19 director may appoint the director of any division ~~of the bureau which is~~ established by the 20 director. The appointment of a division director must be on a nonpartisan, merit basis.

21 SECTION 3. A new section to chapter 65-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
22 created and enacted as follows:

23 Workers compensation board of directors - Appointment.

- 1 1. The initial board of directors shall consist of the members on the state advisory 2 council on December 15, 1996. The initial board shall appoint the subsequent 3 board to be effective September 1, 1997.
- 4 2. On and after September 1, 1997, the board must consist of seven members. The 5 appointment and replacement of the members must ensure that:
 - 6 a. Five board members represent employers in this state that maintain active 7 accounts with the bureau, at least one of which must be a participant in the 8 risk management program, at least two of which must be employers with 9 annual premiums greater than twenty-five thousand dollars, at least one of 10 which must be an employer with an annual premium of ten thousand dollars 11 but less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and at least one of which must be 12 an employer with an annual premium of less than ten thousand dollars.
 - 13 b. One member is an employee representative.
 - 14 c. One member is a member of the North Dakota medical association.
- 15 3. Board members shall serve four-year terms, except five of the members 16 appointed by the state advisory council shall serve shorter initial terms as 17 determined by lot in order to initiate a cycle that results in at least one, but not 18 more than two, member's terms expiring on July first each year. Board members
19 may not serve more than two consecutive terms. A departing member 20 representing an employer must be replaced by a member representing an 21 employer, most of whose employees are in a different rate classification than those 22 of the employer represented by the departing member.

23 SECTION 4. A new section to chapter 65-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
24 created and enacted as follows:

25 Compensation of board members. A board member is entitled to receive
26 compensation in the same amount and manner as provided for legislative council committee
27 members under section 54-35-10. A board member is entitled to reimbursement for mileage
28 and expenses as provided for state officers, but the mileage allowance must equal the federal 29 internal revenue service mileage allowance.

30 SECTION 5. A new section to chapter 65-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
31 created and enacted as follows:

Board duties. The board shall:

1. Appoint a director on a nonpartisan, merit basis.
2. Set the compensation of the director.
3. Ensure a proper response to any audit recommendations.
4. Provide an annual report to the legislative audit and fiscal review committee. The report must be provided by the chairman of the board and the director.
5. Prepare the budget of the bureau as required under section 7 of this Act.
6. Assist the bureau in formulating policies and discussing problems related to the administration of the bureau, including adoption of rules, establishment of fees, determination of employer premium rates, maintenance of the solvency of the workers' compensation fund, provision of rehabilitation services, and ensuring impartiality and freedom from political influence.
7. Make appropriate recommendations and proposals for consideration by the bureau.
8. Adopt internal management rules relating to the election of a board chairman, formation of committees, replacement of departing members, voting procedures, and other procedural matters.

SECTION 6. A new section to chapter 65-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Independent audit. Biennially, the director shall request the state auditor to select an audit firm with extensive expertise in workers' compensation practices and standards to conduct a performance audit of the functions and operations of the bureau during that biennium. The audit must evaluate the primary functions and operations of the bureau to determine whether the bureau is providing quality service in an efficient and cost-effective manner. The scope of the performance audit must be determined by the state auditor in conjunction with the independent audit firm. The audit report must contain recommendations for departmental improvement or an explanation of why no recommendations are being made. The director, the chairman of the board of directors, and if requested by the committee, the audit firm shall present the audit, and report on any action taken as a result of the audit, to a special subcommittee of the legislative council's legislative audit and fiscal review committee. This subcommittee must include up to three members from the staff of the office of

1 management and budget and the state auditor's office. The director, the chairman of the board
2 of directors, and, if requested by the committees, the audit firm shall present the audit, and
3 report on any action taken as a result of the audit to the house and senate industry, business
4 and labor standing committees during the next regular session of the legislative session
5 following the audit. The chairman of the board of directors shall provide a copy of the audit
6 report to the state auditor.

7 SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 65-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
8 created and enacted as follows:

9 Proposed budget - Target achievement budgeting.

- 10 1. The bureau budget for August 1, 1997, to July 31, 1998, must follow the budget
11 practices used in the previous year. The bureau budget for August 1, 1998, to July 12 31, 1999, and each fiscal year thereafter may be determined in the same manner
13 as the previous two years, or it may be determined by using target achievement 14 budgeting if the legislative council's audit and fiscal review committee approves the 15 use of target achievement budgeting and adopts the target achievement budget
16 proposed by the board.
- 17 2. Target achievement budgeting includes the board meeting with bureau personnel
18 to prepare a budget, to establish relationships, ratios, and goals for categories
19 within the budget, and to incorporate principles of continuous improvement 20 goalsetting.
- 21 3. Continuous improvement goalsetting is a procedure for implementing a 22 team-oriented continuous improvement program throughout all operations of the 23 bureau. The program must include a number of challenging, measurable goals to 24 ensure the bureau maintains focus on improving those areas most important to its 25 primary mission.

26 SECTION 8. REPEAL. Section 65-02-08.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 27 repealed.

28 SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE. Section 8 of this Act becomes effective September 1, 29 1997.
