The state auditor ~~may~~ in lieu of conducting an audit every two years may require annual reports from school districts with less than one hundred enrolled students, cities with less than three hundred population, and other political subdivisions subject to this section, or otherwise provided by law, with less than one hundred thousand dollars of annual receipts. The reports must contain the financial information required by the state auditor. The state auditor may also make such additional examination or audit as deemed necessary in addition to the annual report. When a report is not filed, the state auditor may charge the political subdivision an amount equal to the fair value of the additional examination or audit and any other services rendered. The state auditor may charge a political subdivision a fee not to exceed fifty dollars an hour for the costs of reviewing the annual report.

A political subdivision ~~may~~, at the option of its governing body, may be audited by a certified public accountant or licensed public accountant rather than by the state auditor. The report must be in the form and content required by the state auditor. The number of copies of the audit report requested by the state auditor must be filed with the state auditor when the public accountant delivers the audit report to the political subdivision. The state auditor shall review the audit reports to determine if the reports are in the required form and have the required content, and if the audit meets generally accepted government auditing standards. The state auditor may also periodically review the public accountant's workpapers to determine if the audit meets generally accepted government auditing standards. If the reports are in the required form and have the required content, and the reports and workpapers comply with generally accepted government auditing standards, the state auditor shall accept the audit report. The state auditor may charge the political subdivision a fee of up to fifty dollars an hour, but not to exceed five hundred dollars per review, for the related costs of reviewing the audit report and workpapers.

A political subdivision may not pay a public accountant for an audit until the state auditor has accepted the audit. However, a political subdivision may make progress payments to the public accountant. A political subdivision shall retain twenty percent of any progress payment until the audit report is accepted by the state auditor.

The state auditor may require the correction of any irregularities, objectionable accounting procedures, or illegal actions on the part of the governing board, officers, or employees of the political subdivision disclosed by the audit report or workpapers, and failure to make the corrections ~~shall result~~ results in audits being resumed by the state auditor until the irregularities, objectionable accounting procedures, or illegal actions are corrected.

Any other public or nonprofit entity, whose audit is not otherwise required to be performed under this section or section 54-10-01, which receives state or federal financial assistance, at the option of its governing body, may be audited by the state auditor if the state auditor agrees to perform the audit. The public or nonprofit entity shall pay the state auditor a fee equal to the fair value of the audit, and the fee must be deposited in the state auditor operating account.

The state treasurer shall credit the state auditor operating account with the amount of interest earnings attributable to the deposits in that account.
