

Fifty-seventh
Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1431

Introduced by

Representatives DeKrey, Berg, R. Kelsch, Monson

1 A BILL for an Act to provide for a legislative council study of this state's correctional system.

2 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

3 SECTION 1. Correctional system - Legislative council study. During the 2001-02
4 interim, the legislative council shall consider studying the correctional system in North Dakota,
5 including its functions, responsibilities, funding, causes for increases in the state's inmate 6 population, and the effectiveness of sentencing laws, incarceration, and treatment. The 7 legislative council shall identify possible cost-effective alternatives to incarceration and methods
8 for lowering recidivism and the state's crime rate. The legislative council shall report its findings 9 and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the 10 recommendations, to the fifty-eighth legislative assembly.
