28 sale, rental, or occupancy of dwellings that it owns or operates for other than a 29 commercial purpose to individuals of the same religion or giving preference to 30 persons of the same religion, unless membership in the religion is restricted
31 because of race, color, or national origin.

2. This chapter does not prohibit a private club that is not open to the public and that, as an incident to its primary purpose, provides lodging that it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose from limiting the rental or occupancy of the lodging to its members or from giving preference to its members, unless membership in the club is restricted because of race, color, or national origin.

3. This chapter does not prohibit a person engaged in the business of furnishing appraisals of real property from considering in those appraisals factors other than race, color, religion, sex, disability, age, familial status, national origin, or status with respect to marriage.

14-02.5-12. Housing for elderly exempted. The provisions of this chapter relating to familial status and age do not apply to housing that the department determines is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly individuals under a federal or state program; intended for, and solely occupied by, individuals sixty-two years of age or older; or intended and operated for occupancy by at least one individual fifty-five years of age or older for each unit as determined by department rules.

14-02.5-13. Effect on other law.

1. This chapter does not affect a reasonable local or state restriction on the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling or a restriction relating to health or safety standards.

2. This chapter does not affect a requirement of nondiscrimination in any other state or federal law.

14-02.5-14. Duties and powers of department. The department shall administer this chapter. The department may adopt rules necessary to implement this chapter, but substantive rules adopted by the department must impose obligations, rights, and remedies that are the same as are provided in federal fair housing regulations.

14-02.5-15. Complaints. As provided by sections 14-02.5-19 through 14-02.5-36, the department shall receive, investigate, seek to conciliate, and act on complaints alleging violations of this chapter.

14-02.5-16. Reports and studies. The department shall publish in even-numbered years a written report recommending legislative or other action to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall make studies relating to the nature and extent of discriminatory housing practices in this state.

Moneys deposited to the credit of the fund are appropriated to the department on a continuing basis for the purposes of administering this chapter.

14-02.5-19. Complaint.

1. The department shall investigate complaints of alleged discriminatory housing practices. An aggrieved individual may file a complaint with the department alleging the discriminatory housing practice. The department may file a complaint. A complaint must be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the department. A complaint must be filed on or before the first anniversary of the date the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurs or terminates, whichever is later. A complaint may be amended at any time.

2. On the filing of a complaint, the department shall give the aggrieved individual notice that the complaint has been received, advise the aggrieved individual of the time limits and choice of forums under this chapter, and not later than the twentieth day after the date of the filing of the complaint or the identification of an additional or substitute respondent under section 14-02.5-23, serve on each respondent a notice identifying the alleged discriminatory housing practice and advising the respondent of the procedural rights and obligations of a respondent under this chapter and a copy of the original complaint.

14-02.5-20. Answer.

1. Not later than the tenth day after the date of receipt of the notice and copy of the complaint under subsection 2 of section 14-02.5-19, a respondent may file an

1           answer to the complaint. An answer must be in writing, under oath, and in the 2           form prescribed by the department.

- 3           2. An answer may be amended at any time. An answer does not inhibit the 4           investigation of a complaint.

5           14-02.5-21. Investigation.

- 6           1. If the federal government has referred a complaint to the department or has 7           deferred jurisdiction over the subject matter of the complaint to the department, the 8           department shall investigate the allegations set forth in the complaint.

- 9           2. The department shall investigate all complaints and, except as provided by 10          subsection 3, shall complete an investigation not later than the hundredth day after 11          the date the complaint is filed or, if it is unable to complete the investigation within 12          the hundred-day period, shall dispose of all administrative proceedings related to 13          the investigation not later than the first anniversary after the date the complaint is 14          filed.

- 15          3. If the department is unable to complete an investigation within the time periods 16          prescribed by subsection 2, the department shall notify the complainant and the 17          respondent in writing of the reasons for the delay.

18          14-02.5-22. Additional or substitute respondent. The department may join a person
19          not named in the complaint as an additional or substitute respondent if during the investigation
20          the department determines that the person should be accused of a discriminatory housing
21          practice. In addition to the information required in the notice under subsection 2 of section
22          14-02.5-19, the department shall include in a notice to a respondent joined under this section
23          the reasons for the determination that the person is properly joined as a respondent.

24          14-02.5-23. Conciliation.

- 25          1. The department shall, during the period beginning with the filing of a complaint and 26          ending with the filing of a charge or a dismissal by the department, to the extent
27          feasible, engage in conciliation with respect to the complaint. A conciliation 28          agreement between a respondent and the complainant is subject to departmental 29          approval. A conciliation agreement may provide for binding arbitration or another
30          method of dispute resolution. Dispute resolution that results from a conciliation
31          agreement may authorize appropriate relief, including monetary relief.

2. A conciliation agreement is public information unless the complainant and respondent agree that it is not and the department determines that disclosure is not necessary to further the purposes of this chapter. Statements made or actions taken in the conciliation may not be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under this chapter without the written consent of concerned persons. After completion of the department's investigation, the department shall make available to the aggrieved individual and the respondent, at any time, information derived from the investigation and the final investigative report relating to that investigation.

14-02.5-24. Temporary or preliminary relief. The department may authorize a claim for relief for temporary or preliminary relief pending the final disposition of a complaint, if the department concludes after the filing of the complaint that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. On receipt of the department's authorization, the attorney general shall promptly file the claim. A temporary restraining order or other order granting preliminary or temporary relief under this section is governed by the applicable statutes and the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure. The filing of a claim for relief under this section does not affect the initiation or continuation of administrative proceedings under section 14-02.5-32.

14-02.5-25. Investigative report. The department shall prepare a final investigative report, including the names of and dates of contacts with witnesses, a summary of correspondence and other contacts with the aggrieved individual and the respondent showing the dates of the correspondence and contacts, a summary description of other pertinent records, a summary of witness statements, and answers to interrogatories. A final report under this section may be amended if additional evidence is discovered.

14-02.5-26. Reasonable cause determination.

1. The department shall determine from the facts whether reasonable cause exists to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur. The department shall make this determination not later than the hundredth day after the date a complaint is filed unless making the determination is impracticable, or the department approves a conciliation agreement relating to the complaint.

- 1           2.   If making the determination within the period is impracticable, the department shall 2               give in writing to the complainant and the respondent the reasons for the delay. If
3               the department determines that reasonable cause exists to believe that a
4               discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, the department
5               shall, except as provided by section 14-02.5-28, immediately issue a charge on 6               behalf of the aggrieved individual.

7           14-02.5-27. Charge.

- 8           1.   A charge issued under section 14-02.5-26 must consist of a short and plain 9               statement of the facts on which the department finds reasonable cause to believe 10              that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred or is about to occur, must be 11              based on the final investigative report, and is not limited to the facts or grounds 12              alleged in the complaint.
- 13          2.   Not later than the twentieth day after the date the department issues a charge, the 14               department shall send a copy of the charge with information about the election 15               under section 14-02.5-31 to each respondent and each aggrieved individual on 16               whose behalf the complaint was filed.
- 17          3.   The department shall include with a charge sent to a respondent a notice of the 18               opportunity for a hearing under section 14-02.5-32.

19           14-02.5-28. Land use law. If the department determines that the matter involves the 20           legality of a state or local zoning or other land use law or ordinance, the department may not 21           issue a charge and shall immediately refer the matter to the attorney general for appropriate 22           action.

23           14-02.5-29. Dismissal. If the department determines that no reasonable cause exists
24           to believe that a discriminatory housing practice that is the subject of a complaint has occurred
25           or is about to occur, the department shall promptly dismiss the complaint. The department 26           shall make public disclosure of each dismissal.

27           14-02.5-30. Pending civil trial. The department may not issue a charge alleging a 28           discriminatory housing practice after the beginning of the trial of a civil action commenced by 29           the aggrieved party under federal or state law seeking relief with respect to that discriminatory
30           housing practice.

1       14-02.5-31. Election of judicial determination. A complainant, a respondent, or an
2 aggrieved person on whose behalf a complaint was filed may elect to have the claims asserted
3 in the charge decided in a civil action as provided by section 14-02.5-37. The election must be 4 made not later than the twentieth day after the date the person having the election receives
5 service under subsection 2 of section 14-02.5-27 or, in the case of the department, not later
6 than the twentieth day after the date the charge is issued. The person making the election shall 7 give notice to the department and to all other complainants and respondents to whom the 8 charge relates.

9       14-02.5-32. Administrative hearing. If a timely election is not made under section
10 14-02.5-31, the department shall provide for a hearing on the charge. Except as provided in 11 this section, chapter 28-32 governs a hearing and an appeal of a hearing. A hearing under this 12 section on an alleged discriminatory housing practice may not continue after the beginning of 13 the trial of a claim for relief commenced by the aggrieved person under federal or state law
14 seeking relief with respect to the discriminatory housing practice.

15       14-02.5-33. Administrative penalties.

- 16       1. If the department determines at a hearing under section 14-02.5-32 that a 17 respondent has engaged in or is about to engage in a discriminatory housing 18 practice, the department may order the appropriate relief, including actual 19 damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and other injunctive or equitable 20 relief.
- 21       2. To vindicate the public's interest, the department may assess a civil penalty 22 against the respondent in an amount that does not exceed:
- 23       a. Ten thousand dollars if the respondent has been found by order of the 24 department or a court to have committed a prior discriminatory housing 25 practice; or
- 26       b. Except as provided by subsection 3, twenty-five thousand dollars if the 27 respondent has been found by order of the department or a court to have 28 committed one other discriminatory housing practice during the five-year
29 period ending on the date of the filing of the charges and fifty thousand dollars 30 if the respondent has been found by the department or a court to have

1                   committed two or more discriminatory housing practices during the 2                   seven-year period ending on the date of filing of the charge.

3           3.   If the acts constituting the discriminatory housing practice that is the object of the 4           charge are committed by the same individual who has previously been found to 5           have committed acts constituting a discriminatory housing practice, the civil 6           penalties in subdivision b of subsection 2 may be imposed without regard to the 7           period of time within which any other discriminatory housing practice occurred.

8           4.   At the request of the department, the attorney general shall sue to recover a civil 9           penalty due under this section. Funds collected under this section must be paid to 10          the state treasurer for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the fair housing
11          fund.

12          14-02.5-34. Effect of departmental order. A departmental order under section 13          14-02.5-33 does not affect a contract, sale, encumbrance, or lease that is consummated before
14          the department issues the order and involves a bona fide purchaser, encumbrancer, or tenant
15          who did not have actual notice of the charge filed under this chapter.

16          14-02.5-35. Licensed or regulated business. If the department issues an order with 17          respect to a discriminatory housing practice that occurs in the course of a business subject to a
18          licensing or regulation by a governmental agency, the department, not later than the thirtieth
19          day after the date the order is issued, shall send copies of the findings and the order to the
