Page 1, line 1, after "A BILL" replace the remainder of the bill with "for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 32-19 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to requests for notice of intention to foreclose.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 32-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Request for notice of intention to foreclose.

1. A person with an interest in the real estate, other than the legal owner of record, may record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real estate is located a request for service of a notice of intention to foreclose a real estate mortgage or contract for deed. The request for notice must be recorded as a separate and distinct document. The request must state:
 - a. The recording data for the mortgage or contract for deed on which a notice of intention to foreclose is requested;
 - b. The names of the parties to the mortgage or contract for deed on which a notice of intention to foreclose is requested;
 - c. The name and address of the person requesting service of a notice of intention to foreclose; and
 - d. A legally sufficient description of the real property collateral affected by the real estate mortgage or contract for deed.
2. A person that records a request under subsection 1 before the date on which a notice before foreclosure required by section 32-19-20 is served is entitled to be served with a notice of intention to foreclose. The person must be served by first-class mail addressed to the person at the address shown on the recorded request. Recording a request does not affect the title to the real property collateral and does not impute knowledge to any person of an interest in the real property collateral held or claimed by the person requesting service of a notice of intention to foreclose. A person that records a request for service of a notice of intention to foreclose under this section may subsequently record an amendment withdrawing the request or supplementing or correcting the person's name, address, or other information in the request.

3. The notice of intention to foreclose required by this section must contain:
 - a. A description of the real estate;
 - b. The date of the mortgage or contract for deed;
 - c. The name and address of the recordholder of the mortgage or contract for deed; and
 - d. A statement that one or more defaults exist under the mortgage or contract for deed and that if the defaults are not cured within the time permitted by law, proceedings may be commenced to foreclose the mortgage or contract for deed. The statement required by this subsection is not customer information for the purposes of chapter 6-08.1.
4. If foreclosure of a mortgage or contract for deed on real estate is completed and a person that had timely recorded a proper request for service of a notice of intention to foreclose under subsection 1 was not served with a notice of intention to foreclose, the person is entitled to recover five hundred dollars from the foreclosing creditor. No other remedy or sanction may be imposed against the foreclosing creditor on behalf of the person for failure to serve a notice of intention to foreclose. Failure to serve the notice does not constitute a defense to the foreclosure or invalidate the foreclosure in any way."

Page 1, line 1, after "A BILL" replace the remainder of the bill with "for an Act to provide for the termination of wind energy development leases.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. Duty of lessee to have terminated or forfeited wind energy development leases released - Publication notice - Satisfaction of lease to be recorded - Notice to real property owner - Remedies. When a wind energy development lease given on real property situated and recorded in a county in this state terminates or is forfeited, the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns, within fifteen days after the date of the termination or forfeiture, shall have the lease surrendered in writing. The surrender must be signed by the party surrendering the lease, acknowledged, and placed on record in the county where the leased real property is situated without cost to the property owner. If the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns fails or neglects to execute and record the surrender within the time required, the property owner may serve upon the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns of record, in person or by registered mail, at the lessee's last-known address, or if the post-office address is not shown of record then by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the real property is situated, a written notice in substantially the following form:

To _____: I, the undersigned, owner of the following described land situated in _____ County, North Dakota: (description of land) upon which a lease dated _____, _____, was given to _____, _____, notify you that the lease has terminated or become forfeited by breach of its terms, that I declare the lease forfeited and void and that, unless you, within twenty days from this date, notify the recorder of the county as provided by law that the lease has not been forfeited, I will file with the recorder a satisfaction of lease as provided by law, and I demand that you execute or have executed a proper surrender of the lease and that you put the same of record in the office of the recorder of the county within twenty days from this date.

Dated _____, _____.

After twenty days from the date of service, registration, or first publication of the notice, the owner of the real property may file with the recorder of the county where the property is situated a satisfaction of lease setting forth that the affiant is the owner of the property, that the lease has terminated or that the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns has failed or neglected to comply with the terms of the lease, reciting the facts constituting the failure and that the lease has been forfeited and is void, and setting out in satisfaction of lease a copy of the notice served and time of the service. If the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns gives written notice within twenty days after service to the recorder of the county where the property is located that the lease has not been forfeited and that the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns still claim that the lease is in full force and effect, the satisfaction of lease may not be recorded but the recorder shall notify the owner of the property of the action of the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns and the owner of the property is entitled to the remedies provided by law for the cancellation of the disputed lease. If the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns fails to notify the recorder, the recorder shall record the satisfaction of lease and thereafter the record of the lease is not notice to the public of the existence of the lease or of any interest therein, or rights thereunder, and the record may not be received in evidence in a court of the state on behalf of the lessee or the lessee's successors or assigns, against the lessor or the lessor's successors or assigns.

SECTION 2. Surrender of wind energy development lease by lessee. A wind energy development lease that has been or may hereafter be recorded in the office of the recorder of a county may be discharged and canceled of record by the recording of a certificate of cancellation signed by the lessee or the lessee's assigns of record, or the lessee's duly authorized attorney in fact or personal representative, including a foreign executor or administrator, or a corporation or limited liability company by its duly authorized officers or managers surrendering all of the lessee's right, title, and interest in and to the lease, which certificate must be acknowledged as prescribed by law.

SECTION 3. Wind energy development leases - Termination.

Notwithstanding any other law, a lease for a wind energy development project or wind turbine terminates five years after the date of the lease unless at least one hundred kilowatts of electricity is produced from a wind turbine located on the leasehold."

A member of the board shall qualify by taking the oath of office required of civil officers and shall hold office until a successor is appointed and qualified. The governor shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term. The board may employ and compensate attorneys, investigative staff, clerical assistants, or others to assist in the performance of the duties of the board.

A majority of the board constitutes a quorum to transact business, make any determination, or take any action. The board shall keep a record of its proceedings and of applications for licenses. Applications and records must be preserved for at least six years beyond the disposition of the application or record or the last annual registration of the licensee, whichever is longer.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-10. Application - Examination fee. To obtain a license to practice podiatric medicine, a person shall submit an application and any other documentation required by the board to the board in the manner prescribed by the board. The applicant shall submit evidence that the applicant has the required qualifications and shall pay to the board a fee of not more than ~~five hundred one thousand~~ one thousand dollars.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-14. When license issued without examination. The board may issue a license without examination to a podiatrist of another state or Canadian province if:

1. The other state or Canadian province grants like privileges to podiatrists of this state;
2. The other state or Canadian province maintains equal statutory requirements for practicing podiatric medicine;
3. The applicant pays a fee of not more than ~~five hundred one thousand~~ one thousand dollars as determined by the board;
4. The applicant has been engaged legally in the active practice of podiatric medicine for at least two years immediately preceding the date of application;
5. The applicant presents satisfactory evidence to the board indicating the current status of a license to practice podiatric medicine which has been issued by the proper agency in another state or Canadian province;
6. The applicant has not had a license suspended or revoked, or has not engaged in conduct warranting or which would have warranted disciplinary action against a licensee if the conduct was committed in this state or elsewhere, or has not been subjected to disciplinary action in another state or Canadian province. If an applicant does not satisfy the requirements of this subsection, the board shall refuse to issue a license unless the board determines that the public will be protected through issuance of a license with conditions or limitations considered appropriate by the board; and
7. The applicant submits with the application the following information for the five-year period before the date of filing the application:
 - a. The name and address of the applicant's professional liability insurance carrier in the other state or Canadian province; and

- b. The number, date, and disposition of any podiatric medical malpractice settlement or award made to the plaintiff relating to the quality of podiatric medical treatment.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-15. Renewal of license - Fee - Established by board - Failure to pay - Reinstatement. Each licensed and practicing podiatrist shall pay the annual renewal license fee established by the board. The license fee may be increased in accordance with the number of years licensed and practicing in North Dakota, but may not exceed ~~five hundred~~ one thousand dollars. The fee must be paid on or before the renewal date established by the board. The person is entitled to an annual certificate or license upon payment of the fee. If the renewal fee is not paid within six months after the date established by the board, the license of the delinquent licensee must be revoked and may not be reissued except upon a new application and the payment of the renewal fee established by the board plus twenty-five dollars and the costs of any hearing held concerning revocation of a license for nonpayment.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 43-05-16.8 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-05-16.8. Loan for litigation expenses. Subject to approval by the emergency commission, the board may borrow funds sufficient to pay for attorney's fees and costs incurred in investigations, administrative proceedings, and litigation resulting from the board performing its duties. ~~Notwithstanding section 43-05-15, the~~ The board may establish an annual renewal license fee for each year following the issuance of a loan under this section, and the fee must be maintained until the loan is fully repaid, including any accrued interest. ~~The amount of the annual renewal license fee assessed under this section may not exceed one thousand dollars.~~ Once the loan is paid in full, the annual renewal license fee must revert to the amount established by the board before the issuance of the loan. The notice of a proposed rule to assess the fee in this section or revert to the previous license fee may be sent by certified mail to each individual licensed by the board in lieu of the publication requirements for the notice in chapter 28-32.

SECTION 6. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act becomes effective June 13, 2003, and sections 2 through 5 of this Act apply to all applications and renewals beginning with the 2004 licensure year.

SECTION 7. EMERGENCY. This Act is declared to be an emergency measure."
