Restriction on ownership of real property by trusts. A trustee of an irrevocable trust organized under the laws of any state may not, directly or indirectly, retain any interest, whether legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in any title to real property in this state beyond the period of time specified in subsection 5 of section 47-02-27.1. This section applies to trust ownership of real property in this state regardless of the means by which the real property is acquired by the trust and regardless of when or how the trust was created or when the trust became irrevocable.

SECTION 4. A new section to chapter 47-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Enforcement. If the attorney general has reason to believe that any trustee is violating section 3 of this Act, the attorney general shall commence an action in the district court in which any real property relative to the violation is situated, or if situated in two or more counties, in the district court for that county in which a substantial part of the real property is situated. The attorney general shall file for record with the register of deeds in each county in which any portion of the real property is located a notice of the pendency of the action. If the court finds that the real property in question is being held in violation of section 3 of this Act, the court shall enter an order so declaring. The attorney general shall file the order for record with the register of deeds of each county in which any portion of the real property is located. The trustee owning the real property has a period of one year from the date of the order to divest the trust of the real property. The one-year limitation period is deemed a covenant running with the title to the real property against any grantee or assignee. Any real property not divested within the time prescribed must be sold at public sale in the manner prescribed by law for the foreclosure of a real estate mortgage by action."

"SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 29-26-22 of the 1997 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

29-26-22. Judgment for fines, costs, and court administration fee - Statement to be filed by court - Docketing and enforcement. In all criminal cases upon a plea or finding of guilt, a court administration fee of up to thirty percent of the maximum allowable fine for the offense may be taxed against the defendant in lieu of the assessment of court costs. If the court does assess costs as part of its sentence, the court shall include in the judgment the facts justifying the amount assessed. District court costs; and administration fees, ~~and forfeitures~~ must be deposited in the state general fund. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine, costs, or court administration fee, or any combination thereof, may be docketed, and thereafter constitutes a lien upon the real estate of the defendant in like manner as a judgment for money rendered in a civil action. The court may allow the defendant to pay any assessed costs or administrative fee in installments. When a defendant is assessed costs or administrative fees, the court may not impose at the same time an alternative sentence to be served if the costs are not paid.

SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 29-27-02.1 of the 1997 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

29-27-02.1. Disposition of statutory fees, fines, forfeitures, pecuniary penalties, and bond forfeitures. Except as otherwise provided by law, all statutory fees, fines, ~~forfeitures~~, and pecuniary penalties prescribed for a violation of state laws, when collected, must be paid into the treasury of the proper county to be added to the state school fund. When any bail bond or other property or money deposited as bail is forfeited to the state, the proceeds collected therefrom must be paid over to the proper state official and credited to the state general fund."
