8	the date of nonrenewal the person pays to the secretary of the board the amount of the annual
9	license fee	in default and a late fee to be determined by rule of the board.
10	SEC	CTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 43-47-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is
11	amended and reenacted as follows:
12	43-4	17-08. Complaints - Investigations.
13	1.	A person aggrieved by the actions of a counselor licensed under this chapter may
14		file a written complaint with the board citing the specific allegations of misconduct
15		by the counselor. The board shall notify the counselor of the complaint and require
16		a written response from the counselor. Neither the initial complaint nor the
17		counselor's response is public record. The counselor's response must be made
18		available to the complainant.
19	2.	A counselor who is the subject of an investigation by the board shall cooperate
20		fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding fully and promptly to
21		any reasonable question raised by or on behalf of the board relating to the subject
22		of the investigation, and providing copies of patient records when reasonably
23		requested by the board and accompanied by the appropriate release.
24	3.	In order to pursue the investigation, the board may subpoena and examine
25		witnesses and records, including patient records, and copy, photograph, or take
26		samples. It may require the counselor to give statements under oath, submit to a
27		physical or psychological examination, or both, by a physician or physicians or
28		other qualified evaluation professionals selected by the board if it appears to be in
29		the best interest of the public that this evaluation be secured. A written request
30		from the board constitutes authorization to release information. Patient records
31		that are released to the board are not public records.

1	4.	After review of the complaint and, the counselor's response, and information
2		obtained in the investigation, the board shall determine if there is a reasonable
3		basis to believe that the allegations are true and that the allegations constitute a
4		violation of this chapter or the rules of the board. If the board determines that
5		there is a reasonable basis to believe that the allegations are true and that the
6		allegations constitute a violation of this chapter or the rules of the board, the board
7		shall take appropriate action. If a reasonable basis is not found by the board, the
8		board shall so notify the complaining party and the counselor in writing.
9	5.	Unless there is a patient release on file allowing the release of information at the 10		public hearing, patient records acquired by the board in its investigation are
11		confidential and closed to the public. All portions of board meetings wherein
12		patient testimony or records are taken or reviewed are confidential and closed to
13		the public. If no patient testimony or records are taken or reviewed, the remainder
14		of the meeting is an open meeting unless a specific exemption is otherwise
15		applicable.
16	SEC	CTION 7. A new section to chapter 43-47 of the North Dakota Century Code is
17	created and enacted as follows:
18	Cos	sts of prosecution - Disciplinary proceedings. The board may impose a fee
19	against any	person subject to regulation under this chapter to reimburse the board for all or part
20	of the costs of administrative actions resulting in disciplinary action, including the amount paid
21	by the board for services from the office of administrative hearings, attorney's fees, court costs,
22	witness fees, staff time, and other expenses.
