On behalf of Rep. Porter and myself, I would like to congratulate the Mandan High School State Championship 2005 Class A Speech Team.

This is Mandan High School's first speech championship and the first public school to win the championship title in more than eight years. This championship team also consists of 5 individual state champions. These students are very hardworking and committed to this activity. Speech has the longest schedule of any of the high school extra curricular activities. Their season runs from December through April. Again, Mr. Speaker and members of the Assembly, please join me in congratulating this group of fine young men and women and their Coach, Pat Pins for an outstanding achievement winning the State Class A Speech Championship.
