4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 15-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

North Dakota institutions of higher education - Tuition waivers for dependents of employees. Institutions of higher education under the control of the state board of higher education shall waive fifty percent of all tuition charges for a spouse or dependent child under the age of twenty-five of any person who is a full-time employee of any institution of higher education under the control of the board, provided the person has been a full-time employee for three or more consecutive years at the time the waiver is requested. This provision is applicable to baccalaureate, associate, and certificate programs, provided the spouse or dependent child maintains a cumulative grade point average of 2.0. For purposes of this section, "dependent child" means a son, daughter, stepson, or stepdaughter of the employee.

SECTION 2. A new section to chapter 15-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Tuition waivers - Costs. Any costs that are incurred by an institution of higher education as a result of providing tuition waivers in accordance with section 1 of this Act must be accommodated within the current level of existing appropriations.
