 - b. Fails to provide proper parental care or control, subsistence, education as required by law, or other care or control necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health, or morals.
 - c. Permits the child to be, or fails to exercise reasonable diligence in preventing the child from being, in a disreputable place or associating with vagrants or vicious or immoral persons.
 - d. Permits the child to engage in, or fails to exercise reasonable diligence in preventing the child from engaging in, an occupation forbidden by the laws of this state or an occupation injurious to the child's health or morals or the health or morals of others.
2. A person who provides care, supervision, education, or guidance for a child unaccompanied by the child's parent, adult family or household member, guardian, or custodian in exchange for money, goods, or other services and who while providing such services commits an offense under subdivision a of subsection 1 is guilty of a class B felony. Any such person who commits, allows to be committed, or conspires to commit, against the child, a sex offense as defined in chapter 12.1-20 is subject to the penalties provided in that chapter.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 50-25.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-25.1-11. Confidentiality of records - Authorized disclosures. All reports made under this chapter, as well as any other information obtained, are confidential and must be made available to:

1. A physician who has before the physician a child whom the physician reasonably suspects may have been abused or neglected.
2. A person who is authorized to place a child in protective custody and has before the person a child whom the person reasonably suspects may have been abused or neglected and the person requires the information in order to determine whether to place ~~such~~ the child in protective custody.

3. Authorized staff of the department, appropriate county social service boards, and appropriate state and local child protection team members.
4. Any person who is the subject of a report; provided, however, that the identity of persons reporting under this chapter is protected.
5. Public officials and their authorized agents who require ~~such~~ the information in connection with the discharge of their official duties.
6. A court whenever ~~it~~ the court determines that the information is necessary for the determination of an issue before the court.
7. A person engaged in a bona fide research purpose; provided, however, that no information identifying the subjects of a report is made available to the researcher unless the information is absolutely essential to the research purpose and the department gives prior approval.
8. A person who is identified in subsection 1 of section 50-25.1-03, and who has made a report of suspected child abuse or neglect, if the child is likely to or continues to come before the reporter in the reporter's official or professional capacity.
9. Parents or a legally appointed guardian of a child who is suspected of being, or having been, abused or neglected, provided the identity of persons making reports or supplying information under this chapter is protected. Unless the information is confidential under section 44-04-18.7, when a decision is made under section 50-25.1-05.1 that services are required to provide for the protection and treatment of an abused or neglected child, the department shall make a good-faith effort to provide written notice of the decision to persons identified in this subsection. The department shall consider any known domestic violence when providing notification under this section.
