The roll was called and all members were present except Representatives Belter, Bernstein, Clark, Delzer, Eckre, Galvin, R. Kelsch, Nottestad, and Wentz.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. METCALF: Madam Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.

REQUEST

REP. METCALF REQUESTED that his remarks be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

Today is the opening day of the 66th Annual North Dakota Winter Show located in Valley City. The North Dakota Winter Show had its beginning in the middle 30's as a Winter exposition of the agriculture industry in North Dakota with an emphasis on family and youth. Starting as a livestock show through the years it was supported by every major purebred breeder throughout the state. From its humble beginning using garage and warehouse space in down town Valley City it was expanded into its current four acres of indoor display area and an arena with 3500 seating capacity for many different types of agricultural exhibits and entertainment features. In the late 70's the livestock shows were opening to the world. Since then, livestock from 27 other states and four countries have been on display or entered into competition. In addition to livestock, the show is noted for its seed show, known to be the largest in the world. Each year, FFA and 4-H members by the hundreds participate in the many judging and showmanship contests. Add activities of special interest for the ladies and you have an all around family fun and educational event second to none.

As times change, so does the Winter Show. It started as a three day show, expanded to a seven day show, advanced to an eleven day show and currently runs for ten days starting the first Friday of March each year. The North Dakota Winter Show is responsive to the needs of the state as an additional livestock show was added in the first week of December and is known as the North Star Classic. This year more than 20 horse events will be held. Every major horse association in the area will be holding shows and contests in the Winter Show building, probably the finest horse show facility within a four state area. In addition several 4-H shows have been scheduled together with beef herd production sales and show horse clinics and seminars. The Winter Show is also the home for the North Dakota Agriculture Hall of Fame, where many of our leaders are recognized for their contribution to the development and expansion of the agriculture community as we know it today.

All North Dakotans and their friends are invited to become a part of the show by coming to Valley City to experience the history and learn the future of agriculture of this Great State as presented by the North Dakota Winter Show.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. WIELAND: Madam Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

REQUEST

REP. KOPPELMAN REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. Wieland be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

We received some sad news today. I would like to read a statement from West Fargo Mayor Rich Mattern.

Today our hearts go out to all the family and friends on the passing of long time City Auditor, Mike McLeod. To those of us within the city of West Fargo, Mike was a peer, mentor and above all else a dear friend.

Mike's devotion to the city was immense and his for work for the city, unparalleled. He enjoyed being with people, working with them, developing relationships, working with other staff members and in short, Mike was a people person and was loved by everyone.

Mike is no longer with us, but his spirit will be with us, watching over his family, friends and West Fargo, forever.
