1 An assignment of the member's governance rights under section 10-32-32 e. 2 which leaves the assignor with no governance rights; 3 f. The member's bankruptcy: 7 i. The dissolution of a member that is an organization; or 8 The occurrence of any other event terminating the continued membership of a į. 9 member in the limited liability company. A member always has the power, though not necessarily the right, to terminate its 10 2. 11 the member's membership by resigning or retiring at any time. A member's 12 resignation or retirement, whether rightful or wrongful, causes dissolution under 13 subdivision e of subsection 1 of section 10-32-109 unless dissolution is avoided 14 under that subdivision. A member has no power to transfer all or part of the member's membership interest, except as provided in sections 10-32-31 and 15 10-32-32. 16 17 Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or in a member-control 2. 3. 18 agreement, a member may not be expelled. 19 3. 4. If for any reason the continued membership of a member is terminated and: 20 If dissolution under subdivision e of subsection 1 of section 10-32-109 is 21 avoided under that subdivision the termination does not result in the 22 dissolution of the limited liability company, then subject to the articles of 23 organization and any member-control agreement, the member whose 24 membership has terminated loses all governance rights and will be 25 considered merely an assignee of the financial rights owned before the 26 termination of membership; or 27 b. If dissolution under subdivision e of subsection 1 of section 10-32-109 is not 28 avoided under that subdivision the termination does result in the dissolution of 29 the limited liability company, subject to the articles of organization and any 30 member-control agreement, the member whose continued membership has 31 terminated retains all governance rights and financial rights owned before the

2		winding up and termination of the limited liability company.
3	4. 5.	If a member resigns or retires in contravention of the articles of organization or a

5		a. If dissolution avoidance consent is obtained, the member who has wrongfully

7		damaged by the wrongful resignation or retirement; and
8		b. If dissolution avoidance consent is not obtained, section 10-32-131 applies.
9	SE	CTION 60. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-31 of the 1997 Supplement to the North
10	Dakota Ce	ntury Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
11	10-	32-31. Assignment of financial rights.
12	1.	Except as provided in subsection 3, a member's financial rights are transferable in
13		whole or in part.
14	2.	An assignment of a member's financial rights entitles the assignee to receive, to
15		the extent assigned, only the share of profits and losses and the distributions to
16		which the assignor would otherwise be entitled.
17		a. An assignment of a member's financial rights does not dissolve the limited
18		liability company and does not entitle or empower the assignee to become a
19		member, to exercise any governance rights, to receive any notices from the
20		limited liability company, or to cause dissolution.
21		b. The assignment may not allow the assignee to control the member's exercise
22		of governance rights.
23	3.	A restriction on the assignment of financial rights may be imposed in the articles, $\underline{\text{in}}$
24		a member-control agreement, in the operating agreement bylaws, by a resolution
25		adopted by the members, or by an agreement among or other written action by
26		members or among them and the limited liability company. A restriction is not
27		binding with respect to financial rights reflected in the required records before the
28		adoption of the restriction, unless the owners of those financial rights are parties to
29		the agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.
30	4.	Subject to subsection 5, a written restriction on the assignment of financial rights that is not manifestly unreasonable under the circumstances and is noted

- conspicuously in the required records may be enforced against the owner of the restricted financial rights or a successor or transferee of the owner, including a pledgee or a legal representative. Unless noted conspicuously in the required records, a restriction, even though permitted by this section, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction.
- 5. With regard to restrictions on the assignment of financial rights, a would-be assignee of financial rights is entitled to rely on a statement of membership interest issued by the limited liability company under section 10-32-28. A restriction on the assignment of financial rights, which is otherwise valid and in effect at the time of the issuance of a statement of membership interest but which is not reflected in that statement, is ineffective against an assignee who takes an assignment in reliance on the statement.
- 6. Notwithstanding any provision of law, articles of organization, member-control agreement, operating agreement bylaws, other agreement, resolution, or action to the contrary, a security interest in a member's financial rights may be foreclosed and otherwise enforced, and a secured party may assign a member's financial rights in accordance with title 41 without the consent or approval of a member whose financial rights are subject to the security interest.
- SECTION 61. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-32 of the 1997 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-32. Assignment of governance rights.

- 1. A member's governance rights are assignable, in whole or in part, only as provided in this section.
- Subject to subsection 6, a member may, without the consent of any other member, assign governance rights, in whole or in part, to another person already a member at the time of the assignment.
 - Except as otherwise provided in the articles of organization or a member-control agreement, any other assignment of any governance rights is effective only if all the members, other than the member seeking to make the assignment, approve the assignment by unanimous written consent.

1 Subject to subsection 6, a member may grant a security interest in a complete b. 2 membership interest or governance rights without obtaining the consent 3 required by this subsection. 4 (1) However, a secured party may not take or assign ownership of 5 governance rights without first obtaining the consent required by this subsection. 6 7 (2) If a secured party has a security interest in both a member's financial 8 rights and governance rights, including a security interest in a complete 9 membership interest, this subsection's requirement that the secured 10 party obtain consent applies only to taking or assigning ownership of 11 the governance rights and does not apply to taking or assigning 12 ownership of the financial rights. 13 3. When an assignment of governance rights is effective under subsection 2: 14 If the assignment is not a security interest, the assignee becomes a member, a. 15 if not already a member; and 16 If the assignor does not retain any governance rights, the assignor ceases to b. 17 be a member, and the written consent required under subsection 2, also 18 constitutes the dissolution avoidance consent necessary to avoid dissolution 19 that would otherwise ensue under subdivision e of subsection 1 of section 20 10-32-109 on account of the assignor ceasing to be a member if the consent 21 required to avoid dissolution is not greater than the consent required under 22 subsection 2. 23 4. When an assignment other than a security interest is effective under subsection 2, 24 unless the written consent under subsection 2 otherwise provides: 25 The assignee is liable in proportion to the interest assigned for the obligations a. 26 of the assignor under section 10-32-56, including liability for unperformed 27 promises that have been reflected as contributions in the required records, 28 and section 10-32-65 existing at the time of transfer, except to the extent that, 29 at the time the assignee became a member, the liability was unknown to the assignee, and could not be ascertained from the required records; and

- 1 b. The assignor is not released from liability to the limited liability company for 2 obligations of the assignor existing at the time of transfer under sections 3 10-32-56 and 10-32-65. 4 5. If any purported or attempted assignment of governance rights is ineffective for 5 failure to obtain the consent required in subsection 2: The purported or attempted assignment is ineffective in its entirety; and 6 a. 7 b. Any assignment of financial rights that accompanied the purported or 8 attempted assignment of governance rights is void. 9 6. Restrictions on the transfer of governance rights may be imposed following the 10 same procedures and under the same conditions as stated in subsections 3 and 4 11 of section 10-32-31 for restricting the transfer of financial rights. 12 7. Subject to subsection 6, a member may grant a security interest in a complete 13 membership interest or governance rights without obtaining the consent required 14 by this subsection. However, a secured party may not take or assign ownership of governance rights without first obtaining the consent required by this subsection. If 15 16 a secured party has a security interest in a member's financial rights and 17 governance rights, including a security interest in a complete membership interest, 18 this subsection's requirement that the secured party obtain consent applies only to 19 taking or assigning ownership of the governance rights and does not apply to 20 taking or assigning ownership of the financial rights. 21 Notwithstanding any provision of law, articles of organization, member-control 8. 22 agreement, operating agreement bylaws, other agreement, resolution, or action to 23 the contrary, a security interest in a member's full membership interest or 24 governance rights may be foreclosed and otherwise enforced, and a secured party 25 may assign a member's complete membership interest or governance rights in 26 accordance with title 41, all without the consent or approval of the member whose 27 full membership interest or governance rights are the subject of the security 28 interest.

- 1 2. If an event referred to in subsection 1 causes the termination of a member's 2 membership interest and the termination does not result in dissolution is avoided 3 under subdivision e of subsection 1 of section 10-32-109, then subject to the 4 articles of organization and any member-control agreement: 5 As provided in subsection 3 of section 10-32-30, the terminated member's a. 6 interest will be considered to be merely that of an assignee of the financial 7 rights owned before the termination of membership; and
 - The rights to be exercised by the legal representative of the terminated member will be limited accordingly.

SECTION 63. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-36 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-36. Sharing of profits and losses. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, in a member-control agreement, or by the board of governors under subsections 5 and 6 of section 10-32-56, the profits and losses of a limited liability company are to must be allocated among the members, and among classes and series of members, in proportion to the value of the contributions of the members reflected in the required records.

SECTION 64. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-37 of the 1997 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

10-32-37. Preemptive rights.

- To the extent allowed by section 9 of article XII of the Constitution of North Dakota, a member of a limited liability company has the preemptive rights provided in this section, unless denied or limited in the articles of organization, in a member-control agreement, or by the board of governors pursuant to subdivision b of subsection 5 of section 10-32-56.
- 2. A preemptive right is the right of a member to make contributions of a certain amount or to make a contribution allowance agreement specifying future contributions of a certain amount before the limited liability company may accept new contributions from other persons or to make contribution allowance agreements with other persons.
- 3. A member has a preemptive right whenever the limited liability company proposes to accept contributions from other persons, or to make contribution allowance

1 agreements with other persons, pertaining to membership interests of the same 2 series or class as the series or class owned by the member. 3 4. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization or a member-control 4 agreement, no preemptive rights pursuant to this section arise as to contributions 5 to be accepted from others or as to contribution allowance agreements to be made 6 with others when the contribution is: 7 To be made in a form other than money; a. 8 To be made or reflected pursuant to a plan of merger; b. 9 To be made or reflected pursuant to an employee or incentive benefit plan C. 10 approved at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the owners of a majority of 11 the voting power of all membership interests entitled to vote; 12 d. To be made pursuant to a previously made contribution allowance 13 agreement; or 14 To be made or reflected pursuant to a plan of reorganization approved by a e. 15 court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a statute of this state or of the United States. 16 17 5. The extent to which each member may make a new contribution, or obtain the right 18 to make a new contribution under a contribution allowance agreement, by exercise 19 of a preemptive right as to any class or series is the ratio that the value of that 20 member's contributions, as reflected in the required records as pertaining to that 21 class or series before the contribution, bears to the total value of all members' 22 contributions reflected in the required records as pertaining to that class or series 23 before the new contribution. 24 A member may waive a preemptive right in writing. The waiver is binding upon the 25 member whether or not consideration has been given for the waiver. Unless 26 otherwise provided in the waiver, a waiver of preemptive rights is effective only for 27 the proposed contribution or contribution allowance agreement described in the 28 waiver. 29 7. When proposing to accept new contributions, or to make contribution allowance 30 agreements, with respect to which members have preemptive rights under this section, the board of governors shall cause notice to be given to each member

1 entitled to preemptive rights. The notice must be given at least ten days before the 2 date by which the member must exercise a preemptive right and must contain: 3 The extent of the member's preemptive right, being: a. 4 (1) In the case of a preemptive right to make a contribution, the amount of 5 the contribution to be made; and 6 (2) In the case of a preemptive right to make a contribution allowance 7 agreement, the amount of the contribution to be allowed under that 8 contribution allowance agreement; 9 The method used to determine the extent of the member's preemptive right; b. 10 The terms and conditions upon which the member may make a contribution C. 11 or make a contribution allowance agreement; and 12 d. The time within which and the method by which the member must exercise 13 the right. 14 8. If a member does not exercise preemptive rights to make a contribution or to make 15 a contribution allowance agreement, then for a period not exceeding one year after 16 the date fixed by the board of governors for the exercise of those preemptive rights 17 and to the extent of the preemptive rights not exercised, the board of governors 18 may accept contributions or make contribution allowance agreements on terms no 19 less favorable to the limited liability company than those offered to the member. 20 9. If the members of a limited liability company are entitled to cumulative voting in the 21 election of governors, no amendment to the articles of organization that or a 22 member-control agreement which has the effect of denying, limiting, or modifying 23 the preemptive rights provided in this section may be adopted if the votes of a 24 proportion of the voting power sufficient to elect a governor at an election of the 25 entire board of governors under cumulative voting are cast against the 26 amendment. 27 10. A denial or limitation of preemptive rights otherwise provided in this section does 28 not limit the power of a limited liability company to grant first refusal rights, 29 contribution allowance rights, or other rights to make contributions to the limited 30 liability company, to members, to persons who have entered into contribution

1	agreements, or to other persons before accepting contributions or before making

Section 10-32-40.1 of the 1997 Supplement to the North 4 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows: 5 10-32-40.1. Voting rights. 6 The board of governors may fix or authorize a manager to fix a date not more than 7 fifty days, or a shorter time period provided in the articles of organization, a 8 member-control agreement, or operating agreement the bylaws, before the date of 9 a meeting of members as the date for the determination of the owners of 10 membership interests entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting. 11 When a date is so fixed, only members on that date are entitled to notice of and 12 permitted to vote at that meeting of members. 13 2. A determination of the owners of membership interests entitled to notice and to 14 vote at a meeting of members is effective for an adjournment of the meeting unless 15 the board of governors fixes a new date for determining the right to notice and to 16 vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than fifty days 17 after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original 18 meeting. 19 3. If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty 20 days after the date fixed for the original meeting: It must provide the original record date for notice and voting continues in 21

- 5. Unless otherwise provided in the articles, in a member-control agreement, or by the board of governors under subsections 5 and 6 of section 10-32-56, members have voting power in proportion to the value of the contributions of the members as reflected in the required records.
- 6. The articles of organization or a member-control agreement may give or prescribe the manner of giving a creditor, securityholder, or other person a right to vote under this section, but no prescription under this subsection may have the effect of transferring from an assignor of financial rights to the assignee the assignor's voting rights.
- 7. Membership interests owned by two or more members may be voted by any one of them unless the limited liability company receives written notice from any one of them denying the authority of that person to vote those membership interests.
- 8. Except as provided in subsection 7, an owner of a membership interest entitled to vote may vote any portion of the membership interest in any way the member chooses. If a member votes without designating the proportion voted in a particular way, the member is considered to have voted all of the membership interest in that way.
- SECTION 69. AMENDMENT. Section 10-32-42 of the 1997 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

27			by the member by transmission of a telegram, cablegram, or other means of
28			electronic transmission, provided the limited liability company has no reason
29			to believe that the telegram, cablegram, or other electronic transmission was
30			not authorized by the member.

- b. Any copy, facsimile telecommunication, or other reproduction of the original writing or transmission may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or transmission for any purpose for which the original transmission could be used, if the copy, facsimile telecommunication, or other reproduction is a complete and legible reproduction of the entire original writing or transmission.
- c. An appointment of a proxy for membership interests owned jointly by two or more members is valid if signed or otherwise authorized by any one of them, unless the limited liability company receives from any one of those members written notice either denying the authority of that person to appoint a proxy or appointing a different proxy.
- 2. The appointment of a proxy is valid for eleven months, unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment. No appointment is irrevocable and any agreement purporting to grant an irrevocable proxy is void unless the appointment is coupled with an interest in the membership interests of the limited liability company. A member who revokes a proxy is not liable in any way for damages, restitution, or other claim.
- 3. An appointment may be revoked at will unless the appointment is coupled with an interest, in which case the appointment may not be terminated except in accordance with the terms of an agreement, if any, between the parties to the appointment. Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy by attending a meeting and voting in person or signing and delivering to the manager or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a later appointment. Revocation in either manner revokes all prior proxy appointments and is effective when filed with a manager of the limited liability company.
- 4. The death or incapacity of a person appointing a proxy does not revoke or affect the right of the limited liability company to accept the authority of the proxy, unless written notice of the death or incapacity is received by a manager authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises the authority under that appointment.

- 5. Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are appointed as proxies for a member:
 - a. Any one of them may vote the membership interests on each item of business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the appointment; and
 - b. If no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to voting the membership interests on a particular item of business, the membership interests must be voted as a majority of the proxies determine. If the proxies are equally divided, the membership interests must not be voted.
 - 6. Subject to section 10-32-48.1 and an express restriction, limitation, or specific reservation of authority of the proxy appearing in the appointment, the limited liability company may accept a vote or action by the proxy as the action of the member. The vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge, but the proxy is liable to the member for damages resulting from a failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the authority granted in the appointment.
 - 7. If a proxy is given authority by a member to vote on less than all items of business considered at a meeting of members, the member is considered to be present and entitled to vote by the proxy for purposes of subsection 1 of section 10-32-42 only with respect to those items of business for which the proxy has authority to vote. A proxy who is given authority by a member who abstains with respect to an item of business is considered to have authority to vote on the item of business for purposes of this subsection.
 - 8. A member may not grant any proxy to any person who is an assignee of any member's financial rights and who is not also a member.
- SECTION 74. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 10-32-48.1 of the 1997 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
 - 2. Unless the articles, a member-control agreement, or operating agreement the bylaws provide otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a member, the limited liability company, if acting in good faith, may accept the vote, consent waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:

1 The member is an organization and the name signed purports to be that of an a. 2 officer, manager, or agent of the organization; 3 The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or b. 4 conservator representing the member and, if the limited liability company 5 requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the limited liability 6 company has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or 7 proxy appointment; 8 The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of C. 9 the member, and, if the limited liability company requests, evidence of this 10 status acceptable to the limited liability company has been presented with 11 respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; 12 d. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or 13 attorney-in-fact of the member and if the limited liability company requests, 14 evidence acceptable to the limited liability company of the signatory's 15 authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, 16 consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or 17 Two or more persons hold the membership interests as cotenants or e. 18 fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the 19 coholders and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the 20 coholders. 21 SECTION 75. - dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subsection 8. Failure to do so entitles the dissenter only to the amount offered. If the dissenter makes demand, subsections 9 and 10 apply.
- 8. If a dissenter believes that the amount remitted under subsections 5, 6, and 7 is less than the fair value of the membership interests plus interest, the dissenter may give written notice to the limited liability company of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the membership interests, plus interest, within thirty days after the limited liability company mails the remittance under subsections 5, 6, and 7, and demand payment of the difference. Otherwise, a dissenter is entitled only to the amount remitted by the limited liability company.
 - If the limited liability company receives a demand under subsection 8, it shall, within sixty days after receiving the demand, either pay to the dissenter the amount demanded or agreed to by the dissenter after discussion with the limited liability company or file in court a petition requesting that the court determine the fair value of the membership interests, plus interest. The petition must be filed in the county in which the registered office of the limited liability company is located, except that a surviving foreign corporation that receives a demand relating to the membership interests of a constituent limited liability company shall file the petition in the county in this state in which the last registered office of the constituent limited liability company was located. The petition must name as parties all dissenters who have demanded payment under subsection 8 and who have not reached agreement with the limited liability company. The limited liability company shall, after filing the petition, serve all parties with a summons and copy of the petition under the rules of civil procedure. Nonresidents of this state may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. Except as otherwise provided, the rules of civil procedure apply to this proceeding. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint appraisers, with powers and authorities the court considers proper, to receive evidence on and recommend the amount of the fair value of the membership interests. The court shall determine whether the member or members in question have fully complied with the requirements of this section and shall determine the fair value of the membership

- interests, taking into account any and all factors the court finds relevant, computed by any method or combination of methods that the court, in its discretion, sees fit to use, whether or not used by the limited liability company or by a dissenter. The fair value of the membership interests as determined by the court is binding on all members, wherever located. A dissenter is entitled to judgment for the amount by which the fair value of the membership interests as determined by the court, plus interest, exceeds the amount, if any, remitted under subsections 5, 6, and 7, but is not liable to the limited liability company for the amount, if any, by which the amount, if any, remitted to the dissenter under subsection 5 exceeds the fair value of the membership interests as determined by the court, plus interest.
- 10. The court shall determine the costs and expenses of a proceeding under subsection 9, including the reasonable expenses and compensation of any appraisers appointed by the court, and shall assess those costs and expenses against the limited liability company, except that the court may assess part or all of those costs and expenses against a dissenter whose action in demanding payment is found to be arbitrary, vexatious, or not in good faith.
- 11. If the court finds that the limited liability company has failed to comply substantially with this section, the court may assess all fees and expenses of any experts or attorneys as the court considers equitable. These fees and expenses may also be assessed against a person who has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in bringing the proceeding, and may be awarded to a party injured by those actions.
- 12. The court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses to an attorney for the dissenters out of the amount awarded to the dissenters, if any.
- 13. When an assignment of some or all of the financial rights of a membership interest is in effect, then as to that membership interest the provisions of subsections 1 through 12 must be followed subject to the following revisions:
 - a. All rights to be exercised and actions to be taken by a member under subsection 2 must be taken by the member and not by any assignee of the member's financial rights. As between the limited liability company and the assignees, the actions taken or omitted by the member bind the assignees.

1 Instead of remitting a payment under subsection 6, the limited liability b. 2 company shall forward to the dissenter member: 3 (1) An offer to pay the fair value of the membership interests with that 4 amount to be allocated among and paid to the member and the 5 assignees of financial rights according to the terms of the assignments reflected in the required records; and 6 7 (2) A statement of that allocation. 8 If the dissenter member accepts the amount of the offer made under C. 9 subdivision b but disputes the allocation, the dissenter shall promptly so notify the limited liability company and promptly after the notification bring an action 10 11 to determine the proper allocation. The suit must be filed in the county in 12 which the registered office of the limited liability company is located, or in the 13 case of a surviving foreign corporation that is complying with this section 14 following a merger or an exchange with a constituent limited liability company 15 the suit must be filed in the county in this state in which the last registered 16 office of the constituent limited liability company was located. The suit must 17 name as parties the member, the limited liability company, and all assignees 18 of the member's financial rights. Upon being served with the action, the 19 limited liability company shall promptly pay into the court the amount offered 20 under subdivision b and shall then be dismissed from the action. 21 d. If the dissenter considers the amount offered under subdivision b inadequate. 22 the dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subsection 8. 23 If the dissenter makes demand, subsections 9 and 10 apply, with the court 24 having jurisdiction also to determine the correctness of the allocation. 25 If the member fails to take action under either subdivision c or d, then: e. 26 (1) As to the limited liability company, both the member and the assignees 27 of the member's financial rights are limited to the amount and allocation 28 offered under subdivision b; and 29 The limited liability company discharges its obligation of payment by (2) 30 making payment according to the amount and allocation offered under 31 subdivision b.

The 28 percentage determined under subdivision a may be positive, negative, or 29 zero. 30 5. If a limited liability company accepts more than one contribution pertaining to the 31

- 2. A board of governors meeting may be conducted by:

If the articles of organization, a member-control agreement, or operating agreement the bylaws so provide, a governor may give advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a board of governors meeting. If the governor is not present at the meeting, consent or opposition to a proposal does not constitute presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition must be counted as the vote of a governor present at the meeting in favor of or against the proposal and must be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting, if the proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect as the proposal to which the governor has consented or objected.
