MOTION

REP. ECKRE MOVED that a committee of four be appointed to escort the Scouts from various cities in North Dakota to the front of the chambers. SPEAKER BERNSTEIN appointed Representatives Koppang, Meier, Dosch and Byerly.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. BELTER: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

Tomorrow marks the 91st birthday of the Boy Scouts in America. On February 8, 1910, William Boyce of Chicago chartered the organization in the U.S. He first encountered Boy Scouts on a visit to London. On a very foggy London night, Mr. Boyce became lost and was assisted by a young boy in uniform. When he offered to pay the young boy, the boy told him he was a Boy Scout and he was just doing a good turn. Mr. Boyce was so intrigued, that he sought out the founder of Boy Scouts, Robert Baden-Powell and learned of the organization. Mr. Baden-Powell, a life-long British military man, based the Boy Scouts on African scouts used by the British Army in the Boer War. When Mr. Boyce returned to the U.S. he promptly chartered the organization here.

In the ninety-one years since, over 100 million young American boys and girls have grown into adulthood learning strong values and strong morals from their adult leaders. As the world has gotten more complex, the group still holds to its oath:

On my honor, I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and obey the Scout law; to help other people at all times, to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

Lately, Scouts have come under attack for keeping up their standards but all that has happened is unprecedented growth in Scouting. Today, over 3.4 million young people belong to Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers or Venture. Last year, Scouting added over 128,000 new members and a reason for the growth is simple - parents are concerned about what is going on in society and want positive role models for their kids - which Scouting provides. Scouting is a life long commitment to what is best about America and the young people before us exemplify that spirit.

Not to be forgotten are the 1.2 million adults that give unselfishly of their time and money to help Scouting. Many in this chamber are current or past adult leaders and many others are former Scouts. I would ask them all to stand so that our guests can see that they stand among friends!

Each sample so forwarded must be accompanied by a statement in the form of an affidavit from the buyer or prospective buyer, stating that the sample was taken in compliance with the provisions of sections 4-30-19 and 4-30-20, and the statement also must contain all information required in section 4-30-47, except that the signature of the seller is not required thereon.
