which a copy of the rules and regulatory analysis may be requested, and, in the case of a substantive rule, provide the time and place set for each oral hearing. The notice must be filed with the office of the legislative council and published at least twice in each daily newspaper of general circulation published in this state. The agency shall mail a copy of the notice to each person who has made a timely request to the agency for a mailed copy of the notice. The agency may mail or otherwise provide a copy of the notice to any person who is likely to be an interested person. The agency shall mail or deliver a copy of the rules to any person requesting a copy. The agency may charge for the actual cost of providing copies of the proposed rule. At least thirty days must elapse between the later of the date of the second publication of the notice or the date the legislative council mails copies of an agency's notice and the date of the hearing. The thirty-day period begins on the first business day of the month in which the notices must be mailed or on the date of the second publication, whichever is later. At least thirty days before the hearing, the agency shall provide the attorney general a copy of the notice and the proposed rules. Subject to subsection 5, notices filed on or before the last calendar day of the preceding month must be mailed by the legislative council on the first business day of the following month to any person making a request. The agency shall allow, after the conclusion of any rulemaking hearing, a comment period of not less than thirty days during which data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed rulemaking will be received by the agency and made a part of the rulemaking record to be considered by the agency.

7. Every rule proposed submitted to the attorney general by any administrative agency must be submitted to reviewed by the attorney general for an opinion as to its legality before final adoption, and the. The attorney general shall promptly furnish each such the agency a preliminary opinion, based upon the rules as submitted, by the close of the comment period for those rules. After the close of the comment period, the agency shall advise the attorney general of each change to the proposed rules made in contemplation of final adoption and the attorney general shall promptly furnish an opinion as to legality of the rules contemplated for final adoption. The attorney general may not approve any rule as to legality when the rule exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or is written in a manner that is not concise or easily understandable, or when the procedural requirements for adoption of the rule in this chapter are not substantially met. The attorney general shall advise an agency of any revision or rewording of a rule necessary to correct objections as to legality.

SECTION 3. Section 28-32-03.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

28-32-03.4. Administrative rules called up for review. Upon request of any person substantially interested in the effect of a rule who has previously petitioned the adopting agency for review of the rule under section 28-32-04 or upon request of the adopting agency, and if the administrative rules committee makes the specific finding that there is substantial evidence that with regard to that rule or portion of a rule there is an absence of statutory authority or a conflict with state law or express legislative intent, the administrative rules committee may call an administrative rule up for review upon at least thirty days' prior notice to the adopting agency of the time the committee will consider the rule. The committee shall notify the adopting agency of the reason the rule is called up for review and the adopting agency shall provide a written response to the committee's expressed concerns. A rule called up for review under this section is subject to the authority of the administrative rules committee under section 28-32-03.3 except that the administrative rules committee may not void a rule called up for review under this section but may suspend from operation all or part of such a rule through July thirty-first of the first ensuing odd-numbered year if the committee makes the specific finding that with regard to that rule or portion of a rule there is an absence of statutory authority or a conflict with state law or express legislative intent.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 28-32-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

28-32-04. Petition for reconsideration review of rule - Hearing by agency. Any person substantially interested in the effect of a rule adopted by an administrative agency may petition such agency for a reconsideration review of the effect and consideration of any such the rule or for an consideration of amendment or repeal thereof of the rule. Such The petition must state clearly and concisely the petitioners' alleged grounds for such reconsideration the review, or for the proposed repeal or amendment of such the rule. The agency in its discretion
