ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2387

Introduced by

Senators Taylor, Lindaas, Nichols

Representatives Brusegaard, Mueller, Pollert

1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 10-30.5 of the North Dakota
2 Century Code, relating to North Dakota development fund equity in value-added agriculture
3 businesses; and to amend and reenact section 54-34.3-12 of the North Dakota Century Code, 4 relating to the value-added agriculture promotion and equity program.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

6 SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 10-30.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is 7 created and enacted as follows:

8 Value-added agriculture promotion and equity program.

- 9 1. The corporation shall administer a value-added agriculture equity program as part 10 of the value-added agriculture promotion and equity program under section 11 54-34.3-12. An equity ownership position taken by the corporation under this 12 section in a value-added agriculture business may not exceed forty percent of the 13 value of the project.
- 14 2. The corporation shall divest the corporation's interest in the value-added 15 agriculture business within five years. If the corporation recognizes a profit upon 16 divestiture, the corporation shall return the profit to the fund under section 17 10-30.5-10.
- 18 a. Except as provided under subdivision b, the maximum profit margin for 19 divestiture by the state under this section is twenty percent.
- 20 b. If the corporation recognizes a profit upon divestiture, the corporation shall 21 make fifty percent of the corporation's equity interest available for purchase 22 by beginning farmers, as defined under section 57-38-67. The maximum 23 price for the divested interest under this subdivision is ninety percent of the 24 original value.

- 1 3. To be eligible to receive equity under this section, an applicant must meet 2 requirements of the value-added agriculture promotion and equity program under 3 section 54-34.3-12 and requirements established by the corporation. An applicant
4 for equity under this section shall match any equity provided under this section.

5 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 54-34.3-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is 6 amended and reenacted as follows:

7 54-34.3-12. Value-added agriculture promotion and equity program.

- 8 1. The value-added agriculture promotion and equity board is established. The board 9 consists of eight members as follows: the director of the department of commerce 10 division of economic development and finance or the director's representative; the 11 agriculture commissioner or the commissioner's representative; a representative of 12 the state board of agricultural research and education, appointed by the governor;
13 a representative of the North Dakota state university extension service, appointed 14 by the governor; a representative of the Bank of North Dakota, appointed by the 15 governor; two representatives of the private sector, appointed by the governor; and 16 a representative of the farm credit system, appointed by the governor.
- 17 2. The board shall administer the value-added agriculture promotion and equity 18 program and shall review business plans for value-added agriculture projects. The 19 board shall adopt procedures and guidelines for administering the program. The 20 board shall meet on a regular schedule to review project proposals and prioritize 21 projects based on the projects' likelihood for success. The board shall promote the 22 formation, development, and growth of these projects and take steps to improve 23 the projects' chances for success. Additionally, the board shall review projects for 24 equity under section 1 of this Act.
- 25 3. If a project is selected for promotion by the board, the board shall appoint a 26 financing advisory group for the project. The financing advisory group may include
27 representatives of the private sector, a representative of the Bank of North Dakota,
28 and an individual experienced in capital formation. The financing advisory group, 29 with active assistance provided by any of the state's institutions of higher education 30 and the local or regional economic development organization, shall assist the 31 project in completing a feasibility study and a business plan for the project and in

1 seeking early stage money. The financing advisory group shall assist the project
2 in pursuing equity investors, establishing an initial board of directors, locating
3 professional services for completion of the business plan, and in approaching 4 lenders to fund the project development.

5 4. If a project is selected for equity consideration, the board shall appoint a financing
6 advisory group for the project. The financing advisory group may include
7 representatives of the private sector, a representative of the Bank of North Dakota,
8 a representative of the department of commerce, and an individual experienced in 9 capital formation. The financing advisory group, with active assistance provided by 10 any of the state's institutions of higher education and the local or regional 11 economic development organization, shall assist the project in completing a 12 feasibility study and a business plan for the project. Upon completion of the 13 feasibility study and business plan, the financing advisory group shall assist in 14 completing and submitting an application to the North Dakota development fund for 15 equity under section 1 of this Act. If a project already has a completed feasibility 16 study and business plan that are satisfactory to the financing advisory group, the 17 financing advisory group may forgo creating new plans. If a project is rejected for 18 equity consideration, the board shall report why the project was rejected and what 19 steps might be taken to increase the likelihood of selection.

20 5. The value-added agriculture promotion and equity program is located in the 21 department of commerce division of economic development and finance. The 22 department shall provide any necessary administrative assistance. Members of 23 the value-added agriculture promotion and equity board and members of a 24 financing advisory group are entitled to reimbursement for mileage and travel as 25 specified in section 54-06-09 and expenses as specified in section 44-08-04 for 26 performing their duties.

27 ~~5-~~ 6. The board may impose a fee of not more than one thousand dollars per project for 28 review and assistance provided for the project. Fees collected under this section 29 must be deposited in the operating fund of the department of commerce division of 30 economic development and finance and may be expended for expenses of

- 1 members of the board and the financing advisory group for review and assistance
- 2 provided for the project.
