- SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 43-30-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
  - 43-30-12. Revocation or refusal to renew Disciplinary action. The board may either refuse to renew or may, suspend or may, revoke a license, or place on probation any license or registration, or impose a monetary fine or issue a letter of reprimand to any licensee or registrant, for any one or any combination of the following causes:
- 16 1. Fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license or registration.
  - 2. Violation of this chapter or rules adopted which implement section 43-30-04.
  - 3. If the holder of any license or registration or a member of any copartnership, an officer of any corporation, or a manager of any limited liability company has been adjudged guilty of the commission of an offense determined by the board to have a direct bearing upon a holder's ability to serve the public as a private investigative or security agency or electronic security system personnel, or if the board determines that, following conviction of any offense, the holder is not sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1.
    - 4. Upon the disqualification or insolvency of the surety of the licenseholder.
- 5. The unauthorized release of material information acquired as a result of activities under this chapter.
  - 6. Fraud or deceit or material and repeated misconduct in the practice of the activities regulated under this chapter.

- 7. Failure or refusal to cooperate with, or refusal of access to, an authorized representative of the board engaged in an official investigation pursuant to this chapter.
  - 8. Failure to adequately supervise electronic security system personnel to the extent that the public health or safety is at risk.
  - 9. Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by willful misrepresentation of facts before the board or the board's authorized representative or by the use of threats or harassment against a client or witness to prevent the person from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or other legal action involving the board.
  - 10. A violation of this chapter or the rules adopted by the board.
  - SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 43-30-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
  - 43-30-13. Notice and hearing on license revocation. The board may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the verified complaint in writing of any person setting forth facts which, if proven, would constitute grounds for refusal, suspension, or revocation, as herein set forth, a violation of this chapter or the rules adopted by the board, investigate the actions of any person holding or claiming to hold a license or registration. The board shall, before refusing to issue, suspending, or revoking any license, at least ten days before the date set for the hearing, or taking any other disciplinary action, notify in writing the applicant or holder of such license or registration of any charges made and shall afford the accused person an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. The written notice may be served by personal delivery to the accused person; or by registered mail to the place of business specified by the accused person in the person's last notification to the board. At the time and place fixed in the notice, the board shall proceed to hearing of the charges and both the accused person and the complainant must be accorded ample opportunity to present in person or by counsel, such statements, testimony, evidence, and argument as may be pertinent to the charges or to any defense thereto. The board may continue such hearing from time to time.
  - SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 43-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

	Legislative	Assembly
1	Reg	gistration and licensing required. A person may not sell, lease, rent, design, plan,
2	install, mon	itor, maintain, repair, test, or inspect electronic security systems or otherwise
3	operate as an electronic security system company without having first obtained the appropriate
4	registration permits for its electronic security system personnel or license from the board.
5	SEC	CTION 8. A new section to chapter 43-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is
6	created and enacted as follows:
7	Types of electronic security system personnel registration. A person may not
8	engage in a	activities in this state as an electronic security system technician; electronic security
9	system salesperson; operator, dispatcher, or monitor; operator, dispatcher, or monitor
10	supervisor; supervised employee; certified instructor; or compliance agent without having first
11	obtained from the board a registration permit to engage in such activities. A registration permit
12	may be for any one or more of the following categories, which must be noted on the registration
13	permit, as a	appropriate for the specific individual:
14	1.	Electronic security system technician registration permits an individual to install,
15		repair, test, and modify electronic security systems in all residential and
16		commercial applications.
17	2.	Electronic security system salesperson registration permits an individual to sell,
18		lease, or rent an electronic security system at the premises of the electronic
19		security system user.
20	3.	Electronic security system operator, dispatcher, or monitor registration permits an
21		individual to retransmit information received from electronic security systems to the
22		proper person as required by law or as determined by the electronic security
23		system user.

- 4. Electronic security system operator, dispatcher, or monitor supervisor registration permits an individual to supervise monitoring performed by electronic security system operator, dispatcher, or monitor registrants.
- 5. Supervised employee registration permits an individual to perform any of the functions of an electronic security system technician, electronic security system salesperson, or electronic security system operator, dispatcher, or monitor if that individual is physically supervised at the electronic security system site, for

ı		technicians and salespersons, of the monitoring location, for operators,
2		dispatchers, or monitors, by an individual registered for that class of activity.
3	6.	Certified instructor registration permits an individual to perform training required by
4		this chapter.
5	7.	Compliance agent registration permits an individual to be responsible for
6		compliance with this chapter by an electronic security system company.
7	SEC	CTION 9. A new section to chapter 43-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is
8	created and enacted as follows:
9	Nor	registered employees. Any employee of an electronic security system company
10	who is not r	registered under this chapter but who has access to information in the ordinary
11	course of e	mployment which would allow that individual to circumvent electronic security
12	systems must meet the background check requirements of this chapter.
13	SEC	CTION 10. A new section to chapter 43-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is
14	created and enacted as follows:
15	Electronic security training schools. The board shall certify those schools and
16	electronic s	ecurity system company in-house training programs which on the basis of
17	curriculum and instructors provide training that meets the compulsory minimum training
18	standards.
19	SEC	CTION 11. A new section to chapter 43-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is
20	created and enacted as follows:
21	Lice	ense required to conduct business.
22	1.	A person may not operate as an electronic security system company in this state
23		without having first obtained from the board a license to conduct such business.
24	2.	Any person doing business as an electronic security system company in multiple
25		locations within the state requires only one license that lists each of its offices
26		located in this state. Upon payment of an appropriate fee, the board shall grant
27		electronic security system companies that are licensed a branch office certificate
28		for each branch, which must be displayed at the branch.
29	SEC	CTION 12. A new section to chapter 43-30 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30	created and enacted as follows:
31	Issuance of license, renewal, posting, and advertising.

- 1. When satisfied from the examination of the application, and such further inquiry and investigation as the board deems proper, that the applicant has met the standards established by the board, the board shall issue to the applicant an appropriate license to conduct business as an electronic security system company.
- 2. The license is valid for a period of three years. Not less than ninety days prior to the expiration date of the license, the board shall mail a written notice for renewal to the last known address of the licenseholder. Upon meeting renewal standards established by the board in accordance with this chapter, and payment of a renewal fee, the board shall issue a three-year renewal license.
- 3. All licenses issued under this chapter must be on a form prescribed by the board and include the licensee's name, license number, expiration date, and any other information the board deems necessary. Licenses must be displayed at all times at the place of business, in clear and unobstructed public view.
- 4. Notwithstanding the existence of a valid state corporate registration, a licensee may not conduct activities regulated under this chapter under any fictitious name unless listed on the licensee's license. The board may not authorize the use of a name which is so similar to that of a public law enforcement officer or agency, or of that used by another licensee, that the public may be confused or misled.
- A licensee must include its license number in any written bid or offer to provide services.
- 6. A license issued under this chapter may not be sold, assigned, or transferred without the prior written approval of the board.
