"SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 35-34-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-34-02. Lien for past-due child support. ~~When a past-due child support obligation is at least six times the monthly child support obligation and the an obligor is not current in a court established plan to repay the past due support listed on the arrears registry as defined in section 14-09-09.10, the public authority may establish a lien on personal property as provided in this chapter. Except for liens under section 35-34-05, the amount of a lien under this chapter includes any past-due support that is owed when the lien is perfected and any past-due support that accrues after the lien is perfected.~~

SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Section 35-34-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-34-05. Account lien.

1. In the case of an account maintained in a financial institution, the public authority may establish a lien on the account by serving a notice of lien upon the financial institution in the manner provided for service of a summons in a civil action or in any other manner agreed to by the financial institution. The notice must be in a form prescribed by the public authority and contain the name, social security number, or other taxpayer identification number and last-known address of the obligor, the amount of past-due support for which a lien is claimed, and any other information required by the public authority. The notice of lien must state that the child support obligation is past due and that a copy of the notice of lien has been served on the obligor by first-class mail at the obligor's last-known address.
2. Upon service of the notice of lien on a financial institution in accordance with this section, the lien attaches to accounts of the obligor maintained in the financial institution, ~~except to the extent necessary to~~ and freezes all subsequent withdrawals from the account except for funds in excess of the amount of past-due support for which a lien is claimed under this section and as provided in subsection 3.
3. Notwithstanding a freeze on an account under subsection 2, the financial institution may satisfy any right of setoff which exists in connection with an account, payment orders that were made by the obligor before the financial institution was served with notice of lien, or other obligations of the obligor based upon written agreements or instruments made or issued by the obligor before the financial institution was served with notice of lien.
- ~~3.~~ 4. A lien under this section is perfected when the financial institution is served with notice of the lien.

SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 35-34-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

35-34-09. Immunity from liability. A person in possession of, or obligated with respect to, property, who, upon demand of the public authority, surrenders the property ~~or discharges the obligation to the public authority, complies with section 35-34-12, or otherwise acts in good faith to comply with the requirements in this chapter, is immune from suit or any liability to the obligor or other person arising from the surrender or payment under any federal or state law.~~ The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs against any person who commences an action that is subsequently dismissed by reason of the immunity granted by this section."

"SECTION 16. A new section to chapter 50-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Child support arrears registry. The state case registry maintained under section 50-09-02.4 must include a registry of any obligor who owes past-due support in an amount greater than two times the obligor's current or most recent monthly support obligation as defined in section 14-09-09.10 or two thousand dollars, whichever is less. As used in this chapter, "arrears registry" means the registry maintained under this section.

SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 50-09-08.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. The state agency, directly or through agents and child support agencies, may withhold, restrict, or suspend one or more licenses issued to:
  - a. A person who has failed, after receiving proper notice, to comply with a subpoena relating to a paternity or child support matter;
  - b. An obligor who is ~~in arrears in child support in an amount greater than three times the obligor's current or most recent monthly child support obligation or five thousand dollars, whichever is less~~ listed on the arrears registry; or
  - c. An obligor who is not in compliance with an existing payment plan that has been negotiated between the obligor and the state agency under this section or in exchange for the state agency refraining from taking an enforcement action against the obligor.

SECTION 18. A new section to chapter 50-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Child support deduction order.

1. The state agency, directly or through agents or child support agencies, may issue an order requiring an income payer to deduct the amount identified in the order from the portion of any lump sum payment to an obligor that has been withheld under section 14-09-09.34.
2. The state agency, directly or through agents or child support agencies, may issue an order requiring a financial institution to deduct the amount identified in the order from any account of the obligor maintained in the financial institution.
3. The state agency shall serve the order on the income payer or financial institution in the manner provided for service of a summons in a civil action or in any other manner agreed to by the income payer or financial institution. The state agency shall serve a copy of the order upon the obligor by first-class mail to the obligor's last-known address, along with a notice of the obligor's right to claim that the property is exempt from legal process under section 28-22-02, the right to request an informal review by the state agency within ten days of the date of the notice, and the right of the obligor and any other aggrieved person to a review by a court under section 50-09-14. If an informal review is requested under this subsection, the time for requesting a review by a court under section 50-09-14 does not expire until thirty days after the informal review is completed.
4. The income payer or financial institution shall deduct the amount identified in the order or the balance of the account, whichever is less, and transmit the funds to the state disbursement unit within seven business days of the date the order is served.
5. An order issued under this section has priority over any other legal process against the same account, except to the extent necessary to satisfy any right of setoff which exists in connection with an account, payment orders that were made by the obligor before the financial institution was served with the order, or other obligations of the obligor based upon written agreements or instruments made or issued by the obligor before the financial institution was served with the order.
6. An income payer or financial institution may also withhold and retain an additional sum of three dollars from the obligor's account or from the amount retained under section 14-09-09.34 to cover expenses involved in transmitting payment.

7. An income payer or financial institution receiving an order under this section is subject to the same duties and liabilities as an income payer under section 14-09-09.3 unless the context indicates otherwise and is immune from suit or liability for complying with an order under this section.

SECTION 19. A new section to chapter 50-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Protest period. Except as authorized by the obligor, the state agency shall hold any funds collected under section 28-21-05.2 or section 18 of this Act and may not disburse the funds as a collection of child support until the time has expired for requesting a review by a court under section 50-09-14 or the conclusion of the review, whichever is later. Interest does not accrue under section 28-20-34 after the funds are received by the state agency.

SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 50-09-32 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. To the extent permitted by federal law, the state agency may disclose information to the public about a parent whose location is unknown or about an obligor who is listed on the arrears registry and owes past-due child support in an amount greater than ~~twenty-five~~ ten thousand dollars, including the person's name, last-known address, date of birth, occupation, photograph, amount of child support owed, the number and ages of the children for whom support is owed, and any other information that would assist in locating the person."
