REMARKS OF SENATOR CHRISTENSON

As an educator, as we all are, I wish to draw special attention today to two outstanding examples of education events. We also want to commend the choir from the Bel Air School who sang today.

On behalf of Senators from Districts 42, 43, 17, and 18 of Grand Forks, I want to commend the Red River High Roughriders on their victory in the state hockey tournament this past weekend. These young people exhibited the skill, dedication, and discipline we hope to instill in young people. As a Red River High School teacher I am especially proud of coach Matt Malm and his team. It must be noted that the Fargo North Spartans were excellent challengers.

Secondly, I submit the following Proclamation:

Whereas, the citizens of North Dakota stand firmly committed to promoting reading as the catalyst for our students' future academic success, their preparation for America's jobs of the future, and their ability to compete in a global economy; and Whereas, the citizens of North Dakota understand the importance of community involvement in the education of our children and youth and that educational investments is in the best interest of the community's well-being and long-term quality of life; and Whereas, Read Across America, a national celebration of Dr. Seuss' birthday on March 2, promotes reading and adult involvement in the education of North Dakota's children: Now, Therefore, The North Dakota Senate hereby proclaims March 2, 2001, as Read Across North Dakota Day because, you're never too old, to wacky, too wild, to pick up a book and read to a child! Grab your books and read!
