21 3. The secretary of state shall determine whether a corporate name is "deceptively 22 similar" to another name for purposes of this chapter.
23 4. This section and section 10-33-11 do not:
24 a. Abrogate or limit:
25 (1) The law of unfair competition or unfair practices;
26 (2) Chapter 47-25;
27 (3) The laws of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and 28 protect copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service names, service 29 marks; or 30 (4) Any other rights to the exclusive use of names or symbols; or 31 b. Derogate the common law or the principles of equity.

- 1 5. A corporation that is merged with another domestic or foreign corporation, or that 2 is incorporated by the reorganization of one or more domestic or foreign
3 corporations, or that acquires by sale, lease, or other disposition to or exchange
4 with a domestic corporation all or substantially all of the assets of another domestic 5 or foreign corporation including its name, may have the same name as that used in 6 this state by any of the other corporations, if the other corporation was 7 incorporated under the laws of, or is authorized to conduct activities in, this state.
- 8 6. The use of a name by a corporation in violation of this section does not affect or 9 vitate its corporate existence, but a court in this state may, upon application of the 10 state or of an interested or affected person, enjoin the corporation from doing
11 business under a name assumed in violation of this section, although its articles
12 may have been filed with the secretary of state and a certificate of incorporation 13 issued.
- 14 7. If a corporation's period of existence has expired or is involuntarily dissolved by the 15 secretary of state pursuant to section 10-33-139, the corporation may reacquire
16 the right to use that name by refiling articles of incorporation pursuant to section 17 10-33-08; amending pursuant to section 10-33-118; or reinstating pursuant to 18 section 10-33-139. If the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another 19 person, the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a written 20 consent or judgment pursuant to subsection 2. A corporation that cannot reacquire 21 the use of its corporate name must adopt a new corporate name that complies with 22 the provisions of this section.

23 10-33-11. Reserved name.

- 24 1. The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name otherwise permitted by section 25 10-33-10 may be reserved by any person.
- 26 2. The reservation must be made by filing with the secretary of state a request that 27 the name be reserved, together with the fees provided in section 10-33-140:
- 28 a. If the name is available for use by the applicant, the secretary of state shall 29 reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of twelve 30 months.
- 31 b. The reservation may be renewed for successive twelve-month periods.

- 1 3. The right to the exclusive use of a corporate name reserved pursuant to this
2 section may be transferred to another person by or on behalf of the applicant for 3 whom the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the 4 transfer and specifying the name and address of the transferee, together with the 5 fees provided in section 10-33-140.
- 6 4. The right to the exclusive use of a corporate name reserved pursuant to this 7 section may be canceled by or on behalf of the applicant for whom the name was 8 reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the cancellation, together 9 with the fees provided in section 10-33-140.
- 10 5. The secretary of state may accept for filing a legible facsimile copy of the signed 11 original of any request for reserved name.
- 12 6. The secretary of state may destroy all reserved name requests and index thereof 13 one year after expiration.

14 10-33-12. Registered office - Registered agent.

- 15 1. A corporation shall continuously maintain a registered office in this state. A 16 registered office need not be the same as the principal place of business or the 17 principal executive office of the corporation.
- 18 2. A corporation shall appoint and continuously maintain a registered agent. The 19 registered agent may be an individual residing in this state, a domestic corporation
20 whether incorporated under this chapter or under another provision of this code, a 21 limited liability company, a foreign corporation whether authorized to do business 22 or conduct activities in the state under this chapter or under another provision of 23 this code, or foreign limited liability company authorized to conduct activities in this 24 state. The registered agent shall maintain a business office that is identical with 25 the registered office. Proof of the registered agent's consent to serve in that 26 capacity must be filed with the secretary of state, together with the fees provided in 27 section 10-33-140.

28 10-33-13. Establishment or change of registered office - Appointment or change
29 of registered agent - Change of name of registered agent.

- 30 1. A corporation may establish or change its registered office, designate or change its 31 registered agent, or state a change in the name of its registered agent by filing with the secretary of state, along with the fees provided in section 10-33-140, a statement containing:

- a. The name of the corporation.
- b. The new address of its registered office if the address of its registered office is to be established or changed.
- c. The name of its new registered agent if its registered agent is to be designated or changed.
- d. The name of its registered agent as changed if the name of its registered agent is to be changed.
- e. A statement that the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent, as established or changed, will be identical.
- f. A statement that the establishment or change of registered office or designation or change of registered agent is authorized by resolution approved by the board.

2. A registered agent of a corporation may resign by filing with the secretary of state a signed written notice of resignation, including a statement that a signed copy of the notice has been given to the corporation at its principal executive office or to a legal representative of the corporation. The appointment of the agent terminates thirty days after the notice is filed with the secretary of state.

3. If the business address or the name of a registered agent changes, the agent shall change the address of the registered office or the name of the registered agent of each corporation represented by that agent by filing with the secretary of state a statement for each corporation as required in subsection 1, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent, need not be responsive to subdivision f, and must state that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each of those corporations or to the legal representative of each of those corporations.

4. The fee prescribed in section 10-33-140 for change of registered office must be refunded when in the secretary of state's opinion a change of address of registered office results from rezoning or postal reassignment. The fee prescribed in section

10-33-140 does not apply when the registered agent or registered office is established or changed in the annual report.

10-33-14. Amendment of articles. The articles of a corporation may be amended at any time to include or modify any provision that is required or permitted to appear in the articles or to omit any provision not required to be included in the articles, except that when articles are amended to restate them, the name and address of each incorporator and each initial director may be omitted. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, the articles may be amended or modified only in accordance with section 10-33-15.

10-33-15. Procedure for amendment of articles.

1. A majority of incorporators may amend the articles by written action if no directors are named in the original articles, if no directors have been elected, and if there are no members with voting rights. A majority of directors may amend the articles if there are no members with voting rights, if members with voting rights have authorized the board to amend the articles under subsection 3, or if the amendment merely restates the existing articles, as amended. Notice of the meeting and of the proposed amendment must be given to the board. An amendment restating the existing articles may, but need not, be submitted to and approved by the members as provided in subsection 2.
2. Amendments to the articles must be approved by a majority of the directors and by the members with voting rights. If an amendment is initiated by the directors, proper notice of the proposed amendment must precede a member meeting at which the amendment will be considered and must include the substance of the proposed amendment. If an amendment is proposed and approved by the members, the members may demand a special board meeting within fifty days for consideration of the proposed amendment if a regular board meeting would not occur within fifty days.
 - a. The members with voting rights may authorize the board of directors, subject to subdivision c, to exercise from time to time the power of amendment of the articles without member approval.
 - b. When the members have authorized the board of directors to amend the articles, the board of directors, by a majority vote, unless the articles, bylaws,

1 or the members' resolution authorizing the board action requires a greater
2 vote, may amend the articles at a meeting of the board. Notice of the meeting
3 and of the proposed amendment must be given to the board.

4 c. The members with voting rights voting at a meeting duly called for the 5 purpose may prospectively revoke the authority of the board to exercise the 6 power of the members to amend the articles.

7 4. Articles or bylaws may require greater than majority approval by the board or 8 approval by greater than a majority of a quorum of the voting members for an 9 action under this section and may limit or prohibit the use of mail ballots by voting
10 members.

11 5. The articles or bylaws may provide that an amendment also must be approved by 12 the members of a class.

13 10-33-16. Articles of amendment. When an amendment has been adopted, articles 14 of amendment must be prepared that contain:

15 1. The name of the corporation.

16 2. The amendment adopted.

17 3. The date of the adoption of the amendment pursuant to this chapter.

18 4. If the amendment restates the articles in their entirety, a statement that the 19 restated articles supersede the original articles and all amendments to them.

20 5. A statement that the amendment has been adopted pursuant to this chapter.

21 10-33-17. Effect of amendment.

22 1. An amendment does not affect an existing cause of action in favor of or against the 23 corporation, nor a pending suit to which the corporation is a party, nor the existing 24 rights of persons other than members.

25 2. If the corporate name is changed by the amendment, a suit brought by or against 26 the corporation under its former name does not abate for that reason.

27 3. When effective under section 10-33-19, an amendment restating the articles in 28 their entirety supersedes the original articles and all amendments to the original 29 articles.

30 10-33-18. Filing articles of amendment. An original of the articles of amendment 31 must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of

1 amendment conform to the filing requirements of this chapter and that all fees have been paid
2 as provided in section 10-33-140, then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office
3 of the secretary of state.

4 10-33-19. Effective date of articles of amendment. The articles of amendment are 5 effective upon acceptance by the secretary of state or at another time within thirty days after 6 acceptance if the articles of amendment so provide.

7 10-33-20. Amendment of articles in court-supervised reorganization.

8 1. Whenever a plan of reorganization of a corporation has been confirmed by decree 9 or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of 10 the corporation, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United 11 States relating to reorganization of corporations, the articles may be amended, in 12 the manner provided in this section, in as many respects as may be necessary to 13 carry out the plan, so long as the articles as amended contain only provisions 14 which might be lawfully contained in original articles at the time of making the 15 amendment. In particular, and without limitation upon any general power of 16 amendment, the articles may be amended to:

- 17 a. Change the corporate name, period of duration, or corporate purposes of the 18 corporation.
- 19 b. Repeal, alter, or amend the bylaws of the corporation.
- 20 c. Change the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the 21 corporation has the authority to issue.
- 22 d. Change the preferences, limitations, relative rights in respect of all or any part 23 of the shares of the corporation, and classify, reclassify, or cancel all or any 24 part thereof, whether issued or unissued.
- 25 e. Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the 26 corporation, whether convertible into shares of any class or bearing warrants 27 or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of 28 any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof.
- 29 f. Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board and appoint 30 directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors or 31 officers then in office.

2. Amendments to the articles pursuant to subsection 1 must be made in the following manner:

- a. Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of the court must be executed and verified by the person or persons designated or appointed by the court for that purpose and must set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments of the articles approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, and the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation under the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.
- b. An original of the articles of amendment must be filed with the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to the filing requirements of this chapter and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-33-140, the original must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

3. The articles of amendment become effective upon their acceptance by the secretary of state or at another time within thirty days after acceptance if the articles of amendment so provide.

4. The articles are amended accordingly with the same effect as if the amendment had been adopted by unanimous action of the directors and members.

31 and, in the case of a related organization that is a limited liability company,

1 members who provide services to the limited liability company, and the families,

3 maintain insurance for a fiduciary of any of these employee benefit and incentive
4 plans, trusts, and provisions.

5 13. A corporation may participate in any capacity in the promotion, organization,
6 ownership, management, and operation of any organization or in any transaction,
7 undertaking, or arrangement that the participating corporation would have power to 8 conduct by itself, whether or not the participation involves sharing or delegation of 9 control.

10 14. A corporation may provide for its benefit life insurance and other insurance with 11 respect to the services of its officers, directors, employees, and agents, or on the 12 life of a member for the purpose of acquiring, at the death of the member, any 13 membership interests in the corporation owned by the member.

14 15. A corporation may have, alter at pleasure, and use a corporate seal as provided in

23. A corporation may take, receive, and hold real and personal property, including the principal and interest of money or other fund, that is given, conveyed, bequeathed, devised to, or vested in the corporation in trust where the corporation or a related organization has a vested or contingent interest in the trust.

10-33-22. Corporate seal. A corporation may, but need not, have a corporate seal. The use or nonuse of a corporate seal does not affect the validity, recordability, or enforceability of a document or act. If a corporation has a corporate seal, the use of the seal by the corporation on a document is not necessary.

10-33-23. Defense of ultra vires. No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation is invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:

1. In a proceeding by a member against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or acts or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfers sought to be enjoined are being, or are to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the proceeding and if it

1 deems the same to be equitable, may set aside and enjoin the performance of the 2 contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the 3 contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by 4 either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and 5 enjoining the performance of the contract. However, anticipated profits to be 6 derived from the performance of the contract may not be awarded by the court as 7 a loss or damage sustained.

8 2. In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver,
9 trustee or other legal representative, or through members in a representative suit,
10 against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation.

12 corporation or to enjoin the corporation from the transaction of unauthorized 13 business.

14 10-33-24. Unauthorized assumption of corporate powers - Liability. All persons
15 who assume to act as a corporation without authority are jointly and severally liable for all debts
16 and liabilities incurred or arising as a result.

17 10-33-25. Organization.

18 1. If the first board is not named in the articles, the incorporators may elect the first 19 board or may act as directors with all of the powers, rights, duties, and liabilities of 20 directors, until directors are elected.

21 2. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the incorporators or the 22 directors named in the articles shall, within a reasonable time, either hold an 23 organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators or of the 24 directors named in the articles, or take written action, for the purposes of 25 transacting business and taking actions necessary or appropriate to complete the 26 organization of the corporation. If a meeting is held, the person or persons calling 27 the meeting shall give at least three days' notice of the meeting to each 28 incorporator or director named, stating the date, time, and place of the meeting.
29 Incorporators and directors may waive notice of an organizational meeting in the 30 same manner that a director may waive notice of meetings of the board pursuant 31 to subsection 5 of section 10-33-39.

10-33-26. Bylaws.

1. A corporation may, but need not, have bylaws. Bylaws may contain any provision relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of the corporation consistent with law or the articles, including:
 - a. The number of directors, and the qualifications, manner of election, powers, duties, and compensation, if any, of directors;
 - b. The qualifications of members;
 - c. Different classes of membership;
 - d. The manner of admission, withdrawal, suspension, and expulsion of members;
 - e. Property, voting, and other rights and privileges of members;
 - f. The appointment and authority of committees;
 - g. The appointment or election, duties, compensation, and tenure of officers;
 - h. The time, place, and manner of calling, conducting, and giving notice of member, board, and committee meetings, or of conducting mail ballots;
 - i. The making of reports and financial statements to members; or
 - j. The number establishing a quorum for meetings of members and the board.
2. Initial bylaws may be adopted by the incorporators or by the first board pursuant to section 10-33-25. Unless reserved by the articles to the members, the power to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws is vested in the board. The power of the board is subject to the power of the members with voting rights exercisable in the manner provided in subsection 3 to adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws adopted, amended, or repealed by the board. After the adoption of the initial bylaws and if there are members with voting rights, the board may not adopt, amend, or repeal a bylaw fixing a quorum for meetings of members, prescribing procedures for removing directors or filling vacancies in the board, or fixing the number of directors or their classifications, qualifications, or terms of office, but may adopt or amend a bylaw to increase the number of directors. A bylaw amendment to increase or decrease the vote required for a member action must be approved by the members.
3. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may propose a resolution for action by the members to adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws adopted, amended, or repealed by the board.

- a. The resolution must contain the provisions proposed for adoption, amendment, or repeal.
- b. The limitations and procedures for submitting, considering, and adopting the resolution are the same as provided in section 10-33-15, for amendment of the articles, except that board approval is not required.
- c. The articles or bylaws may impose different or additional requirements for the members to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws.

10-33-27. Board.

1. The business and affairs of a corporation must be managed by or under the direction of a board.
 - a. All directors are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws.
 - b. The members of the first board may be named in the articles, designated or appointed pursuant to the articles, or elected by the incorporators under section 10-33-25.
2. No more than forty-nine percent of the individuals serving on the board of any corporation may be financially interested individuals.
3. For the purposes of this section "financially interested individuals" means:
 - a. Individuals who have received or are entitled to receive compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve months, whether as full-time or part-time employees, independent contractors, consultants, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable payments made to directors for serving as directors;
 - b. Any parent, child, child of a spouse, brother, or sister, of that individual; or
 - c. The spouse of any individual described in subdivision a or b.
4. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section does not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the corporation.

10-33-28. Number. The board must consist of three or more directors, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. However, if the

1 corporation has either one or two members with voting rights, the number of directors may be
2 less than three but not less than the number of members with voting rights. The number of 3 directors may be increased or, subject to sections 10-33-36 and 10-33-37, decreased at any 4 time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws.

5 10-33-29. Qualifications - Election. Directors must be individuals. The method of 6 election and any additional qualifications for directors may be imposed by or in the manner
7 provided in the articles or bylaws.

8 10-33-30. Terms.

9 1. With respect to length of terms:

10 a. Directors are elected or appointed and hold office for fixed terms provided for 11 in the articles or bylaws. A fixed term of a director, other than an ex officio 12 director, may not exceed ten years. If the articles or bylaws do not provide for 13 a fixed term, the term is one year. An ex officio director serves as long as the 14 director holds the office or position designated in the articles or bylaws.

15 b. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a director holds office until 16 expiration of the term for which the director was elected or appointed and until 17 a successor is elected and qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, 18 removal, or disqualification of the director.

19 c. A decrease in the number of directors or term of office does not shorten an 20 incumbent director's term.

21 d. Except as provided in the articles or bylaws, the term of a director filling a 22 vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that the director is filling.

23 2. The articles or bylaws may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing 24 the total number of directors into groups. The terms of office of the groups need 25 not be uniform.

26 10-33-31. Acts not void or voidable. The expiration of a director's term with or 27 without the election of a qualified successor does not make prior or subsequent acts of the 28 officers or the board void or voidable.

29 10-33-32. Compensation. Subject to any limitations in the articles or bylaws, the 30 board may fix the compensation of directors.

31 10-33-33. Classification of directors.

1 1. Except as provided in subsection 2, directors may be divided into classes.

2 2. Directors of a corporation described in subsection 1 of section 10-33-122 may not 3 vote by class except when the articles or bylaws provide that only one class of 4 directors may vote on a particular matter.

5 10-33-34. Cumulative voting for directors. Unless the articles provide otherwise or 6 except as provided in section 1 of article XII of the Constitution of North Dakota, there is no
7 cumulative voting.

8 10-33-35. Resignation.

9 1. A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. The 10 resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the 11 corporation, unless a later effective time is specified in the notice.

12 2. If a resignation is made effective at a later date, the board may fill the pending
13 vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not 14 take office until the effective date.

15 10-33-36. Nonjudicial removal of directors.

16 1. This section applies unless a different method of removal is provided for in the 17 articles or bylaws.

18 2. With respect to an elected director:

19 a. If there is a member with voting rights:

20 (1) A director may be removed by the board at any time, with or without 21 cause, if:

22 (a) The director was named by the board to fill a vacancy;

23 (b) The members with voting rights have not elected directors in the 24 interval between the time of the appointment to fill the vacancy 25 and the time of the removal; and 26 (c) A majority of the remaining directors present affirmatively vote to 27 remove the director.

28 (2) A director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by those 29 members eligible to elect the director.

30 b. If there is no member with voting rights, a director may be removed at any 31 time, with or without cause, by those directors eligible to elect the director.

3. With respect to an appointed director:

- a. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an appointed director may be removed without cause by the person appointing the director.
- b. The person removing the director shall do so by giving written notice of the removal to the director and either the presiding officer of the board or the corporation's president or secretary.
- c. A removal is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice states a future effective date.

4. A new director may be elected at a meeting at which a director is removed.

10-33-37. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding.

- 1. The district court of the county the principal executive office of a corporation is located in may remove any director of the corporation from office in a proceeding commenced either by the corporation, its members holding at least ten percent of the voting power of any class of shares, or the attorney general, if the court finds:
 - a. The director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct, or gross abuse of authority or discretion, with respect to the corporation;
 - b. That the provisions of subsection 2 of section 10-33-27 have been violated; or
 - c. Final judgment has been entered finding the director violated section 10-33-45.
- 2. The court that removes a director may bar the director from serving on the board for a period prescribed by the court.
- 3. If members or the attorney general commence a proceeding under subdivision a of subsection 1, then the corporation must be made a party defendant.
- 4. If a corporation or its members commence a proceeding under subsection 1, they must give the attorney general written notice of the proceeding.

10-33-38. Vacancies.

- 1. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, and except as provided in this section, if a vacancy occurs on the board, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:
 - a. The members with voting rights, if any, may fill the vacancy; or

b. The remaining members of the board, though less than a quorum, may fill the vacancy.

2. If a vacant office was held by a director elected by a class, chapter, or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, only members of the class, chapter, unit, or grouping are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy.

3. If a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.

4. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

10-33-39. Board meetings.

1. Meetings of the board may be held from time to time as provided in the articles or bylaws at any place within or without the state that the board may select or by any means described in subsection 2. If the articles, bylaws, or board fails to select a place for a meeting, the meeting must be held at the principal executive office, unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise.

2. A board meeting may be conducted by:

a. A conference among directors using any means of communication through which the directors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a board meeting, if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required by subsection 3 for a meeting, and if the number of directors participating in the conference is a quorum. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting; or

b. Any means of communication through which the director, other directors so participating, and all directors physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting.

3. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different time period, a director may call a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice or, in the case of organizational meetings pursuant to subsection 2 of section 10-33-25, at least three days' notice, to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles or bylaws require it.

1 4. If the date, time, and place of a board meeting have been provided in the articles
2 or bylaws, or announced at a previous meeting of the board, no notice is required.
3 Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at 4 the meeting at which adjournment is taken.

5 5. A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a 6 director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting,
7 and whether given in writing or by attendance. Attendance by a director at a 8 meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the director objects at 9 the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is 10 not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the 11 objection.

12 10-33-40. Absent directors. If the articles or bylaws so provide, a director may give 13 advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a board meeting. If the 14 director is not present at the meeting, consent or opposition to a proposal does not constitute 15 presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition 16 must be counted as the vote of a director present at the meeting in favor of or against the 17 proposal and must be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting, if the 18 proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect 19 as the proposal to which the director has consented or objected.

20 10-33-41. Quorum. A majority, or a larger or smaller proportion or number provided in 21 the articles or bylaws, of the directors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction of 22 business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn a 23 meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a duly called 24 or held meeting is convened, the directors present may continue to transact business until 25 adjournment, even though the withdrawal of a number of directors originally present leaves less 26 than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum.

27 10-33-42. Act of the board. The board shall take action by the affirmative vote of a 28 majority of directors with voting rights present and entitled to vote at a duly held meeting, 29 unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require the affirmative vote of a larger proportion or 30 number.

31 10-33-43. Action without meeting.

1. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by written action signed by all of the directors. If the articles so provide, any action, other than an action requiring member approval, may be taken by written action signed by the number of directors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the board at which all directors were present.
2. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of directors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.
3. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all directors, all directors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A director who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions.

10-33-44. Committees.

1. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board may establish committees having the authority of the board in the management of the business of the corporation to the extent provided in the resolution. Committees may include a special litigation committee consisting of one or more independent directors or other independent persons to consider legal rights or remedies of the corporation and whether those rights or remedies should be pursued. Committees other than special litigation committees are subject at all times to the direction and control of the board.
2. Committee members must be individuals. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different membership or manner of appointment, a committee must consist of one or more persons, who need not be directors, appointed by the board.
3. Sections 10-33-39 through 10-33-43 apply to committees and members of committees to the same extent as those sections apply to the board and directors.
4. Minutes, if any, of committee meetings must be made available upon request to members of the committee and to any director.
5. The establishment of, delegation of authority to, and action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standard of conduct set forth in section 10-33-45.

6. Committee members are deemed to be directors for purposes of sections 10-33-45, 10-33-46, and 10-33-84.

10-33-45. Standard of conduct for directors.

1. A director shall discharge the duties of the position of director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person who so performs those duties is not liable by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation.

2. A director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

- a. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
- b. Counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
- c. A committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, duly established in accordance with section 10-33-44 as to matters within its designated authority, if the director reasonably believes the committee to merit confidence.

3. Subsection 2 does not apply to a director who has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes the reliance otherwise permitted by subsection 2 unwarranted.

4. A director who is present at a meeting of the board when an action is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present is presumed to have assented to the action approved, unless the director:

- a. Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting, in which case the director may not be considered to be present at the meeting for any purpose of this chapter;
- b. Votes against the action at the meeting; or

c. Is prohibited from voting on the action:

(1) By the articles;

(2) By the bylaws;

(3) As the result of the decision to approve, ratify, or authorize a transaction pursuant to section 10-33-46; or

(4) By a conflict of interest policy adopted by the board.

5. A director, regardless of how identified, is not considered to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

10-33-46. Director conflicts of interest.

1. A contract or other transaction between a corporation and its director or a member of the family of its director; a director of a related organization, or a member of the family of a director of a related organization; or an organization in or of which the corporation's director, or a member of the family of its director, is a director, officer, or legal representative or has a material financial interest, is not void or voidable because the director or the other individual or organization are parties or because the director is present at the meeting of the members or the board or a committee at which the contract or transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified, if at least one of the requirements of subsection 2 is satisfied.

2. A contract or transaction described in subsection 1 is not void or voidable if:

a. The contract or transaction was, and the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction has the burden of establishing that the contract or transaction was, fair and reasonable as to the corporation when it was authorized, approved, or ratified;

b. The material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the members and the contract or transaction is approved in good faith by two-thirds of the members entitled to vote, not counting any vote that the interested director might otherwise have, or the unanimous affirmative vote of all members, whether or not entitled to vote;

- 1 c. The material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's
2 interest are fully disclosed or known to the board or a committee, and the 3 board or committee authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or 4 transaction in good faith by a majority of the board or committee, not counting
5 any vote that the interested director might otherwise have, and not counting 6 the director in determining the presence of a quorum; or 7 d. The contract or transaction is a merger or consolidation described in section 8 10-33-85.

9 3. For purposes of this section:

- 10 a. A director does not have a material financial interest in a resolution fixing the 11 compensation of the director or fixing the compensation of another director as 12 a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, even though the first 13 director is also receiving compensation from the corporation;
14 b. A director has a material financial interest in an organization in which the 15 director, or a member of the family of the director, has a material financial 16 interest; and
17 c. A "member of the family" of a director is a spouse, parent, child, child of a 18 spouse, brother, sister, or the spouse of any of them.

19 4. The procedures described under subdivisions a, b, and c of subsection 2 are not 20 required if the contract or other transaction is between related organizations.

21 10-33-47. Immunity of officers, directors, and trustees. Any person who serves as 22 a director, officer, or trustee of a corporation that is, or would qualify as a nonprofit organization
23 that is described in paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 19 of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal 24 Revenue Code of 1954, as amended [26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (10), and (19)], is 25 immune from civil liability for any act or omission resulting in damage or injury if at the time of 26 the act or omission all of the following are met:

- 27 1. The officer, director, or trustee was acting in good faith and in the scope of that 28 person's official duties as a director, officer, or trustee.
29 2. The act or omission did not constitute willful misconduct or gross negligence on the 30 part of the officer, director, or trustee.

- 1 3. The officer, director, or trustee did not receive or expect to receive reimbursement
2 for or payment of expenses in excess of two thousand dollars per year for 3 expenses actually incurred as a result of providing services as a director, officer, or 4 trustee, and did not receive or expect to receive compensation or anything in lieu 5 of compensation as payment for services provided as a director, officer, or trustee.

6 10-33-48. Immunity of volunteers.

- 7 1. Any person who, on a volunteer basis, provides services or performs duties on 8 behalf of a corporation is immune from civil liability for any act or omission resulting 9 in damage or injury if at the time of the act or omission all of the following are met:
10 a. The person who caused the damage or injury was acting in good faith and in 11 the scope of that person's duties as a volunteer for the corporation.
12 b. The act or omission did not constitute willful misconduct or gross negligence.
13 2. This section does not grant immunity to any person causing damage as the result 14 of the negligent operation of a motor vehicle.

15 10-33-49. Officers. The officers of a corporation must be individuals who are eighteen 16 years of age or more, and must include a president, secretary, and treasurer. The officers of 17 the corporation may also include one or more vice presidents and any other officers or agents 18 as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Each officer must be elected by the board at the time and 19 in the manner as may be provided in the bylaws unless the articles or bylaws provide that the 20 members may elect the officers.

21 10-33-50. Duties of officers and agents. Unless the articles, bylaws, or a resolution 22 adopted by the board which is not inconsistent with the articles or bylaws, provides otherwise:

- 23 1. The president shall:
24 a. Have general active management for the business of the corporation;
25 b. When present, preside at all meetings of the board and of members;
26 c. See that all orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect;
27 d. Sign and deliver in the name of the corporation, any deeds, mortgages, 28 bonds, contracts, or other instruments pertaining to the business of the 29 corporation, except in cases in which the authority to sign and deliver is 30 required by law to be exercised by another person or is expressly delegated

- 1 by the articles or bylaws or by the board to some officer or agent of the 2 corporation;
- 3 e. Maintain records of and, whenever necessary, certify all proceedings of the 4 board and the members; and
- 5 f. Perform other duties prescribed by the board.
- 6 2. The vice president, if any, or, if there is more than one, the vice presidents in the 7 order determined by the board, shall:
- 8 a. In the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise 9 the powers of the president; and
- 10 b. Perform any other duties and shall have such other powers as the board may 11 from time to time prescribe.
- 12 3. The treasurer shall:
- 13 a. Keep accurate financial records for the corporation;
- 14 b. Deposit all money, drafts, and checks in the name of and to the credit of the 15 corporation in the banks and depositories designated by the board;
- 16 c. Endorse for deposit all notes, checks, and drafts received by the corporation 17 as ordered by the board, making proper vouchers;
- 18 d. Disburse corporate funds and issue checks and drafts in the name of the 19 corporation, as ordered by the board;
- 20 e. Give to the president and the board, whenever requested, an account of all 21 transactions by the treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation;
22 and
- 23 f. Perform other duties prescribed by the board or by the president.
- 24 4. The secretary shall:
- 25 a. Attend all meetings of the board, all meetings of the members and, when 26 required, all meetings of standing committees;
- 27 b. Record all proceedings of the meetings;
- 28 c. Give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members and 29 meetings of the board; and
- 30 d. Perform other duties prescribed by the board.

5. All other officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, have the authority and shall perform the duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided in the articles or bylaws, or as may be determined by resolution of the board not inconsistent with the articles and bylaws.

10-33-51. Multiple offices. Any number of offices or functions of those offices may be held or exercised by the same individual. If a document must be signed by individuals holding different offices or functions and an individual holds or exercises more than one of those offices or functions, that individual may sign the document in more than one capacity, but only if the document indicates each capacity in which the individual signs.

10-33-52. Officers deemed elected. In the absence of an election or appointment of officers by the board, the individual or individuals exercising the functions of the principal officers of the corporation are deemed to have been elected to those offices.

10-33-53. Contract rights. The election or appointment of an individual as an officer or agent does not, of itself, create contract rights. However, a corporation may enter into a contract with an officer or agent. The resignation or removal of an officer or agent is without prejudice to any contractual rights or obligations. The fact that the contract may be for a term that is longer than the terms of the directors who authorized or approved the contract does not make the contract void or voidable.

10-33-54. Resignation - Removal - Vacancies.

1. An officer may resign by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective date is specified in the notice.

2. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an officer may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a resolution adopted by the board or by the members, whichever elected or appointed the officer. The removal is without prejudice to any contractual rights of the officer.

3. A vacancy in an office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or other cause may, or in the case of a vacancy in the office of president or treasurer must, be filled for the unexpired part of the term in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws, or as determined by the board or under section 10-33-52.

1 10-33-55. Delegation. Unless prohibited by the articles or bylaws or by a resolution
2 adopted by the board, an officer elected or appointed by the board, without the approval of the 3 board, may delegate some or all of the duties and powers of an office to other individuals. An 4 officer who delegates the duties or powers of an office remains subject to the standard of 5 conduct for an officer with respect to the discharge of all duties and powers so delegated.

6 10-33-56. Standard of conduct for officers.

7 1. An officer shall discharge the duties of an office in good faith, in a manner the 8 officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with 9 the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar 10 circumstances. An individual exercising the principal functions of an office or to 11 whom some or all of the duties and powers of an office are delegated pursuant to 12 section 10-33-55 is deemed an officer for purposes of this section and sections
13 10-33-81 and 10-33-84.

14 2. An officer is not considered to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with 15 respect to property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, 16 property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of 17 the property.

18 10-33-57. Members.

19 1. A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no 20 members. In the absence of a provision in its articles or bylaws providing for 21 members, a corporation has no members.
22 a. If a corporation has no members, an action for which there is no specific 23 provision of this chapter applicable to a corporation without members and that 24 would otherwise require approval of the members requires only the approval 25 of the board.

26 b. A reference in this chapter to a corporation that has no members includes a 27 corporation in which the directors are the only members.

28 2. A corporation may admit any person as a member.

29 a. The articles or bylaws may establish criteria or procedures for admission.

30 b. A person may not be admitted as a member without the person's express or 31 implied consent.

(1) For purposes of this subdivision, consent includes acceptance of membership benefits knowing that the benefits are available only to members, or taking some other affirmative action that confers membership benefits.

(2) If the articles or bylaws provide that a person who contributes to the corporation is a member, a contribution is consent.

3. Except as provided in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may admit members for no consideration or for consideration as is determined by the board.

4. Members are of one class unless the articles establish, or authorize the bylaws to establish, more than one class. Members are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences except to the extent that the articles or bylaws have fixed or limited the rights and preferences of members or different classes of members or provide for nonvoting members. The articles or bylaws may fix the term of membership.

10-33-58. Membership certificates. A corporation may issue certificates showing membership in the corporation. In lieu of a membership certificate, a corporation may issue preferred or common shares. Shares may be issued upon the terms and conditions that the board considers appropriate.

10-33-59. Transfer of membership.

1. Except as provided in the articles or bylaws, a member of a corporation may not transfer a membership or a right arising from it.

2. Where transfer rights have been provided, a restriction on them is not binding with respect to a member holding a membership issued before the adoption of the restriction unless the restriction is approved by the members and the affected member.

10-33-60. Liability of members - Third parties - Dues, assessments, or fees.

1. A member of a corporation is not, as such, personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

2. When authority to do so is conferred by the articles or bylaws and subject to any limitations, a corporation may levy dues, assessments, or fees upon its members.

- 1 a. The dues, assessments, or fees may be imposed upon all classes of
- 2 members alike or differently upon different classes of members.
- 3 b. Members of one or more classes may be exempted.
- 4 3. Articles or bylaws may:
- 5 a. Fix the amount of the levy and the method of collection of dues, assessments,
- 6 or fees;
- 7 b. Authorize the directors to fix the amount from time to time and determine the
- 8 methods of collection;
- 9 c. Provide for enforcement or collection of dues, assessments, or fees;
- 10 d. Provide for cancellation of membership, on reasonable notice, for
- 11 nonpayment of dues, assessments, or fees; or
- 12 e. Provide for reinstatement of membership.

13 10-33-61. Resignation. A member may resign at any time. The resignation of a 14 member does not relieve the member from any obligations the member may have to the 15 corporation for dues, assessments, or fees or charges for goods or services.

16 10-33-62. Termination.

- 17 1. A member may not be expelled or suspended, and a membership may not be
- 18 terminated or suspended except pursuant to a procedure that is fair and
- 19 reasonable and is carried out in good faith. This section does not apply to the
- 20 termination of a membership at the end of a fixed term.
- 21 2. A procedure is fair and reasonable when it is fair and reasonable taking into
- 22 consideration all of the relevant facts and circumstances. In addition, a procedure
- 23 is fair and reasonable if it provides:
- 24 a. Not less than fifteen days' prior written notice of the expulsion, suspension, or
- 25 termination, and the reasons for it; and
- 26 b. An opportunity for the member to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than
- 27 five days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or
- 28 termination by a person authorized to decide that the proposed expulsion,
- 29 termination, or suspension not take place.

3. A proceeding challenging an expulsion, suspension, or termination, including a proceeding in which defective notice is alleged, must be commenced within one year after the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.

4. The expulsion, suspension, or termination of a member does not relieve the member from obligations the member may have to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees or charges for goods or services.

10-33-63. Purchase of memberships. If authorized in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may buy the membership of a member who resigns or whose membership is terminated for the amount and pursuant to the conditions in the articles or bylaws.

10-33-64. Delegates. A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for delegates having some or all the authority of members. The articles or bylaws may set forth provisions relating to:

1. The characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of the delegates, including their selection and removal;

2. Calling, noticing, holding, and conducting meetings of delegates; and

3. Carrying on corporate activities during and between meetings of delegates.

10-33-65. Annual meetings of voting members.

1. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a corporation with voting members shall hold at least an annual meeting of voting members.

2. If an annual meeting of voting members has not been held during the preceding fifteen months, at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may demand an annual meeting of members by written notice of demand given to the president or the secretary of the corporation. Within thirty days after receipt of the demand, the board shall cause a meeting of members to be called and held at the expense of the corporation on notice no later than ninety days after receipt of the demand. If the board fails to cause a meeting to be called and held as required by this subsection, the members with voting rights making the demand may call the meeting at the expense of the corporation by giving notice as required by section 10-33-68.

3. An annual meeting of members must be held at the time and place stated in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. If a place is not stated or if a demand for a meeting is made under subsection 2, the meeting must be held in the county where the principal executive office of the corporation is located.

4. At an annual meeting of members:

- a. There must be an election of successors for directors elected by members and whose terms have expired or whose terms expire at an annual meeting;
- b. There must be a report on the activities and financial condition of the corporation; and
- c. The members shall consider and act upon other matters as may be raised consistent with the notice of meeting requirements.

5. The failure to hold a meeting in accordance with the articles or bylaws does not affect the validity of a corporate action.

10-33-66. Special meetings of voting members.

1. A corporation with voting members shall hold a special meeting of members:

- a. On call of its board or persons authorized to do so by the articles or bylaws; or
- b. If at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, sign, date, and deliver to the president or the secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose for which it is to be held.

2. Within thirty days after receipt of a demand for a special meeting from voting members, the board shall cause a special meeting to be called and held on notice no later than ninety days after receipt of the demand. If the board fails to cause a special meeting to be called and held as required by this subsection, a voting member making the demand may call the meeting by giving notice pursuant to section 10-33-68. All necessary expenses of the notice and meeting shall be paid by the corporation.

3. Special meetings of members may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the articles, bylaws, or by the president or the board. If a special meeting is demanded by the members, the meeting must be held in the county where the principal executive office of the corporation is located.

- 1 4. The notice of a special meeting must contain a statement of the purposes of the 2 meeting and may contain other information required by the articles or bylaws or 3 considered necessary or desirable by the board or by another person calling the 4 meeting.
- 5 a. The business transacted at a special meeting is limited to the purposes stated 6 within the notice of the meeting.
- 7 b. Business transacted at a special meeting that is not included in those stated 8 purposes is voidable by or on behalf of the corporation, unless all of the 9 members with voting rights have waived notice of the meeting pursuant to 10 section 10-33-68.

11 10-33-67. Court-ordered meeting of voting members.

- 12 1. The district court of the county where the principal executive office of a corporation 13 is located may order a meeting to be held:
- 14 a. If a meeting was not held within the earlier of six months after the fiscal 15 yearend of the corporation or fifteen months after its last meeting:
- 16 (1) On application of at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent 17 of the members with voting rights, whichever is less; or
- 18 (2) On application of another person entitled to participate in the annual 19 meeting; or
- 20 b. On application of a voting member who signed a demand for a special 21 meeting valid under section 10-33-66 or a person entitled to call a special 22 meeting if:
- 23 (1) Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty days after the 24 date the demand was delivered to a corporate officer; or
- 25 (2) The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.
- 26 2. The court may:
- 27 a. Fix the time and place of the meeting;
- 28 b. Specify a record date for determining members entitled to notice of and to 29 vote at the meeting;
- 30 c. Prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice;

d. Fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting, or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters; and

e. Enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purposes of the meeting.

3. If the court orders a meeting, it may also order the corporation to pay the costs of the member, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred to obtain the order.

10-33-68. Notice.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, notice of meetings of members must be given to every voting member as of the record date determined under section 10-33-69 unless:

a. The meeting is an adjourned meeting and the date, time, and place of the meeting were announced at the time of adjournment, notice is not required unless a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 10-33-69; or

b. Two consecutive annual meeting notices and notices of any special meetings held during the period between the two annual meetings have been mailed to the member by first-class mail and returned undeliverable.

2. An action or meeting that is taken or held without notice under subdivision b of subsection 1 has the same force and effect as if notice was given. If the member delivers a written notice of the member's current address to the corporation, the notice requirement is reinstated.

3. If notice of an adjourned meeting is required under subdivision a of subsection 1, the date for determination of members entitled to notice and entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting must comply with subsection 1 of section 10-33-69, except that if the date of the meeting is set by court order, the court may provide the original date of determination will continue in effect or fix a new date.

4. The notice:

a. In all cases where a specific minimum notice period has not been fixed by law, must be given at least five days before the date of the meeting, or a shorter time provided in the articles or bylaws, and not more than fifty days before the date of the meeting;

- b. Must contain the date, time, and place of the meeting;
- c. Must inform members if proxies are permitted at the meeting and, if so, state the procedure for appointing proxies;
- d. Must contain a statement of the purpose of the meeting, in the case of a special meeting;
- e. Must contain any other information required by the articles or bylaws, this chapter, or considered necessary or desirable by the board; and
- f. May contain any other information considered necessary or desirable by the person calling the meeting.

5. A member may waive notice of a meeting of members.

- a. A waiver of notice by a member entitled to notice is effective:
 - (1) Whether given before, at, or after the meeting; and
 - (2) Whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance.
- b. Attendance by a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, unless the member:
 - (1) Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened; or
 - (2) Objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at that meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

10-33-69. Record date - Determining members entitled to notice and vote.

- 1. The board may fix a date not more than fifty days, or a shorter time period provided in the articles or bylaws, before the date of a meeting of members as the date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting. When a date is fixed, only members with voting rights on that date are entitled to notice of and permitted to vote at that meeting of members.
- 2. A determination of members entitled to notice and to vote at a membership meeting is effective for an adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new date for determining the right to notice and to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than fifty days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.

- 1 3. If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty 2 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, the court may provide that the 3 original record date for notice and voting continues in effect or the court may fix a 4 new record date for notice and voting.

5 10-33-70. Members' list for meeting.

- 6 1. After fixing a record date for notice of and voting at a meeting, a corporation shall 7 prepare an alphabetical list of the names of its members who are entitled to notice
8 and to vote. The list must show the address and number of votes each member is 9 entitled to vote at the meeting.
- 10 2. The list of members must be available for inspection by a member with voting 11 rights for the purpose of communication with other members concerning the 12 meeting, beginning two business days after the meeting notice is given and 13 continuing through the meeting, at the principal executive office of the corporation 14 or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the 15 meeting will be held.
- 16 a. The list also must be available at the meeting.
- 17 b. A member, a member's agent, or attorney is entitled on written demand to 18 inspect and to copy the list, at a reasonable time and at the member's 19 expense, during the period it is available for inspection and at any time during 20 the meeting or an adjournment.
- 21 3. If the corporation refuses to allow a member with voting rights, the member's 22 agent, or attorney to inspect the list of members before or at the meeting, the 23 district court of the county where the principal executive office of the corporation is 24 located, on application of the member, may:
- 25 a. Order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense;
- 26 b. Postpone the meeting until the inspection or copying is complete; or
- 27 c. Order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable 28 attorneys' fees, incurred to obtain the order.
- 29 4. Unless a written demand to inspect and copy a membership list has been made 30 under subsection 2 before the membership meeting and a corporation improperly refuses to comply with the demand, refusal or failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

5. A member, agent, or attorney who gains access to a membership list under this section may not use or give to another for use the membership list for any purpose other than a proper purpose. Upon application of the corporation, the district court may issue a protective order or order other relief necessary to enforce this subsection.

10-33-71. Right to vote. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, each member with voting rights is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on by the members. If a membership stands of record in the names of two or more persons, their acts with respect to voting have the following effect:

1. If only one votes, the act binds all.
2. If more than one votes, the vote must be divided on a pro rata basis.

10-33-72. Act of the members.

1. Unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class, the members shall take action by the affirmative vote of the greater of:
 - a. A majority of the members with voting rights present and entitled to vote on that item of business; or
 - b. A majority of the voting power of the minimum number of members with voting rights that would constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting.

If the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion or number than is required by this chapter for a particular action, the articles or bylaws control.

2. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, members may take action at a meeting:
 - a. By voice or ballot.
 - b. By action without a meeting pursuant to section 10-33-73.
 - c. By written ballot pursuant to section 10-33-74.
 - d. By electronic communication pursuant to section 10-33-75.

1 10-33-73. Action without a meeting. An action required or permitted to be taken at a
2 meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting by written action signed by all of the 3 members entitled to vote on that action.

4 1. If the articles so provide, any action may be taken by written action signed by the 5 members who hold voting power equal to the voting power that would be required
6 to take the same action at a meeting of the members at which all members were 7 present.

8 2. The written action is effective when signed by the required members, unless a 9 different effective time is provided in the written action.

10 3. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all members, all 11 members must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to 12 provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A member who does not 13 sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken 14 by the written action.

15 4. When this chapter requires or permits a certificate concerning an action to be filed 16 with the secretary of state, the certificate must indicate that the action was taken 17 under this section.

18 10-33-74. Action by written ballot.

19 1. Except as provided in subsection 5 and unless prohibited or limited by the articles
20 or bylaws, an action that may be taken at a regular or special meeting of members
21 may be taken without a meeting if the corporation mails or delivers a written ballot
22 to every member entitled to vote on the matter.

23 2. A written ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to 24 vote for or against each proposed action.

25 3. Approval by written ballot under this section is valid only if:

26 a. The number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to 27 be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and 28 b. The number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would 29 be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of 30 votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

31 4. Solicitations for votes by written ballot must:

- a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;
- b. State the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors; and
- c. Specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

5. Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

10-33-75. Electronic communications.

1. A conference among the members by any means of communication through which the participants may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a regular or special meeting of the members:

- a. If the same notice is given of the conference as would be required for a meeting; and
- b. If the number of members participating in the conference would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting.

Participation in a conference by this means constitutes presence at the meeting in person or by proxy if all the other requirements of section 10-33-77 are met.

2. A member may participate in a regular or special meeting of members not described in subsection 1 by any means of communication through which the member, other participants, and all persons physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence at the meeting in person or by proxy if all the other requirements of section 10-33-77 are met.

3. Waiver of notice of a meeting by means of communication described in subsections 1 and 2 may be given in the manner provided in subsection 5 of section 10-33-68. Participation in a meeting by means of communications described in subsections 1 and 2 is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member:

- a. Objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened; or

b. Objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at the meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

10-33-76. Quorum.

1. Unless otherwise provided by the articles or bylaws, a quorum for a meeting of members is ten percent of the members entitled to vote at the meeting.

2. Except as provided in subdivision b, a quorum is necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of members.

a. If a quorum is not present, a meeting may be adjourned from time to time for that reason.

b. If a quorum has been present at a meeting and members have withdrawn from the meeting so that less than a quorum remains, the members still present may continue to transact business until adjournment.

10-33-77. Proxies.

1. If the articles or bylaws permit proxy voting, a member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointment form either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.

2. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment. However, a proxy is not valid for more than three years from its date of execution.

3. An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member. Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy by attending a meeting and voting in person, or signing and delivering to the officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked, or a later appointment. Revocation in either manner revokes all prior proxy appointments and is effective when filed with an officer of the corporation.

4. The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the authority of the proxy unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by an officer authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

1 5. Subject to section 10-33-78 and an express limitation on the authority of the proxy
2 appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept 3 the vote or other action of the proxy as that of the member making the 4 appointment.

5 6. The vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge, but the proxy is 6 liable to the member for damages resulting from a failure to exercise the proxy or 7 from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the authority granted in the 8 appointment.

9 7. Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are 10 appointed as proxies for a member, any one of them may vote on each item of 11 business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the appointment, but 12 if no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to voting
13 on a particular item of business, a majority of the proxies have the authority
14 conferred by the instrument. If the proxies are equally divided, they share the vote 15 equally.

16 10-33-78. Corporation's acceptance of member's act.

17 1. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds 18 to the record name of a member, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept 19 the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the 20 member.

21 2. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, 22 consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of 23 a member, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent 24 waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:

25 a. The member is an organization and the name signed purports to be that of an 26 officer, manager, or agent of the organization;

27 b. The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or 28 conservator representing the member and, if the corporation requests, 29 evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented 30 with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

c. The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the member, and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

d. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the member and if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

e. Two or more persons hold the membership as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders.

3. The corporation may reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the member.

4. The corporation or its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section is not liable in damages to the member for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

5. Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

10-33-79. Voting agreements.

1. To the extent permitted in the articles or bylaws, two or more members may provide for how they will vote by signing an agreement for that purpose. An agreement may be valid for a period of up to ten years. The agreement must have a reasonable purpose consistent with the purposes of the corporation.

2. A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

3. A voting agreement is not effective until it is filed with the corporation.

10-33-80. Books and records - Financial statement.

- 1 1. A corporation shall keep at its principal executive office correct and complete 2 copies of its articles and bylaws, accounting records, voting agreements, and 3 minutes of meetings of members, board of directors, and committees having any of 4 the authority of the board of directors for the last six years.
- 5 2. A member or a director, or the agent or attorney of a member or a director, may 6 inspect all documents referred to in subsection 1 or 3 for any proper purpose at 7 any reasonable time. A proper purpose is one reasonably related to the interest of 8 the person as a member or director of the corporation.
- 9 3. Upon request, a corporation shall give the member or the director a statement 10 showing the financial result of all operations and transactions affecting income and 11 surplus during its last annual accounting period and a balance sheet containing a 12 summary of its assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the accounting period.
- 13 4. A member of director who has gained access under this section to any corporate 14 record may not use or furnish to another for use the corporate record or a portion 15 of the contents for any purpose other than a proper purpose. Upon application of 16 the corporation, a court may issue a protective order or order other relief as may 17 be necessary to enforce the provisions of this subdivision.
- 18 5. The corporation may charge the requesting party a reasonable fee to cover the 19 expenses of providing copies of documents under this section.
- 20 6. The records maintained by a corporation may use any information storage
21 technique, even though the technique makes them illegible visually, if the records
22 can be converted accurately and within a reasonable time into a form that is legible
23 visually and whose contents are assembled by related subject matter to permit 24 convenient use by people in the normal course of business. A corporation shall 25 convert any of the records referred to in subsection 1 or 3 upon the request of a 26 person entitled to inspect them with the expense of the conversion being borne by 27 the person who bears the expense of copying under subsection 5. A copy of the 28 conversion is admissible in evidence, and must be accepted for all other purposes, 29 to the same extent as the existing or original records would be if they were legible
30 visually.

7. A member or a director who is wrongfully denied access to or copies of documents under this section may bring an action for injunctive relief, damages, and costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

10-33-81. Equitable remedies. If a corporation or an officer or director of the corporation violates this chapter, a court in this state, in an action brought by at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, or by the attorney general, may grant equitable relief it considers just and reasonable in the circumstances and award expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, to the members.

10-33-82. Loans - Guarantees - Suretyship.

1. A corporation may lend money to, guarantee or pledge its assets as security for an obligation of, become a surety for, or otherwise financially assist a person, if the transaction, or a class of transactions to which the transaction belongs, is approved by the board and:

a. Is in the usual and regular course of activities of the corporation;

b. Is with, or for the benefit of:

(1) A related organization;

(2) An organization in which the corporation has a financial interest;

(3) A person or organization with whom the corporation has a relationship in the usual and regular course of its activities; or

(4) An organization to which the corporation has the power to make donations;

c. Is with, or for the benefit of, an officer, director, or employee of the corporation or a related organization, and is authorized under subsection 2; or

d. Subject to subsection 2, has been approved by:

(1) Two-thirds of the members with voting rights; or

(2) If there is no member with voting rights, by two-thirds of the board.

2. A corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director, officer, or employee of the corporation or a related organization, or of the spouse, parents, children and spouses of children, brothers and sisters or spouses of brothers and sisters of the director, officer, or employee.

a. If a loan or guarantee is made in violation of this section, the borrower's liability on the loan is not affected.

b. The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the making of a loan to a director or officer of the corporation, or who vote for or assent to the guarantee of the obligation of a director or officer of the corporation, and any officer participating in the making of such loan or guarantee shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of the loan until its repayment.

c. This subsection does not prohibit an advance of money for expenses authorized by section 10-33-83.

3. A loan, guaranty, surety contract, or other financial assistance under subsection 1 or 2 may be with or without interest and may be unsecured or secured.

4. This section does not grant authority to act as a bank or to carry on the business of banking.

10-33-83. Advances. A corporation, without a vote of the directors or its members, may advance money to its directors, officers, employees, or agents to cover expenses that can reasonably be anticipated to be incurred by them in the performance of their duties and for which they would be entitled to reimbursement in the absence of an advance.

10-33-84. Indemnification.

1. For purposes of this section:

a. "Corporation" includes a domestic or foreign corporation that was the predecessor of the corporation referred to in this section in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

b. "Official capacity" means:

(1) With respect to a director, the position of director in a corporation;

(2) With respect to a person other than a director, the elective or appointive office or position held by an officer, member of a committee of the board, or the employment relationship undertaken by an employee of the corporation; and

(3) With respect to a director, officer, or employee of the corporation who, while a director, officer, or employee of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation or whose duties in that position involve or involved service as a director, governor, officer, manager, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a director, governor, officer, manager, partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the case may be, of the other organization or employee benefit plan.

c. "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation.

d. "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not represented the corporation or a related organization, or a director, officer, member of a committee of the board, or employee whose indemnification is in issue.

2. Subject to subsection 5, a corporation shall indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the former or present official capacity of the person against judgments, penalties, fines including excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding, the person:

a. Has not been indemnified by another organization or employee benefit plan for the same judgments, penalties, fines including excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding with respect to the same acts or omissions;

b. Acted in good faith;

c. Received no improper personal benefit and section 10-33-45, if applicable, has been satisfied;

d. In the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful; and

e. In the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in paragraph 1 or 2 of subdivision b of subsection 1, reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the corporation, or in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in paragraph 3 of subdivision b of subsection 1, reasonably believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. If the person's acts or omissions complained of in the proceeding relate to conduct as a director, governor, officer, manager, trustee, employee, or agent of an employee benefit plan, the conduct is not considered to be opposed to the best interests of the corporation if the person reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.

3. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that the person did not meet the criteria set forth in subsection 2.

4. Subject to subsection 5, if a person is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, the person is entitled, upon written request to the corporation, to payment or reimbursement by the corporation of reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding:

a. Upon receipt by the corporation of a written affirmation by the person of a good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification set forth in subsection 2 have been satisfied and a written undertaking by the person to repay all amounts so paid or reimbursed by the corporation, if it is ultimately determined that the criteria for indemnification have not been satisfied; and

b. After a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section.

1 The written undertaking required by subdivision a is an unlimited general obligation
2 of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without 3 reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

4 5. The articles or bylaws either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses
5 otherwise required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or 6 advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subsections 2, 3, 7 and 4 including monetary limits on indemnification or advances for expenses, if the 8 conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class. A 9 prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances may not apply to or affect the 10 right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to any 11 acts or omissions of the person occurring prior to the effective date of a provision 12 in the articles or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the 13 prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.

14 6. This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a corporation to reimburse 15 expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by a person in 16 connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the 17 person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.

18 7. All determinations whether indemnification of a person is required because the 19 criteria provided in subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is 20 entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final 21 disposition of a proceeding as provided in subsection 4 must be made:

22 a. By the board by a majority of a quorum, if the directors who are at the time 23 parties to the proceeding are not counted for determining either a majority or 24 the presence of a quorum;

25 b. If a quorum under subdivision a cannot be obtained by a majority of a 26 committee of the board, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the 27 time parties to the proceeding, duly designated to act in the matter by a 28 majority of the full board including directors who are parties;

29 c. If a determination is not made under subdivision a or b, by special legal 30 counsel, selected either by a majority of the board or a committee by vote
31 pursuant to subdivision a or b or, if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained and the committee cannot be established, by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;

d. If a determination is not made under subdivisions a, b, and c, by the members with voting rights, other than members who are a party to the proceeding; or

e. If an adverse determination is made under subdivisions a through d, or under subsection 8, or if no determination is made under subdivisions a through d, or under subsection 8, within sixty days after:

(1) The later to occur of the termination of a proceeding or a written request for indemnification to the corporation; or

(2) A request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the proceeding involving the person's liability took place, upon application of the person and any notice the court requires.

The person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to this subdivision has the burden of establishing that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses.

8. 4. The distribution of assets held for or devoted to a charitable or public use or purpose is subject to section 59-02-22.

10-33-106. Supervised voluntary dissolution. After the notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state and before a certificate of dissolution has been issued, the corporation, the attorney general, or, for good cause, a creditor or at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may apply to a court within the county in which the principal executive office of the corporation is located to have the dissolution conducted or continued under the supervision of the court under sections 10-33-107 through 10-33-113.

10-33-107. Involuntary dissolution.

1. A court may grant equitable relief it considers just and reasonable in the circumstances or may dissolve a corporation and liquidate its assets and business:

a. In a supervised voluntary dissolution under section 10-33-106.

b. In an action by a director or at least fifty members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, when it is established that:

(1) The directors or the persons having the authority otherwise vested in the board are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the members cannot break the deadlock, and the corporation or the parties have not provided for a procedure to resolve the dispute;

(2) The directors or those in control of the corporation have acted fraudulently, illegally, or in a manner unfairly prejudicial toward one or more members in their capacities as members, directors, or officers;

(3) The members of the corporation are so divided in voting power that, for a period that includes the time when two consecutive regular meetings were held, they have failed to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon the election and qualification of their successors;

(4) The corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(5) The period of duration as provided in the articles has expired and has not been extended as provided in section 10-33-118.

c. In an action by a creditor when:

(1) The claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution on it has been returned unsatisfied; or

(2) The corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing and it is established that the corporation cannot pay its debts in the ordinary course of its activities.

d. In an action by the attorney general when it is established that:

(1) The articles and certificate of incorporation were obtained through fraud;

(2) The corporation should not have been formed under this chapter;

(3) The corporation failed to comply with the requirements of sections 10-33-02 through 10-33-19 essential to incorporation under or election to become governed by this chapter;

(4) The corporation has flagrantly violated a provision of this chapter, has violated a provision of this chapter more than once, or has violated more than one provision of this chapter;

(7) The corporation has liabilities and obligations exceeding the corporate assets;

- 1 (8) The period of corporate existence has ended without extension;
- 2 (9) The corporation has failed for a period of ninety days to pay fees,
- 3 charges, or penalties required by this chapter;
- 4 (10) The corporation has failed for a period of thirty days:
- 5 (a) To appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state; or
- 6 (b) After changing its registered office to file with the secretary of
- 7 state a statement of the change;
- 8 (11) The corporation has answered falsely or failed to answer a reasonable
- 9 written interrogatory from the secretary of state or the attorney general
- 10 to the corporation, its officers, or directors;
- 11 (12) The corporation has solicited property and has failed to use it for the
- 12 purpose solicited; or
- 13 (13) The corporation has fraudulently used or solicited property.
- 14 e. An action may not be commenced under subdivision d until thirty days after
- 15 notice to the corporation by the attorney general of the reason for the filing of
- 16 the action. If the reason for filing the action is an act that the corporation has
- 17 done, or omitted to do, and the act or omission may be corrected by an
- 18 amendment of the articles or bylaws or by performance of or abstention from
- 19 the act, the attorney general shall give the corporation thirty additional days in
- 20 which to effect the correction before filing the action.
- 21 2. In determining whether to order equitable relief or dissolution under this section,
- 22 the court shall consider the financial condition of the corporation but may not
- 23 refuse to order equitable relief or dissolution solely on the ground that the
- 24 corporation is solvent.
- 25 3. In deciding whether to order dissolution, the court shall consider whether lesser
- 26 relief suggested by one or more parties, such as any form of equitable relief or a
- 27 partial liquidation, would be adequate to permanently relieve the circumstances
- 28 established under subdivision b, c, or d of subsection 1. Lesser relief may be
- 29 ordered if it would be appropriate under the facts and circumstances of the case.

1 4. If the court finds that a party to a proceeding brought under this section has acted
2 arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may award reasonable
3 expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, to any of the other parties.

4 5. Proceedings under this section must be brought in a court within the county in 5 which the principal executive office of the corporation is located. It is not 6 necessary to make members parties to the action or proceeding unless relief is 7 sought against them personally.

8 10-33-108. Procedure in involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution.

9 1. In dissolution proceedings the court may issue injunctions, appoint receivers with 10 all powers and duties the court directs, take other actions required to preserve the 11 corporate assets wherever situated, and carry on the business of the corporation 12 until a full hearing can be held.

13 2. When a proceeding involving a corporation described in subsection 1 of section 14 10-33-122 is begun, the court shall order that a copy of the petition be served on 15 the attorney general. In all proceedings under this section, the attorney general 16 has a right to participate as a party.

17 3. After a full hearing has been held, upon whatever notice the court directs to be 18 given to all parties to the proceedings and to any other parties in interest
19 designated by the court, the court may appoint a receiver to collect the corporate 20 assets. A receiver has authority, subject to the order of the court, to continue the 21 business of the corporation and to sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all
22 or any of the property and assets of the corporation either at public or private sale.

23 4. The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, lease, transfer,
24 or other disposition must be applied in the following order of priority to the payment 25 and discharge of:

26 a. The costs and expenses of the proceedings, including attorneys' fees and 27 disbursements;

28 b. Debts, taxes, and assessments due the United States, this state and its 29 subdivisions, and other states and their subdivisions, in that order;

30 c. Claims duly proved and allowed to employees under title 65. Claims under 31 this subdivision may not be allowed if the corporation carried workers' compensation insurance, as provided by law, at the time the injury was sustained;

d. Claims, including the value of all compensation paid in any medium other than money, duly proved and allowed to employees for services performed within three months preceding the appointment of the receiver, if any; and

e. Other claims duly proved and allowed.

5. After payment of the expenses of receivership and claims of creditors duly proved, the remaining assets, if any, must be distributed in accordance with section 10-33-105.

10-33-109. Qualifications of receivers - Powers.

1. A receiver must be an individual or organization authorized to transact business or conduct activities in this state. A receiver shall give bond as directed by the court with the sureties required by the court.

2. A receiver may sue and defend in all courts as receiver of the corporation. The court appointing the receiver has exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and its property.

10-33-110. Filing claims in proceedings to dissolve.

1. In proceedings referred to in section 10-33-107 to dissolve a corporation, the court may require all creditors and claimants of the corporation to file their claims under oath with the clerk of court or with the receiver in a form prescribed by the court.

2. If the court requires the filing of claims, it shall fix a date, which may not be less than one hundred twenty days from the date of the order, as the last day for the filing of claims, and shall prescribe the notice of the fixed date that must be given to creditors and claimants. Before the fixed date, the court may extend the time for filing claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file claims on or before the fixed date may be barred, by order of court, from claiming an interest in or receiving payment out of the property or assets of the corporation.

10-33-111. Discontinuance of dissolution proceedings. The involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution of a corporation must be discontinued at any time during the dissolution proceedings when it is established that cause for dissolution no longer exists.

1 When this is established, the court shall dismiss the proceedings and direct the receiver, if any,
2 to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining property and assets.

3 10-33-112. Decree of dissolution.

4 1. In an involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution, the court shall provide for the 5 discharge of obligations and the distribution of the assets as set forth in 6 subsection 4 of section 10-33-108, and shall enter a decree dissolving the 7 corporation.

8 2. When the decree dissolving the corporation has been entered, the corporation is 9 dissolved.

10 10-33-113. Filing decree. After the court enters a decree dissolving a corporation, the 11 clerk of court shall cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the secretary of state.
12 The secretary of state may not charge a fee for filing the decree.

13 10-33-114. Deposit with administrator of abandoned property of amount due
14 certain persons - Appropriation. Upon dissolution of a corporation, the portion of the assets 15 distributable to a person who is unknown or cannot be found must be reduced to money and 16 deposited with the administrator of abandoned property for disposition pursuant to chapter 17 47-30.1. The amount deposited is appropriated to the administrator of abandoned property and 18 must be paid over to the person or a legal representative, upon proof satisfactory to the 19 administrator of abandoned property of a right to payment.

20 10-33-115. Claims barred - Exceptions.

21 1. A person who is or becomes a creditor or claimant at any time before, during, or 22 following the conclusion of dissolution proceedings, who does not file a claim or 23 pursue a remedy in a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding within the time 24 provided in section 10-33-101, 10-33-102, 10-33-106, 10-33-107, or 10-33-110, or 25 has not begun a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding before the 26 beginning of the dissolution proceedings, and a person claiming through or under 27 the creditor or claimant, is barred from suing on that claim or otherwise realizing 28 upon or enforcing it, except as provided in this section.

29 2. At any time within one year after articles of dissolution have been filed with the 30 secretary of state under subsection 4 of section 10-33-101 or subsection 1 of 31 section 10-33-102 or a decree of dissolution has been entered, a creditor or

1 claimant who shows good cause for not having previously filed the claim may 2 apply to a court in this state to allow a claim against the corporation to the extent of 3 undistributed assets.

- 4 3. All known contractual debts, obligations, and liabilities incurred during dissolution
5 proceedings must be paid by the corporation before the distribution of assets
6 under section 10-33-105. A person to whom this kind of debt, obligation, or liability
7 is owed but not paid may pursue any remedy against the officers or directors of the 8 corporation before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. This 9 subsection does not apply to dissolution under the supervision or order of a court.

10 10-33-116. Right to sue or defend after dissolution. After a corporation has been 11 dissolved, any of its former officers, directors, or members with voting rights may assert or 12 defend, in the name of the corporation, any claim by or against the corporation.

13 10-33-117. Omitted assets. Title to assets remaining after payment of all debts, 14 obligations, or liabilities and after all distributions pursuant to section 10-33-105 may be 15 transferred by a court in this state.

16 10-33-118. Extension after duration expired.

- 17 1. A corporation whose period of duration as provided in the articles has expired and 18 which has continued to operate despite that expiration may reinstate its articles
19 and extend the period of corporate duration, including making the duration 20 perpetual, within one year after the date of expiration by filing an amendment to 21 the articles as set forth in this section.
- 22 2. An amendment to the articles must be approved by the board and must include:
- 23 a. The date on which the period of duration expired under the articles;
- 24 b. A statement that the period of duration will be perpetual or, if some shorter 25 period is to be provided, the date to which the period of duration is extended;
- 26 c. A statement that the corporation has been in continuous operation since 27 before the date of expiration of its original period of duration; and
- 28 d. A name change if the name of the corporation has been adopted for use or 29 reserved by another person.
- 30 3. If the corporation has a member with voting rights, the amendment to the articles 31 must be presented, after notice, to a meeting of the members with voting rights.

1 The amendment is adopted when approved by the members with voting rights
2 pursuant to section 10-33-15.

- 3 4. Articles of amendment, together with any fees and delinquent filings and reports, 4 conforming to section 10-33-16 must be filed with the secretary of state.

5 10-33-119. Effect of extension. Filing with the secretary of state of articles of 6 amendment extending the period of duration of a corporation:

- 7 1. Relates back to the date of expiration of the original period of duration of the 8 corporation as provided in the articles;
9 2. Validates contracts or other acts within the authority of the articles, and the 10 corporation is liable for those contracts or acts; and 11 3. Restores to the corporation all the assets and rights of the corporation to the extent 12 they were held by the corporation before expiration of its original period of 13 duration, except those sold or otherwise distributed after that time.

14 10-33-120. Service of process on corporation and nonresident directors.

- 15 1. The registered agent must be an agent of the corporation and any nonresident
16 director upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law
17 to be served on the corporation or director may be served. Acceptance of a 18 directorship includes the appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for 19 personal service of legal process, notice, or demand.
20 2. A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a 21 corporation may be served either upon the registered agent of the corporation, or 22 upon an officer of the corporation, or upon the secretary of state as provided in this 23 section.
24 3. If neither the corporation's registered agent nor an officer of the corporation can be 25 found at the registered office, or if a corporation fails to maintain a registered agent
26 in this state and an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered 27 office, then the secretary of state is the agent of the corporation upon whom the 28 process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of the sheriff, or the 29 affidavit of a person who is not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be 30 found at the registered office must be provided to the secretary of state. Service
31 on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal

1 service upon the corporation and must be made by filing with the secretary of state
2 an original and two copies of the process, notice, or demand, along with the fees
3 provided in section 10-33-140. The secretary of state shall immediately forward, 4 by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of 5 the process, notice, or demand. Service on the secretary of state is returnable in 6 not less than thirty days notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process,
7 notice, or demand.

8 4. Process, notice, or demand may be served on a dissolved corporation as provided
9 in this subsection. The court shall determine if service is proper. If a corporation
10 has voluntarily dissolved or a court has entered a decree of dissolution, service
11 may be made according to subsection 2 as long as claims are not finally barred 12 under section 10-33-115. If a corporation has been involuntarily dissolved 13 pursuant to section 10-33-139, service may be made according to subsection 2.

14 5. A record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon the secretary of 15 state under this section, including the date of service and the action taken with 16 reference to it, must be maintained in the office of the secretary of state.

17 6. Nothing in this section limits the right to serve any process, notice, or demand
18 required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner
19 permitted by law.

20 10-33-121. State interested - Proceedings. If it appears at any stage of a proceeding
21 in a court in this state that the state is, or is likely to be, interested therein, or that it is a matter
22 of general public interest, the court shall order that a copy of the complaint or petition be served 23 upon the attorney general in the same manner prescribed for serving a summons in a civil 24 action. The attorney general shall intervene in a proceeding when the attorney general 25 determines that the public interest requires it, whether or not the attorney general has been 26 served.

27 10-33-122. Attorney general - Notice to - Waiting period.

28 1. Except as provided in subsection 7, the following corporations shall notify the 29 attorney general of their intent to dissolve, merge, or consolidate, or to transfer all 30 or substantially all of their assets:

31 a. A corporation that holds assets for a charitable purpose.

b. A corporation that is exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

f. Anticipated expenses of the transaction, including attorneys' fees;

g. A list of persons to whom assets will be transferred, if known;

h. The purposes of persons receiving the assets; and

i. The terms, conditions, or restrictions, if any, to be imposed on the transferred assets.

3. Subject to subsection 4, a corporation described in subsection 1 may not transfer or convey assets as part of a dissolution, merger, or consolidation, or transfer of assets under section 10-33-94 until forty-five days after it has given written notice to the attorney general, unless the attorney general waives all or part of the waiting period.

4. The attorney general may extend the waiting period under subsection 3 for one additional thirty-day period by notifying the corporation in writing of the extension. The attorney general shall notify the secretary of state if the waiting period is extended.

5. When all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation described in subsection 1 have been transferred or conveyed following expiration or waiver of the waiting period, the board shall deliver to the attorney general a list of persons to whom the assets were transferred or conveyed. The list must include the addresses of each person who received assets and show what assets the person received.

6. Failure of the attorney general to take an action with respect to a transaction under this section does not constitute approval of the transaction and does not prevent the attorney general from taking other action.

7. Subsections 1 through 5 do not apply to a merger with, consolidation into, or transfer of assets to an organization exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor section. A corporation that is exempt under this subsection shall send a copy of the certificate of merger or certificate of consolidation and incorporation to the attorney general.

10-33-123. Powers of attorney general.

1. When it appears to the attorney general it is in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a proceeding by the attorney general, as provided in this chapter, should be commenced, the attorney general may:

b. Examine any record, book, document, account, or paper as the attorney general determines necessary.

2. To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this chapter, the attorney general may issue subpoenas to any person.

3. If any person fails or refuses to file any statement or report, or obey any subpoena, the attorney general may apply to the district court for an order enforcing the subpoena or other investigation demand. Failure to comply with the order of the district court is contempt of court.

21 affairs of a foreign corporation.
22 2. A foreign corporation may not be denied a certificate of authority to conduct
23 activities in this state by reason of any difference between those laws and the laws
24 of this state.
25 3. A foreign corporation holding a valid certificate of authority in this state has no
26 greater rights and privileges than a corporation. The certificate of authority does 27 not authorize the foreign corporation to exercise any of its powers or purposes that 28 a corporation is forbidden by law to exercise in this state.

29 10-33-126. Foreign corporation - Name. A foreign corporation may apply for a 30 certificate of authority under any name that would be available to a corporation, whether or not

- 12 1. An applicant for the certificate shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of 13 status from the filing office in the jurisdiction in which the foreign corporation is

1. Endorse on the application the word "filed" and the date of the filing;

2. File the application, the certificate of good standing or certificate of existence, and the consent of the registered agent; and
