1		d. "Qualified nonprofit organization" means a North Dakota incorporated or
2		established tax-exempt organization under 26 U.S.C. 501(c) with an
3		established business presence or situs in North Dakota.
4	2.	An individual taxpayer is allowed a tax credit against the taxes tax imposed by
5		section 57-38-29 or 57-38-30.3 in an amount equal to twenty forty percent of the
6		present value of the aggregate amount of the charitable gift portion of planned gifts
7		made by the taxpayer during the year to any North Dakota a qualified nonprofit
8		organization or qualified endowment. The maximum credit that may be claimed by 9		a taxpayer under this subsection for contributions made from all sources in a
10		taxable year is five ten thousand dollars, or twenty thousand dollars for married
11		individuals filing a joint return. The credit allowed under this section may not
12		exceed the taxpayer's income tax liability.
13		a. If this credit is claimed, the amount of the contribution upon which the credit is
14		computed must be added to federal taxable income in computing North
15		Dakota taxable income, but only to the extent that the contribution reduced
16		federal taxable income.
17		b. The credit must be applied to the tax year in which the contribution is made
18		and any unused portion of the credit may be carried forward for up to two
19		taxable years.
20	3.	A corporation is allowed a tax credit against the tax imposed by section 57-38-30
21		in an amount equal to forty percent of a charitable gift to a qualified endowment.
22		The maximum credit that may be claimed by a corporation under this subsection
23		for contributions made in a taxable year is ten thousand dollars. The credit
24		allowed under this section may not exceed the corporate taxpayer's income tax
25		liability.
26	4.	An estate or trust is allowed a tax credit in an amount equal to forty percent of a
27		charitable gift to a qualified endowment. The maximum credit allowed under this 28		subsection for contributions made in a taxable year is ten thousand dollars. The
29		allowable credit must be apportioned to the estate or trust and to its beneficiaries
30		on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each, and the
31		beneficiaries may claim their share of the credit against the tax imposed by section

Sixtieth Legislative Assembly

1		57-38-29, 57-38-30, or 57-38-30.3. A beneficiary may claim the credit only in the
2		beneficiary's taxable year in which the taxable year of the estate or trust ends.
3		Subsections 6 and 7 apply to the estate or trust and its beneficiaries with respect
4		to their respective shares of the apportioned credit.
5	5.	A partnership, subchapter S corporation, or limited liability company treated like a
6		partnership is entitled to a credit in an amount equal to forty percent of a charitable
7		gift to a qualified endowment by the entity during the taxable year. The maximum
8		credit allowed to the entity under this subsection for charitable gifts and planned
9		gifts made in a taxable year is ten thousand dollars. The credit determined at the 10		entity level must be passed through to the partners, shareholders, or members in 11		the same proportion that the charitable contributions attributable to the charitable
12		gifts and planned gifts under this section are distributed to the partners,
13		shareholders, or members. The partner, shareholder, or member may claim the 14		credit only in the partner's, shareholder's, or member's taxable year in which the
15		taxable year of the partnership, subchapter S corporation, or limited liability
16		company ends. Subsections 6 and 7 apply to the partner, shareholder, or
17		member.
18	6.	The amount of the contribution upon which an allowable credit is computed must
19		be added to federal taxable income in computing North Dakota taxable income in 20		the taxable year in which the credit is first claimed, but only to the extent that the 21		contribution reduced federal taxable income.
22	7.	An unused credit may be carried forward for up to three taxable years.
23	8.	If a contribution for which a credit was claimed is recovered by the taxpayer, an
24		amount equal to the credit claimed in all taxable years must be added to the tax
25		due on the income tax return filed for the taxable year in which the recovery
26		occurs. For purposes of subsection 4, this subsection applies if the estate or trust
27		recovers the contribution and the estate or trust and its beneficiaries are liable for
28		the additional tax due with respect to their respective shares of the apportioned
29		credit. For purposes of subsection 5, this subsection applies if the partnership,
30		subchapter S corporation, or limited liability company recovers the contribution,
31		and the partner, shareholder, or member is liable for the additional tax due.
