POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. KOPPELMAN: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

REQUEST

REP. BELTER REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. Koppelman be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

Mr. Speaker and members of the Assembly, 90 years ago this week, the man who would become our nation's 40th President was born. He grew up in the Midwest and came to exemplify the values and virtues most Americans share.

A Lifeguard, turned sportscaster, turned actor, he later embarked upon a political career which took him from the California governor's mansion to the White House.

He became President at a time when Americans needed a good dose of confidence, leadership, and patriotism...and he provided all three like few who have held the highest office in the land ever have.

Politically, he earned loyal admirers and his share of critics, but on one thing virtually all Americans agree: Ronald Wilson Reagan, as president, was a man of decency, charm and grace who inspired us and made us proud to be Americans, once again.

He had such respect for the Oval Office in which he labored for eight years, that he reportedly never even took his suit coat off in that historic room. He disarmed us with his wit, inspired us with his optimism and challenged us to dream big dreams. "... And why not," he said, "after all, we're Americans!"

Today, as he battles the terrible disease called Alzheimer's, I know that all North Dakotans join in wishing him and Mrs. Reagan all the best and in conveying our deepest gratitude for his exemplary service to our nation. Happy 90th Birthday, Mr. President!

¹ This amendment restores 2 FTE auditor I positions unfunded in the agency's base budget request and deleted in the Schafer and Hoeven budget recommendations. This amendment transfers $30,000 from operating expenses to salaries and wages to partially fund the $140,000 general fund cost of the positions.

² This amendment reduces, from $4,402 to $3,401, the amount provided for a market equity salary increase for the State Auditor. The amount included in the bill will provide for a monthly increase of $162 per month for the last 18 months of the biennium.

In Section 2 of the bill, the amount of estimated income to be generated from political subdivision audit fees is increased by $54,019, the amount of the executive budget compensation package funded from the collection of these audit fees, to match the amount appropriated in Section 1 of the bill.
