31 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1 54-52.6-02. Election.

2 1. The board shall provide an opportunity for each eligible employee who is a 3 member of the public employees retirement system on December 31, 1999 4 September 30, 2002, to elect in writing to terminate membership in the public 5 employees retirement system and elect to become a participating member under 6 this chapter. An eligible employee may not elect to participate in the defined 7 contribution retirement plan until the eligible employee has attended an education 8 program developed by the board. Except as provided in section 54-52.6-03, an 9 election made by an eligible employee under this section is irrevocable. The board 10 shall accept written elections under this section from eligible employees during the 11 period beginning on the effective date of this Act and ending 12:01 a.m. January 1, 12 2000 December 13, 2002. An eligible employee who does not make a written 13 election or who does not file the election during the period specified in this section 14 continues to be a member of the public employees retirement system. An eligible 15 employee who makes and files a written election under this section ceases to be a 16 member of the public employees retirement system effective twelve midnight 17 December 31, 1999 2002; becomes a participating member in the defined 18 contribution retirement plan under this chapter effective 12:01 a.m. January 1, 19 2000 2003; and waives all of that person's rights to a pension, annuity, retirement 20 allowance, insurance benefit, or any other benefit under the public employees 21 retirement system effective December 31, 1999 2002. This section does not affect 22 a person's right to health benefits or retiree health benefits under chapter 54-52.1. 23 An eligible employee who is first employed and entered upon the payroll of that 24 person's employer after December 31, 1999 September 30, 2002, may make an 25 election at any time during the first six months after the date of employment to 26 participate in the defined contribution retirement plan established under this 27 chapter. 28 2. If an individual who is a deferred member of the public employees retirement

If an individual who is a deferred member of the public employees retirement system on December 31, 1999 September 30, 2002, is reemployed and by virtue of that employment is again eligible for membership in the public employees retirement system under chapter 54-52, the individual may elect in writing to 1 remain a member of the public employees retirement system or if eligible to 2 participate in the defined contribution retirement plan established under this 3 chapter to terminate membership in the public employees retirement system and 4 become a participating member in the defined contribution retirement plan 5 established under this chapter. An elegible employee may not elect to participate 6 in the defined contribution retirement plan until the eligible employee has attended 7 an education program developed by the board. An election made by a deferred 8 member under this section is irrevocable. The board shall accept written elections 9 under this section from a deferred member during the period beginning on the date 10 of the individual's reemployment and ending upon the expiration of sixty days after 11 the date of that reemployment. A deferred member who makes and files a written 12 election to remain a member of the public employees retirement system retains all 13 rights and is subject to all conditions as a member of that retirement system. A 14 deferred member who does not make a written election or who does not file the 15 election during the period specified in this section continues to be a member of the 16 public employees retirement system. A deferred member who makes and files a 17 written election to terminate membership in the public employees retirement 18 system ceases to be a member of the public employees retirement system 19 effective on the last day of the payroll period that includes the date of the election; 20 becomes a participating member in the defined contribution retirement plan under 21 this chapter effective the first day of the payroll immediately following the date of 22 the election; and waives all of that person's rights to a pension, an annuity, a 23 retirement allowance, insurance benefit, or any other benefit under the public 24 employees retirement system effective the last day of the payroll that includes the 25 date of the election. This section does not affect any right to health benefits or 26 retiree health benefits to which the deferred member may otherwise be entitled. 27 3. An employee who elects to participate in the retirement plan established under this 28 chapter must remain a participant even if that employee returns to the classified service.

After consultation with its actuary, the board shall determine the method by which a participating member or deferred member may make a written election under this

1 section. If the participating member or deferred member is married at the time of 2 the election, the election is not effective unless the election is signed by the 3 individual's spouse. However, the board may waive this requirement if the 4 spouse's signature cannot be obtained because of extenuating circumstances. 5 If the board receives notification from the internal revenue service that this section 5. 4. 6 or any portion of this section will cause the public employees retirement system or 7 the retirement plan established under this chapter to be disgualified for tax 8 purposes under the Internal Revenue Code, then the portion that will cause the disqualification does not apply. 10 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-03 of the 1999 Supplement to the North

11 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

12 54-52.6-03. Transfer of accumulated fund balances. For an individual who elects to 13 terminate membership in the public employees retirement system under chapter 54-52, the 14 board shall transfer a lump sum amount from the retirement fund to the participating member's 15 account in the defined contribution retirement plan under this chapter. However, if the 16 individual terminates employment prior to receiving the lump sum transfer under this section, 17 the election made under section 54-52.6-02 is ineffective and the individual remains a member 18 of the public employees retirement system under chapter 54-52 and retains all the rights and 19 benefits provided under that chapter. The board shall calculate the amount to be transferred 20 for employees electing to transfer prior to January 1, 2000 persons employed before October 1, 2002, using the two following formulas, and shall transfer the greater of the two amounts 21 22 obtained:

23 1. The actuarial present value of the individual's accumulated benefit obligation under 24 the public employees retirement system based on the assumption that the 25 individual will retire under the earliest applicable normal retirement age, plus 26 interest from January 1, 2000 2003, to the date of transfer, at the rate of one-half 27 of one percent less than the actuarial interest assumption at the time of the 28 election; or

29 The actual employer and employee contributions made pursuant to sections 2. 30 54-52-05 and 54-52-06, less vested employer contributions made pursuant to 31 section 54-52-11.1, plus interest at the rate of one-half of one percent less than the

1 2 actuarial interest assumption at the time of the election plus the employee account balance.

3 The board shall calculate the amount to be transferred for persons employed after 4 December 31, 1999 September 30, 2002, using only the formula contained in subsection 2.

5 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.6-06 of the 1999 Supplement to the North
6 Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

7 54-52.6-06. Administrative expenses - Continuing appropriation. The 8 administrative expenses of the plan must be paid by the participating members in a manner 9 determined by the board. The board or and vendors contracted for by the board may charge 10 reasonable administrative expenses and deduct those expenses from the contribution to a 11 participating member's account in the defined contribution retirement plan established under 12 this chapter, from the moneys already in a participating member's account, or from both. In 13 determining reasonable administrative expenses, the board may include an amount necessary 14 to implement an appropriate investment education program. The board shall place any money 15 deducted by the board in an administrative expenses account with the state treasurer. The 16 board may also use funds from the payroll clearing account established pursuant to section 17 54-52.3-03 to pay for consulting expenses. All moneys in the payroll clearing account and the 18 administrative expenses account, not otherwise appropriated, or so much of the moneys as 19 may be necessary, are appropriated to the board on a continuing basis for the purpose of 20 retaining a consultant as required for the administration of this chapter.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 54-52.6-09 of the 1999
 Supplement to the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23 2. The employer shall contribute an amount equal to four and twelve hundredths 24 percent of the monthly salary or wage of a participating member. If the employee's 25 contribution is paid by the employer under subsection 3, the employer shall 26 contribute, in addition, an amount equal to the required employee's contribution. 27 Of the amount contributed by the employer on behalf of an employee first electing 28 to participate in this program after June 30, 2001, the board may withhold up to six 29 hundredths percent of the monthly salary or wage of the participating member for 30 general administrative expenses, which moneys must be deposited into the 31 administrative expenses account. The employer shall pay monthly such contribution into the participating member's account from its funds appropriated for payroll and salary or any other funds available for such purposes. If the employer fails to pay the contributions monthly, it is subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars and, as interest, one percent of the amount due for each month of delay or fraction thereof after the payment became due.

6 SECTION 7. AUTHORITY TO BORROW FUNDS. The public employees retirement 7 system board may borrow up to $250,000 from the Bank of North Dakota for the purpose of 8 defraying the administrative expenses of the defined contribution retirement program until such 9 time as there are sufficient assets in that program to pay off any loan and support the 10 administrative expenses of the program. The term of the loan may not be longer than thirteen 11 years. If requested by the public employees retirement system board, the Bank of North 12 Dakota shall make any loan, at a rate agreed to by the parties.

13 SECTION 8. APPROPRIATION. There is appropriated out of any moneys in the 14 administrative expense account created by section 54-52.6-06 and the payroll clearing account 15 created by section 54-52.3-03, in the state treasury, the retirement fund, and the loan 16 authorized by section 7 of this Act, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $250,000, or so 17 much of the sum as may be necessary, to the public employees retirement system board for 18 the purpose of administering this chapter, for the biennium beginning July 1, 2001, and ending 19 June 30, 2003. The public employees retirement system board is authorized two additional 20 full-time equivalent positions to implement this Act. The transaction costs experienced by the 21 fund in liquidating securities to transfer to the defined contribution program on behalf of 22 employees electing to transfer to that program must be reimbursed to the retirement fund in the 23 same manner as contributions to the fund.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE. Sections 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this Act become effective July 1, 2001, and sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this Act become effective July 1, 2003.

26 SECTION 10. APPLICATION OF ACT. This Act does not apply to nonclassified 27 employees who did not elect to transfer to the defined contribution retirement plan within the 28 timeframe provided by section 54-52.6-02 as that section was in effect on June 30, 2001.
