

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSEFifty-ninth Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

Bismarck, March 1, 2005

The House convened at 1:00 p.m., with Speaker Klein presiding.

The prayer was offered by Pastor Keith Ritchie, Cornerstone Community Church, Bismarck.

The roll was called and all members were present except Representatives Kaldor, Kerzman, Price, and Sandvig.

A quorum was declared by the Speaker.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. METCALF: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege and request that my remarks be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

Today is the opening day of the 68th Annual North Dakota Winter Show located in Valley City. The North Dakota Winter Show had its beginning in the middle 30's as a Winter exposition of the agriculture industry in North Dakota with an emphasis on family and youth. Starting as a livestock show, through the years it was supported by every major purebred breeder throughout the state. From its humble beginning using garage and warehouse space in down town Valley City, it has expanded into its current four acres of indoor display area and an arena with 3500 seating capacity for many different types of agricultural exhibits and entertainment features. In the late 70's the livestock shows were opened to the world. Since then, livestock from 27 other states and four countries have been on display or entered into competition. In addition to livestock, the show is noted for its seed show, known to be the largest in the world. Each year, FFA and 4-H members by the hundreds participate in the many judging and showmanship contests. Add activities of special interest for the ladies and you have an all around family fun and educational event second to none.

As times change, so does the Winter Show. It started as a three day show, expanded to a seven day show, advanced to an eleven day show and currently runs for six days starting the first Tuesday of March each year. The North Dakota Winter Show is responsive to the needs of the state as an additional livestock show was added in the first week of December and is known as the North Star Classic. This is rapidly becoming the premier livestock show in the upper midwest.

Many of us think of the Winter Show as a single event and this cannot be farther from the truth. This year more than 20 horse show events will be held throughout the entire year. Every major horse association in the area will be holding shows and contests in the Winter Show Building, probably the finest horse show facility within a four state area. In addition, several 4-H shows have been scheduled together with beef herd production sales, show horse clinics and seminars, wildlife and gun shows and several other large display events. A large part of the show complex also provides the John Deere Seeding Groups with needed room for manufacturing when not required for other activities. This facility has truly become a major influence on the development of economic activity in the Valley City and surrounding area. It currently has five full time employees and has been properly renamed as the Winter Show Events Center.

The Winter Show is also the home for the North Dakota Agriculture Hall of Fame, where many of our leaders are recognized for their contribution to the development and expansion of the agriculture community as we know it today.
