

Fifty-seventh Legislative Assembly of North Dakota
In Regular Session Commencing Tuesday, January 9, 2001

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4011
(Senators Cook, Christenson, Lee)
(Representatives Boehm, Porter)

A concurrent resolution directing the Legislative Council to study the library system in North Dakota to determine the most efficient and effective methods for delivery of library services.

WHEREAS, the education of children and the continuing education of adults depends on the quality of the libraries and the materials available to them; and

WHEREAS, the library systems have developed over the years and should be reviewed to determine if improvements and efficiencies can be achieved; and

WHEREAS, technological advances on a statewide, national, and international level are redefining both the scope of and access to libraries and library materials;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN:

That the Legislative Council study the library system in North Dakota to determine the most efficient and effective methods for delivery of library services; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the study include a review of the use of technology by libraries, the location of each library in the state, and the opportunity for improving library services through the use of technology; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Council report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation necessary to implement the recommendations, to the Fifty-eighth Legislative Assembly.
