

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Sixtieth Legislative Assembly

* * * * *

Bismarck, March 12, 2007

The House convened at 1:00 p.m., with Speaker Delzer presiding.

The prayer was offered by Pastor Steve Sathre with Trinity Lutheran Church, Bismarck.

The roll was called and all members were present except Representatives Kingsbury, S. Meyer, and Mueller.

A quorum was declared by the Speaker.

CORRECTION AND REVISION OF THE JOURNAL

MR. SPEAKER: Your Committee on Correction and Revision of the Journal (Rep. Kretschmar, Chairman) has carefully examined the Journal of the Forty-fifth Day and recommends that it be corrected as follows and when so corrected, recommends that it be approved:

Page 932, line 23, replace the second "12.1-17-01.1" with "12.1-17-07.1"

REP. KRETSCHMAR MOVED that the report be adopted, which motion prevailed.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR JOHN HOEVEN

This is to inform you that on March 9, 2007, I have signed the following: HB 1069, HB 1109, HB 1172, HB 1213, HB 1232, HB 1235, HB 1238, HB 1268, HB 1281, HB 1305, HB 1313, HB 1338, HB 1342, HB 1408, HB 1413, HB 1470, HB 1500, and HB 1514.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

REP. R. KELSCH: Mr. Speaker: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

Rep. Todd Porter, and I, a mother of one of the players on the Mandan Braves Girls Baseball Team, are proud to honor the team, the coaches and the Mandan girls' basketball program.

Last year shortly after winning a record breaking fourth straight Class "A" Title and record breaking 7th state title overall, the Mandan Girls started their "Drive for 5". The girls worked hard during the off season, and competed in tournaments in North Dakota, Wisconsin, Montana, South Dakota, and California.

On Saturday, March 10, 2007, the Mandan Braves Girls Basketball Team successfully completed their "Drive for 5", winning their Fifth - Straight North Dakota Class "A" Basketball Championship, and 8th title overall.

This year the Mandan Braves posted a record of 24 wins and 1 loss, and won 23 straight games. Over the Christmas break the Mandan Girls won the Energy Classic Tournament in Gillette, Wyoming, which included top ranked teams from Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, and Utah.

As a result of this success, the Mandan Girls Basketball Team became the first North Dakota team to be ranked in the Top 25 Teams in the country by Sports Illustrated.

Mandan Coach Greg Amundson, and the Mandan Girls Basketball team have been in 11 out of the last 12 State Championship games, and have won 7 Championships in the last 8 years.

Mandan Senior Jessica Kielpinski, was named North Dakota Miss Basketball, and Jessica, Cassandra Kelsch and Allie Collins were named to the "All-Tournament Team".

Over the last five years the Mandan Braves have a record of 116 wins and 9 losses. District 34, the City of Mandan, and the State of North Dakota are very proud of each of you and your accomplishments. Congratulations to the Mandan Girls Basketball team on achieving your "Drive for 5".

REQUEST

REP. MONSON REQUESTED that the remarks of Rep. R. Kelsch be printed in the Journal, which request was granted.

Page 1, line 1, after "A BILL" replace the remainder of the bill with "for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 15.1-23 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to violations of the home education chapter; to amend and reenact sections 15.1-23-03, 15.1-23-05, 15.1-23-06, 15.1-23-09, 15.1-23-10, 15.1-23-11, 15.1-23-12, and 15.1-23-13 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the provision of home education; and to provide a penalty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-03. Home education - Parental qualifications. A parent may supervise home education if the parent:

1. Is licensed to teach by the education standards and practices board or approved to teach by the education standards and practices board;
2. Holds a baccalaureate degree;
3. Has met or exceeded the ~~cut-off state's qualifying score of a national teacher examination given in this state or in any other state if this state does not offer such a~~ on the preprofessional skills test; or
4. Meets the requirements of section 15.1-23-06.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-05. Home education - Academic records. A parent supervising home education shall maintain an annual record of courses taken by the child and the child's academic progress assessments, including the results of any standardized achievement test results or state assessment. If the child transfers to a public school district, the parent shall furnish the record, upon request, to the school district superintendent or other administrator.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-06. Home education - Required monitoring of progress. A parent who has a high school diploma or a general education development certificate may supervise home education but must be monitored in accordance with section 15.1-23-07 for the first two years. If a child receiving home education obtains either a below grade level proficiency score in any subject tested on the state assessment or a basic composite standardized achievement test score below the fiftieth percentile nationally, in any subject tested on an alternative assessment specified in section 15.1-23-09, the parent must be monitored for at least one additional school year and until the child receives a test score at or above the fiftieth percentile on an alternative assessment allowed under section 15.1-23-09. If testing is not required by section 15.1-23-07 during the first two years of monitoring, the period of monitoring may not be extended, except upon the mutual consent of the parent and the monitor or as provided for in section 9 of this Act. If a parent completes the monitoring requirements of this section for one child, the parent may not be monitored with respect to other children for whom the parent supervises home education, except as provided for in section 9 of this Act.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-09. Home education - ~~Standardized achievement test~~ Required tests.

1. While in grades ~~three, four, six, eight, and ten~~ eleven, each child receiving home education shall ~~take a standardized achievement test used by the school district in which the child resides or, if requested by the parent, shall:~~
 - a. Take the state assessment, as provided in section 15.1-21-08; or
 - b. At the option of the child's parent, take a nationally normed standardized achievement test.
2. The child shall take the state assessment or the achievement test in the child's learning environment or, if requested by the child's parent, in a public school. An individual licensed to teach by the education standards and practices board or approved to teach by the education standards and practices board shall administer the test.

SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-10. Home education - ~~Standardized achievement test~~ Required tests - Cost.

1. If a child receiving home education takes the ~~standardized achievement test used by the school district in which the child resides~~ state assessment, the child's school district of residence is responsible for the cost of the ~~test~~ assessment and for the cost of administering the ~~test~~ assessment. The school district shall ensure that the ~~test~~ assessment is administered by an individual who is employed by the district and who is licensed to teach by the education standards and practices board or approved to teach by the education standards and practices board.
 - a. If the child takes a nationally normed standardized achievement test ~~not used by the school district in which the child resides~~, the child's parent is responsible for the cost of the test:
 - b. ~~The and the cost of administering a the test under this subsection is the responsibility of the child's parent if the test is administered by an individual who is selected by the parent. An individual selected by the child's parent to administer a test under this subsection. The test administrator selected by the child's parent must be licensed to teach~~ by the education standards and practices board or approved to teach by the education standards and practices board.

- e. ~~b.~~ ~~The cost of administering a test under this subsection is the responsibility of the school district if, at the request of the child's parent, the school district administers the test. The school district shall ensure that the test is administered by an individual who is employed by the district and who is licensed to teach by the education standards and practices board or approved to teach by the education standards and practices board.~~ child's parent is also responsible for the cost of having the test graded by the testing company.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-11. Home education - State assessment - Standardized achievement test - Results.

1. A parent supervising the child's home education shall file the results of the child's state assessment or standardized achievement test with the superintendent of the district in which the child resides or with the county superintendent if the district does not employ a superintendent.
2. ~~If the child's basic composite score on a standardized achievement test is less than the thirtieth percentile nationally~~ a child receiving home education obtains either a score in the lowest achievement level of the state assessment or a score below the thirtieth percentile on a nationally normed standardized achievement test, as specified in section 15.1-23-09, a multidisciplinary assessment team shall assess the child for a potential learning problem under rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction.
3. If the multidisciplinary assessment team determines that the child is not disabled and the child's parent wishes to continue home education, the parent, with the advice and consent of an individual who is licensed to teach by the education standards and practices board or approved to teach by the education standards and practices board, shall prepare a remediation plan to address the child's academic deficiencies and file the plan with the superintendent of the school district or with the county superintendent if the district does not employ a superintendent. The parent is responsible for any costs associated with the development of the remediation plan. If the parent fails to file a remediation plan, the parent is deemed to be in violation of compulsory school attendance provisions and may no longer supervise the home education of the child.

SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-12. Home education - Remediation plan. The superintendent of the school district shall use the remediation plan required by section 15.1-23-11 as the basis for determining reasonable academic progress. The remediation plan must remain in effect until such time as the child achieves ~~on a standardized achievement test a basic composite~~ a score above the lowest achievement level on every subject tested on the state assessment, a score at or above the thirtieth percentile on every subject tested on a nationally normed standardized achievement test, as specified in section 15.1-23-09, or a score, which when compared to the previous year's test score, demonstrates one year of academic progress. At the option of the parent, the test may be one required by section 15.1-23-09 or one administered in a higher grade level. The child's parent, with the advice and consent of an individual who is licensed to teach by the education standards and practices board or who is approved to teach by the education standards and practices board, may amend the remediation plan from time to time in order to accommodate the child's academic needs. If after a remediation plan is no longer in effect the child fails to demonstrate reasonable academic progress on a subsequent test required by this section, a remediation plan must again be developed and implemented.

SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

15.1-23-13. Home education - Disabilities - Services plan.

1. a. If a multidisciplinary assessment team, using eligibility criteria established by the superintendent of public instruction, determines that the child is disabled, that the child requires specially designed instruction due to the disability, and that this instruction cannot be provided without special education and related services, the parent may continue to supervise the child's home education, provided that:
 - (1) The parent files with the school district superintendent a services plan that was developed privately or through the school district; and
 - (2) The services plan demonstrates that the child's special needs are being addressed by persons qualified to provide special education or related services.
- b. If the multidisciplinary team determines that the child has a developmental disability, the parent may continue to supervise home education under the provisions of sections 15.1-23-14 and 15.1-23-15.
2. Annually, the superintendent of the child's school district of residence shall determine reasonable academic progress based on the child's services plan.
3. If a parent fails to file a services plan as required by this section, the parent is deemed to be in violation of the compulsory school attendance provisions and may no longer supervise the home education of the child.
4. A child who was once evaluated by a multidisciplinary assessment team need not be reevaluated for a potential learning problem ~~upon scoring below the thirtieth percentile on a subsequent standardized achievement test~~ unless the reevaluation is performed pursuant to the child's services plan.

SECTION 9. A new section to chapter 15.1-23 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Violation of chapter - Penalty. If the superintendent of public instruction determines, after a hearing as provided for in chapter 28-32, that a child's parent has violated a provision of this chapter, unless otherwise provided, the superintendent shall direct the child's school district of residence to monitor the parent for a period of one year. If the parent is already being monitored under section 15.1-23-06, the superintendent shall direct the child's school district of residence to extend the monitoring of the parent for a period of one additional year. The child's parent is responsible for the cost of any monitoring required by this section."
