POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. DELMORE: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal.

This past weekend the Grand Forks Red River Roughriders won the State Hockey Tournament with a hard-fought 2-1, 5 overtime win over a very talented Fargo North team. The championship game lasted a record 92 minutes and 37 seconds.

Every player, coach, and fan of this great sport, who had the opportunity to be a part of this historic confrontation, truly felt the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat after the last goal was scored. This was a game that tested the skill, endurance, tenacity, and mental toughness of each skater to the limit. We, in Grand Forks, will remember this championship game in the same way people in our city remember coming back from the devastating flood in 1997. Those same skills that produced this state championship team in hockey are also a great part of the resurrection of our city. We are proud of these young people who showed that hard work, good sportsmanship, and dedication to a common cause can result in victory for all of us. This team and its accomplishments are truly an inspiration to young and old alike.

Red River High School is where I teach when I'm not here, and it gives me a special pride that two of my classroom students, Chuck Jacobi and Mike Eickman, were named to the all tournament team. Our team's goalie, Nate Ziegelmann, was named Mr. Hockey as well.

I would like to commend the entire team, Coach Matt Malm, the student body, the staff, and fans for this accomplishment. We, in Grand Forks, will remember Ryan Moore scoring the winning goal in this game as our own Miracle on Ice. I wish to thank all of these young people for the inspiration they left on the ice last Saturday night. You were truly a class act.
