SECTION 5. A new section to chapter 20.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Posting of lands located south and west of Missouri River by owner or lessee to permit hunting - Penalty. Only the owner or lessee of land located south and west of the Missouri River may post it by placing signs alongside the public highway or the land giving notice that hunting is permitted on the land. The name of the person posting the land must appear on each sign in legible characters. The signs must be readable from the outside of the land and must be placed conspicuously not more than eight hundred eighty yards [804.68 meters] apart. As to land entirely enclosed by a fence or other enclosure, posting of signs at or on all gates through the fence or enclosure constitutes a posting of all the enclosed land. A person may not deface, take down, or destroy posting signs. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person may not enter upon privately owned land located south and west of the Missouri River belonging to another for the purpose of hunting or pursuing game unless

1 permission is first obtained from the owner or lessee of the land or unless the land is posted
2 with signs giving notice that hunting is permitted on the land. A person may not enter upon
3 privately owned land located south and west of the Missouri River for the purpose of trapping 4 protected fur-bearing animals without first gaining the written permission of the owner or 5 operator of that land. A person may enter upon privately owned land located south and west of 6 the Missouri River that is not posted to permit hunting without first obtaining the permission of 7 the owner or lessee only to recover game shot or killed on land where that person had a lawful 8 right to hunt. Proof that a person having a firearm, or other weapon declared legal by 9 governor's proclamation, in that person's possession entered upon the premises of another 10 located south and west of the Missouri River which are not posted to permit hunting without 11 permission of the owner or lessee is prima facie evidence that person entered to hunt or pursue
12 game. A person who violates this section is guilty of a class B misdemeanor for the first offense
13 and a class A misdemeanor for a subsequent offense within a two-year period.
