	28	SEC	CTIO	N 10.	AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is
30 14-15-11. Notice of petition - Investigation and hearing.	29	amended a	nd re	enacte	ed as follows:
	30	14- 1	15-11	. Not	ice of petition - Investigation and hearing.

1	1.	a. After the filing of a petition to adopt a minor, the court shall fix a time and
2		place for hearing the petition. At least twenty days before the date of hearing,
3		notice of the filing of the petition and of the time and place of hearing must be 4		given by the petitioner to the department of human services ; any agency or 5		person individual whose consent to the adoption is required by this chapter 6		but who has not consented; a person an individual whose consent is 7		dispensed with upon any ground mentioned in subdivisions a, b, f, h, i, and j
8		of subsection 1 of section 14-15-06 but who has not consented; and any 9		person individual identified by the court as a natural biological parent or a
10		possible natural biological parent of the minor, upon making inquiry to the 11		extent necessary and appropriate, as in proceedings under sections 27-20-45
12		and 14-17-24, unless the person individual has relinquished parental rights or 13		the person's individual's parental rights have been previously terminated by a 14		court. The notice to the department of human services must be accompanied 15		by a copy of the petition.
16		b. Notice of the filing of a petition to adopt an adult must be given by the 17		petitioner at least twenty days before the date of the hearing to each living
18		parent of the adult to be adopted.
19	2.	An investigation must be made by a licensed child-placing agency to inquire into 20		the conditions and antecedents of a minor sought to be adopted and of the 21		petitioner for the purpose of ascertaining whether the adoptive home is a suitable 22		home for the minor and whether the proposed adoption is in the best interest of the 23		minor.
24	3.	A written report of the investigation must be filed with the court by the investigator
25		before the petition is heard.
26	4.	The report of the investigation must contain an evaluation of the placement, a
27		review of the child's history; a preplacement adoption assessment of the petitioner,
28		including a criminal history record investigation of the petitioner; and a
29		postplacement evaluation of the placement with a recommendation as to the 30		granting of the petition for adoption and any other information the court requires
31		regarding the petitioner or the minor.

1 5. An investigation and report is not required in cases in which a stepparent is the 2 petitioner or the person individual to be adopted is an adult. The department of 3 human services, when required to consent to the adoption, may give consent 4 without making the investigation. If the petitioner is a relative other than a 5 stepparent of the minor, the minor has lived with the petitioner for at least nine 6 months, no allegations of abuse or neglect have been filed against the petitioner or 7 any member of the petitioner's household, and the court is satisfied that the 8 proposed adoptive home is appropriate for the minor, the court may waive the 9 investigation and report required under this section. For the purpose of this 10 section, "relative" means any person having the following relationship to the minor 11 by marriage, blood, or adoption: grandparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, 12 stepsister, uncle, or aunt.

- 13 6. The department of human services, when required to consent to the adoption, may 14 request the licensed child-placing agency to make investigations of designated 15 portions of the inquiry as may be appropriate and to make a written report thereof 16 as a supplemental report to the court conduct further investigation and to make a 17 written report thereof as a supplemental report to the court.
- 7. After the filing of a petition to adopt an adult, the court by order shall direct that a copy of the petition and a notice of the time and place of the hearing be given to any person individual whose consent to the adoption is required but who has not consented and to each living parent of the adult to be adopted. The court may order an appropriate investigation to assist it in determining whether the adoption is in the best interest of the persons individuals involved.
- 8. Notice must be given in the manner appropriate under rules of civil procedure for the service of process in a civil action in this state or in any manner the court by order directs. Proof of the giving of the notice must be filed with the court before the petition is heard.

28 SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is 29 amended and reenacted as follows:

20	petitioner fo	or the adoption of another person individual to show proof that a health insurance
21	policy is in	effect which provides coverage for the person individual to be adopted. If proof of 22	health insu	rance coverage is submitted by the petitioner, no further bond of any kind may be 23	required by	the department or a county social service board in regard to health coverage of the 24	person indi	vidual to be adopted.
25	SEC	CTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is
26	amended a	nd reenacted as follows:
27	14-1	15-13. Appearance - Continuance - Disposition of petition.
28	1.	The petitioner and the individual to be adopted shall appear at the hearing on the
29		petition, unless the presence of either is excused by the court for good cause
30		shown.

7

- The court may continue the hearing from time to time to permit further observation, investigation, or consideration of any facts or circumstances affecting the granting of the petition.
- 3. If at the conclusion of the hearing, the court determines that the required consents have been obtained and that the adoption is in the best interest of the individual to be adopted, it the court may (a) issue:
  - a. Issue a final decree of adoption; or (b) issue
- 8 Issue an interlocutory decree of adoption, which by its own terms b. 9 automatically becomes a final decree of adoption on a day specified in the 10 decree, which that day may not be less than six months nor more than one 11 year after the minor was placed in the adoptive home by an agency or after 12 the department of human services or court was informed of the custody of the 13 minor by the petitioner, unless sooner vacated by the court for good cause 14 shown. In an interlocutory decree of adoption, the court shall provide for observation, investigation, and further report on the adoptive home during the 15 16 interlocutory period.
- If the requirements for a decree under subsection 3 have not been met, the court shall dismiss the petition and determine the person to have custody of the minor, including the petitioners if in the best interest of the minor. In an interlocutory
- decree of adoption the court may provide for observation, investigation, and further report on the adoptive home during the interlocutory period. The court shall make a finding as to the reasonableness of expenses reported under section 14-15-10.
- 23 5. If the requirements for a decree under subsection 3 have not been met, the court 24 shall dismiss the petition and determine the individual to have custody of the minor, 25 including the petitioners if in the best interest of the minor.

26 SECTION 14. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is

- 27 amended and reenacted as follows:
- 28

14-15-14. Effect of petition and decree of adoption.

A final decree of adoption and an interlocutory decree of adoption which has become final, whether issued by a court of this state or of any other place, have the following effect as to matters within the jurisdiction or before a court of this state:

1		a.	Except with respect to a spouse of the petitioner and relatives of the spouse,
2			to relieve the natural biological parents of the adopted individual of all
3			parental rights and responsibilities, and to terminate all legal relationships
4			between the adopted individual and the individual's relatives, including the 5			individual's natural biological parents, so that the adopted individual thereafter
6			is a stranger to the individual's former relatives for all purposes including 7			inheritance and the interpretation or construction of documents, statutes, and 8			instruments, whether executed before or after the adoption is decreed, which 9			that do not expressly include the individual by name or by some designation
10			not based on a parent and child or blood relationship; and 11		b.	To create the relationship of parent and child between petitioner and the 12			adopted individual, as if the adopted individual were a legitimate blood 13			descendant of the petitioner, for all purposes including inheritance and 14			applicability of statutes, documents, and instruments, whether executed
15			before or after the adoption is decreed, which do not expressly exclude an 16			adopted individual from their operation or effect.
17	2.	Noty	withstanding the provisions of subsection 1, if a parent of a child dies without 18		the	relationship of parent and child having been previously terminated and a 19		spo	use of the living parent thereafter adopts the child, the child's right of 20		inhe	ritance from or through the deceased parent is unaffected by the adoption.
21	3.	An i	nterlocutory decree of adoption, while it is in force, has the same legal effect as 22		a fin	al decree of adoption. If an interlocutory decree of adoption is vacated, it must 23		be a	as though void from its issuance, and the rights, liabilities, and status of all
24		affe	cted persons individuals which have not become vested must be governed
25		acco	ordingly.
26	SEC		N 15. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 14-15-15 of the North Dakota
27	Century Co	de is	amended and reenacted as follows:
28	2.	Sub	ject to the disposition of an appeal, upon the expiration of one year after an
29		ado	ption decree is issued the decree cannot be questioned by any person
30		indiv	vidual, including the petitioner, in any manner upon any ground, including fraud, 31		misr	representation, failure to give any required notice, or lack of jurisdiction of the

1		part	ies or of the subject matter, unless, in the case of the adoption of a minor the
2		peti	tioner has not taken custody of the minor , or, in the case of the adoption of an
3		adu	It, the adult had no knowledge of the decree within the one-year period.
4	SEC	стю	N 16. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5	amended a	nd re	enacted as follows:
6	14-1	15-16	. Hearings and records in adoption proceedings - Confidential nature -
7	Disclosure	e of ic	dentifying and nonidentifying information - Retroactive operation.
8	1.	The	provisions of this section supersede any other law regarding public hearings
9		and	records.
10	2.	For	purposes of this section:
11		a.	"Department" means the department of human services.
12		b.	"Genetic parent" includes a man presumed or adjudicated to be the adopted
13			person's individual's father under chapter 14-17 and an alleged father when 14			so indicated in the files of the child-placing agency or the department, but only 15			if there exists in those files information that corroborates the allegation of 16			paternity, including the existence of communications between the alleged 17			father and the child-placing agency, or between the alleged father and the 18			genetic mother or members of her family, or such other corroborative
19			information as may be permitted by rules adopted by the department.
20		c.	"Genetic sibling" means persons with the genetic relationship of sister,
21			brother, half-sister, or half-brother.
22		b.	"Notify" means to make a personal and confidential contact with the individual 23			to whom a disclosure of identifying information has been requested. The 24			personal and confidential contact must be made by an employee or agent of 25			the child-placing agency that processed the adoption or by some other 26			licensed child-placing agency designated by the individual initiating the 27			search.
28	3.	All h	nearings held in proceedings actions under this chapter must be held in closed
29		cou	rt without admittance of any person individual other than essential officers of 30		the	court, the parties, their witnesses, counsel, persons individuals who have not 31		pre	viously consented to the adoption but are required to consent, the parents of an

1		adult to be adopted, and representatives of the agencies present to perform their
2		official duties. Upon a showing of good cause by the petitioner, the court may
3		prohibit the parents of an adult to be adopted from attending the adoption hearings
4		and proceedings. A parent of an adult to be adopted who is prohibited by the court
5		from attending the proceedings may submit relevant testimony or information
6		regarding the petition to the court in writing.
7	4.	All papers; records; and information pertaining to the adoption identifying and 8		nonidentifying information relating to an adopted individual, birth siblings, birth
9		parents, or adoptive parents, whether part of the permanent record of the court or 10		of a file in the department or in an agency are confidential and may be disclosed
11		only in accordance with this section. Papers, records, and information directly 12		pertaining to the adoption must be kept permanently by the department and 13		agency.
14	5.	Nonidentifying information, if known, concerning undisclosed genetic parents shall 15		must be furnished at a reasonable fee to:
16		a. The adoptive parents at the time of adoptive placement or upon their written
17		request-;
18		b. An adopted adult upon written request-; or
19		c. A birth parent upon written request.
20	6.	The clerk of the appropriate district court, upon request and payment of the proper 21		fee, shall furnish a certified copy of the decree of adoption to the adoptive parents,
22		the guardian of an adopted minor child, or an adopted adult, provided the decree
23		does not disclose the identity of the genetic parents or the name of the adopted
24		person prior to individual before the adoption proceedings action.
25	7.	At Before the child reaches adulthood, at the discretion of the child-placing agency,
26		with due regard for confidentiality and upon the consent of all the parties involved, 27		exchanges of identifying or nonidentifying information may take place between the 28		genetic parents, adoptive parents, and adopted child as follows:.
29		a. At the time the child is placed for adoption, the genetic parents and the 30		adoptive parents may meet, in person, without disclosing their names.

1 The genetic parents and the adoptive parents may exchange correspondence b. 2 through the child-placing agency. 3 The child-placing agency may inform the genetic parents of the death of the c. 4 child they placed for adoption. 5 d. The child placing agency may inform the adopted adult, or the adoptive 6 parents of a minor of the death of a genetic parent. 7 The child-placing agency may inform the genetic parents of pertinent medical e. 8 information concerning the adopted child or adult. 9 f. The child-placing agency may inform the adopted adult or the adoptive 10 parents of a minor of pertinent medical information concerning the genetic 11 parents. Disclosure of a party's identifying information may not occur unless 12 the party consents to disclosure. 13 If one parent objects, the identifying information disclosed by the agency may b. 14 only relate to the consenting parent or parents. 15 8. An adopted person individual who is eighteen years of age or older may request 16 the department to initiate the disclosure of information identifying the adopted 17 person's individual's genetic parents or to initiate the disclosure of nonidentifying 18 information not on file with the department or a child-placing agency. 19 9. An adopted person individual who is eighteen years of age or older may request 20 the department to initiate the disclosure of information identifying the adopted 21 person's individual's adult genetic sibling. 22 10. A genetic parent of a person an adopted individual, with respect to whom that 23 parent's parental rights were voluntarily terminated, after that person individual has 24 reached twenty-one years of age, may request the department to initiate the 25 disclosure of information identifying that person individual or to initiate the 26 disclosure of nonidentifying information not on file with the department or a 27 child-placing agency. 28 11. An adult genetic sibling of a person, with respect to whom the parental rights of the 29 sibling's and the person's mutual parent or parents were voluntarily terminated an 30 adopted individual, after that person individual has reached twenty-one years of

- age, may request the department to initiate disclosure of information identifying that person individual.
- An adult child of a deceased adopted individual may request the department to initiate the disclosure of information identifying the adopted individual's genetic parents or to initiate the disclosure of nonidentifying information not on file with the department or child-placing agency.
- 7 13. An adult child of an adopted individual who is still living may not request the 8 department to initiate disclosure of information identifying the adopted individual's 9 genetic parents or to initiate the disclosure of nonidentifying information not on file 10 with the department or child-placing agency.
- 11 14. The department shall, within five working days of receipt of a request under 12 subsection 8, 9, 10, or 11, 12, or 13, notify in writing a child-placing agency having 13 access to the requested information. If the department's records do not identify 14 any child-placing agency having access to the requested information, the 15 department, within five working days after receipt of the request, shall so notify the 16 requester in writing. The requester may designate a child-placing agency from a 17 list of such agencies furnished by the department, ask the department to designate 18 an agency, or terminate the request.
- 19 13. 15. Within ninety days after receiving notice of a request made under subsection 8, 9, 20 10, or 11, 12, or 13, the child-placing agency shall make complete and reasonable 21 efforts to notify the person individual or persons individuals with respect to which a 22 disclosure of identifying information has been requested. The child-placing agency 23 must certify the results of its efforts to the department within one hundred twenty 24 days after receipt of the request. The child-placing agency may charge a 25 reasonable fee to the requester for the cost of making a search pursuant to the 26 request. All communications under this subsection are confidential. For purposes 27 of this subsection, "notify" means a personal and confidential contact with the 28 person with respect to whom a disclosure of identifying information has been 29 requested. The personal and confidential contact may not be by mail and must be 30 by an employee or agent of the child-placing agency which processed the pertinent 31 adoption, or some other licensed child placing agency designated by the

1 child placing agency. If the search is not completed within ninety days, additional 2 time may be requested. Approval of this request must be given by the individual 3 requesting the search. 4 14. 16. The personal and confidential contact must be evidenced by an affidavit of 5 notification executed by the person individual who notified each genetic parent, 6 adopted person individual, or genetic sibling and certifying that each genetic 7 parent, adopted person individual, or genetic sibling contacted was given the 8 following information: 9 The nature of the identifying information to which the agency has access. a. 10 b. The nature of any nonidentifying information requested. 11 The date of the request of the adopted person individual, genetic parent, or c. 12 genetic sibling. 13 d. The right of the genetic parent, adopted person individual, or genetic sibling to 14 file, authorize disclosure, or refuse to authorize disclosure. 15 e. The effect of a failure of the genetic parent, adopted person individual, or 16 genetic sibling to either authorize disclosure or refuse to authorize disclosure. 17 15. 17. An adopted person individual, genetic parent, or genetic sibling, with respect to 18 whom a disclosure of identifying information has been requested, may authorize 19 disclosure, refuse to authorize disclosure, or take no action. If no action is taken in 20 response to a request, the child-placing agency must treat that as a refusal to 21 authorize disclosure, except that it does not preclude disclosure after the person's 22 individual's death. 23 18. If the child-placing agency has been able to locate only one genetic parent who 24 authorizes disclosure and the other genetic parent cannot be located, the 25 identifying information must be disclosed to the adopted individual. The 26 information disclosed by the agency may relate only to the consenting parent. 27 19. If the child-placing agency has located both genetic parents and only one parent 28 authorizes disclosure, the information disclosed by the agency may only relate to 29 the consenting parent. 30 16. 20. The certification of the child-placing agency to the department must include:

1		a.	A sta	atement of whether it has been able to notify the person individual about
2			whor	n a disclosure of identifying information was requested and whether a
3			notifi	cation was precluded by the death of the person individual.
4		b.	lf a g	penetic sibling was to be notified at the request of an adopted person
5			indiv	idual, or if an adopted person individual was to be notified at the request 6			of a	genetic sibling, a statement of whether either person individual knows the 7			ident	ity of any mutual genetic parent.
8		c.	Assu	irances that:
9			(1)	No disclosure of identifying information has been made with respect to 10				any adopted person individual, genetic parent, or genetic sibling who 11				has not authorized the disclosure in writing unless the child-placing 12				agency has verified that the person individual has died leaving no
13				unrevoked written refusal to authorize disclosure.
14			(2)	Any disclosure of identifying information that might lawfully be made
15				under this section was made within ten days after the date of receipt of 16				written authorization or the date on which the agency verified that the 17				person individual had died.
18		d.	Сорі	es of any written authorization of disclosure or refusal to authorize
19			discl	osure.
20		e.	A sta	atement that the person individual about whom disclosure of identifying 21			infor	mation was requested has neither authorized nor refused to authorize 22			discl	osure at the time of the certification.
23		f.	The	date of each notification.
24		g.	A co	py of each affidavit of notification.

amended and reenacted as follows:

12 14-15-17. Recognition of foreign decree affecting adoption. A decree of court 13 terminating the relationship of parent and child or establishing the relationship by adoption 14 issued pursuant to due process of law by a court of any other jurisdiction within or without 15 outside of the United States must be recognized in this state and the rights and obligations of 16 the parties as to matters within the jurisdiction of this state must be determined as though the 17 decree were issued by a court of this state.

18 SECTION 18. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is 19 amended and reenacted as follows:

20 14-15-18. Application for new birth record. Within thirty days after an adoption 21 decree becomes final, the clerk of the court shall prepare an application for a birth record in the 22 new name of the adopted individual and forward the application to the appropriate vital statistics 23 office of the place, if known, where the adopted individual was born and forward a copy of the 24 decree to the department of human services of this state for statistical purposes. In the case of 25 the adoption of a person an individual born outside of the United States, the court may make 26 findings, based on evidence from the petitioner and other reliable state or federal sources, on 27 the date and place of birth and parentage of the adopted person individual. These findings 28 must be certified by the court and included with the report of adoption filed with the state 29 registrar of vital statistics pursuant to section 23-02.1-17.

30 SECTION 19. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is 31 amended and reenacted as follows:

1	14-1	15-19. Relinquishment and termination of parent and child relationship.
2	1.	The rights of a parent with reference to a child, including parental right to control
3		the child or to withhold consent to an adoption, may be relinquished and the 4		relationship of parent and child terminated in or prior to before an adoption
5		proceeding action as provided in this section.
6	2.	All rights of a parent with reference to a child, including the right to receive notice of 7		a hearing on a petition for adoption, may be relinquished and the relationship of 8		parent and child terminated by a writing, signed by the parent, regardless of the 9		age of the parent:
10		a. In the presence of a representative of an agency taking custody of the child,
11		whether the agency is within or without outside of the state or in the presence
12		and with the approval of a judge of a court of record within or without outside
13		this state in which the minor was present or in which the parent resided at the 14		time it was signed , which relinquishment may be withdrawn within ten days
15		after it is signed or the child is born, whichever is later; and the relinquishment
16		is invalid unless it states that the parent has this right of withdrawal; or 17		b. In any other situation if the petitioner has had custody of the minor for two 18		years, but only if notice of the adoption proceeding has been given to the 19		parent and the court finds, after considering the circumstances of the 20		relinquishment and the long continued custody by the petitioner, that the best
21		interest of the child requires the granting of the adoption.
22	3.	In addition to any other action or proceeding provided by law, the relationship of 23		parent and child may be terminated by a court order issued in connection with an 24		adoption proceeding action under this chapter on any ground provided by other 25		law for termination of the relationship, and in any event on the ground (a) that:
26		a. That the minor has been abandoned by the parent, (b) that:
27		b. That by reason of the misconduct, faults, or habits of the parent or the 28		repeated and continuous neglect or refusal of the parent, the minor is without 29		proper parental care and control, or subsistence, education, or other care or 30		control necessary for the minor's physical, mental, or emotional health or 31		morals, or, by reason of physical or mental incapacity the parent is unable to

1		provide necessary parental care for the minor, and the court finds that the
2		conditions and causes of the behavior, neglect, or incapacity are irremediable
3		or will not be remedied by the parent, and that by reason thereof the minor is 4		suffering or probably will suffer serious physical, mental, moral, or emotional
5		harm , or (c) that ; or 6		c. That in the case of a parent not having custody of a minor, the noncustodial
7		parent's consent is being unreasonably withheld contrary to the best interest
8		of the minor.
9	4.	For the purpose of proceeding under this chapter, a decree terminating all rights of 10		a parent with reference to a child or the relationship of parent and child issued by a
11		court of competent jurisdiction in this or any other state dispenses with the consent
12		to adoption proceedings of a parent whose rights or parent and child relationship
13		are terminated by the decree and with any required notice of an adoption
14		proceeding action other than as provided in this section.
15	5.	A petition for termination of the relationship of parent and child made in connection 16		with an adoption proceeding action may be made by:
17		a. Either parent if termination of the relationship is sought with respect to the 18		other parent;
19		b. The petitioner for adoption, the guardian of the person individual, the legal 20		custodian of the child, or the individual standing in parental relationship to the 21		child;
22		c. An agency; or
23		d. Any other person individual having a legitimate interest in the matter.
24	6.	Before the petition is heard, notice of the hearing thereon on the petition and 25		opportunity to be heard must be given the parents of the child, the guardian of the 26		person of the child, the person having legal custody of the child, any proposed 27		custodian of the child, and, in the discretion of the court, a person appointed to 28		represent any party.
29	7.	Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 2, a relinquishment of parental rights
30		with respect to a child, executed under this section, may be withdrawn by the 31		parent, and a decree of a court terminating the parent and child relationship under

- this section may be vacated by the court upon motion of the parent, if the child is not on placement for adoption and the person having custody of the child consents in writing to the withdrawal or vacation of the decree.
- 4 SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Section 14-15-20 of the North Dakota Century Code is 5 amended and reenacted as follows:
- 14-15-20. Adoption and legitimation by conduct. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this chapter, the biological father of an illegitimate minor adopts and legitimates a minor by publicly acknowledging the minor as that person's man's child, receiving the minor into that person's man's home, with the consent of that person's man's wife, if that person man is married, and otherwise treating the minor as if the minor were legitimate. Thereafter, the minor is deemed the legitimate child of the father for all purposes from the time of birth of the minor, the same as if the adoption had been finally decreed pursuant to this chapter.
