identified appropriated funds for the lease arrangement, or the lease 13 arrangement has been approved by the budget section. All lease arrangements that involve 14 lease payments being made in more than one biennial period must include a provision that future lease payments are subject to appropriations provided by the legislative assembly.
