"SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 39-22-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

39-22-12. Officers to administer chapter - House car dealer, manufacturer, and distributor exemption. The director and any duly authorized representative shall be responsible for the administration of ~~the provisions of~~ this chapter. This chapter does not apply to house car dealers, manufacturers, and distributors."

Page 2, line 23, after "title" insert "- Limitation on tax liability of bona fide new owner"

Page 2, line 26, after "paid" insert "or that the bona fide new owner does not have any unpaid tax obligation on the mobile home"

Page 2, line 29, after the underscored period insert "A bona fide new owner of a mobile home for which verification of tax payment is required by this section is not liable for more than the tax levied upon the mobile home for the current year and the most recent preceding year for which the obligation accrued against a previous owner of the mobile home. For purposes of this section, "bona fide new owner" does not include a person who acquired ownership from the previous owner in a manner that shows an intent to evade a tax obligation on the mobile home.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 57-55-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. Before a mobile home is moved from its existing location, a moving permit must be obtained by the owner from the county director of tax equalization indicating that all taxes, penalties, and interest levied against the owner of the mobile home have been paid. A mobile home moving permit may not be denied to the bona fide new owner of a mobile home who has no unpaid tax obligation on the mobile home under section 3 of this Act. While the mobile home is being transported, the moving permit must be displayed on the rear of the mobile home. Any person who violates this provision is guilty of an infraction, for which a fine of no less than one hundred dollars and no more than five hundred dollars may be imposed."
