In the interest of public health, safety, and welfare, to conserve natural resources, to promote recovery of the constituent components of waste petroleum-based products, to encourage recycling and market development for the recovered components of petroleum-based products, and to support the national agenda for reducing our dependence on foreign oil, the state establishes a policy on the management of waste petroleum-based products, based upon known science, that states:

1. The waste management priorities for petroleum-based products in this state are to:
 - a. Reduce the amount of waste generated in the most beneficial manner, yearly, through the collection of waste products at the time of origination;
 - b. Remediate that waste in the most beneficial manner according to a plan established and published by the state department of health;
 - c. Remediate waste rubber tire stockpiles located in city and county landfills, at illegal or noncompliant waste rubber piles, or located at the location of tire retailers;

"The legislative assembly in the interest of national energy security, public health, safety, and welfare and in order to conserve natural resources and prevent pollution has established this Act which requires us to accept and manage waste rubber such as tires, belts, and hoses from vehicles in exchange for an equal number of new rubber-based products such as tires, belts, and hoses that we sell or install.

We are required to charge a separate and distinct waste rubber management and recycling fee for each new tire we sell. This fee is established by the state department of health.

Any additional tire management and recycling costs are included in the advertised price of the new tire."
