

Fifty-seventh Legislative Assembly of North Dakota
In Regular Session Commencing Tuesday, January 9, 2001

HOUSE BILL NO. 1431
(Representatives DeKrey, Berg, R. Kelsch, Monson)

AN ACT to provide for a legislative council study of this state's correctional system.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Correctional system - Legislative council study. During the 2001-02 interim, the legislative council shall consider studying the correctional system in North Dakota, including its functions, responsibilities, funding, causes for increases in the state's inmate population, and the effectiveness of sentencing laws, incarceration, and treatment. The legislative council shall identify possible cost-effective alternatives to incarceration and methods for lowering recidivism and the state's crime rate. The legislative council shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the recommendations, to the fifty-eighth legislative assembly.
