Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

HOUSE BILL NO. 1427

Introduced by

Representatives Dalrymple, Aarsvold, Nicholas

Senators Heitkamp, Solberg, Wanzek

1 A BILL for an Act relating to establishment of an agricultural consultation board and the 2 allocation of research grants to agricultural commodity groups; to amend and reenact section 3 57-43.1-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to tax refunds for fuel used for 4 agricultural purposes; and to provide an appropriation.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

6 SECTION 1. Agricultural consultation board - Membership. The agricultural 7 consultation board consists of thirteen members. The ag coalition shall appoint five members 8 to the board and the president of North Dakota state university or the president's designee shall 9 appoint five members representing the extension service's multicounty units and two members 10 representing the state's agricultural research centers. The commissioner of agriculture or the 11 commissioner's designee shall serve as a member of the board. The agricultural consultation 12 board annually shall select a chairman from among its members. The term of office for each 13 appointed member is two years. The terms must be staggered by lot. No member may serve 14 more than three consecutive terms. Each person or entity charged with appointing members to 15 the board shall ensure that the board is representative of a broad cross section of agricultural 16 interests, including major crop and livestock enterprises in this state.

17 SECTION 2. Agricultural consultation board - Duties.

- 18 1. The board shall:
- 19 a. Provide advice to the president of North Dakota state university and the 20 director of the North Dakota agricultural experiment station in all matters 21 related to the advancement of agricultural research pertaining to existing and 22 emerging crops, as well as livestock production.
- 23 b. Each year:

(1) Award up to fifteen percent of the proceeds of the North Dakota agricultural research fund to persons or entities for the purpose of conducting research projects in areas relating to new or emerging crops or livestock; and

(2) Allocate up to the remaining eighty-five percent of the proceeds of the North Dakota agricultural research fund to the granting committees of the agricultural commodity groups.

2. During the second year of the biennium, the board may reallocate any funds not awarded or allocated during the first year of the biennium by an agricultural commodity group's granting committee to the same or to another granting committee, or may award these funds to another person conducting research in areas relating to new or emerging crops or livestock.

SECTION 3. Agricultural commodity groups - Eligibility for research funds. The percentage of the total grant dollars available for allocation to each agricultural commodity group by the agricultural consultation board must be the same percentage as the North Dakota gross sales of the agricultural commodity or product bear to the North Dakota gross sales of all agricultural commodities or products during the previous year. Research grants may be awarded by a grant committee to persons affiliated with institutions of higher education or research organizations in this state or in other states for the purpose of conducting research with a view to enhancing the economic impact of agricultural commodities. An out-of-state grant recipient must provide matching funds in an amount equal to the research grant. Any agricultural commodity group that raises research moneys for the commodities grown or produced by its members in this state is eligible to receive funds if:

1. The commodity represented by the group equals or exceeds two percent of the gross sales of all agricultural commodities grown or produced in this state during the most recent year for which statistics are available, as determined by the North Dakota agricultural statistics service.

2. The agricultural commodity group has established a grant committee consisting of four members of the commodity group who are growers or producers, the director of the North Dakota agricultural experiment station or the director's designee, the chairman of the North Dakota state university agronomy department or the

1 chairman's designee, and one person appointed by the North Dakota agricultural 2 consultation board, who is employed by or in the private sector and who has a 3 background in agricultural research.

4 a. Each agricultural commodity group shall determine the terms of office for its 5 grant committee members and may provide for the compensation of the grant 6 committee members and expense reimbursement at the same rate and in the 7 same manner as provided for members of the commodity group's board or 8 council.

9 b. Each commodity group's grant committee shall select one of the committee's 10 members to serve as chairman for the period determined by the commodity 11 group's board or council.

12 3. Before awarding any funds allocated by the agricultural consultation board, a 13 commodity group's grant committee obtains and commits an amount equal to 14 twenty-five percent in matching funds from the agricultural commodity board or 15 council that it represents.

16 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 57-43.1-03.1 of the 1995 Supplement to the
