4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Property tax delinquency disqualifies obligor from elective political subdivision office. It is a qualification for a political subdivision elected office that the officeholder not be delinquent in property taxes collected by the county in which all or part of the political subdivision is located. The county auditor may not place on the ballot for election to any political subdivision office the name of any person who is not qualified to hold that office 10 under this section. On the first business day following March first of each year, the county 11 treasurer shall review the records in the county treasurer's office to determine whether any 12 person holding an elected political subdivision office in the county is not qualified to hold the 13 office under this section. Before March fifth, the county treasurer shall mail written notice to any 14 elected political subdivision officeholder who is not qualified to hold the office under this section notifying that person that the person's office will become vacant if the delinquency is not 15 16 eliminated by April first of that year. The office of any elected political subdivision officeholder 17 becomes vacant on April first if that person owes unpaid and delinquent property taxes 18 collected by the county in which all or part of the political subdivision is located. On the first 19 business day after April first, the county treasurer shall notify the county state's attorney of the 20 county of any political subdivision officeholder who remains delinquent in a property tax 21 obligation to the county, and if that person has not vacated the office, the state's attorney shall 22 petition the district court to order removal of that person from office.

SECTION 2. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act is effective for any term of office that begins after July 31, 2001.
